Notes

THE WAY OF THE SPIRIT (11:30 a.m.)

The first Holy Week and Easter Day will be the theme of the biblical play this week. Beginning with Jesus' last Passover meal in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, the broadcast will tell the story of the great events of the following three days, with special reference to the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ.

CAPITAL REPORTS (1:03 p.m.)

The report from Washington will be given this week by Charles Michie, and Wilfred Eggleston will speak from Ottawa. The London commentary is given, as usual, by Matthew Halton.

RELIGIOUS PERIOD (1:30 p.m.)

Rev. M. M. Coady, of St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N.S., will be heard today. This is the last in a series on "The Spiritual Foundations of Canada."

CHURCH OF THE AIR (3:30 p.m.)

Today's service will be conducted by Rev. Joseph Wasson, of Calvin Presbyterian Church, Toronto.

CBC STAR TIME (6:30 p.m.)

The CBC Star Time solo spotlight falls once again on Gordon Gifford, American baritone, on Easter Sunday. Mr. Gifford appears this time in civvies. A few weeks ago when he was in Montreal to sing on the same CBC show he was still in United States Navy uniform. A veteran of numerous stage and radio productions, he sang during the war not only at the Naval Centres but also with a number of outstanding orchestras. He has chosen this time to sing for his Canadian radio audience "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," by MacGimsey, "The Narrative," by Stohart, and "Day Dreaming," by Jerome Kern. Another Kern melody will be heard on this occasion when Allan McIver directs the orchestra in "Kalua," an almost forgotten air by the famous song writer.

WEEKEND REVIEW (7:30 p.m.)

The review tonight comes from Vancouver, with Elmore Philpott at the microphone.

SERENADE FOR STRINGS (9:30 p.m.)

Irene Moquin is again guest artist on Serenade for Strings, singing Tschaiowsky's "Why"; "Le Temps des Lilacs," by Chausson; and "Music I Heard with You," by Hageman. Miss Moquin sang in opera in Italy where she spent several years studying, and more recently took leading roles in the Montreal Festivals productions. The orchestra, directed by Jean Deslauriers, will play Mendelssohn's Scherzo in E Minor; Adagio, by Samuel Barber; and Burlesque, by Scarlatti.

ROY LOCKSLEY CONDUCTS (10:30 p.m.)

Mary Campbell, soprano, is heard again with Roy Locksley and the orchestra in this Sunday night program. She will sing: Softly Awakes My Heart from Samson and Delilah by Saint-Saens; and Think On Me (Lady John Scott). The orchestra is heard in The Rose (Myddleton); Nights of Gladness (C. Ancliffe); Intermezzo from Jewels of the Madonna (Wolf-Ferrari); Home Sweet Home (Henry Bishop); Passepied (Leo Delibes); and The Man From the Sea from Three Men Suite by Eric Coates.

THE BEACHCOMBERS (Dom. 10:30 p.m.)

Jack Riddell and his Beachcomber orchestra are heard again in another program of Hawaiian music with Mal Collier, soprano, and Barry Barnard, tenor, doing the solo numbers. Miss Collier sings Blue Shadows and Soft Music; and When April Showers Reach Hawaii; while Barry Barnard's selections are War Chant; and Kola-Pa. The rest of the program is by the orchestra and includes: Lei Ilima; Hawaii Sing To Me; Moon Over Hawaii; He-I E; Hula Blues; and Kilo Hano.

CLASSICS FOR TODAY (T-C 11:00 p.m.)

A special program for Holy Week will be presented tonight by the string orchestra under the direction of Jean de Rimanoczy. Clement Q. Williams, lyric baritone, will be guest soloist for this occasion and will be heard in The Crucifixion; and At The Cry of the First Bird, by David Guion. The orchestra will play Panis Angelicus by Cesar Franck, and Easter Overture, including The Day of Resurrection, Crown Him With Many Crowns, It Is the Joyful Easter Time, and Jesus Christ Is Risen Today.

Reporter Remembers

(From the BBC London Letter)

It was characteristic of Edward ("Ed.") R. Murrow, that in "A Reporter Remembers"—a personal farewell at the BBC microphone on the eve of his return to America to become Vice-President of the Columbia Broadcasting System—he reminded his British listeners of their finer hours without alluding to the many occasions when he had shared the dangers with Londoners and others in wartime Britain. He recalled some of his early impressions,

CBC Greet The Spring With Special Broadcast

From Canada's west coast will come a melodious "Salute To Spring" in a special half hour broadcast arranged by the CBC Sunday, April 21. The program will be carried nationwide over the Trans-Canada network from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. with a full concert orchestra under the direction of Jean de Rimanoczy and choral numbers by the CBR Singers.

