Many people sent 30¢ postage. Remember, the second ounce is only 13¢...This issue begins my tenth year involved in old-time radio. HELLO AGAIN started in April of 1970. It goes to a little over 300 people. I appreciate all your support.

Several articles by Charles Stumpf including: Jane Withers, The Mauch Twins, Mabel Paige, Guy Lombardo, Mickey Mouse.

BOOKS: GOLDEN THROATS AND SILVER TONGUES by Ray Poindexter; Box 1174, North Little Rock, Ark 72115. Already reviewed by other pubs. Has much information about all the announcers but is written chronologically so information on each one is spread out through book; Cost is $10.50.

CLUBS: Charlie Ingersoll, 315 1st Ave SE, Aitkin, Minn 56481 actively involved in Ray Noble Fan Club. Anyone interested in joining write Charlie...

SURVEY: TAPE INFORMATION: 18 people responded to the survey. 7 buy their tape from Gary Kramer (Omega Magnetics), Box 39253, Redford, Mich 48239. He is prompt and reliable according to these readers. His flyers appear in various newsletters including mine. Shamrock is priced from $1.45. Ampex and CBS tape is priced from $2.35. He has monthly specials as do many mail order businesses so prices could change...3 buy their tape from Saxitone in Wash, DC. They used to sell Capitol Tape but Capitol has discontinued manufacturing tape. Saxitone has their own brand from $1.59...2 buy Shamrock locally from $1.03...1 buys Scotch from Soundd Investment, Atlanta, Ga.. 1 buys Scotch and TDK from Mck's Tapetown-$5.10 and $4.65...1 buys DAK tape for $2.74...2 buy Ampex and Shield from Olson Electronics in Boston; $1.19 and 88¢... 1 buys Concertape from Radio Shack-$1.35...2 buy Ampex through 3PERDVAC or RHAC. If you belong to certain Radio Clubs, they can buy in quantity from the factory...1 buys Ampex from Long Electronics, Box 11347, Birmingham, Ala 35202 ...1 had problems with Shamrock and Concertape because it wouldn't thread evenly through his TEAC.

It is important that when you trade each of you agree on the brand of tape you are sending.

The people mentioned above also sell cassettes. Most have monthly specials. Unless you live near an inexpensive dealer, it is best to order in quantity by mail...I don't have the addresses of all the distributors. If you have had success with mail order people other than Omega and Longs, please send the addresses.

One person mentioned that several government agencies sell their used tape to certain surplus stores and distributors. Check your area.

Any further information or comments would be appreciated.
