Ottawa. — Hon. Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Health and Welfare will speak on Sunday, Feb. 3, at 4:03 p.m. over the CBC Trans-Canada network, when he officially opens National Health Week. He will speak on behalf of the Health League of Canada which is sponsoring this special week.

Mr. Claxton, who represents a Montreal constituency in the Dominion Government, has had a distinguished career in public and private affairs. A McGill University graduate in law, he was appointed K.C. in 1939. He represented Canada at two sessions of the UNRRA as well as at the International Labour Conference held in Philadelphia in 1944.

In his address Mr. Claxton will deal with the public health factor in venereal disease control and draw special attention to the observance of Social Hygiene Day on February 6.

CBC Chairman Will Tour Prairie Cities

Following the meeting of the CBC Board of Governors at Vancouver, January 27-29, the chairman of the Board, A. Davidson Dunton, of Montreal, accompanied by George R. Young, CBC supervisor of station relations, will make a tour of the principal cities of the prairies between February 6 and 20. This is Mr. Dunton's first visit to the Prairie Region since his appointment as chairman.

Itinerary

Leaving Vancouver on February 5, following a brief visit to Victoria, Mr. Dunton will arrive at Edmonton February 6, remaining until the evening of the 8th, when he will leave for Calgary. Arriving at Calgary at 10:20 p.m. on the 8th, he will remain until the evening of the 11th, when he will leave for Regina. He will stay two days in Regina, leaving on the evening of the 13th for Saskatoon, which he will reach at 10:30 the same evening. He will leave Saskatoon at 6:00 p.m. on the 15th for Winnipeg, where he will stay from the 16th to the 20th. He is scheduled to address the Canadian Club in Winnipeg on February 18.

Harmony Harbour

Two vocal stars meet in "Harmony Harbour" for the listening pleasure of CBC Trans-Canada network listeners on Sundays at T-C 9:45 a.m. They are DORIS DUNLOP, contralto soloist of concert hall and radio, and JOHN NEWMAN, baritone, who casually auditioned for radio one day in the mid-thirties and has been devoting his talents to the microphone ever since. Both artists broadcast from Halifax.

Klemperer To Conduct "Muskox Diary" Will Cover Northern Ops.

Vancouver. — Otto Klemperer, a musician whose name is synonymous with the grand tradition in symphonic music and a man who has been acclaimed as one of the five truly great conductors of the world, will appear as guest conductor of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra for its next concert on Sunday, February 3. The latter portion of the program will be carried nationwide over the CBC Trans-Canada network from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

A capacity audience is expected in the theatre on this occasion, for press reports from many American cities this season consistently refer to Klemperer's extraordinary ability to inspire symphonic orchestras to new heights of artistic intensity.

Musical director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic for six years, the conductor came to the United States from Germany, where he directed the Berlin State Opera. He enjoys the distinction of being one of the

An on-the-spot narrative account of "Exercise Muskox," Canada's full-scale scientific and military expedition through the Northwest Territories and the Arctic, is to be broadcast to Canadian listeners coast to coast by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in a series of reports titled Muskox Diary. The reports, beginning early in February and extending into May, will be included in the regular news feature, CBC News Roundup, broadcast Monday to Friday, at 9:15 p.m., over the CBC Trans-Canada network.

While press and radio correspondents are not being included in the personnel of the expedition, they will be accommodated at the permanent base camp at Churchill and later at Norman Wells. The CBC has arranged for regular voice reports by Flt. Lt. Ron Gadsby, R.C.A.F. public relations officer with the expedition.

Setting out on "Exercise Muskox" from the first base at Churchill,

Reports Shortwave Reception Improved

Reception of overseas programs for rebroadcasting over CBC networks has been greatly improved in recent years, according to Charles P. Wright, manager of Station CBO, CBC's Ottawa station, who was a visitor to Prairie Region headquarters at Winnipeg last week. Mr. Wright was formerly senior producer at CBC Winnipeg.

The establishment of CBC short-wave receiving stations at Ottawa, Hornby, Ont., and Dartmouth, N.S., has brought about the improvement, Mr. Wright said. Engineering experience has shown that short-wave reception varies on various days in various localities. Reception might be bad at Ottawa on one day, and good at Dartmouth, or vice versa. When neither Dartmouth nor Ottawa got good reception, Hornby might find conditions quite favourable.

A system of comparative reception quality has been worked out among the engineers, for programs which are recorded for rebroadcasting, such as Dominion Special (Sundays, 10:30 p.m.); and others. There are four factors considered—signal strength; fading—atmospheric difficulties; interferences — other stations; and overall merit. Five points are given for each. If a short-wave program received from BBC registered 5-5-5-5, it would be perfect. A score of 4-5-5 in the first three would bring the over-all merit down to 4. The receiving station with the highest score

CBC General Manager Visits Prairie Region

Dr. Augustin Frigon, general manager of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, visited CBC's Prairie Region headquarters at Winnipeg last week, en route to Vancouver, where he attended the meeting of the CBC's Board of Governors, January 27-29.