English composers predominate in the sparkling and light-hearted parade of music for spring. The orchestra will be heard in Two Aquarelles, by Delius, and a tuneful suite, The Shepherd's Lottery, by William Boyce, Handel's noted contemporary. The CBR Singers, under the direction of Burton Kurth, will offer a group of unaccompanied songs: April Is In My Mistress' Face, by the Elizabethan musician, Thomas Morley; Spring, by the modern British composer, Arthur Benjamin, who soon leaves Vancouver for England; and a Palestrina song, When Flowery Meadows Deck The Year.

The choir will join with the orchestra for the opening and closing numbers, which are, respectively, the Bach work, Spring Comes Laughing O'er The Hill, and It Comes From The Misty Ages, by Sir Edward Elgar.

Jean de Rimanoczy returns to Vancouver especially for this occasion. He is now assistant conductor of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, but comes to Vancouver regularly for various CBC programs. "Salute To Spring" will be produced by John Wickham Barnes.

at the start of his nine-years' spell in England—not all of them complimentary. He went on to talk of the war years, and the gradual unfolding of the common aims and quiet purposefulness that knit all Britain in unity. He had a phrase for Mr. Churchill's inspiring speeches that might have been one of the great war-leader's own: "he mobilized the language and made it fight." And Mr. Murrow is a worthy judge of language. We remember his long-ago warning that if Britons and Americans were to draw closer together each must eschew "words that have lost their cutting edge." He wound up his farewell with an anecdote of a letter sent to the C.B.S. not long ago by an angry woman, a letter "emphatic and considerably underlined." She wrote: "I am not one of the many who believe that your chief European correspondent, Edward R. Murrow, receives money from the English. I think it is worse than that—I think he likes them." "I felt obliged," Murrow added, "to inform the correspondent that her conclusions were correct."

Notes

MORNING DEVOTIONS (9:45 a.m.)

Every day this week, Monday to Saturday at 9:45 a.m., a fifteen-minute devotional period will be conducted by Rev. H. H. Honebein, of the Lutheran Church of the Cross, Winnipeg.

SERENADE (T-C 12:00 noon)

A special program of sacred music has been selected for Easter Monday, including Christ the Lord is Risen Today; O Sacred Head Surrounded; The Day of Resurrection; and I Know that My Redeemer Liveth, from The Messiah. The recordings are by the Victor Chapel Choir, with Dick Liebert at the organ.

RECITAL (3:45 p.m.)

The recitalist this afternoon is Glen Gardiner, baritone, of Toronto.

ELECTRIC HOUR (Dom. 7:00 p.m.)

Mart Kenney and his Western Gentlemen will be heard tonight from Sherbrooke, Quebec. This will be the third in this series of broadcasts which have been planned to originate in thirteen Canadian cities coast-to-coast. Next week's Electric show will be broadcast from Halifax.

RHYTHM AND ROMANCE (7:45 p.m.)

Parks and Burdett, Winnipeg piano duo, are heard again tonight with Maxine Ware as vocalist. She sings: Come to Baby Do; Embraceable You; and There's a Small Hotel. The two piano numbers are: Say Si Si; March of the Goons; and Thou Swell from a Connecticut Yankee.

THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER (T-C 10:00 p.m.)

Kerr Wilson, Winnipeg baritone, is heard again tonight as guest soloist with Jimmie Gowler and the orchestra. His numbers are: Ay, Ay, Ay (Creole Song); Road to the Isles; and Come Back to Sorrento. The orchestra's portion of the program is made up of dance tunes representative of several nations, including an old favorite—Fisher's Hornpipe; and Grandmother's Dance—an old Swiss dance song which is still sung and danced at golden weddings and family celebrations. The other numbers are: La Tempete; Sweet Remembrance, a Mazurka; Honey-suckle Vine, a hornpipe; The Cuckoo Waltz (Scandinavian); The Tin Gee-gee (English Polka); Bon-Ton Gavotte; The Bushman's Corps; Clog Dance; and Turkey in the Straw.

CBR SINGERS (11:30 p.m.)

Bach's familiar composition, Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring, will be the feature work of this Easter program. The Choir directed by Burton Kurth will be accompanied by Phyllis Schuldt at the piano and Nick Fiore on the flute. Other selections on the program will be: the Dutch carol, This Glorious Eastertide; Healey Willan's Rise Ye My Love; the Armstrong Gibbs setting of Edmund Spenser's poem, Most Glorious Lord of Life; A Legend by Tschalkowsky; and the Gustav Holst work, Eternal Father.

Breakfast Clubbers To Meet Big Toppers

The circus couldn't come to McNeill, so McNeill is going to the circus. On Monday, April 22, Don McNeill will lead ABC's Breakfast Club troupe into Madison Square Garden in New York for their early morning broadcast (8:15 a.m., Trans-Canada network), where "The Greatest Show on Earth," Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey, will be assembled, together with seventeen thousand other people. It will be one of the largest crowds ever to watch a radio show.

