

HELLO

AGAIN

A PERSONAL MESSAGE: On November 25th I reached the age of 40, unlike Jack Benny. I am now half of his age...Oh well..Time marches on...I am looking for the September issues of the 1973 and 1974 TV Guide which previews the new shows with the cast. If anyone has them or copies I would appreciate it. It's not too often I am the one looking for something...Hope you all have a very merry holiday.

DATES AND TITLES: Received some edited SUSPENSE's from John Adams and would like some help: "Affair at Aden" w/ F Lovejoy and "A Pretty Girl" w/ V Perrin and Lynn Allen appear to be the correct titles of two of them but I have no dates for them. What are the titles and/or dates of the following: The Roseville murders...Dan, 38, goes upstairs and has what appears to be a heart attack...Allen and Elsie think they have a wheel in their liver...last 2 have C and Elliot Lewis...Willie dies. question of who was the boys father

IN FOND MEMORY: C Maurice Holland, Nov 14, Holland directed such shows as Sammy Kaye, Charlie McCarthy. In World War II he produced COMMAND PERFORMANCE. For 10 years he was the producer of Kraft Television Theater from 1948...Olga Baclanova, 74, Nov...John B Gambling, 77, Nov 21. John was on WOR radio from 1925 to 1958 as an early morning radio personality. Called "Rambling with Gambling" John B. and his son, John A who took over the show in 1958 were among the highest paid performers in radio.....

TRIBUTE TO JANE ACE by Charles Stumpf: One of the air waves zaniest ladies, Jane Ace, half of the famed "Easy Aces," passed away at the age of 74 on Nov. 11, 1974. Born Jane Sherwood at Kansas City, she married top comedy writer Goodman Ace in 1928...EASY ACES was born on the spot one day in 1930 at station KMBC in their hometown when Jane visited her husband at the studio where he broadcast a daily program called "The Movie Man." Jane was called into the studio to ad-lib her way through a 15-minute impromptu show to fill in for an absent performer. She was an immediate comedy sensation and EAST ACES became a permanent feature...The program aired 3 times a week over the local station for a year and then moved on to Chicago where it was broadcast from the Drake Hotel for 2 years over WGN carried by the CBS network. The show then moved to New York and began its long run over the CBS network there on October 10, 1933 as a daytime feature. It returned to a nighttime spot in 1935 and continued for the next 10 years when it temporarily left the air...The Aces returned to broadcasting in 1948 for CBS, this time around the show called MR. ACE AND JANE and was heard during the 1948-49 season for a half-hour weekly with a live audience, debuting on Jan 16, 1948. The show underwent another format change and during 1951-52 it was called JANE ACE, DISC JOCKEY and was heard with Goodman as a permanent guest. There was also a filmed TV series which appeared briefly in 1957...Jane became famous for her awful malpropisms, to which Mr. Ace usually replied, "Isn't that awful." The show's theme was Manhattan Sereenade and was sponsored for many years by Anacin. Jane had a friend named Marge, played by Mary Hunter, now an executive with the Stratford (Conn) Shakespeare Festival. She also often referred to her brother Paul. Among some of her memorable malpropisms: We're insufferable friends--Reasons too humorous to mention--In words of one cylinder--We were playing things together--You could have knocked me over with a fender...Jane Ace was one of radio's immortals and will be remembered most fondly.

PUBLICATIONS AND ACTIVITIES: The 4th annual convention of SAVE (Society of American Vintage Radio Enthusiasts) was held at Howard Johnson's in Milford on Dec 7th. Chairman was Sal Trapani...Personalities present were Hyman Brown, Sam Digges, pres. of CBS Radio, Mandel Kramer, Raymond Edward Johnson, Will Jordan, and John Dukas...Raymond presented a very dramatic reading entitled "An Already Condemned One." The William Spier awards were presented to Hy Brown and Sam Digges. Talks were given by M Kramer, Brown and Digges. Will Jordan entertained us with his imitations and nostalgia. If you send an 1800' blank reel to Sal Trapani, Box 377, Seymour, Ct 06483, he will send you a copy of the evenings festivities...Collectors there included L Palmer, B Pettit, H Carlin, H Wrightington, W Haigh, R Miller, E Corcoran, M Franklin, H Schwartz, J Schlamp, B Smerekanicz, S Weiss, J O'Neal, N Berman.....Received RADIO IN DEPTH, Sep 1974, Box 3634, Bryan, Tex 77801; bimonthly; $14.00 a year; Highlights: 14 pages of information about sound effects...Received first issue of RADIO HISTORIAN: Box 11983, Shorewood, Wisc 53211; issued quarterly; $5.00 a year. 27 page printed magazine with many different features covering all aspects of radio and collecting. It is written by three business men in Wisconsin interested in vintage radio. It does have classified ads which you have to pay for...The Nostalgia Journal, Box 242, Lewisville, Tex 75067; issues free for a while. This is an adzine filled with ads about comic books, pulps, posters, etc...

CATALOGS: Herb Sadowsky, 105-25 65th A, Forest Hills, NY 11375; Sep supplement...Dave Siegel, 351 Amherst A, Ticonderoga, NY 12883; updates of shows beginning with N-S; 56 THEATER GUILD, UEs; reels 20-38 of documentaries; 2 reels of ARCH OBOLER PLAYS; ...Larry Flegle, 1004 E Pawhatan, Tampa, Fla 33604; 300 shows on cassette; 1/2-track reel by Jan 1st...

QUIZ: Activating a feature: What follows are 10 real names of personalities who appeared on radio. What are their names we know them by? Lewis D. Offied; Leonard Slye; Joe Yule; Dorothy McNulty; Harriette Lake; Amos Jacobs; Kathleen Elizabeth White; Isaiah Edwin Leopold; John F Sullivan; Dominic Amici; contributed by Ken Neal. Answers and more next week. Send in your answers if you want.

PERSONALITIES: Philip Morris must have had several Johnny's. I mentioned in an earlier edition that Louis Roventini retired since he started in 1931. He was the one you heard on radio. The Enquirer mentions Dale Paullin who says he was the first Johnny and toured the country from 1937-57.
