ALBERTA FARM AND HOME FORUM, DEC., 1947

Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8:15 to 8:30 p.m.

BREADBASKET—The area shown above looks large—it's only a portion of one farm among many served by the Alberta Farm and Home Forum.

The radio committee of the Farm and Home Forum join the staff of CKUA in wishing our listeners an enjoyable Christmas season. We trust that the joy of living will not be confined to the passing occasion of Christmas festivities but will continue day by day throughout the year.

Our thanks are due to members of the Faculty of Agriculture of the University of Alberta, the Alberta Department of Agriculture, and other speakers who have assisted in these broadcasts.

As we approach the end of another year, we look forward to better times ahead and assure our listeners of our constant endeavour to encourage home and farming practices that will lead to a richer rural life.

THE RIGHT PERSON • CKUA

(From the Edmonton Bulletin)

Question:

CLASSICAL MUSIC

Editor, Bulletin—I have often wondered what it would be like to have more time to listen to the radio. As a busy housewife, one gets little or no time to listen for any length of time, and the occasional snatches of it that one does get are usually disappointing.

Now, having to lie still for six weeks with a broken back, I can at last turn to the radio, but what do I find? Nothing but soap operas, swing bands and silver dollar rewards.

Surely there must be thousands of people like myself, who would appreciate some classical music. I have often wished that there might be just one radio station to cater to us music-hungry people, and perhaps give us just classical recordings all the time. The cost of such a program could surely not exceed that of any of the other frightful performances. And it would be such balm to us to know that there would always be one little spot on the radio dial that would ensure some worthwhile listening.

If only this plea could reach the right person—but who is the right person?

—M.C.

Edmonton,

Answer:

GOOD MUSIC

Editor, Bulletin—I want to say a few words in reply to writer of "Classical Music" and signed M. C. (Your Nov. 17 edition.)

My wife and I heartily sympathize with M. C. but I want to take the opportunity to point out to her, that she will find a lot of good high class music on CKUA.

The latter is our favorite station. In the morning we first get the devotional service, then there is usually some light classical music before noon. At 1 p.m. there is an hour of more good music—the program is called "The Music Lovers' Corner." There is invariably more classical music as the afternoon passes.

Then at 7 p.m. another hour of good music. The service of this station has meant so much to us.

Some time ago there was talk of CKUA getting a commercial license. Would this have meant that they would be "advertising" too? If that is the case, I confess we are deeply grateful they did not get their license. (Of course I speak only from my own selfish point of view.)

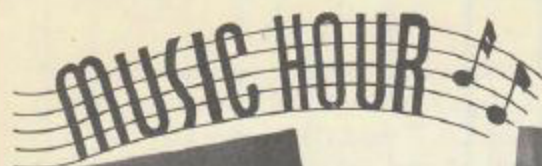

We have come to regard CKUA and their staff as very good friends.

So M. C. turn your dial over to CKUA and I am sure you will find the kind of music you like.

CKUA BROADCAST GUIDE

ART WARD

SPORTS! As we go to press, a glance at the standings in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League reveal the former cellar dwellers in years gone by—Regina Caps—now high atop the ladder with a total of 20 points and just three marks in the loss column.

In second place—Calgary Stampede have 14 points, followed by Lethbridge, Saskatoon and Edmonton in that order with twelve, ten and eight points respectively

A reminder that yours truly will be on hand to bring you a word picture of the following Edmonton Flyer games this month from the Edmonton Arena:

December 5	Saskatoon	December 15	Regina
December 9	Lethbridge	December 19	Calgary
December 13	Calgary	December 26	Lethbridge

We'll also make the trips to Lethbridge, December 2nd, and to Calgary, December 20th, for the only away-from-home games of the month.

"CKUA's Camera Club" . . . on the air every Friday night at 10:15 brings to its listeners many helpful hints on the art of photography. Nearly everyone at one time or another is seized with the desire to take pictures, some in pursuit of a hobby, some in the wish for a record of eventful happenings of their lives. Regardless of whether you are serious or not in this pastime, you will find many helpful hints in CKUA's Camera Club. This program is prepared and conducted by CKUA's Chief Engineer, Roy Usher, and one of Edmonton's leading photographers, Orval Allen. Each week some phase of photographic art is discussed, such as lighting, mood, subject matter, and out of all this come many aids to the amateur. The listeners are invited to write in expressing any problems they might have, together with some of their snapshots. These in turn are discussed over the air, and suggestions made as to the method of overcoming these difficulties. Through the Camera Club CKUA hopes to make photography a hobby enjoyed by many.

ROY USHER

ORVAL ALLEN
