Description

This book is the definitive guide to the film, stage, radio and television career of Kay Francis, one of the most glamorous stars from the golden age of Hollywood. For each film, the authors provide a thorough synopsis plus cast and crew information (including biographies), opening dates, production notes, behind-the-scenes details, and reviews. In addition, information is provided on her stage, radio, and television appearances, and a section is devoted to collecting

Kay Francis memorabilia, including such items as cigarette cards, sheet music, and soundtracks. Also covered is the stage and vaudeville career of Kay Francis' mother, Katherine Clinton. A brief biography of Kay Francis is provided, along with an insightful foreword by film scholar James Robert Parish. Truly a treasure trove for Kay Francis fans and anyone interested in classic film making in the 1930s and 1940s, the book includes more than 100 illustrations, many of them rare.

From McFarland: Cat Whiskers and Talking Furniture; A Memoir of Radio and Television Broadcasting by John Rayburn ; 256pp. softcover 2008; $35

Description

A longtime broadcaster, John Rayburn has covered major news and sporting events for more than 60 years on popular radio and television programs. Having been in the business for nearly two-thirds of official broadcasting history, Rayburn relies on his extensive experience to give this unique, firsthand account of several historic events and developments in broadcasting history.

The story begins in the early days of radio, when most listeners relied on a primitive crystal-and-wire "cat whisker" radio and most broadcasters relied on cumbersome shellac transcription discs to record their programs. Rayburn gives a witty and warmhearted account of historic developments in the next seven decades in broadcasting history, fondly recalling Edward R. Murrow's live broadcasts from London in World War II, the heyday of Little Orphan Annie and her secret decoder badges, and his own participation in the early days of full-time color television news broadcasts, among many other landmark broadcast events. Along with his personal memoir, the author includes conversations and interviews with many noted individuals, including Bill Stern, Ronald Reagan, Rin Tin Tin, Burl Ives, Milton Berle, and Jimmy Carter.

The 2008 Friends of Old-Time Radio Script Contest is now open. This is the 15th year we are offering this. This time we're looking for a Science Fiction show with a DIFFERENCE: It can be a spoof (takeoff), or straight (authentic). You MUST indicate which on the front page. There's usually an opening commercial for an existing product, or for one you invent (also middle and closing spots, but each should be very brief.) Please print in 10 point, double spaced.

The deadline is August 31, 2008. Mail to:

Dave Zwengler, 319 Plymouth Road, North Brunswick, NJ 08902

Prize for winning script is $200.00; Second prize is $100.00. It will be performed at THIS YEAR'S Convention (A CHANGE). The judges are experienced Committee members of FOTR "