Immediately after the Board meeting, Dr. Frigon left by plane for Montreal, where he will rest briefly before proceeding to Washington for an international technical conference on radio. The conference was called at the request of Cuba, and will consider a new revision of the Havana Treaty governing wave-length allocations in North America.

CHAMBER MUSIC (T-C 10:30 a.m.)

The Parlow String Quartet will broadcast the first program in a new series of chamber music recitals. The group, composed of Kathleen Parlow and Samuel Hersenhoren, violinists; Michael Barton, viola; and Isaac Mamott, cellist, will play Mozart's Quartet for Strings in G Major. This Quartet was one of six that the composer dedicated to Joseph Haydn. It was written when Mozart became a quartet composer. His works as such fall into two sharply defined groups; the fifteen early quartets, all from the beginning of the 1770's; and the ten celebrated "great" quartets which began in 1783 with the "G Major Quartet" to be played this week.

THE WAY OF THE SPIRIT (11:30 a.m.)

"The Woman of Samaria" is the title of the biblical drama today.

SUNDAY NIGHT SHOW (9:30 p.m.)

Lucienne Delval, popular French song stylist, will return to the "Sunday Night Show" solo microphone, tonight. Sharing guest honours with her will be a seventeen-year-old trumpet sensation, Maynard Ferguson. Lucienne recently returned to Montreal after a lengthy sojourn in New York where she appeared over the NBC Blue in a series of popular song recitals. One of her longest radio series from the Montreal studios was "Along the Boulevards" which ran for several years. This is her second appearance since her return to Montreal. Maynard Ferguson, whose trumpet wizardry has been startling musical Montreal for some time will play "Trumpet Concerto," written especially for the occasion by Producer Rusty Davis. Allan McIver conducts the orchestra.

ROY LOCKSLEY CONDUCTS (10:30 p.m.)

Myfanwy Evans, youthful Winnipeg contralto who is a regular contributor to this program, and who was one of the "Singing Stars of Tomorrow" heard last week from Toronto, has chosen two celebrated songs for tonight — Softly Awakes My Heart, from Saint-Saens' opera Samson and Delilah; and Quiet Wood, by Brahms. The orchestral program includes a number of familiar airs from the classics: Ruy Blas (Mendelssohn); Sleeping Beauty Waltz (Tchaikowsky); The Gnomes March, from In A Fairy Realm (Ketelby); Caprice Viennois (Kreisler); Hora Staccato (Dinicu-Hel-

New Commentators On World Church News

Dr. Gallagher to represent Canadian Churches at Geneva during February

Toronto.—Dr. W. J. Gallagher, commentator of the CBC program "World Church News" since its inception in November, 1944, will be in Switzerland during the month of February, where he will represent Canada at the meetings of the World Council of Churches being held in Geneva. Dr. Gallagher is secretary of the Canadian committee of the Council, an organization concerned with the development of the world church.

Two prominent clergymen will act as commentators on "World Church News" during Dr. Gallagher's absence. The Rev. E. H. Johnson, secretary of the missionary education committee for the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will conduct the program on Mondays, February 4 and 11, at 3:30 p.m., over the CBC Trans-Canada network. On February 18 and 25 the commentator will be the Rev. Dr. A. Harding Priest, associate secretary of the general board of religious education of the Church of England in Canada.

While in Geneva, Dr. Gallagher will also attend meetings of the International Missionary Conference, which are being held concurrently with those of the World Council. Upon his return to Canada in March he will report on the outcome of the conference in his CBC broadcasts.

The program, "World Church News" was launched by the CBC in 1944 as the first broadcast series about the work of the Christian Church ever to go on a Canadian network. Dr. Gallagher planned his weekly talks as an up-to-date account of Christian organizations wherever they exist, and of the enterprises undertaken by their members.

The CBC plans to continue the series indefinitely as a service to listeners across the Dominion.

Rejoins CBC After Four Years In Signals

Captain O. R. Smith, formerly a CBC operator in Vancouver and now rejoining the CBC's engineering staff, was a visitor to CBC's Prairie Region headquarters at Winnipeg last week. Captain Smith spent four years in army signals, serving in Italy and northwestern Europe. He was en route to Montreal, where he will be attached to the CBC's International Shortwave Service.

Mrs. Smith accompanied Captain Smith.

CLASSICS FOR TODAY (T-C 11:00 p.m.)

The first and last movements from Dvorak's American String Quartet Opus 96, and Bartok's Divertimento, are the featured works tonight. Jean de Rimanoczy directs the string orchestra.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary of Broadcast of January 27, 1946.

Seeds That Should Be Started Early:

It pays to have facilities for starting some plants early. In our short season climate we must lengthen the season if we're to grow some crops at all. In addition we need early started plants to give us vegetables and flowers over a longer period than would otherwise be possible.

1. Vegetables:

(a) Lettuce is a cool season crop. Sow leaf lettuce such as Grand Rapids March 15, prick off into flats in April and set out in a frame or in the garden for a June crop. Head lettuce (New York No. 12) sown indoors March 31 and transplanted to the garden May 20 will provide heads early in July. May King may be used as a still earlier variety. You must experiment to discover varieties best suited to your district.

