JIMMY STEWART

Read His Message to the Public

The Editors' Note:

HOLLYWOOD PATRIOT number one is Jimmy Stewart, whose portrait by Jack Albin appears on this week's So significant is the speech he made recently at the United Service Organization Conference in May that Movie-Radio Guide's editors take a vacation from editorial writing, reproduce Corporal James Stewart's speech below as an inspiration to all young Americans.

ADIES and gentlemen! In a month and a half of military service, one of the first things I learned was that an enlisted man in the United States Army should at all times listen very attentively, obey orders and, above all, do very little talking. So that as I get up here to attempt to make a speech I not only have stage fright to contend with (a thing which I well remember from my former profession) but also there is the new possibility of kitchen police for talking too much. However, I have been detailed to appear before you at the request of your committee to present the viewpoint of an enlisted man. I am well aware that there are many soldiers of much longer service than I who would be better qualified to give you this viewpoint. However, I do believe that I can tell you something about what the men of the new Army feel.

During my first week in the service, the first sergeant of my outfit came into the barracks, called all the rookies around him and gave us a little talk on military discipline, military courtesy and soldiering in general. This sergeant was a young fellow . . . He was as straight as a ramrod, and when he talked to you he looked you straight in the eye, and when he told us in a very simple and direct way about what was expected of us as soldiers and about our duty to our country and our flag, you knew that he meant what he said with all his might and heart and soul, and none of us will ever forget it . . .

This new Army is "Young America." It is right and just that they should be the ones selected to serve in the armed forces. The men of the new Army have made sacrifices to come into the service of their country. But these sacrifices are happily made. We have come to love the service and as a whole find it pleasant. We appreciate the effort on your part, United Service Organizations, to make our service more pleasant.

Every individual in this new Army has turned his face from his normal civil pursuits, his shop or farm or office, business or profession, whatever it may have been, and his eyes are now lifted toward an ideal—an ideal of service to his country. His heritage as an American has made him conscious of his sacred duty to his flag. And the instructions of the splendid staff of officers of the Army have made him conscious of what is expected of him as a soldier. So that in this new United States Army there exists a unity of purpose and thought and action which cannot and will not be broken. The men of the new Army are confident that this same unity will come to exist among other men and women of America whose service is just as necessary for defense as ours. We have a right to expect this. We need ships, airplanes, guns, munitions and coal with which to defend our country and our way of life.

Every American has a job to dolet's get on with it.

CARY GRANT AND BARBARA HUTTON are going places together, but it's strictly a shh-shh affair. Witness is ace Movie-Radio Guide photographer, who kept watch for hours one cold morning at the Mocambo in order to get these pictures, was lucky to get even separate shots of them leaving place. Above: Barbara (right) and friend make getaway. Right, above: Cary leaves later in another car

Movietown's Most Secret Romance

To News Desk:

T WAS 1:30 a.m. when the doorman at a Hollywood night-club grabbed me by the coat-sleeve and said, "Johnnie (Johnnie is one of my contacts) just called from the Mocambo that G and H are over there." That sounded like a scoop, and I faded in a hurry. At the Mocambo, the boys on the lot warned me, "Hutton and Grant are inside, but don't think you can shoot them." So I took the camera out, got it ready and walked into the main dining-room, hoping to grab a shot before anyone would have a chance to say no pictures. Got about two yards inside the main room when the manager, Charlie Morrison, stopped me, said they didn't want any pics—meaning G and H. He said they'd driven up and told him they'd come in if no one was allowed to take pictures. Naturally Charlie had to protect his guests, much as he would have liked to see the picture and publicity go out, as it would have been good publicity for the Mocambo.

After that I picked up my camera and took it out in front, and hied myself inside to take a close look at the Woolworth millions and Cary. They were on the floor dancing, and as they passed by I looked at her. She doesn't know me, so did not recognize me, but as they danced around, Cary suddenly saw me grinning broadly. He clutched her tightly, got a sickly grin on his face in return for mine. Guess he didn't want her to think he knew me well enough to be friendly. As they danced, they didn't talk much. Once in a while he'd push her a bit from him and both would look into the other's eyes -and smile. Returning to the tables, they sat down with their party, which included Mr. and Mrs. David O. Selznick plus an unidentified man and woman. Later they were joined by Johnny Farrow and Maureen O'Sullivan, who'd been at Ciro's.

Seeing there was no way to get them inside,

I figured and figured how we could get pics of them as they left. There are only three exits from the Mocambo-the back door, the small door behind the bandstand and the front door. I saw the chauffeur, who had recognized me as a cameraman, go up and tip off the party. About that time Jules Buck, another photog, came by. I made a deal with Jules whereby if no other photographers showed up we would cover separate exits and wait for them to come out, then split the pictures in case one of us was left at the wrong place. I figured it'd still be a scoop for Movie-Radio Guide, because Jules' book doesn't compete with us. So we split up-and

Meanwhile, Barbara's chauffeur had taken the car around to the back entrance, covered the front door with Cary's coat. Hours of waiting in the cold and nothing happened. Bruce Bailey, my colleague, arrived and took over the front door, so we had all avenues of escape covered. Suddenly Barbara ran out with her two unidentified friends, got into their car and left, without Cary. We snapped her in the car. Cary stayed, had ham and eggs, then about an hour later left alone in another carheaded in the same direction Hutton had gone. We shot him as he got into the car. He didn't seem upset, just didn't pay any attention to us.-J. A.

Citizen Welles: What About His Private Life?