McNeill's show, itself a circus, will be, as usual, strictly unrehearsed. Some of the circus performers will be rehearsing their acts in view of the broadcast audience, and Don will work some of them into the proceedings. To insure audience participation, four travelling microphones will be manned by Breakfast Clubbers, who will interview people seated in every part of the garden. Cruising Crooner Jack Owens will take the ride of his career when he is hoisted into the air to serenade a trapeze artist. All the gang—including Sam "Clowning" Cowling, Fran "Aunt Fanny" Allison, and songstress Nancy Martin—will be on hand with their usual antics.

The Garden broadcast inaugurates a two-weeks' stay in New York for the Breakfast Club.

Not For The Pigs.—Little Dutch kids used to collect all the refuse from our mess in a big slop pail. They said it was for their pigs. I'm pretty sure they didn't have any pigs.—Cory Kilvert, on CBC News Roundup, March 18.

Easter Music on CBC by BBC Chorus

A program of Easter carols, sung by the BBC Chorus, accompanied by Dr. Harold Darke at the organ in the Church of St. Michael's, London, England, is to be broadcast over the CBC Trans-Canada network, on Easter Monday, April 22, at 5:30 p.m. From the old historic church in the city of London, the BBC chorus will sing traditional Easter carols, including "Love is Come Again," and "Cheer Up, Friends and Neighbors," set to old French tunes; "Easter Eggs," based on a Russian melody; and "Now the Holly Bears a Berry," from Cornwall. The program ends with an Easter hymn by the contemporary British composer, Sir Granville Bantock.

The organ, played by Dr. Harold Darke, is a prized treasure of St. Michael's. Although modernized, it is even older than the church itself.

CBC Drama Boosts Cancer Campaign

A dramatic argument in support of modern science and medicine is put forth in a feature broadcast from Toronto over the CBC Dominion network, on Monday, April 22, at 9:30 p.m. The drama, presented on behalf of the Canadian Cancer Society's current campaign, is entitled "Journey out of Darkness" and has been especially written by Alan King.

Telling a story that begins when the mists of quackery enveloped all science, the program traces the painful development of knowledge in the recognition and diagnosis of cancer. The contemporary situation with regard to the disease is summed up in the script, and pointers toward future progress are given the listener in the form of directives whereby he may aid in its control.

"Journey Out of Darkness" will be produced by J. Frank Willis, CBC supervisor of features. Among those appearing in the cast are Frank Peddie, Grace Webster, Roxanna Bond, Tommy Tweed, Alan King, Muriel Ball, Mercer McLeod, Hedley Rainie and John Drainie. Samuel Hersenhoren directs the orchestra in the drama's musical interludes.

Something New For Jean Hinds' Fans

Jean Hinds, CBC Women's Commentator for the Prairie Region, will be going on the air with a new program starting next week. She will be heard every Monday night on western stations of the CBC's Trans-Canada Network at 7 p.m. C.D.T. in a half hour program titled, Music and People. Miss Hinds' many listeners throughout the prairie provinces will be interested in her new series, which will be a down-to-earth discussion on people and their different reactions to music. For more information, see next week's schedule.

Notes

ARTISTS OF TOMORROW (3:45 p.m.)

Aline Dansereau, mezzo soprano, will broadcast from Montreal.

PRESENTING PARKS AND BURDETT (6:15 p.m.)

Parks and Burdett, Winnipeg two piano team, are heard again at this time in another fifteen minute program. Their selections today include: Goblins in The Steeple; The Touch of Your Hand; Doctor, Lawyer, Indian Chief; a tango—Argentine Nights; Moon Over Brooklyn; and Czardas.

APOLLO MALE CHOIR (10:00 p.m. T-C)

Gordon Kushner, Winnipeg pianist frequently heard on CBC programs, will accompany the choir under the direction of W. H. Anderson. He will also be heard in a piano solo number. Mr. Kushner has just returned to Winnipeg following a tour of Central and South American with Portia White, Halifax contralto, for whom he acted as piano accompanist. Tonight's selections by the choir will be: Rise O Star, a Ukrainian Folk Song; The Rovers, a Finnish Folk Song; Where'er You Walk (Handel); Sound the Trumpet (Purcell); Music When Soft Voices Die (C. Dickens); All in an April Evening (H. Robertson); The Bandura (Ukrainian Folk Song); and There Rolls the Deep (J. L. Nicode).

WINNIPEG STRING ORCHESTRA (10:30 p.m.)

Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik is one of the works to be played tonight by the orchestra under the direction of Ronald Gibson. Also to be heard are: Two Aquarelles by F. Delius; and the Brookgreen Suite by Gustav Holst.

RECITAL (11:15 p.m.)

Ena Scott, soprano, is the recitalist tonight, accompanied by Margaret Featherstonhaugh. The program includes: Mermaid's Song (Haydn); As I Walked Thro' the Meadows (Traditional); Nine of the Clock (Traditional); Down by the Sally Gardens (Traditional); and Young Night Thought (Graham Peel).