(b) Onions are seeded indoors if extra large bulbs for exhibition or winter use are desired. Ailsa Craig, Giant Yellow Prizetaker and Sweet Spanish Riverside are suitable varieties. Sow in February in pots, transplant into flats the end of March and set out in the garden in mid-May. Imported transplants sown last fall outdoors in a mild climate may be used also.

(c) Tomatoes: Use varieties recommended for the Prairie Region and make inquiries about the best ones for your locality. By growing a number of varieties such as Chatham, Bounty, N.D.A.C. No. 38, John Baer, Bonny Best and Stokesdale, one or more may fit the district and season. A selection of Redskin makes a good early. If growing only one variety stick to one you've found satisfactory. Test the new hybrid varieties but not for main crop until proved suitable in your own garden. Sow seeds to produce sturdy plants coming into bloom at setting out time. Setting out time is when the ground is warm and spring frosts over. Michigan State Forcing is a good variety for growing in the greenhouse during the summer. Sow seeds February 1 and grow on in pots.

(d) Cabbage: Best early green—Golden Acre. Sow indoors April 1 for July heading. Red Acre is a choice early red. Danish Ballhead is a standard main crop variety. Golden Acre also may be sown in the garden May 15 for fall use.

(e) Cauliflower: Selections of Snowball are still best for early use in most districts. Dry Weather and Dwarf Erfurt are good late varieties. Snowball may be sown indoors April 1 for early heads and outdoors in the garden May 20 for later.

(f) Celery: Utah sown early (Mar. 15) makes good heads in August. If frames are available for early transplants a sowing may be made

MORNING DEVOTIONS (9:45 a.m.)

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday this week the morning devotional period will be conducted by Hon. Major R. Wilkes, of M.D. 10, who has recently returned from service abroad as a padre.

CBC COOKING SCHOOL OF THE AIR (3:18 p.m.)

Cream puff cases are easier to make than pie paste according to Eustella Langdon, the CBC's Cooking School of the Air instructor, who will give the exact procedure in the making of these delectable pastries in her fifth lesson today. Cream puff cases can be put to many uses. To mention a few, they can be used instead of sandwiches, filled with creamed fish for supper or various fills for dessert.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

The merry gentlemen of old time swing get their program underway with "St. Anne's Reel." Charlie Chamberlain, the singing Islander, sings the plaintive little ballad "Those Tears in Your Eyes Were Little White Lies" and "The Rose of Tralee." The band continue with "The Little Black Moustache," "Clara's Polka," "The Hundred Pipers" and "The New Brunswick Breakdown."

I Deal In Crime

"I Deal In Crime" is an ABC program heard on CBC's Dominion network on Mondays at 8 p.m. WILLIAM GARGAN, popular screen actor, plays the leading role—that of a hard-hitting sleuth.

MIRROR FOR WOMEN (5:15 p.m.)

The Art of Weaving will be the theme of this month's Mirror For Women programs, heard over western stations of the CBC's Trans-Canada network on Monday afternoons at 5:15 p.m. Alice Borden will be the speaker on February 4, taking for her subject Weaving, An Ancient Art. Subsequent speakers will be Grace Wormald, Laura Hunter, and Anita Engle.

ISABELLE McEWAN SINGS (6:00 p.m.)

CBC Trans-Canada network listeners hear the program "Isabelle McEwan Sings" at a new time. Originally presented on Tuesdays, the broadcast moves to Mondays at 6:00 p.m. For tonight's program, Miss McEwan has chosen Jerome Kern's I've Told Every Little Star, Gypsy Moon, and Sweet Song of Long Ago. The ensemble, directed by Cardo Smalley, accompanies Miss McEwan, and will offer as well Felice Canzonetta, and Just-A-Jem.

ELECTRIC HOUR (Dom. 7:00 p.m.)

Another in the series of great Canadian achievements, the story of the first trolley pole, will be related tonight. The guest artist for the evening will be Charles Jordan, baritone, who will sing "Strange Music" from the Broadway musical success, "Song of Norway," and "It Might As Well Be Spring." The 40-piece orchestra, conducted by Paul Scherman, has chosen selections from Victor Herbert's "The Red Mill," Scherzo from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mendelssohn, and the lively "Russian Sailor's Dance" from the ballet, "Red Poppy" by Clere. The narrative portions of the program will be read by John Drainie.

RHYTHM AND ROMANCE (7:45 p.m.)

Parks and Burdett, Winnipeg duo pianists, and Maxine Ware, vocalist, are heard in this series. Miss Ware will sing tonight: But I Did; On the Sunny Side of the Street; and Just a Shanty In Old Shanty Town. The piano numbers are: Serenade For a Wealthy Widow; Lady of Madrid; and Nobody's Sweetheart.

AFTER DARK (Dom. 9:45 p.m.)

When CBC Dominion network listeners hear the strains of The Hour of Parting, it means that Dal Richards and his Sentimental Seven are on the air with another half hour program of smooth rhythms. Dal himself is heard in the vocals, and this week his selections include These Foolish Things, and That's For Me. Offering of the Sentimental Seven is Don't Blame Me, and the Latin American number for this occasion is La Cucuracha, with Dal handling the claves, and wife Beryl Boden, the maracas.

THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER (T-C 10:00 p.m.)

Thelma Jetmundson Bialuski will be heard as vocalist with Jimmy Gowler and the orchestra tonight. She will sing two Norwegian folk-songs—Kjaerringa Med Staven; and Per Spelmann, Han Hadde ei Einaste Ku. The orchestral arrangements for both songs are by Frank Simon, Winnipeg harpist and regular performer with CBC orchestras. Gowler's program includes: Round the Corner; Rock Valley Jig; Pas D'Espagnol; Ferry Bridge Hornpipe; The Grasshopper Polka; the Oxford Minuet, and The Crooked Stovepipe.

DON'T LEAVE IT TO GEORGE (11:00 p.m.)

A series emphasizing the responsibilities of citizens in a democracy. This week's subject is: "You Can't Put a Price-Tag on Kids."

THE PLAY SHOP (11:15 p.m.)

Each of the brief plays in this series by Ray Darby features one of Winnipeg's leading radio actors or actresses. Tonight Beth Lockerbie is in the spotlight, portraying a selfish, neurotic woman who, through indulgence in self-pity over imaginary wrongs, eventually brings about her own downfall. Entitled "Not Even A Heart," this is the second presentation by The Play Shop, which operates under the direction of Esse W. Ljungh.

The merry gentlemen of old time swing get their program underway with "St. Anne's Reel." Charlie Chamberlain, the singing Islander, sings the plaintive little ballad "Those Tears in Your Eyes Were Little White Lies" and "The Rose of Tralee." The band continue with "The Little Black Moustache," "Clara's Polka," "The Hundred Pipers" and "The New Brunswick Breakdown."

The ensemble, directed by Cardo Smalley, accompanies Miss McEwan, and will offer as well Felice Canzonetta, and Just-A-Jem.

ELECTRIC HOUR (Dom. 7:00 p.m.)

Another in the series of great Canadian achievements, the story of the first trolley pole, will be related tonight. The guest artist for the evening will be Charles Jordan, baritone, who will sing "Strange Music" from the Broadway musical success, "Song of Norway," and "It Might As Well Be Spring." The 40-piece orchestra, conducted by Paul Scherman, has chosen selections from Victor Herbert's "The Red Mill," Scherzo from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mendelssohn, and the lively "Russian Sailor's Dance" from the ballet, "Red Poppy" by Clere. The narrative portions of the program will be read by John Drainie.

Parks and Burdett, Winnipeg duo pianists, and Maxine Ware, vocalist, are heard in this series. Miss Ware will sing tonight: But I Did; On the Sunny Side of the Street; and Just a Shanty In Old Shanty Town. The piano numbers are: Serenade For a Wealthy Widow; Lady of Madrid; and Nobody's Sweetheart.

AFTER DARK (Dom. 9:45 p.m.)

When CBC Dominion network listeners hear the strains of The Hour of Parting, it means that Dal Richards and his Sentimental Seven are on the air with another half hour program of smooth rhythms. Dal himself is heard in the vocals, and this week his selections include These Foolish Things, and That's For Me. Offering of the Sentimental Seven is Don't Blame Me, and the Latin American number for this occasion is La Cucuracha, with Dal handling the claves, and wife Beryl Boden, the maracas.

THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER (T-C 10:00 p.m.)

The orchestral arrangements for both songs are by Frank Simon, Winnipeg harpist and regular performer with CBC orchestras. Gowler's program includes: Round the Corner; Rock Valley Jig; Pas D'Espagnol; Ferry Bridge Hornpipe; The Grasshopper Polka; the Oxford Minuet, and The Crooked Stovepipe.

DON'T LEAVE IT TO GEORGE (11:00 p.m.)

A series emphasizing the responsibilities of citizens in a democracy. This week's subject is: "You Can't Put a Price-Tag on Kids."

THE PLAY SHOP (11:15 p.m.)

Each of the brief plays in this series by Ray Darby features one of Winnipeg's leading radio actors or actresses. Tonight Beth Lockerbie is in the spotlight, portraying a selfish, neurotic woman who, through indulgence in self-pity over imaginary wrongs, eventually brings about her own downfall. Entitled "Not Even A Heart," this is the second presentation by The Play Shop, which operates under the direction of Esse W. Ljungh.

GYPSY STRINGS (11:30 p.m.)

Soprano Judy Wright is featured vocalist with the Gypsy Strings ensemble, directed by Cardo Smalley. From A Russian Village, Traditional Gypsy Song, Gypsy Love Waltzes, and a medley of Hungarian Airs will be offered tonight.

YOUR MUSIC (6:00 p.m.)

When Russ Gerow gets some blank music manuscript paper beside him on the piano bench, and a pencil in his hand, the result is an arrangement that makes radio fans stop and listen. CBC Trans-Canada network listeners will have a chance to hear a number of the distinctive Gerow arrangements in this new series. The program will feature Russ Gerow's orchestra, contralto Joan Green, tenor Frank Rockwood, and the "Voices of Harmony"—a seven-voice choir.