While Mobs Throng to See His Picture a Story Remains Untold

HOLLYWOOD PREDICTED Orson Welles would be a "flop" in producing "Citizen Kane," but now the film is showing everywhere and the public can see for itself whether there is, as rumor alleges, a comparison possible between Kane and the life of William Randolph Hearst, famed publisher. Movie-Radio Guide, considering Welles' own life, suspects he may have pulled a hoax equal to that of his famous "Martian War" broadcast. For reasons why that suspicion arises and may be justified, read the story below:

50 CERTAIN was Hollywood that "Citizen Kane" was in some particulars closely similar to the life of Hearst, a great American newspaper publisher, that the subject of whether Orson Welles would "dare" to release it was the cause of months of discussion. Yet the picture has been released and now the suspicion grows that if the story was about anybody at all, it could readily be about Orson Welles' favorite topic, Orson Welles. Like the character in his film, Orson's well-to-do father left an estate in trust to him. Orson at an early age was cheated of childhood by living with adults, and he did have a fondness for sleds, which is the first and last impression of the picture. It is said that Orson Welles often works as much as thirty-six hours at a stretch; so did Citizen Kane. Welles wrote his own opera critiques for a neighborhood paper at the age of nine. Welles was married to an actress, Virginia Nicholson, who played Trilby to his Svengali. Welles has a daughter named Christopher; his character Kane had a son named Charles. Like Kane, Welles clings to his friends, has men constantly around him who have been his associates for years. In Hollywood Welles has lived in fantastic mountainside homes. If anyone should force him to answer the truth about the basic idea of his picture he could readily say,

"This is as much my life as it is yours!"

Considering the current personal side of Welles' life, there is no question but that he intends to wed Dolores Del Rio the moment her divorce decree from Cedric Gibbons becomes final on Jan. 17, 1942. Although Orson once dated Paulette Goddard and Norma Shearer, he has had eyes for no one but Del Rio since their romance first began several months ago.—C. S.

Citizen Mickey: Why Can't He Have a Romance?

Rooney's Girls All Belong to Somebody Else Now

(1) LANA (JUDY) TURNER was one of the first girls in whom Mickey took an interest. They are both twenty now, and Lana is dating Tony Martin. (2) Mickey gives Jean Parker a friendly kiss. They never dated, were close friends. Jean is now Mrs. Doug Dawson. (3) Linda Darnell until recently danced a great deal with Mickey, now is seen places with Bob Jolly, Alan Gordon. (4) Mystery surrounded Mickey and Dolly Thon, dancer, with columnists predicting they'd marry. He hasn't seen her in months

PUZZLE to both Hollywood producers and young players is the answer to the question: Just when can a boy or girl be seriously romantic without injuring their careers? Two years ago a studio shushed romance stories about Deanna Durbin, tried to keep her an adolescent. Today she is a married woman. A few months ago an effort was made to dodge stories that Judy Garland might wed Dave Rose; now that is forgotten.

Meantime, Mickey Rooney will be 21 on Sept. 23, 1941, the date on which he can marry without his parents' consent. Yet until now he has been simply "Andy Hardy" to millions. It may be a good thing for Mickey that his movie roles have kept him a youngster, because he is impulsive, and if not wisely guided might have wed any one of a number of girls he has known simply by eloping to a state in which age requirements are not rigid.

One of Mickey's earliest dates was Judy (now Lana) Turner, whom he met while leading an orchestra at the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel. No less an authority than Patti McCarty, once a close friend of Judy Garland, reported that Mickey and Judy Garland were once "quite the thing," and that until recently he still pined for her. Then there was Dolly Thon, an Abbott dancer and a sweet girl who met Mickey at the Cocoanut Grove. Mickey happened to see her later in Florida and in Chicago. She is just Mickey's age. But all that seems forgotten now as Mickey for the first time in his life seems interested in one girl exclusively—Sheila Ryan, whom he now sees constantly. You can hardly put it down as a future-marriage proposition, but it certainly has the earmarks of real romance.—J. A.

Movie-Radio Guide Visits Sets of:

Pictures

OUTSTANDING among this year's crop of screen starlets, according to Hollywood's grapevine, is Gene Tierney, who has won herself a place among the greater actresses of Filmtown. After six months of walk-on parts, Gene left the movies for Broadway and the ingenue lead in "Male Animal." Brought back to Holly-wood by Darryl Zanuck for roles in "Hudson's Bay" and "Tobacco Road," she has just completed "Belle Starr," in which she plays the title role—a Scarlett O'Hara type of woman who hated Yankees as aftermath of Civil War. (Above: Close-up of Gene as Belle.)

"MAN HUNT" SCOOPS

MOST startling news of the war has been the flight of Rudolph Hess, number 20th Century-Fox found itself with a complete film showing a near parallel. Above, George Sanders, playing a Gestapo chief, talks with Hitler, an actor who must remain anonymous in "Man Hunt" because of those who might resent his playing such a role. Walter Pidgeon plays the man who sets out to kill Hitler just for the thrill. He has a chance, but passes it because getting the drop on Hitler isn't sporting. Dramatically the film shows how he changes his mind, flies to Germany and puts his rifle together as he drops by parachute, intent on finishing job. This "Hess in reverse" plot will reach theaters about June 27. Meanwhile Warner Bros., as explained below, plans to actually use Hess as a remote-control actor in "Underground."

"UNDERGROUND" RESHOT TO REVEAL WILD LIGHT OF NAZI

WAR plopped itself right in the middle of Warners' "Underground." Now parts of it are being refilmed to admit scenes of Rudolph Hess and his "desertion" of the Nazi cause. Originally "Underground" depicted desperate opposition of the Nazi regime based on activities of secret radio stations that told Germans the truth in spite of the Gestapo. The film tells how a returned soldier is fooled by his brother, who pretends to be a loyal Hitlerite yet fights Nazism. Rushing newsreels of Hess to Hollywood, putting writers on the story for long hours, Warner Bros. quickly completed a new twist involving Hess as a member of the cast. Unlike "Man Hunt," similarity to the most astounding news story of the year is deliberate. The pictures will reach the public not ten days apart.