CBC News Roundup

(CBC Trans-Canada Network, Mondays to Fridays, 9:15 p.m.)

A Highlight From The Week's News
 More than 15,000 meat, butter and sugar ration coupons have been voluntary turned in to Wartime Prices and Trade Board offices throughout British Columbia by citizens who have requested that this extra food be shipped to Great Britain. The coupons are pouring in at the rate of about 1,500 a day.

The origin of the gesture is obscure. Some say it started in Victoria, others in Vancouver. In any case, these coupons are rolling in and there's no sign of a slowdown.

Food officials tell me that letters contain anywhere from one to ninety-one coupons. Ninety-five per cent of the coupons are for meat. The letters all contain express requests that the extra supply of meat be sent to Great Britain.

Prices Board executives tell me that when the coupons are received they are destroyed immediately. This means less meat will have to be put aside for the domestic market and more will be available for export to Britain. They add that because this is a voluntary scheme and since the people made direct requests that the extra supply be sent to Britain, the government will more than likely fall in line and arrange to ship the donated rations overseas as soon as possible.

At last count, Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria had contributed approximately 14,000 coupons. The rest had come in from rural points. Number one volunteers are those who come from Britain originally and recently arrived British war brides. One bride told me she just couldn't eat all the meat allotted to her in Canada and she wants her extra to be passed along to those who are trying to make do on about 18 cents worth of meat each week.

It's expected that the coupons will be used to export more bacon and pork products, although if sufficient pork isn't available, then approximately 45,000 pounds of other meat, having greater ration values, will be shipped across for British dinner tables.

B.C. citizens are anxious that their idea catch on right across the Dominion and that more Canadians will contribute a little from their plenty for those less fortunate.—Bill Herbert reporting from Vancouver.

Women to the Rescue.—Due to the moral degeneration generally of the peoples of the world, it is necessary for women to come forward and shoulder their responsibility to bring governmental machinery into proper balance.—Cornelia Wood, on CBC, March 20.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary of Broadcast of April 14, 1946.

Preparation and Planting of the Garden:

1. Spring breaking of sod doesn't provide good garden conditions. Breaking should be done in June and gardening postponed for another season. In moist districts spring breaking well worked down may be used for potatoes and corn but the practice is not generally recommended.

2. Gardens on Summerfallow are usually satisfactory. Some gardeners cover the garden area with strawy manure after snow has come in the fall. This is burned off in the spring the day before seeding is commenced. This insures a moist seed bed and may destroy some weed seeds and insects but wastes soil fibre. Where this method is followed the land should be manured before summerfallowing occasionally in order to maintain humus in the soil. Summerfallow land only requires surface cultivation before seeding.

3. Spring Ploughing, or digging usually leaves the soil too loose for making a good seed bed. The land should be firmed with a float or packer as soon as ploughed. Fall ploughing or digging is preferable in most districts. In the case of spring ploughing the steps are: (1) surface cultivation in early spring, (2) ploughing and packing just prior to seeding.

4. Digging the garden is an art requiring considerable skill. The main points are: (1) Depth no deeper than the top soil; (2) turning the soil over completely; (3) burying all trash or litter; (4) breaking down the clods to make an even compact surface.

5. Deep cultivation is generally desirable but the land must be made firm and the subsoil must not be mixed with the top-soil. If sub-soil cultivation is necessary (for deep rooted crops such as parsnips, sweet peas and peonies) it should be done by trenching—a method that leaves the top-soil on top.

6. Planting the garden: (1) Follow a planting plan and a planting schedule; (2) use a guide line and a measuring stick to make an orderly artistic layout. In a small garden use a plank as a guide line and to firm the seed bed. (3) Label the rows with the names of the varieties planted; (4) avoid planting seed too deep. The drier the soil or district the deeper the seed must be sown. Early sowings should be shallow—about four times the diameter of the seed. Sowings in hot weather should be a little deeper. (5) Firm the soil over the seed so it will get moisture for germination. (6) Avoid waste of seed by sowing evenly at proper intervals. Proper spacing of seed reduces the work of thinning plants later.

Notes

SERENADE (T-C 12:00 noon)

David Brockman's orchestra is featured today in this thrice-weekly recorded program. The numbers are: A Kiss in the Dark; Kashmiri Song; Little Grey Home in the West; and A Little Bit of Heaven. The lyrics are sung by Kenny Baker.

HOMEMAKER'S PROGRAM (5:15 p.m.)

The title of today's talk is, "If Junior Cuts Himself." It is written by a Toronto doctor and will be read by Margaret Nix, director of Health Education for the Department of Health and Welfare. This is the first of a series of three talks by the same writer. The titles of the other two are: "If Junior Breaks a Leg," to be heard on May 1; and "If Junior Gets Burned," to be heard on May 8.

LET THERE BE MUSIC (8:00 p.m.)