LEICESTER SQUARE TO BROADWAY (9:30 p.m.)

With its change to a new time, Tuesday nights at 9:30 p.m. the CBC's popular west coast show "Leicester Square To Broadway" is once more heard across the nation on the facilities of the Trans-Canada network. Producer Roy Dunlop conjures up the atmosphere of the Mississippi and the days of the showboat in his program for tonight. Baritone singing star Bill Carr offers The Honey-suckle And The Bee and On The Mississippi, and joins with the Barbershop Quartet for a special new arrangement of the old time favourite When The Springtime Brings The Roses, Jessie Dear. In similar mood the orchestra plays Missouri Rag, and selections from Our Miss Gibbs, and soprano songstress Isabelle McEwan sings Too-Ra-Loo-Ra-Lay. A new voice on the Leicester Square show will be the gay soubrette Cicely Lancaster, who chooses for this week's program The Little Mad'moiselle.

Rubinstein Guest With Toronto Symphony

Artur Rubinstein is to be the guest of Sir Ernest MacMillan and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra for the broadcast of Tuesday, February 5, at 8 p.m., over the CBC Dominion network. The celebrated Polish pianist will be the soloist for the performance of the Concerto in E Minor, by his countryman, Frederick Chopin.

The other main work on the broadcast portion of the program will be the Overture to Rossini's opera, "Semiramida," played by the orchestra under Sir Ernest.

The Concerto In E Minor is the later of two concerti written by Chopin. The music throughout is infused with a romantic and haunting charm, and a delicacy of figuration.

KLEMPERER TO CONDUCT— Concluded

first great artists to be banned by Hitler. On this continent he has conducted for seven seasons at Hollywood Bowl.

A clue to the stature of the musician whom Canadian listeners will welcome to the Pacific coast next week is to be found in the newly published memoirs of Berta Geismar, former secretary to Sir Thomas Beecham, who recalls the musical brilliance of Vienna in the middle thirties.

"Among the conductors," she says, "there were Furtwaengler, Klemperer, Bruno Walter and Toscanini."

Two Beethoven works will be featured on Dr. Klemperer's concert today the Leonore Overture No. 3 and the Fifth Symphony. The CBC broadcast will also include the Chaconne from Gluck's Orpheus In the Underworld.

"MUSKOX DIARY"—Concluded

Gadsby will report on the progress of the expedition as it moves across the Canadian Arctic. In addition he plans to obtain illustrative actualities from members of the expedition, trappers, Eskimos, Hudson's Bay Company factors, R.C.M.P., and others.

The CBC plans to bring these reports to listeners by transmission over land lines. If this should be unsuccessful, Gadsby will use one of the CBC's new portable wire recorders, and the wire spools will then be flown to Toronto for CBC News Roundup. The portable wire recorder will also be taken by Gadsby on the plane trips which will be made from time to time to maintain contact with the moving force of the expedition and to drop necessary supplies.

Helping out in the making of these broadcasts will be CBC engineer A. J. McDonald, a veteran of the CBC overseas unit's battle reporting in Europe, who has been pointed to Churchill to work with Gadsby.

The expedition will start from Churchill on February 14 and is due at Edmonton on May 7 where the expedition ends.

Thinks CBC Forums Are Promoting Unity

(From a report by H. H. Hannam, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture)

THE CBC has co-operated with the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and the Canadian Association for Adult Education in the Farm Radio Forum and the Citizens' Forum. . . . It is now possible to appraise the advantages of this type of organization as a medium of education. These may be briefly summarized as follows:

Farm Forum

(1) It contacts the largest possible number of farmers at a time of year when they are difficult to reach by other means. In fact, it reaches many individuals and groups that are not reached at all by other means, particularly people in isolated or remote communities. In other words, it bridges thousands of miles across half a continent in giving small communities, no matter where they are, a chance to discuss the same subject at the same time on the same evening.

(2) It does so at a time of year when generally they have the most leisure for study and discussion.

(3) It does so at a much lower cost than could be done by any other means.

(4) It is more effective than pamphlets or meeting alone, because: (a) the program is carefully and skillfully prepared by personnel capable of bringing out all the relevant facts. (b) The people actually participate and do not simply listen to others. (c) It is a combination of study, listening, and informed discussion. Hence its effect is more lasting.

(5) It provides a real basis for the maintenance of study groups, furnishes the stimulus provided by social contact and thus promotes community effort.

(6) By providing a program in which all members of the family can participate, it increases the solidarity of the real unit of rural life—the farm family, and thus increases the possibility of united action.

(7) It furnishes a useful outlet for those who are vaguely dissatisfied. . . . and likely to agitate for unsound measures.

(8) It promotes a truly national outlook.

(9) It provides a medium for the rural citizen to perform the duties of a citizen.

In a recent season the Farm Forum had an organized listening audience of 1502 registered groups with a membership of 18,000. That is an organized body of people. It should be emphasized that this represents only a fraction of the total listeners.