IN "UNDERGROUND," Jeffrey Lynn (above) is at first a violent Nazi. Wounded at Dunkirk, he returns to Germany, and through his own brother becomes innocently involved in subversive work against Hitler

KAAREN VERNE, a new actress, is the hero-ine in "Underground." Kaaren battles the ruthless Gestapo staff while pretending to be loyal to the Third Reich, and (above) is cruelly beaten by agent to force a "confession"

PHILIP DORN, ringleader of the secret opposition in Germany, is finally caught, but not before he hears by radio that Hess escaped to Scotland -and his brother lives to carry on work

Martha will follow the type of tomfoolery that made her rich. She now earns almost double the $1,250 weekly offered when she was "a flop." Off-screen, Martha Raye and Ann Sheridan have become great friends, each night they have dinner with their men. Martha's: Hubby Neal Lang, hotel manager. Ann's: Actor George Brent

Movie-Radio Guide Reports On:

To News Desk:

EARNING the truth about Hollywood stars and the draft was easy. I thought I'd have a hard time getting it, but I was wrong. On receiving the assignment, I sought out Col. John Robenson, of the U.S. Army Eighth Corps Area. I convinced him I didn't want to write hooey, but facts, and that Movie-Radio Guide wished to report the draft situation faithfully. He

"I'm proud of Hollywood. I say that because forty percent of all the boys called up for the draft are physically incapable of becoming soldiers. Four out of ten can't make the team! Yet from the ranks of movie stars, Hollywood chalks up only one deferment, Richard Fiske, because of a wife, or on the dotted line a dependent. Not because of health, mind you!"

Stars Healthiest Men

So it seems that Hollywood movie actors are the healthiest men in the world! The Colonel explained the tail. It makes no exceptions for the Tyrone Powers, Errol Flynns, Orson Welleses or Robert Taylors. They are abiding by the same rules of the game. What many citizens fail to remember is that the call resolves itself into four distinct operations. First, a registrant's number comes up and he is sent a questionnaire. Second, a week or two later, he is given a physical examination. Third, based on questionnaire and examination, he is rated. If he is given Class 1A, then fourth, he will be inducted to camp at the next mobiliza-

When their numbers came up, four actors went through this routine, received their 1A's, and are now in the Army. They are Jimmy Stewart, Jackie Coogan, Douglas Walton and Keith

What About Others?

British stars David Niven, Richard Greene and Laurence Olivier joined the British forces-infantry, tank corps and air force, respectively. Other American actors (among them Ronald Reagan and Bob Cummings) hold officers' commissions in the reserve forces of the Army, the Marines or the Honorary mentions are deserved by Charles Boyer and Norman Kerry, who served in France till discharged, and Robert Montgomery who drove an American ambulance until France was defeated.

Orson Welles Will Go

Some press comments have chided that Orson Welles is a draft-dodger. I went into that carefully. It isn't true. Only now has he received his questionnaire. His physical examination is next. "It they want me," he said, "of course, I'll go."

Elsewhere on this page is a list of the better-known actors who fall within the age limits, together with their probable draft classifications. This is the record.

I'm glad to report there are no shirkers.-K. D.

FRED MAC MURRAY (left) and Errol Flynn as they appear in War-ners' "Dive Bomber," are both of draft age but will probably rate class 3A because of wives and dependents. Flynn actually flies a plane. MacMurray toots saxophone

HANDSOME BILL LUNDIGAN, also seen in a flying-suit as a pilot in Warner Bros.' "Flight Patrol," is single and an Army eligible. Bill stands six feet two, weighs 178 pounds, and in a uniform would break almost any girl's heart

TYRONE POWER'S next shows him (above) as "A Yank in the R. A. F." In real life, the 20th Century-Fox star is wed to Annabella and has other dependents, so would probably rate Class 3A. Otherwise he is close to the Army's ideal measurements

HOLLYWOOD SYMBOL

ACADEMY WINNER and feminine heart palpitator Jimmy Stewart won national respect and countless new fams when he left the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot several months ago and reported for United States' selectee army duty. Although he was preceded by three other actors in the draft army, it was to the name of actor Jimmy that the public's imagination fastened and made him "the example"

IDEAL SOLDIER

FIRST TO LEAVE Hollywood to join armed forces in the war was actor David Niven, under contract to Sam Goldwyn. Niven, a British subject and a reserve officer, is now a captain in His Majesty's infantry, location censored. Since Niven enlisted, Richard Greene and Laurence Olivier, also British subjects, have returned to aid their native land

THE United States Army isn't finicky about whom it lets fight, but it does have rigid standards of health. All selectees must pass strict physical examinations. Two ideal soldiers were pointed out at recruiting headquarters for the Eighth Corps Area, Los Angeles, Calif. One, Corporal Paul Armand Kary, is pictured at right. He isn't a Hollywood actor nor does he wish to be. He's just a good, average American boy whose characteristics make him what the U. S. Army considers the "ideal soldier." Corporal Kary is a blond with blue eyes (wears glasses for close work), stands five feet eleven inches, weighs 160 pounds and is twenty-three years old. He joined up January 3, 1941, is single, but has a girl. He is a high-school graduate and has had a year in junior college and another at business school. Of Finnish descent, his dad is a fisherman, but Corporal Kary wants to be a writer. He likes shows, dancing and strawberry shortcake.

Ideal soldier No. 2 (not pictured) was Corporal David G. Ambrose. He is a blue-eyed brunette, stands five feet eleven inches, weighs 155 pounds and is twenty-seven years old. He joined December 20, 1940, is single, is a highschool graduate with a year in the Los Angeles City College and also a year at business college. Of English, French and Austrian descent, his dad is a mining-man, but Corporal Ambrose enjoys Little Theater work and would like to become an actor. These are the men whom army officers singled out to give Movie-Radio Guide an idea of what the ideal soldier should be .- E. P.

Judy Garland Betrothal

Close upon the heels of Martha Raye's marriage in May to Neal Lang came the announcement of Judy Garland's engagement to Dave Rose, ex of Miss Raye, but the statement was released by Judy's mother—not Judy—nor was the "surprise" held up till Judy's joint birthday party June 15 with Dave Rose as had been planned. Miss Garland marks her nineteenth, Rose his thirtieth year June 10, but a party for friends is planned Sunday, June 15, in the garden at her house, where the engagement ring will be exhibited before acquaintances, who have followed the romance with interest. Their marriage may take place in the fall or winter, Judy and Dave say.

Before Miss Lamour departed on her idyllic vacation of a month, her Paramount Studios contract was renewed for its sixth year.

Dear Public:

WE ASKED for it and you certainly responded! As a result of the many letters received we have selected Movie-Radio Guide readers' Pet Movie Peeve of the Week, and this is it—the subject of DIVORCE in pic-

by Carl A. Schroeder

Whether movie writers and producers know it or not, divorce is not as common in most sections of the country as it is in the larger cities, particularly Hollywood. Because divorce is a common thing where movies are made, it is only natural that writers should think of it frequently as a basis for screen love-stories.