Doris Veale, pianist, is Lucio Agostini's special guest this week. Others appearing weekly on the show are Fred Hill, tenor, the Jack Allison singers, and the vivacious chanteuse, Alys Robi, who made her first appearance last week as a regular in the singing cast. Doris Veale's selection is the Toccata from York Bowen's Third Suite, as arranged for piano and orchestra by Agostini. She will also be heard with the entire program ensemble in a medley of Grieg airs. Alys Robi and Fred Hill will sing together in another Agostini arrangement — an "April in Paris" medley for Easter week, introducing the music of the Paris boulevards and cafes in the first peacetime spring.

MIDWEEK RECITAL (Dom. 9:00 p.m.)

Eight art songs by Claude Debussy have been selected by Frances James, soprano, for the next program in her current series of mid-week recitals. Opening with "Harmonie de Soir," a poem of Baudelaire, for which Debussy wrote the music, Miss James continues with "Recueillement," "Les Ingenus," and "Colloque Sentimental." A group of lyrics, which the composer entitled "Three Songs," complete the program. Included in the group are "Romance," "Mandoline" and "Beau Soir."

CBC CONCERT HOUR (9:30 p.m.)

Pierre Iosch, violinist, will be the solo artist tonight with a string orchestra under the direction of Dr. J. J. Gagnier. Three pieces, Prelude, Air and Horn Pipe, by Henry Purcell, will be featured. On the same program will be Purcell's Overture in G, Prelude and Fugue in C Minor, by Bach, and three dances from Comus, by Thomas A. Arne, to be played by the orchestra.

SWING LOW (11:15 p.m.)

Negro spirituals to be featured on the Swing Low program tonight include Shout All Over God's Heaven, My Lord What a Mornin', Do You Call Dat Religion?, and Loafin' On a Lazy Day. Members of the quartet are Eleanor and Ruby Proctor, Edna Frazer and Alexander Price, with Dick Douglas at the piano.

KALEIDOSCOPE (11:30 p.m.)

"The House of Strangers," by Alan Pearce will be heard on the Kaleidoscope series from Vancouver tonight. The story is about the weird adventure that happened to a young man who, in order to get out of the rain, ducked into a radio station and suddenly found himself part of a broadcast, but trapped in a horrible nightmare plot. The harder he tried to tell the radio audience what was really happening, the harder they laughed—and before their unsuspecting eyes a ghastly crime was being committed.

GYPSY STRINGS (12:30 a.m.)

Tonight's program includes a Hungarian Medley, made up of a group of authentic gypsy airs arranged by a Vancouver cellist, Deszo Mahalek, and played by Cardo Smalley and the ensemble. Other numbers on the program will be Borgio's Czardas and North Star Valse.

Dr. de Forests' Dream

In 1932, Dr. Lee de Forest, famous radio engineer, inventor of the vacuum tube, and by many regarded as the Father of Radio, sent the following message to the Canadian Radio League:

"In 1923 . . . I hailed this new instrumentality as a beneficent force in civilization with potentialities which could only be compared to those initiated five centuries ago by the art of printing. I saw it as a noble agency for the diffusion of education and culture. I saw it as a boundless source of pleasure for the multitude. I saw it as a means of uniting the nations of the earth in closer bonds, as the messenger and herald of a world-wide peace.

"So much for the dream. The reality you know. Within the span of a few years we in the United States have seen broadcasting so debased by commercial advertising that many a householder regards it as he does the brazen salesman who tries to thrust his foot in at the door. Under what the present masters of radio are pleased to call the American plan broadcasting is by uncounted thousands regarded as a

"Women in Office" on Twice This Week

Legislators from two member nations of the British Empire are to contribute the two final addresses in the CBC talk series, "Women In Office," in which distinguished British, Canadian and American parliamentarians have spoken to Canadian listeners.

The addresses are to be broadcast during the same week. The first will be given by Dame Enid Lyons, member of the commonwealth parliament of Australia, through the co-operation of the Australian Broadcasting Commission. Her talk, "The Role of Women in This Postwar World," will be carried over the CBC Trans-Canada network on Monday, April 22, at 3:18 p.m.

The second address, and last in the series, is by Bertha Solomon, M.P., advocate of the Supreme Court of South Africa. It will be heard in the program's regular Wednesday broadcast time, April 24, at 3:18 p.m., over the Trans-Canada network.

Dame Enid Lyons, renowned for her eloquence, dignity, and agility of mind, entered politics in 1943, some years after the death of her husband, J. A. Lyons, a former prime minister of Australia. Always active in public affairs, she has a deep interest also in matters of concern to the family. Dame Enid has six daughters and five sons.

