PAT NOVAK
FOR HIRE
PAIN GETS
EXPENSIVE

"She sauntered in, moving slowly from side to side like a hundred and eighteen pounds of warm smoke."

If you got the idea that Pat Novak was a rather single-minded fellow, you'd be wrong. He appreciated liquor every bit as much as he appreciated women. He could be found most nights popping shots and wisecracks with his saloon-owner pal Jocko Madigan (Tudor Owen). But, most of all, he appreciated the crisp greenness of a new fifty-dollar bill.

Novak, as played by Jack Webb, was every cliché of a Hard Boiled Detective ever written, and that was exactly what made the series' inimitable combination of gritty drama and straight-faced satire work so well.

WORLD WAR II HOMEFRONT: VOLUMES 1 & 2 2 DVD SET

As World War II raged in Europe and the Pacific, the fate of the free world hung in the balance. The U.S. Government produced these dramatic films to alert Americans that it was essential for every citizen to contribute and sacrifice in order to achieve victory against the Axis Powers.

Hollywood's biggest stars helped to bring this message home, including Humphrey Bogart, Katherine Hepburn, Jimmy Stewart, Susuan Hayward, James Cagney, Alan Ladd, Betty Hutton, Ann Sothorn, Margaret O'Brien, and more.

Films include: America's Hidden Weapon; Civilian Defense; Community At War; Furlough; Gas Racket; Glamour Girls Of 1943; It's Up To You; No Alternative; No Exceptions; Women In Defense; A Letter From Bataan; Fellow Americans; A Challenge To Democracy; Skirmish On The Homefront; What To Do in a Gas Attack; You, John Jones!; Men Of Fire; Report From The Front

Adventure

For most of the 20th century, the definition of an American intellectual was simple – someone who listened to the William Tell Overture without thinking of The Lone Ranger. Blanche: Why don't you kiss me goodnight? John: I'm not facing that way.

Created and written by Philip Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Bickerson were the first married couple on radio to have a truly adversarial relationship. Scathing, sarcastic and comical - there was nothing sweet or tender about their pillow talk, but it sure was funny!

Did you know . . . Red Skelton's movie career got a boost when he became the protégé of silent-screen legend Buster Keaton!

RED SKELTON SCRAPBOOK OF SATIRE

Red Skelton's impressive gallery of comic characterizations didn't need to be seen to be hilarious! Through sound alone, he brought to life a "fellow from the country," an inept outlaw, a down-for-the-count boxer, a shady politician, a Brooklynese braggart – and a holy terror known as "Junior, the Mean Widdle Kid."

To commemorate Skelton's centennial birthday, Radio Spirits presents this collection of previously uncirculated broadcasts. Three of these are rehearsal recordings, in which Red cuts loose with wild ad-libs and general tomfoolery that never fail to convulse both his regulars and the audience.

This collection co-stars Verna Felton, Pat McGeehan, Anita Ellis, GeGe Pearson, Wonderful Smith, Lurene Tuttle and announcer Rod O'Connor.

DUFFY'S TAVERN: DUFFY AIN'T HERE

Archie the bartender assaulted the English language, and insulted most of Hollywood, in one of the goofiest slapstick comedies on radio. ## BERGEN & McCARTHY: W. C. FIELDS & FRIENDS

Here's one of radio's greatest comic rivalries: the blustery W. C. Fields facing off against the impudent Charlie McCarthy! You'll also hear Don Ameche, Dorothy Lamour, Nelson Eddy, and some guy named Edgar Bergen!

The pomposity of Fields' comic persona clashes spectacularly with Charlie's, the foe of the haughty and the self-absorbed, in their no holds barred feud. Before and after their battles, the more composed Bergen plays host to a variety of guest stars, including Carole Lombard, Hoagy Carmichael, Rodgers & Hart, and more.

These nine digitally remastered episodes feature Fields' first and last appearance as a regular cast member, and his last appearance as a guest.

BERGEN & McCARTHY: THE FUNNY FIFTIES

"I'll clip ya, Bergen - so help me, I'll mow you down!"

Charlie cheerfully threatens, insults, and otherwise needles the elegant Edgar through 16 digitally remastered episodes - all of them from the 1950's, and seven of them never before available to the public.

The aging, man-crazy mannequin Effie Clinker bends your ear (and her elbow); and modest Mortimer Snerd gives new meaning to the phrase "ventriloquist's dummy." Meanwhile, music and performing legends Rosemary Clooney, Fred MacMurray, Jo Stafford, Peggy Lee, Liberace, David Niven, and Gordon MacRae, bring their melodies and their mischief to the program. Of course, The Mellow Men are on hand, and even Bergen sings!

Includes a Program Guide by Derek Tague. Episodes: Guest: Gordon MacRae 10-11-53; Guests: Fred MacMurray and Anita Gordon 10-18-53; Guest: Liberace 01-17-54; Guest: Dorothy Kirsten 01-24-54; Guest: Terry Moore 01-31-54; Guest: June Allyson 02-28-54; Guest: Jane Wyman 03-14-54; Guest: Peggy Lee 03-21-54; Guest: Rosemary Clooney 03-28-54; Guest: David Niven 04-04-54; Guest: Jo Stafford 04-11-54; Guest: Ann Blyth 04-25-54; Guest: Eileen Moseby 12-18-55; Interplanetary Western 04-08-56; Ben Him 04-15-56; Lost in the Woods 04-22-56