As readers of this column point out, the divorce theme is "cleaned up" at the end of the picture by bringing the couples happily together again. Usually such pictures include a "triangle," in which the "other man" is very much in evidence and frequently for the sake of comedy actually spends much of his time in the married couple's home. Now, as an unusual number of readers point out, the home is the foundation of everything that is truly American. For this reason it is impossible for most average moviegoers to think that such pictures are romantic, funny, or a fit subject for the entertainment of the family. Add to all this the fact that movie companies may suddenly release five pictures with divorce themes at the same time and a serious situation arises.

This columnist does not suggest that its readers immediately rush to write letters to Mr. Will Hays or to various producers on the subject. If you agree, disagree or have a Pet Movie Peeve, let this column know and all constructive suggestions will be brought through this column directly to the attention of those who control the type of movies now being produced. And don't forget, the best criticism is constructive criticism, so in your suggestions try to offer alternatives. Perhaps some current or classic novel you have read should be filmed. Perhaps a certain type of film appeals to you most. You are invited to send along any suggestions that may occur to you that would constructively help improve the story for a picture, or perhaps you may have been playing with an idea for an entire new opening or closing of a film. These suggestions will all be appreciated. Speak your mind sincerely and thoughtfully! Address Movie-Radio Guide Critics' Report, 9059 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif.

An added service to our readers beginning this week is the Brief Picture Guide. This gives a resume of recently reviewed pictures and some not reviewed previously in MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE. Keep it handy to guide you to better entertainment.

TO BE TABBED as a must-see picture is Paramount's "Shepherd of the Hills," the classic Harold Bell Wright story of hill people done in Technicolor. Above is a fight scene in which Ward Bond (on top) is choking John Wayne

Reviews

"In the Navy"

Cast: Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, Dick Powell, Claire Dodd, the Andrews Sisters, Dick Foran, et al. A Universal comedy; directed by Arthur Lubin with Alex Gottlieb as associate producer. Screen play by Arthur T. Horman and John Grant; music by Gene DePaul and Don Raye.

B<sup>UD</sup> ABBOTT'S and Lou Costello's new service epic, "In the Navy," is strictly corn, but we love corn. Like their "Buck Privates," it has all the rollicksome, streamlined Keystone cop tricks that make the movie-goer very, very happy and the exhibitor rich.

This time Dick Powell and Claire Dodd carry the romance theme.

Abbott and Costello are electrician and pastry cook at a naval base. Finally they get aboard a warship, practically wreck it when Abbott conspires with Costello to make him "captain" to impress the Andrews Sisters.

VERDICT: You'll need a good strong belt or foundation to keep from splitting your sides over this one. Warning to the Axis: If you think the U. S. Navy is conducted along these lines, you're as crazy as Abbott and Costello. -D. B. R.

"Caught in the Draft"

Cast: Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Lynne Overman, Eddie Bracken, et al. A Paramount comedy; produced by B. G. De Sylva and directed by David Butler. Story and screen play by Harry Tugend, with added dialog by Wilkie Mahoney.

BOB HOPE comes into his own as a solo comedian, with assists from Eddie Bracken and Lynne Overman. in this screwball story of an actor who fears the sound of gunfire and enlists in the Army by mistake to impress a colonel's daughter, Dorothy Lamour.

And Hope proves that he can act as well as wisecrack, although he has some very choice lines throughout.

Soldiers and their families will get laughs aplenty out of Hope's adventures as a doughboy. He manages to get in wrong with his commanding officer almost every time he obeys a command. The story is slapstick throughout.

VERDICT: All expectant selectees should see this just to learn how not to be a good soldier. Lamour really acts and looks swell in clothes, regardless. For laughs it's a champ. —E. P.

STAR OF THE WEEK

LOU COSTELLO: His comedy in "In the Navy" is something that will be hard for any other comedian to surpass. Lou is one of the best natural comedians the theater, now the movie industry, has ever had. He's refreshing

Hollywood. - Cecil B. DeMille has found that Abraham Lincoln pops up as a character in his CBS Radio Theater dramas on the average of seven times each year, so to keep the martyred President's voice sounding the same, character actor Frank McGlynn always is character actor Frank McGlynn always is assigned to the part. His last Lincoln appear-ance was in "Virginia City."

Godmothers

New York.—Radio's famous child harmony team, The Moylan Sisters, Peggy Joan and Marianne, have just learned that the British youngster their funds are maintaining in England is eleven years old. When Peggy Joan heard this news, she dolefully remarked: "I can't feel like a godmother to someone older than I!"

EMMA OTERO, young Cuban coloratura soprano heard with concert orchestra (Sunday, NBC)

MUSIC NOTES: Ilya Laskoft, the CBS music editor who conducted the La Scala in Milan, Italy, in 1937, and made his American debut over the CBS network conducting the Columbia Concert Orchestra, is being considered as guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra this summer. This Monday "The Telephone Hour" orchestra will play the "Violin Concerto" by Mendelssohn, which is considered the greatest concerto ever written for the violin. This Sunday the National Youth Administration's Music for Americans program will present

Americans program will present symphony orchestra from St. a symphony orchestra from St. Louis, Missouri, conducted by Edward Murphy. The program will consist of music dedicated to the French people living in America. This is the fifth concert in a series of six given by the NYA Symphony Orchestra from six different cities in every part of the United States

RADIO YIEW by Martin Lewis

SOME of you may recall that last September the White House issued a statement which said in effect that Wythe Williams, noted commentator, had been requested to take the initiative in organizing a series of radio broadcasts in which he and other radio commentators would discuss national defense-its effect upon the nation; its week-to-week progress and general necessity, in order that we Americans might maintain our way of life. Aware of Williams' efficient handling of his own radio program, and the nation-wide interest in all phases of national defense, I have often wondered why these broadcasts did not materialize.