Citizens Forum

The second program in which this co-operation has been effective is the Citizens' Forum. It differs from the Farm Forum in that it is not organized around an occupational group, but has been directed more particularly to the needs of town and

She is active in a score of other associations in the United States and is the author of numerous works on education. She has two children. Congresswoman Woodhouse was brought up in Victoria, B.C., and is a graduate of McGill University.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

Rhythmic old time favourites by Don Messer and his Islanders will include "St. Clair's Hornpipe," "Silver and Gold," "Val's Breakdown," "Pop Goes the Weasel" and "Jerome's Farewell to Gibraltar." Charlie Chamberlain, the singing Islander, contributes "My Heart's In This Letter" and "Lilli Marlene."

HOMEMAKERS' PROGRAM (5:15 p.m.)

This week's program for homemakers' brings The Prairie Gardener to the microphone, with information and suggestions on "Landscaping the Farm Home." This continues the current sub-series dealing with Rural Housing. The Prairie Gardener (who prefers to remain anonymous) is recognized as an authority on horticulture by those who listen to his weekly broadcasts, Sundays, at 10:15 a.m.

JACK CARSON (Dom. 7:00 p.m.)

Diana Barrymore, daughter of the great John, and Arthur Treacher, one of the eminent butlers of stage and screen, are regular guests on this program presided over by the screen cut-up, Jack Carson. Dave Willock plays Jack's nephew, and Norma Nilsson the little girl next door. Freddy Martin and orchestra provide the music.

CBC CONCERT HOUR (8:00 p.m.)

Dr. J. J. Gagnier will conduct an all-string orchestra with Jean Belland, 'cellist. The broadcast will open with "Flirtation," by Steck, which will be followed by "Air and Rondo," by the program's conductor, J. J. Gagnier. "Sonate de Concert," by Vivaldi, with Jean Belland as soloist, the feature number, will come next and the program will close with Suite "Aus der Kindheit," by Serge Bortkiewicz.

THE WHITE EMPIRE (9:30 p.m.)

Past, present and future, in the historic story of man and his fortune in Canada's great northern territories, are blended into a poetic summing-up for the thirteenth and final broadcast in the CBC feature drama, "The White Empire." Alan King, author of the series, has looked back in time to the vision of Martin Frobisher and his search for a Northwest Passage to Cathay, a vision and search that ended as adventurers turned south to the riches of the land. Looking into the future, the drama sketches the development of Arctic adventures yet to come, of a daily passage by air to Cathay and Siberia, of swimming and skiing under the midnight sun, and of art and music that take their inspiration from the "White Empire's" past. Music by John Weinzweig, who has based his score for the series on the rhythms and folk melodies of the Coppermine Eskimo, will play a prominent part in the final production—the score interpreting the effect of the north on the minds of its explorers. The orchestra featured in the series is under the direction of Geoffrey Waddington.

RECITAL (11:15 p.m.)

Tonight's recitalist from Winnipeg is Phyllis MacAulay, contralto, who will be accompanied by Anna Hovey. Her program includes: Der Abschied—The Parting (Goethe-Fallo); Traum Durch Die Dämmerung—Dream in the Twilight (Richard Strauss); Almond, Wild Almond (Graham Peel); The Feast of Lanterns (Granville Bantock); and The Hills of Gruzia (Mednikoff's setting of Pushkin's poem).

Should Government or People Govern?

Lady Megan Lloyd George Asks Question in BBC-CBC Talk

"'Trouble in Europe,' 'Japs in Manchuria,' 'Italians attacking Abyssinia,' 'Germans Marching into Austria'—all very disturbing, but it's the job of the politicians and the statesmen to look after such things. Our job is to look after the business, the farm, the home, the children, and secure their future." There were countless women—and men—who talked like that before the war, Lady Megan Lloyd George, M.P., said in a recent BBC-CBC talk.

"Well," she asked searchingly, "how far did we succeed?" We tried to shut these problems out of our minds, to bolt and bar the door of our homes against them. We had no time for such matters. But in 1939, we found that these problems broke down the doors and forced their way in. They turned our homes upside down; the future of our children, for which we had been working so busily, was in greater peril than ever before in our history. Some," she said, "will retort: 'That is all very well, but what could we have done to stop it?'"

Her answer is that she is among the many people who think and believe that if the peoples of the world had led their governments instead of being led by them, they could have prevented war. "And now," she summed up, "almost before we have had time to finish off one war, this terrible new power of atomic energy has come into the world, and wherever you go you hear people asking: 'Can we stop it next time?'" If we are going to, we have got to start now—that was the major point of her talk. We must make time for the job of being good citizens . . . whether we live in Birmingham or Toronto, in London, in the prairies or in the highlands of Scotland. She ended her talk with an appeal to women to think what a responsibility they have in this matter. In Canada women form almost half the population, in Britain more than half. "We have got a pretty big responsibility, haven't we? Win or lose, fail or succeed, we shall never have a free conscience if we shelve our responsibility, particularly living, as you and I do, in real democracies—we've no excuse as citizens of free countries. More than that, we belong, you and I, to a Commonwealth of peace loving nations with tremendous influence in the world, and therefore with great responsibility. Let the women of our Commonwealth see that that influence makes itself felt powerfully in the Councils of the world."