Bertha Solomon was one of the first three women to be elected to the provincial council of the Transvaal. She entered the Union Parliament in 1938, as a United Party candidate, winning her seat from the Labor Party chairman.

nuisance. Radio sets here are a drug on the market. In many a home the cabinet gathers dust. Thinking people resent the moronic fare that is mostly offered them. They resent the fact that the rights of education on the air have been steadily curtailed by the insistent advertiser. They are in revolt against the policies, rooted in greed, which have made the ether a market place. They demand that this huckstering orgy be curbed, that they, the owners of receiving sets, whose financial stake in radio is vastly greater than that of the station owners, shall no longer be fobbed off with a vulgar, cheapjack show designed solely to coax the dollars out of the pockets of the public. . . .

"May I voice a hope that many of us, your fellow Americans, share? We trust that you, our neighbors across the undefended boundary line which, for a century or more has been the world's noblest symbol of peace, will strengthen our hands. We have faith that you, who have in so many ways set a lofty example in self-government, will point the way to a wiser use of this scientific boon that we have let fall into unworthy keeping. We look to you in Canada to lead radio in North America out of the morass in which it is pitiably sunk. May Canada fulfill my early dream!"

BRIDGES TO PEACE (3:18 p.m.)

"Human Kindness for All," a talk on the necessity for early training in tolerance toward people in all walks of life, by Mary Avison, the mother of six children, will bring to a close the series "Bridges to Peace." This will be Mary Avison's second appearance in the women's talks broadcasts. Last year she spoke in the series "Mother's Business" and has a great deal of practical information to pass on to listeners concerning the moral and spiritual training of children. This time this practical information will be confined to the building of sound social outlooks.

RECITAL (3:45 p.m.)

Jean Chown-Robinson, contralto, is the recitalist to be heard from the Montreal studios this afternoon. She sings "Going Home," from New World Symphony, by Dvorak; "The Golden Nenuphar," by Bantock; "Shepherd's Song," by Elgar; and "The Sweetest Flower," by Hawley.

MINIATURES BY GREEN (6:15 p.m.)

Westminster Meditation from Eric Coates' London Suite introduces another program by Harold Green and the Orchestra. The broadcast today includes: Serenade (Franz Drdla); Beautiful Lady from Pink Lady (Ivan Caryll); At the Brook (Rene de Boisdefre); and Moment Musicale (Franz Schubert).

DRAMA (7:00 p.m.)

Did you ever hear a squirrel talk, or a dog, any animal for that matter? The tiny hero of Mac Shoub's "The Kid and the Canine," heard them talking every day. Old Butch, a hunter's dog, who hated being locked up in a cabin year in year out, told him just how to go about his rescue. How the rescue worked out is the theme of the latest Shoub play to be produced in the Montreal drama series. Neil O'Keefe, a juvenile actor new to the series, will play the role of the Kid and the author himself that of the Canine.

SKETCHES IN BLACK AND WHITE (Dom. 7:15 p.m.)

Parks and Burdett, two piano team, heard frequently on CBC programs, present another fifteen minutes of popular tunes at this time. Their program tonight includes: Diane, Cuban Pete; Dancing on the Ceiling; Down Argentine Way; More Than You Know; and Oh Lady Be Good.

THE GEOFFREY WADDINGTON SHOW (8:30 p.m.)

Successful Broadway musicals of the 1930's and 1940's will provide many of the musical offerings to be played tonight. In the vocal department Frosia Gregory will sing the 1932 ballad, "Take Me In Your Arms," while Russ Titus will render his version of the current favourite "Laughing On The Outside," and then flash back ten years to the tune "When Did You Leave Heaven." The Waddington orchestra, with its rhythmic string section, will offer Cole Porter's "I Love You"; a Percy Grainger arrangement of the traditional "Londonderry Air"; Gershwin's "Summertime"; the Strauss waltz "Artist's Life"; and the hunting melody, "Strange Music," from the operetta "Song of Norway."

DRAMA (10:00 p.m.)

"Transition" is the title of this week's drama from Winnipeg. The author is John Elbur of Tranquille, British Columbia.

Holidays. As the Inkerman report says, "A man in the lower income bracket simply couldn't afford to take a vacation unless he was paid." Generally speaking, it's a case of a holiday with pay or none at all.—Mary Bishop, on CBC Citizens' Forum News, Feb. 12.

Toronto Musicians Honor CBC Arranger

A member of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra for 23 years, first as viola player, then as librarian, Louis Waizman, musical arranger at the CBC Toronto studios, was recently honored by his fellow musicians. During the final performance of the Toronto Symphony 'Pops' concert series, Mr. Waizman was invited to the stage by Sir Ernest Macmillan. He received a warm tribute for his long and valued services before the capacity Massey Hall audience.

Also on the stage was W. G. Watson, president of the Toronto Symphony Association, who presented Mr. Waizman with a pipe and tobacco humidor.

Mr. Waizman, who is 83, was born in the same house in which Mozart was born, at Salzburg, Austria. He came to Canada in 1893, after beginning his musical career as a bandsman in the Austrian army over sixty years ago. He lived for a number of years in Ottawa, later settling in Toronto and has been with the CBC since its inception.