After talking recently with practically all who were scheduled to take part in these broadcasts, I am more than ever convinced that it is an idea which should be put into action. I know that the commentators in question are just as interested in appearing on the program as they were the day it was suggested. Walter Winchell. Lowell Thomas, Gabriel Heatter, Raymond Gram Swing and H. V. Kaltenborn are only a few of the commentators who agreed to participate. As for the three major networks, all of them were and are enthusiastic about the idea.

It has been asserted that the idea was shelved just before the past presidential election because in some quarters (we don't know which) the belief was expressed that it was to be a "political trick" of the Roosevelt administration. Williams himself said that he didn't want to be embroiled in political bickering-which is entirely understandable. However, the election is a thing of the past, yet the defense program radio idea hasn't been revived. Why?

If the time wasn't ripe last fall for this idea, it certainly seems so now. Never before in our history have so many conflicting statements been issued by military authorities, politicians and "prominent citizens." As I recall it, these broadcasts were to present to the people defense reports of different government departments, during the course of which the nature of our defense work would be clarified. If there is anything the people need today it is a clarification of our defense picture. This radio program idea would have gone a long way toward bringing it about.

I wonder if Mr. Stephen Early, who issued the call for Mr. Williams to organize this program, wouldn't issue another report on the idea's future status. What with everybody willing to give of their time and talent, it seems a shame that nothing has been done. National defense is of vital concern to every American, and the reports which would have been made by Williams and company would certainly have been awaited by the public with eager interest.

GENERAL

F. D. R. Breaks Record

Washington, D. C.—When President Roosevelt delivered his memorable address proclaiming an unlimited national emergency, he established a new all-time record for the number of listeners at their radios in the United States for any one broadcast. According to a survey made for CBS by a research firm, the audience embraced 65,650,000 persons-half the population of the country. This staggering figure broke the President's own record of 50,000,000 listeners, set when he spoke on national security December 29, 1940.

Not Enough Noise!

CAIRO, EGYPT .- When NBC's "Newsroom of the Air" attempted to contact Grant Parr, NBC observer in Cairo, they were told he hadn't showed up at the studio. This remark was heard over the air. Listeners in America were left to wonder and make dire conjecture as to the reason for the reporter's absence. Parr showed up at the studio several hours later and explained: "My alarm failed to awaken me for the first time in my life." Foreign reporters get used to noise.

DEFENSE

Variety Show for U.S.

WASHINGTON, D. C .- "Millions for Defense" is the title of the program to be produced by the Federal Government this summer in the spot donated by Fred Allen's sponsor. It will be a variety show featuring Al Goodman's orchestra and Ray Block's chorus, and will attempt to increase sales of defense bonds.

Army Costs Him $25,000

Hollywoop.-Tom Harmon, Michigan football hero of last season, was all set to make about $25,000 this next year in motion pictures and on the air with Bing Crosby's aid. But he won't. The selectee army claimed him for a year's service.

Benny to Tour Camps

Hollywood.—Jack Benny, member and entertainer of the U. S. Navy in 1917-18, has requested his writers, Ed Beloin and Bill Morrow, to prepare special material for him to use in a series of appearances he expects to make at army camps and naval bases this summer.

"A. & A." Sketch to Hawaii

Hollywood,-"Amos 'n' Andy" are now heard, via short-wave relay across the Pacific, on Hawaiian CBS stations KGMB, Honolulu, and KHBC. Hilo. The comedy team's network was extended for the benefit of petitioning U. S. sailors and soldiers stationed on and at the islands.

Hope Stages Four Shows

Hollywood.—Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour and Hope's radio company put on four shows so that all the soldiers at Camp San Luis Obispo might see them when the troupe went there May 27. The long routine delayed their arrival home to 4:00 a.m. -and Hope has to be on his movie set at 9:00 a.m. But the comedian didn't mind-it was in a good cause.

GIRLS Charity Bauer (I.) and Patsy O'Shea, and boys George Sturgeon (I.) and Peter Fernandez act in Flag Day sketch on "Our Barn," NBC children's show, Sat.

CONNIE BOSWELL shrugs "No can do" with her taped fingers. After years away from the cello, Connie had to harden finger-tips before she could play instrument on "Kraft Music Hall"

HONORS

Bergen to Chicago

HOLLYWOOD. — Edgar Bergen has notified Northwestern University officials that he will be in Chicago Saturday, June 14, to accept the honorary degree of Master of Arts from his alma mater. Bergen's routine will call for him to rehearse on Friday, board a sleeper plane that night, arrive in Chicago Saturday morning, accept the degree Saturday afternoon, and fly Saturday night to March Field, Calif., where his June 15 show will be performed.

Pop McGee, They Call Him

NEW YORK.—Jim Jordan, radio's Fibber McGee, has been named the outstanding father in radio for 1941 by the National Father's Day Committee. He and Marian Jordan (Molly McGee) have been married twenty-two years, have two children, Katherine, twenty, and Jim, Jr., sixteen.

SIDELIGHTS

Lum and Abner Get Wires!

Hollywoop.—When Lum and Abner returned to a West Coast NBC network May 26, they were not forgotten. Five telegraph boys stood in line outside their studio and relayed one by one a total of fifty messages from friends and fans. The delivery set-up was a gag unknown to Lum and Abner, who began by tipping the boys with quarters, then lowered it to dimes, and finally had to send out for more change!

"Quiz Kid" Pens Song

CHICAGO.—If you hear the patriotic song "Uncle Sam, We Love You," featured recently over MBS by Harold Stokes' orchestra, you're listening to one of the professionally published songs of "Quiz Kid" Geraldine Hamburg, who's starting young to put her musical talent as well as her allaround brightness to work. Another star of the NBC "Quiz Kids" show discovered recently that a juvenile celebrity can be just a kid brother at home. Math expert Richard Williams, in spite of all the difficult problems he has solved on the show, finally missed a simple one because he gave it a complicated interpretation. On arriving home Richard ran up against this remark from his fourteen-year-old brother, Glenn: "You got your permutations mixed up with your common sense that time, didn't you?"

Sponsor Gets Extra Plug

New York.—In appreciation of his sponsor's well-known policy of not interfering with his program, Goodman Ace, of the "Easy Aces," has given his new seaside home a name especially appropriate for the pain remedy he has plugged for more than seven years. The name of the Ace place is Head-Acres!

