TRIBUTE TO VINCENT LOPEZ by Charles Stumpf

2

Vincent Lopez, famed band leader, died at the age of 80 on Sep 20th, 1975. Born in Brooklyn of Portuguese ancestry, he was the son of a former Navy bandmaster. Vincent became a bandleader in 1916 while playing in an orchestra at the Pekin Rest. on Times Square, filling in when the leader didn't show up one day. He brought about a radio first in 1921 by conducting his orchestra on station WJZ for the first remote pickup from the Pennsylvania Grill. His theme "Nola" was written by Felix Arndt in 1922. Emerging from the Lopez band were future leaders G Miller, A Shaw, C Spivak and X Cugat. He was also instrumental in furthering the musical careers of singers Betty Hutton, changed from Betty Darling, and Abbe Lane. Lopez had a great interest in numerology and his predictions were frequently printed in newspapers. In 1961 he wrote a book NUMEROLOGY published by Citadel Press. It is believed Lopez started the radio "give-away" craze back in 1921 when he offered a free photo of himself to fans who wrote in.