Politest Man In Canada. The politest man in Canada was in a Regina police court last week. Here's what he said to the judge: "One of the hold-up men was sitting on my chest, trying to get my pocketbook out of a hip pocket. The other gentleman," he said, "the other gentleman was still pounding my head with something." — Guy Gislason, on CBC Overseas Extra, January 12.

Canon Frederick Hughes, of St. Alban's Anglican Church, will conduct the services on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

DEEDS THAT LIVE (3:18 p.m.)

Harriet Hill will tell Trans-Canada network listeners about Madame Ch'ui Chen, a powerful factor in the overthrow of the Manchu Dynasty. Madame Ch'ui Chen was an educationalist who worked with Sun Yat-Sen and took an active part in the Boxer Rebellion. In the school which she headed she trained the students as soldiers and led them into battle. Bombs and equipment were made in her home. She was finally captured and beheaded.

Today's recitalist from Montreal is Marcelle Monette - Dumontet, mezzo-soprano.

SOLILOQUY (6:00 p.m.)

Harold Green's orchestra, with Ralph Kamensky, baritone, as vocalist, are heard in this series, now going on the air at a new time on a new day. A musical representation of Franz Hals' famous picture, The Laughing Cavalier, by Haydn Wood, is one of Green's selections for tonight. The piece is from a group, "Three Famous Pictures." Other orchestral numbers are: You and I (Napoleon Lambelet); The Sabot, from a ballet by John Ansell, The Shoe; Intermezzo (Arensky); A Shy Coquette (Charles Grant); and Liebestraum, by Franz von Blon. Kamensky will sing: In the Blue of the Evening (Adair-D'Artega); and Can I Forget You, from Jerome Kern's High, Wide and Handsome.

Home From Pacific

Home at the west coast after a tour of the Pacific with the American U.S.O. is former CBC violinist MARGARET PURVIS, who is holidaying with her parents in New Westminster, B.C. Margaret was one of four talented girls, who decided to offer their services for troop shows seven months ago after they had graduated from musical studies in New York City. Their string quartet brought good music to troops on ships and ashore. Their itinerary included such names as Honolulu, Iwo Jima, Saipan, Peleliu, Philippines, Okinawa, Guam and Tokyo. Margaret took with her manuscripts by CBC arranger Maurice Miles whom she knew when she played with orchestras at CBC Vancouver a year ago.

euse Juliette on the new west coast show, Calangis & Co. For her second number, Juliette revives an oldie—Blues In The Night—and joins with the Four Men of Harmony to offer They Didn't Believe Me. George Calangis, air force veteran who has returned to CBC Vancouver, has chosen a well-known operatic number, Mozart's Marriage of Figaro overture, for his classical swing number, with stylings by his fourteen Sophisticated Strings. Other orchestral numbers will be I Got Rhythm and Lady Be Good.

DRAMA (10:00 p.m.)

"I'll Take the Jungle," a comedy by Gerald Noxon, is tonight's dramatic presentation from Winnipeg.

RECITAL (11:15 p.m.)

Tonight's recital is by Robert Forrest, Moose Jaw tenor, who will be accompanied by Robert Pounder.

Is Play Wicked? Our great grandfathers used to think of play as at best a sheer waste of time, and at worst as downright wicked. That's not the way child experts think of it today.—Dr. S. R. Laycock, on CBC, December 6.

Twice-a-Week Now For Repat Reporter

The "Repat Reporter," formerly presented once each week over the CBC Trans-Canada network will be heard twice each week—on Mondays and Thursdays—beginning Monday, February 4, at 10:10 p.m., over stations of the CBC Dominion network.

"Repat Reporter" brings advice and information on rehabilitation to men and women still in uniform, as well as those just discharged. Max Braithwaite, the program's reporter, was recently discharged after four years in the navy as educational officer with the rank of Instructor Lieutenant. After his overseas service, Mr. Braithwaite returned to Toronto where he was Rehabilitation Discharge Councillor at H.M.C.S. York until the end of the war.

"Repat Reporter's" new time follows immediately after the Dominion network news commentary.

Ears and Eyes.—They (children in a Winnipeg sight-saving class) learn through listening, and through discussion. . . . Their ears have been trained to help save their eyes.—Kay Russenholt, on CBC, January 4.

Notes

RECITAL (3:45 p.m.)

Kathleen Morrison, 17-year-old Winnipeg soprano, is today's recitalist. She is still attending high school, but finds time to study the violin in addition to singing. Her program this afternoon includes: Mother, Oh Hide Me, from "Sosarme" (Handel); The Shepherd, from "Masque of Alfred" (Arne); Loving Kind and Kindly Loving (Bonicini); June, and Over the Land is April (Quilter). Douglas Bodle plays the accompaniments.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

"We Live in Two Different Worlds" and "Let the Rest of the World Go By" will be Charlie Chamberlain's songs for tonight. The Islanders under the baton of Don Messer will play "The Red Haired Boy," "The Teetotaler's Reel," "Fundy Polka" and "Swanplake Breakdown."

PRAIRIE COMMENT (5:15 p.m.)