PERSONAL

Rudy's Operation

HOLLYWOOD.—That reported sinus operation Rudy Vallee recently underwent was really another of Rudy's many attempts to remove some of the downward-and-out slant of his eyes.

Tito Sings Tango, Etc.

CHICAGO.—Mexico's Tito Guizar, still a singing idol on the screen, in night-clubs, on records and especially throughout Latin America, though he hasn't been heard in a regular radio series for several years, is currently helping in a big vocal way to pack Chicago's new, elaborate Rhumba Casino, dedicated to Latin-American tempos.

Vee Expects Wee One

CHICAGO.—Virginia Verrill (Mrs. Jim Breyley), songstress who mothers the maltreated males on "Uncle Walter's Dog House" and who is the campus mama of "College Humor," will take leave of absence in a few months from both NBC programs to become a real mother.

SWEET-FACED Patricia Ryan, teen-age actress heard as Eleanor Murray in "Parker Family," gets the coveted title role in "Claudia," the sketch which will substitute for the "Kate Smith Hour" during the summer months

PROGRAMS

New Langford Show

HOLLYWOOD.—Frances Langford will return to the air in November as singing star of a radio program series in which Jack Carson will be emcee.

Lombardo Gets New Show

NEW YORK.—Guy Lombardo and his orchestra will begin a new show early in July for Colgate, the same sponsor which had Wayne King's orchestra on the air last year, calling to mind that Lombardo had a long run for Lady Esther cosmetics after that sponsor and Wayne King terminated their long-time association.

Marian Mann on NBC

CHICAGO.—Marian Mann, popular vocalist formerly heard with Bob Crosby's and other dance bands, is back on the air. She has been hired by NBC in Chicago to sing on Garry Moore's Sunday "Talent, Ltd." and other network shows.

SHORTS

Donald Cook (Mr. Jordan in "The Story of Bess Johnson") was presented a gold medal by the New York Academy for his performance in the play "Claudia" . . . Donald Woods (of "Those We Love" cast) is off to Denver to play the lead in stock offerings at Elitch's Gardens there . . . Richard Brooks, author-narrator of NBC's "Sidestreet Vignettes," has leased a beach-house for his honeymoon with Jeanne Kelly, his screen-actress wife . . . Mrs. Judd McMichael expects a baby in July, and Joe McMichael,

WEST VIRGINIA'S Nancy Martin,
"Breakfast Club" vocalist, and Oklahoma's Curley Bradley, "Club Matinee" singer, give Flag Day salute at Chicago NBC studios

brother-in-law and only single member of the Merry Macs, is looking over San Fernando Valley (Calif.) homes with Mary Lou Cook, the "blend girl" of the group . . . It's a baby girl for Don Dowd ("Midstream" announcer) and his wife, formerly actress Betty Anne Brown . . Joe "Curley" Bradley, "Club Matinee" singer, is taking his first real vacation and doing it right with a whole month in the West, while baritone Bob Thomas substitutes on the afternoon show . . . Commentator Gabriel Heatter's mother, a Brooklyn welfare worker, died May 28.

Next Week's Cover

You won't have to look twice on the news-You won't have to look twice on the newsstands today for next week's Movie-Radio Guide. With an eye-filling cover picture of brunette Ginger Rogers, taken by RKO color photographer John Miehle, this issue is a stand-out. Inside, be sure to look for the amazing story of Nazi spies in Hollywood, also an exclusive Wythe Williams analysis of the war. Get your copy today!

HAITI, HONDURAS STATIONS ON CBS LATIN NET Brazil Adds Short-Wave Outlets

Anti-Nazi Station in Norway

WRUL Airs Spanish Lessons

Edited by Charles A. Morrison

President, International DX'ers Alliance

BLANKET coverage within all of the United States' twenty neighbor republics is now assured by CBS' new long-wave network to Latin America with the addition of affiliates in Haiti and Honduras. The sixty-six stations in the CBS Latin network will receive by short wave programs especially created for them in New York and in return will transmit programs to the United States for broadcast on the CBS Coast-to-Coast network.

Programs for rebroadcast in South and Central America are now sent out on an irregular basis over CBS international stations WCBX and WCAB.
The CBS Latin chain will swing into full operation next fall when the two powerful new transmitters now under construction at Brentwood, Long Island, are completed. The two new CBS stations will be used exclusively for Latin-American broadcasting.

WRUL PRESIDENT Walter Lemmon with Miss Pin Pin T'an, WRUL English teacher heard Saturdays

The newly signed CBS affiliate in Honduras is HRN (5.835), "La Voz de Honduras," power 4,000 watts, located at Tegucigalpa. The new CBS outlets in Haiti are HHW (1230 kc) and HH3W (10.13). Both stations are owned and operated by G. Ricardo Widmaier, Jr., who has long been interested in the creation of Pan-American good-will through broadcasting. Both HRN and HH3W are well known to short-wave listeners.

WRUL Teaches Spanish

One of the best-received educational features of station WRUL at Boston is its lessons in Spanish broadcast each Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. EDT on frequencies of 11.73 and 6.04 megs. Senor Jose A. Godoy, director of Latin-American research; Miss Nancy Blunt of the WRUL staff, announcer and commentator, and William W. Harris, coordinator of Latin-American programs as well as WRUL's "Vagabond Traveler," conduct these Spanish courses. Their presentation is in a clear and simple manner, affording one an excellent foundation in this romance language. The course follows a series of short lessons as presented in the little book, "Elements of Span-ish Conversation," by Professor C. E. Kany. Lists of vocabulary and basic rules of Spanish grammar also accompany the course. Exact pronunciation and usage is carried to the listener by means of simple yet effective conver-sation. All of the printed material is supplied by station WRUL, University Club, Boston, Mass., at one dollar for the complete course. The charge is purely to cover the cost of printing and postage, as WRUL is a non-profit organization. So clear and useful is this course that reports from Latin Americans show they are using it to learn English.

