SPERDVAC Convention

SPERDVAC's seventh annual old time radio convention is November 9 and 10, 1990. We will salute pioneer radio programs at the Viscount Hotel, located near Los Angeles International Airport.

Again this year we will feature radio show recreations during our convention, including Tom Corbett, Space Cadet with Frank Thomas, the original program star. And both days we will present workshops and panel discussions featuring many of the era's top performers.

Admission to the complete two day convention is $70 until Nov. 1, 1990. After that date admission to the complete convention will be available at the door for $75. Registration and the Dealers' Room open at 2 pm Friday. There will be a no-host bar beginning at 6:30 pm and the dinner/program starts at 7:30 pm. Friday's workshops begin at 2:30 pm. On Saturday, registration begins at 8:30 am. The Dealers' Room reopens at 9 am and the day's first workshop also begins then. The convention will conclude at about 10:30 pm Saturday.

These individual event rates have been established for those unable to attend the entire convention: Friday afternoon workshops and evening sit-down dinner and program: $30; Saturday daytime workshops: $10 (There will be no formal lunch served. Meals are available at the Viscount and at nearby restaurants.); Saturday evening banquet and program recreation: $35.

Dealers' tables will be available for those who wish to sell radio-related items. (Unauthorized sales of unlicensed radio broadcasts are prohibited.) Dealer tables are available for $30 each. Dealers wishing to attend events outside the Dealers' Room must register for those events. To reserve a dealer table, contact Catherine Passarelli at 10615 Butterfield Road, Los Angeles, CA 90064.

The Viscount has accommodations available for those who wish to stay overnight. The special SPERDVAC convention rate is $66.08, including 12% bed tax, per room each night. The hotel also offers a special $2 per day parking rate for tickets validated by SPERDVAC. Shuttle service from Los Angeles International Airport is available free by phoning the Viscount from the airport. To take advantage of these reduced rates, contact the Viscount directly and specify you are attending the SPERDVAC convention. Their address is 9750 Airport Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90045. Phone: (213) 645-4600 or (800) 255-3050 outside Southern California.
