FROM HAL PEARY: On May 9th, The father of NMC on the Pacific Coast, Con E Gilman passed away at his son's home in Watsonville, Cal at the age of 94. His son is Paige Gilman who played Jack on ONE MAN'S FAMILY. Paige is now business manager of a newspaper, The Watsonville Register-Pajaronian...Don Gilman was the first VP of NBC on the west coast, ~~KXX~~ first in San Fran and then Hollywood from 1937-1942. He then headed the Blue Network out there from 1942 to 1946 as VP in charge of operations

It was Don who introduced myself, Meredith Willson, Tom and Irene Ryan, Carlton Morse and the entire cast of One Man's Family to radio in the early years in San Fran and insisted we be paid $10, $15 and $25 a program when everyone else in San Fran and in Los Ang in those days (1929-33) were being paid from $2 to $7.50. Bob Burns once told me that $7.50 was tops in LA radio until 1936-that's what he earned as "Soda Pop," a black face comic on GILMORE CIRCUS before he went east and landed with THE RUDY VALLEE SHOW in 1937 in NY. Cliff Arquette as "Aunt Addy" was also on Gilmore Circus.
