BOOKS: THE JACK BENNY SHOW by Milt Josephsberg; Arlington House. ..According to John Adams, Jack McKinney and Jerry Balburn will soon release a 2 record set and book on Boyd Raeburn.

PUBLICATIONS AND CLUBS: Charlie Ingersobl has stopped writing Radio Dial and after 20 years of service THE RADIO HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA has come to an end. The main reason is his health. You may get refunds by writing him. Charlie has performed a service that will be unmatched and we will miss his newsletter. He is now writing a book about old radio days. The first volume will be about 100-150 pages and will be about $5.00. Let him know if you are interested in getting it. It should be ready about the middle of 1977... Stephen Albert, 132 Withington Rd, Newtonville, Ma 02160 has begun to publish a small booklet (bi-monthly) called THE TV COLLECTOR. It is for those who collect TV soundtracks, video tapes and memorabilia. Send Steve $1.00 for a sample... The Denver Old Time Radio Club is very active and is in touch with most other clubs... CORRECTION: Last month I said Allen Rockford's newsletter was $2.00. It is $2.50... More on Clubs: The last 2 years has seen a great growth of local clubs in this country and Canada. They are all helping its local members and other clubs. The Denver Club is trying to start a library of old news clippings, list of books about radio, magazine articles. If you have anything or want information about starting a club write John Lloyd, 2667 E 99th Ave, Thornton, Col 80229... The June 21st issue of Broadcasting will have a special report on the first 50 years of NBC. Allen Rockford will have about 15 copies for $2.00 each. Send to him at 505 Seeley Rd, Syracuse, NY 13224.
