

HELLO AGAIN!

A PERSONAL NOTE: Many thanks to all the wonderful letters received following the January issue. It's people like you that make the whole thing worth while and rewarding. Also thanks to Henry Wrightington and Frank Bresee for sending tapes of Benny tributes (more later)... A list of 16mm film and video tape collectors will be in this issue.. Next month I would like to print a fairly complete list of all stations carrying original programs about vintage radio--not stations carrying rebroadcasts or current shows such as CBS Mystery Theater (there are too many)--but original shows playing excerpts, miscellaneous shows, and interviews, often hosted or co-hosted by a collector such as Chuck Schaden, Roy Bright, John Dunning, etc. The information should include call letters, frequency, city, time and day show is on, host, format, etc...If you want specific answers to questions many collectors send a SASE (self addressed stamped envelope) which is appreciated. Whenever you send one, especially for logs and listings, please make it legal sized.

IN FOND MEMORY: Ken Rettberg reminded me of the death of Eddie Dunstedter on July 30, 1974 at the age of 76. He was a well known organizer. He had his own radio shows in the 30's and 40's on such stations as WCCO in Minneapolis and KMOX in St. Louis. He did much recording and scored many films. Eddie was part of "Three Consoles" broadcasts with Milton Charles and Ann Leaf...Lawrence Blochman, 74; writer of many radio and television programs...Ray Morgan, Jan 5; announcer, actor on such shows as WE THE PEOPLE, GANGBUSTERS, COUNTERSPY, WHEN A GIRL MARRIES. Also announcer on early TV shows...Bess Johnson, Jan 3, 73; voice of Lady Esther on Wayne King; active in TODAY'S CHILDREN, HILLTOP HOUSE, STORY OF BESS JOHNSON, MARY MARLIN, TRUE CONFESSIONS...Fannie Cavanaugh, Jan 13, 83; With her husband Eddie, started on KYW in Philadelphia in 1922 with one of the oldest talk and entertainment shows. Fannie played piano and Eddie sang...Les Mitchel, Jan 12, 70; Actor-director on BACKSTAGE WIFE, DREFT STAR PLAYHOUSE, HELEN TRENT, STARS OVER HOLLYWOOD...Louis Jordan, Feb 4, 66; band leader; played alto saxophone; hits included IS YOU IS OR IS YOU AIN'T MY BABY... Julia Sanderson, Jan 27, 87; wife of Frank Commit with whom she was on several programs; both sang very well; shows included BATTLE OF THE SEXES, BLACKSTONE PLANTATION, and their own show which had the theme "Sweet Lady"...Ruth Matteson, 65; ALDRICH FAMILY and AGAINST THE STORM...

MONITOR conceived by NBC head Pat Weaver breathed its first in June 1955. Dave Garroway and Peter Roberts were among the first communicators. Others who followed were: Hugh Downs, Barry Nelson, Frank Blair, Ted Brown, Murray the K, Gene Raeburn, Jim Lowe, Henry Morgan, Cindy Adams. A new concept in radio with a combination of recorded music, news, interviews, remote pick-ups and lots of comedy by the likes of: Bob and Ray, Fibber McGee, and Molly, Mike Nichols and Elaine May, Jerry Stiller and Anne Meara, Phyllis Diller, Jonathan Winters. Marlene Dietrich gave out beauty hints for awhile. Miss Tedi Thurman was Miss Monitor. It was aired for the last time after 19½ years on Sunday, Jan 26, 1974.

Publications: Does anyone know the details of a book entitled "The Mighty Music Box" by Thomas DeLong. It is a history of music on radio. ...It was a welcome sight to see the latest issue of Radio Dial. Apparently Charlie Ingersoll is able to keep the excellent quarterly in print. Details: $7.50 a year. Published quarterly by Radio Historical Society, Box 190, Colquet, Minn 55720...New book out is "This Was Radio" by Joseph Julian; Viking Press; 238 pps; $8.95. When I see it I will tell you more...John Dunning, Box 18514, Denver, Col 80218 has just signed a contract with Prentice-Hall to produce a comprehensive book, about 500 pages, on radio. He would like the help of any of my readers who can give him data, anecdotes, dates of shows, colorful backstage stuff, factual material on all shows. John would like to hear from those who specialize in certain shows. All will get credit in the book. If you have special knowledge of shows, dates, stars, sound effects, etc. drop John a card...

PERSONALITIES: On Jan 21, 1975 The Pacific Pioneer Broadcasters presented Bob Hope with a Golden Ike award. On hand were Gen Omar Bradley, Wendell Niles, Janie Paige, Edgar Bergen and others. Hope, who received 2 standing ovations, has received more awards than any other civilian, according to Mr. Niles.

JACK BENNY: Frank Bresee sent me a tape of a 7 minute tribute to Benny which was aired on Feb 8th on the National Leukemia Radiothon. Tape also contained program #339 of the Golden Days of Radio in which Mel Blanc was interviewed...Henry Wrightington, 571 State St, Hanson, Ma 02341 sent me a 3-hour tribute to Benny from WBZ in Boston. Larry Glick was the host with Mel Simons as co-host. Phone conversations were had with Don Wilson, Dennis Day, Mel Blanc, Frank Nelson, Benny Rubin, and Phil Harris. Henry has this for trade if any are interested...Harold Callanon shared these words about the loss of Jack Benny:

I SHARE YOUR SENSE of loss with the passing of Jack Benny. Jack was a comic genius with few peers. His radio broadcasts are classics, as fresh and vital today as when they were first aired. His presentation was so deceptively simple and effortless that it perhaps masked his true greatness, but that is one of the true marks of genius - the ability to make the difficult seem simple and natural. That, combined with the warmth of his personality which always came through the characterization of the selfish miser, has make Jack Benny part of our folklore. We had his physical presence for eighty years, but his influence and legend will live as long as entertainment itself....

I sent copies of the last issue to various colleagues of Jack Benny. I received a nice letter and autographed picture from Mel Blanc. Mel will continue to receive HELLO AGAIN. Thank you for your kind remarks, Mel.