The author of over one hundred compositions, Mr. Waizman was further honored at the closing 'Pops' concert with the playing of his "Ballet Suite."

Despite his age Mr. Waizman enjoys robust health and works at least twelve hours a day. He rises at six every morning the year round, including holidays.

"Youth Discusses" on CBC Dominion Network

"Youth Discusses," a new series of youth participation programs, begins over the CBC Dominion network on Thursday, April 25, at 7:00 p.m. Headed by John Carey, Hamilton metallurgist and photographer, as chairman, and John Ivan, director of boys' work, Hamilton Y.M.C.A., a group of high school students will discuss the many complex problems facing young people all over Canada today. Beginning with "Sunday Entertainment" on April 25, topics will include health, delinquency, jobs, sex, crime and punishment.

The programs are a project of the Hamilton Central Collegiate Hi-Y club at the Hamilton Y.M.C.A., and will originate in station CHML, where they have been a local feature for some time.

The Worst Potato Pest. The worst pest of the potato in western Canada isn't the potato bug or even ring rot. It's the thoughtless amateur gardener who thinks growing potatoes is a simple matter that doesn't require the application of much brains—just chop up a few spuds and stick them in, and let nature do the rest. In the fall all you have to do is scratch the tubers out from among the weeds. That's the kind of fellow who has spread potato diseases and poor potato seed all over the prairies. It's time to get rid of him.—The Prairie Gardener, on CBC, April 7.

SERENADE (T-C 12:00 noon)

Charlie Spivak's orchestra with vocalist Jimmy Saunders are heard in this fifteen-minute recorded program. Popular tunes to be heard today are: Oh What It Seemed To Be; You Can Cry on Somebody Else's Shoulder; Take Care; and The Bells of St. Mary's.

RECITAL (3:45 p.m.)

Giselle LaFleche, violinist, is today's afternoon recitalist from the Prairie Region. Miss LaFleche is at her home in Winnipeg at present, taking a brief Easter vacation from her studies in Toronto, where she is a pupil of Kathleen Parlow. Her program is as follows: Malaguena (Sarasate); Sicilienne and Rigaudon (Francoeur - Kreisler); Pièce en forme de Habanera (Ravel); Guitarre (Moszkowski - Sarasate); and Tango (Albeniz-Kreisler).

PACIFIC TIME (10:30 p.m.)

The story of a house and the people who lived in it will be told on this week's drama from the west coast. Entitled "Do You Believe In Miracles?", the script is by W. F. Smiley. This is a very ordinary tale—about John and Mary, and little John. In it the right girl marries the right boy, but not before a lot of little, unimportant things go wrong. After a while all these irritations disappear. Then, suddenly, just when you think it's time for the traditional "they lived happily ever after" ending, tragedy strikes. The ending is fantastic—unless—"Do You Believe In Miracles?"

TURNER VALLEY EXPLOSION (11:00 p.m.)

Spring Fancies—Take Your Pick!

Here is Milady's Easter bonnet, presented in four variations by JEAN GILLESPIE, pretty young actress heard as girl-friend "Betty" on the Alan Young Show (ABC) over CBC's Dominion network, Fridays at 8:00 p.m. The show is currently being aired from Hollywood.

who had just concluded a series of 3 talks about uranium, will tell the exciting tale of the recent "Turner Valley Explosion" in his next broadcast. In this talk, Mr. Myers gives a graphic description of the largest engineered explosion in history, designed to give a new lease on life to Canada's major oil field. The tremendous experiment was planned by Scientist Myron S. Zandmer to release the wealth of oil that lies locked in the porous rock formation 6,900 feet below the earth's surface in Turner Valley. Although told by experts his experiment would not work, Zandmer was convinced that it could be done and two months ago the explosion was successfully brought about.

RECITAL (T-C 11:15 p.m.)

Flora Matheson Goulden continues her series of three violin recitals with the following program: Ave Maria (Schubert-Wilhelmj); Tambourin (Leo Smith); En Bateau (Debussy); and Hora Staccato (Dinicu-Heifetz). Roline Mackidd plays the accompaniments. The broadcast originates in Winnipeg.

The Iron Curtain

The broad strategic line of the Russian leaders for some time now has been an unhappy one for the world. What it looks like is an attempt to capitalize on the remnant of distrust toward Britain in the United States, in order to drive a wedge between those two countries in international affairs. To separate them as much as possible, and thereafter to concentrate their direct attacks upon British power, which they regard as declining. They have been encouraged to do this by various circumstances. They have witnessed the obvious haste of the American army to demobilize and get out of Germany. This they have probably interpreted as at least a partial return to traditional isolationism. Now, it is a law of politics, as it is of nature itself, that no vacuum ever remains unfilled. Something rushes in at once; and in politics, if power abdicates, some other power replaces it.—G. V. Ferguson, on CBC, March 17.