Brazil Increases Short-Wave Outlets

According to an official list received by Stephen A. Mann of Lakewood, Ohio, the following short-wave stations are at present active in Brazil: PRC5 (4.865), 2,000 watts, Belem, Para; PRF6 (4.895), 100 watts, Management of the property of the pr naus, Amazonas; PRA8 (6.01), 5,000 watts, Recife, Pernambuco; PRE9 (6.105, 15.165), 5,000 watts, Fortaleza, Ceara; PRF5 (6.105, 9.500, 9.600, 10.22, 15.19), 12,000 watts, Rio de Janeiro, and PRE8 (9.505, 11.72, 17.85), 50,000 watts, Rio de Janeiro. The 50,000watt transmitter is not yet in operation. Actually being heard by United States listeners are: PRC5 (4.865), PRA8 (6.01), PRF5 (10.22).

Norwegian Mystery Station Blasts Hitler

Robert Skyten of East Brookfield, Mass., writes that an anti-Nazi station, located somewhere in Norway and operating on 10.07 megs, is blasting away at Hitler every day from 5:30 to 6:10 p.m. EDT. At times the station is almost completely blotted out by deliberately imposed interference. Reception from Norway is ordinarily none too good in this country, but LLH (9.65), located at Oslo, is being heard afternoons with fair signal strength up to the station's sign-off at 6:00 p.m. EDT. All stations in Norway are Nazi-controlled with the exception of this mystery voice.

General Notes

SBU (9.535), Motala, Sweden, is being heard with strong signals from 5:17 to 5:35 p.m. EDT only, with the news in Italian and French. The station comes on the air with a music-box tune . . . XIRS (11.98), a new Italian-controlled station in Shanghai, China, broadcasts daily from 8:00 to 8:45 a.m. EDT. The program includes news in Italian and English . . . HH3W, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, has shifted in frequency to 10.13 megs . . . WNBI, New York City, has been authorized to add a new frequency of 15.15 megs. WNBI operates at present on 17.78 and 11.89 megs . . . John F. Wilson of Wilmington, Delaware, reports that the following English news bulletins are now being broadcast from Berlin during the daytime: 8:30 a.m. over DJL (15.11) and DXT (15.23); 10:30 a.m. over DJL; 12:30 p.m. over DJB (15.20), DJA (9.56) and DXJ (7.24); 1:30 p.m. over DJB and DJA; 3:30 p.m. over DJA (9.56); 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. EDT over DZD (10.543) . . . The new Canadian (10.543) . . . The new Canadian short-wave station at Montreal has been testing evenings on 11.705 megs, using the call CBFY. The broadcaster ordinarily operates on 6.16 megs, using the call CBFW. Other authorized calls and frequencies are: CBFX (9.63) and CBFZ (15.19).

Peeks at Short-Wave Personalities

Many listeners wondered why Cairo couldn't be raised recently on one of NBC's Sunday evening news roundups. The answer is contained in the following radiogram received at the NBC newsroom; ALARM FAILED TO AWAKEN ME FOR THE FIRST TIME MY LIFE. WILL NEVER RISK THIS AGAIN. RE-GRET FULLEST. PARR . . . Among notables at the luncheon on June 2 when William S. Paley, president of CBS, awarded a trophy to Marshall H. Ensor of Olathe, Kansas, the outstanding radio amateur operator for 1940, were Buddy Rogers, Rear Admiral Waesche, Commandant of the U.S. Coast Guard, Rear Admiral Hooper of the U. S. Navy, and officers of the American Radio Relay League . . . Peter Grant, senior announcer over WLW-WLWO, Cincinnati, began his career as a lawyer but did not try his first "case" until he was cast as defense attorney in the "Famous Jury Trials" broadcast over those stations in 1935.

CBS BRINGS YOU "The World Today"

SAY "The World Today." And by the time you have said it that world will have changed to the world yesterday. You could hardly think of a more fluid phrase than those three words, or a phrase that more aptly describes the charged and charging events of the time. And you couldn't ask for a more up-to-the-minute job of reporting those events than radio has been doing these past few long years. Among the many news programs which your Movie-Radio Guide program listing shows you bombard the air almost by the minute is a round-up called by that sweeping phrase, "The World Today." It is heard over CBS Monday through Saturday at a time in the early evening when many men and women are easing themselves out of the day's work and seeking word of the painful but pertinent events abroad. Competent—and courageous—observers bring you this word from all the hot spots on the world map pictured on this page. Their individual views put together give you as clear a picture as possible of "The World Today." But even as they speak-the world changes! Keep up with them and try to keep up with the jig-saw world! Pictured here are some of the men you still hear regularly, though you will note how Nazism contracts the news map by marching over the centers of news.

Bob Hawk's "Take It or Leave It"

LEFT: With two thousand kibitzer-guests on hand in the Fiesta Room to advise her, laughing contestant decides whether she'll "take it or leave it." If she's like ninety percent of contestants, she'll take it. Note money on the table—hers if she's lucky

A TYPICAL American fond-ness for taking a chance is exploited to the full by short, hale-and-hearty Bob Hawk on his Sunday (CBS) quiz, "Take It or Leave It." The Hawk show dares contestants to double their winnings with each new question answered correctly, gives them alternative of risking entire winnings on the next question or of dropping out, satisfied with what they have. Maximum prize, $64; mini-mum, $1. While New Yorkers have enjoyed going to "Take It or Leave It" broadcasts for a year, recently other cities got a crack at prize money when Bob went on tour. Movie-Radio Guide's photog-rapher caught the show in Los Angeles, where demand for tickets necessitated a repeat performance in the Ambassador Hotel's Fiesta Room before an audience of two thousand. "Take It or Leave It" is back in New York now, but wherever it's staged the striking feature is Mr. Hawk's amazing ability to make contestants happy, win or lose. He gags ad-lib, joshes the audience, consoles losers, congratulates winners with the sure touch of the showman listeners discovered some years ago in Chicago when Bob invited them to his locally broadcast recorded-music program. The same showmanship put him on MBS with his first quiz, "Name Three," and now on CBS with his current success—presented here—"Take It or Leave It."