Some Calgary school girls recently started a major furore in their home city. They wanted pen pals, and wrote to various newspapers in other countries to that effect. The response was enormous. The Calgary post office found itself flooded with replies from young folk eager to correspond with Canadians their own age. Elder Calgary citizens began to see in this demonstration of youthful neighbourliness a possible instrument for building up a substantial world peace. Let the youth of the world make friends in this natural manner, and a solid basis is formed for mutual trust and respect in the future. Phyllis Chapman Clarke, of Calgary, will enlarge on this idea on Prairie Comment today. Mrs. Clarke is the mother of one of the enterprising young ladies who started in a small way what may turn out to be a full-sized campaign.

TORONTO SYMPHONY "POPS" (7:00 p.m.)

Three "first appearances" will mark tonight's concert. The artists will be lyric soprano Shirley Bois, lyric tenor John Hamill, and Ethel Stark, director of the Montreal Women's Symphony Orchestra, who will be the evening's guest conductor. Miss Blois, a native of Nova Scotia, is no stranger to CBC network audiences, having appeared as vocalist on "Design For Listening," "In Recital" and "Stardust Serenade." Her "Pop" Concert offering will be the aria "Fabliau" from Massenet's "Manon." John Hamill attracted favourable critical comment following a concert appearance in Toronto last summer. He will sing two popular operatic arias for the "Pop" audiences—"La Donna e mobile," from Verdi's "Rigoletto," and "O, Paradiso" from the opera "L'Africaine" by the French composer Meyerbeer. Miss Stark, who was a well-known concert violinist, before taking up the baton, is known for her clear, concise interpretations of the classics. She has chosen the overture to "Russlan and Ludmila," by Michael Glinka, and Bach's "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" as her main orchestral offerings, as well as three shorter selections. These are an etude from Beethoven's "Kreutzer Sonata," entitled "Uncle Kreutzer," "Pizzicato Polka," by Strauss, and "The Dargason," from Gustav Holst's "St. Paul Suite for Strings."

ALAN YOUNG SHOW (Dom. 8:00 p.m.)

The Alan Young Show, formerly heard on Tuesdays, goes to a new time and day.

EVENTIDE (9:30 p.m.)

Familiar hymns to be offered tonight by the choir under the direction of Dalton Baker include: O For a Closer Walk With God, Come O Thou Traveller, Christ Whose Glory Fills the Skies, and There Is A Land of Pure Delight. Readings are presented by E. V. Young.

VANCOUVER PLAYHOUSE (10:30 p.m.)

"Excuse Me, Soldier!" is the title of tonight's play, second in a series by British Columbia writers. The author is Frank Vyvyan. "Excuse Me, Soldier!" is the moving story of two people lost in a world of sudden peace. The scenes are laid in and around Vancouver, with Alec and Elvie figuring as the leading characters. Alec spoke with a slight trace of a Scottish burr. Perhaps that's why his people, who had come from Scotland originally, called him Laddie. He was born in Vancouver and joined up there, so that was why he had been sent back to Vancouver when the fighting was over. He stepped out of the train into the swirling, excited crowds meeting their returning men at the station. But there was no one to meet Alec, and for the first time in his life he felt really alone. And then, out of the shouting crowds, stepped Elvie. She was beautiful—and lonely too. Or so she said. Frank Vyvyan's play has humor and pathos, and a sudden twist that makes a surprise ending.

CBR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA (11:00 p.m.)

Music by Mozart and Dvorak will be brought to the CBC's western listeners on the next concert of the CBR Symphony Orchestra tonight when Annabell Edwards, soprano, is to be heard in two Mozart operatic arias, and conductor Arthur Benjamin directs the orchestra in the first west coast performance of Dvorak's Symphony No. 4 in G Major. Mozart's brilliant and melodious overture to The Marriage of Figaro opens the program. From the same opera, Annabell Edwards has chosen Deh Vieni Non Tardar, and the familiar and well-loved Voi Che Sapete. A triple winner at B.C. Music Festivals, Annabell Edwards had studied in California, and returned there for the international competitions at the 1939 World's Fair at San Francisco. She led the field of 65 in the open championship. Tall, and golden haired, Miss Edwards is an attractive person whether she is dressed in gay shorts—the way she does her housework—or in a formal gown. She went to New York as a result of meeting Marian Anderson and her accompanist, Frank Rupp, in Vancouver. It was Rupp and his wife who insisted on her joining them for a year's study.

PRAIRIE GARDENER—Concluded

two or three weeks earlier. For main crop sow April 1-15 and set out in garden after June 1. White Plume and Golden self-blanching are early varieties but not as good for quality. Prizetaker Red is a well flavoured late variety. Celery must be kept growing steadily without serious check so time of seeding must be related to growing facilities.

Caution: These varieties and dates have reference to Northwestern Saskatchewan. Each gardener must work out the right seeding time and the best varieties for use in relation to his own condition. Seek advice from experts near home.

REPORTS SHORTWAVE—Concl.

rebroadcasts the program to the network at the appointed time.

The daytime BBC News programs (11 a.m. and 5:45 p.m.) are now regarded as standard programs, and must measure up to the standard quality of other CBC network transmissions. These broadcasts come in direct from London.
