

A PERSONAL NOTE: On June 15th Jeff, my 16-year old, received his Eagle award in scouting and during the week of the 11th is participating in an international jamboree at which will be scouts from 23 foreign countries. FALL CONVENTION: Definite date is October 30th at Holiday Inn in Meriden, Conn. The next committee meeting will be at the home of Carol and Bob Witte in Scarsdale on July 25th. A flyer should be out by August. Make sure you reserve that date. It should be the biggest yet. Many people have indicated they are coming and many are helping with the details.

DATES AND TITLES: TIM AND IRENE, recently circulated, should be 9/20 and 9/27/36..not 4/20 and 4/27....Question was raised on 2 different BENNY shows dated 5/22/55; The one recently circulated which is complete is the actual show. Dennis Day sings "Lady of Spain" and M Livingston appears. The one that had been around for some time is the rehearsal. Mary does not appear and Dennis sings Mickey McGuire." Information was sent by Don Koehnemann. There are also other differences. Listen to both of them side by side.

IN FOND MEMORY: Johnny Mercer, 66, June 25; prolific composer who was on YOUR HIT PARADE and KRAFT MUSIC HALL...Mike Roy, 63, June 26; Roy had a talk show from KNX (CBS) in which he talked about recipes. Author of several cook books. Was announcer on ROAD OF LIFE, DUFFY'S TAVERN, ALAN YOUNG...Arlene Harris, 79, June 12; Was on Al Pearce and Baby Snorks (The human chatterbox).

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED: Sperdvac Bulletin (monthly newsletter) of Society to Preserve and Encourage Radio Drama, Variety and Comedy (Sperdvac). It is a club in the Los Angeles area. For information write Sperdvac, Box 1587, Hollywood, Cal 90028. Many of my subscribers belong to it. It is very active and at recent meetings have had many personalites including Stan Freberg...On The Air, quarterly publication of Golden Radio Buffs of Maryland. Another very active group. For information write David Easter, 106 King Charles Court, Baltimore, Md 21237....Horn Speaker, published monthly except July and August. $4.50 a year. It is a newspaper for the hobbyist of vintage electronics and sound, especially old phonographs and radios. Write Jim Cranshaw, 9820 Silver Meadow Dr, Dallas, Tex 75217.

BOOKS AND COURSES: Burt Brown ran a one-credit extension course at the Univ. of Rhode Island with 20 students this spring with very good results...Joe Franklin of WOR is writing a biography of "Uncle" Don Carney. It should be published late this year. Uncle Don definitely did not sign off his show once with the well-known phrase. Joe's book will also contain information about Marion Sayle Taylor, The Voice of Experience...John Dunning's monumental anthology of radio should be off the press by Christmas. The title is TUNE IN YESTERDAY, has over 1000 pages, a 4000 entry index. It is being published by Prentice-Hall. John has over 50 radio-related books and is looking for more including Crosby's "Call Me Lucky," Mary M McBride "Out of the Air," Corwin and Oboler material, Howard Koch's "Panic Broadcast" in hard cover and Ron Lackmann's "Remember Radio." John has over 12,000 shows to trade. If you can help write him at Box 18514, Denver, Col 80218. Also seeking Harmon's "Great Radio Heroes" and Hymers "Small House Halfway up the Block."

IF BOX IS CHECKED, $6.00 IS DUE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

SPECIAL TOPIC: I've had very bad luck with getting answers from my readers. Last month I asked for those Taping TV-Benny reruns and for those companies or individuals that are selling syndicated material to radio stations and got only two responses on the first (Ray Stanich, and John Adams are both collecting Benny) and no responses on the second. I will try one more time. If you are or have ever taught a high school or college course on old time radio please let me know. For someone interested in doing one, He could contact you. Please help.