Notes

THE RECORD SHOP (9:30 a.m.)

Visitors to The Record Shop today will hear Serge Koussevitzky and the Boston Symphony Orchestra play Richard Strauss' tone poem, "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks."

RED RIVER BARN DANCE (10:00 p.m.)

The strains of There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight played by Pete Couture and the orchestra will usher in another session of the Red River Barn Dance. All the regulars will be on hand to provide the entertainment including Majorie Diller and Norman Lucas, vocalists; and Bill Coward who calls the dances and gives with a harmonica solo. Majorie Diller will sing Harriet while Norman Lucas' number will be If I Had My Way Dear. Coward's harmonica solo is Crooked Stove Pipe. The orchestra's part of the program includes: The Cascade; The Fisher's Hornpipe; Polish Polka; Let the Rest of the World Go By; I'm a Ding Dong Daddy; Oh Charlie Polka; and The Red Haired Boy. Tonight's sing song will be Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet.

LA PLAZA (11:00 p.m.)

George Calangis directs the La Plaza orchestra in a half hour program of tangos, congas, paso dobles and rhumbas. Vocalists are Lolita and Pepe. Tonight's broadcast includes Jurome, La Cucaracha, Simbalero, El Carro Del Soul, and Bolero.

CBC To Send School Broadcasts To Europe

Montreal. — School children in France, Luxemburg, Greece, Poland and Czechoslovakia will shortly be listening to special school broadcasts in their native languages which have been sent from Canada, the CBC International Service announced today. The programs will be heard over local radio stations in these countries and will assist hard-pressed teachers who now have to cope with a shortage of textbooks and an extreme scarcity of educational equipment.

Based on material prepared by Canadian scientists and teachers for use on the school broadcasts heard over the CBC French Network, the programs will be edited, translated and recorded by the International Service, the short-wave division of the CBC. The first programs are to be shipped overseas shortly and will be a valuable means of interesting Europeans in Canadian short-wave programs. Five series are being offered, mostly dealing with natural and applied science. They are: "Great Medical Discoveries," "Adventures in Science," "Science at Work," Correction.

... I want to point out that you have rather missed the point of the comment made about the Beggar's Opera; the original was that the opera had "made Gay rich, and Rich gay," thus being a double pun.—Mrs. F. D. Shelton, Rosedale, Alta.

Those Morbid Soap Operas.

I wonder if it is any good writing to you about the programs? If it is, I hope you can get some more cheerful ones put on. Every time I tune in I get some sob sister stuff about some one who is ill or else some crooks fixing up a crime or someone has been murdered or has murdered someone. These go on for weeks, like "George's Wife." They all get had up in turns for murdering someone then the real murderer is just going to do another when along comes someone to the rescue and all's well; the meek and mild man signs a confession and that's that. Aunt Lucy usually has far too much advertising, and then a wailing story of some freak in love with the wrong person. The supposed-to-be-funny things are so silly one wonders how the people doing them can put up with having to do so. However, these please the kids so why worry?—Mrs. G. F. Down, Devlin, Ontario.

The Jacksons and Mrs. Pattison.

Just a note of appreciation of "The Jacksons and Their Neighbors" to the writer of the script, Mary Pattison, and to the actors in the cast. My husband and I enjoy the program and get quite a kick out of "Dollar Dick" and his neighbors. My special congratulations to Mary Pattison, whom I have known since her school days when she was pupil and I, teacher. She is on the way up the ladder of success that I always predicted for her. May she continue climbing!—Mrs. W. R. Tisdale, Gilbert Plains, Manitoba.

The Prairie Schooner.

... Last Monday I tuned in to your station, and I must say, it was a splendid program—the Fiddlers who played the Old-Time tunes. I do not know when I have enjoyed a program such as you rendered—beautifully arranged and excellent talent. When will you be on the air again? If you would be kind enough to inform me I shall appreciate it very much.—Mrs. M. F. Sommermeyer, Newark, Delaware, U.S.A.

"Social Geography" and "The Science of Plants." Each series consists of 13 quarter-hour broadcasts. So far, in all languages, some 520 programs are planned.

France has also requested an additional 30 dramatized programs similar to those heard in Canada and other countries have also made enquiries. All arrangements have been made through the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) in London, England.

Olympic Games A Menace?—"For international sporting events of the most potentially dangerous type we don't need to look beyond the Olympic Games. I hear with foreboding that the Games are to be revived. I wonder if the people concerned shouldn't have second thoughts about this. Even the warmest reports of previous Olympics couldn't tone down the raw picture of over-heated nationalism—the hoisting of flags, the playing of anthems, the protests, the bickerings, the hysterical sectional applause. The world's a big and scattered family still. I don't think we're ready for a jolly romp all together."—Alastair Dunnett, in the BBC overseas series "As Seen from Scotland."