Next Week:
"Battle of the Sexes"

BANDSTAND NOTES

By MAURICE GRANGER

ERE'S more about Gray Gordon, whose change to swing has caused more comment than he ever dreamed possible. It seems that when Gray dropped his "Tic Toc Rhythm" he was scheduled to move into the Log Cabin Farms at Armonk, N. Y. Auggie Hussar, manager of the spot, assuming that Gray was still using his "Tic Toc" style, had a large sign painted which read, "Gray Gordon and his Tic Toc Rhythm orchestra." Well, you can imagine Hussar's consternation when the boys unlimbered their instruments and began swinging it with a vengeance! The manager, fearing the patrons would not like this kind of music, ran to Gray and begged him to stop. "Good Heaven, Gray," he argued, "you're ruining me, absolutely ruining me. The patrons will never stand for this sort of music." "Look," said Gray, grinning, "they're certainly not acting like it." The result was that the manager, seeing how pleased the dancers were with the new music, ran out and ordered his painter to change the sign, having it read, "Gray Gordon and his orchestra!'

Bandata

Charlie Barnet is the latest bandleader to organize his own music-publishing company... Glenn Miller broke all records at the Palladium recently. Twelve thousand five hundred bought tickets. It was the band's first public appearance in Hollywood... Two of Benny Goodman's star players have quit. They are Dave Tough, drums, and John Guarnieri, piano. Benny, incidentally, is slated to do a series of network broadcasts this summer. As you know of late he has been heard Coast to Coast only occasionally . . . Guy Lombardo's scheduled departure from the airwaves didn't take place after all. There had been reports that all was not well between Guy and his boss, but evidently their differ-ences were patched up . . . Vaughn Monroe is a bandleader who is certainly coming up fast. His scheduled two-week engagement at the Paramount in New York (the Mecca of dance bands) has been extended to four. The Monroe band went into the Paramount June 4 . . . A Negro preacher by the name of Rev. Utah Smith was a soloist at one of the "Coffee Concerts" held at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. He reports that he learned to play the electric guitar from the Holy Ghost . . . Sammy Kaye's band now boasts an official "Grandmother." An eighty-year-old fan wrote to Sammy saying she wanted to adopt the band. In his reply Kaye informed her that she had been made the band's official grandmother A wacky piece of press-agentry was that of Joe Reichman recently. At a party given in honor of Joe, guests were allowed to break records over his head, and the handleader was also forced to eat peas with a toothpick—all while photographers were snapping pictures . . . John Scott Trotter has finally seen his new home in North Carolina, which he designed himself but could not view until it was finished, although it took a year and a half to complete the job. Trotter, before becoming a bandleader, studied architecture . . . Reports are that Garwood Van will swap his baton for a movie career . . . Glenn Miller's band has been voted the American college band has been voted the American college student's favorite in a poll conducted in 171 colleges . . . And 150 Northwestern coeds have voted Ronnie Kemper of Horace Heidt's band their "favorite novelty vocalist" . . . Somebody's going to have to do something about Louise King of the "Hit Parade" and Louise King of Alvino Rey's Orchestra. They're both top-notch vocalists with the same name!

Purely Personal

Ginger Maylen, vocalist for Charlie Spivak, and Harry Rose, pianist with Gray Gordon's band, didn't wait for the month of June. They report that they have been secretly married since Easter Sunday. Ginger is giving up her singing career in exchange for the simple domestic life . . . Understand that Alice King of the "Four King Sisters" is engaged to marry Sidney Des Asevedo, a Brazilian shipping heir. Alice must have taken President Roosevelt's remarks about our Latin-American "good neighbor" policy lit-erally!... Songstress Anita O'Day is being letter-courted by Bob Jessup, formerly collegiate ski champ, now in the Army . . . Linda Gray, vocalist with Isham Jones, is another who is being courted long-distance -by Buddy Stewart of the Bobby Day orchestra.

Andrews Sisters Introduce New Song Hit

"IGIMME SOME SKIN" may sound like what one cannibal says to another when he's hungry. But in the case at hand it's simply what one friend says to another in Harlem when they meet and greet one another. The phrase is also the title of a new novelty song based on the Harlem vogue and introduced by the Andrews Sis-

Meet sponsor Bob Hope and his fast-rolling ladies' bowling-team. Colonna's the mascot!

BROADCASTING studios are cluttered with comedians looking for a sponsor, but here's a comedian who is one, It's Bob Hope—sponsor of a bowling-team of Paramount girls! With the WIBC (Women's International Bowling Congress) on in Los Angeles during June, Bob has been busy watching his team compete with 6,000 fe-male keglers from 171 U. S. cities.

SPONSOR HOPE checks his billing on Captain Ruth Reynold's bowling-jacket. He picked her from Paramount's payroll division

DROPPING IN to watch the girls' form, Jerry Colonna gets a lesson. He figured he'd start with a little one, work his way up!

COLONNA forgets himself in his enthusiasm. Ready to let one fly, Captain Ruthie narrowly misses kayoing the ambitious Professor DECIDING to try bowling from the other end, Jerry goes back with the pins. He wants to learn and he does it the hard way!

ALWAYS APPRECIATIVE, the girls crash their sponsor's radio show, completely equipped, and with mascot Colonna are called before audience to take a bow-to receive sponsor Hope's blessing for victory in WIBC

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE Geminine Forum

Alberta North

FOR FIGURE-CONTROL, radio star Vicki Vola advocates "stretch as you dust"

ADIES, do you realize the hours spent in your aprons can be well put toward improving your glam-You've probably hated those apron hours, when you make the beds and "wrestle" the dishes. You've probably said a hundred times, "When can I find time to pamper myself with personal care-when every minute has its duty?" Cheer up! Many a career girl would envy you the time you really have to devote to your appearance! Here's a program for you-and one which will keep you young and attractive while you putter about the house or listen to your favorite radio serial. So tie on your apron and go to work—ON YOURSELF. You've got the whole day!

Kiss the boys good-by at the door, then upstairs you go to scrub off every trace of the lipstick and rouge you hurriedly applied this morning so you'd look awake and bright at the breakfast-table. A good scrubbing with a mild soap, Lux for instance, shouldn't take a fraction more than four minutes, and you'll gladly spare them before you start to make the beds. See, the bathroom's right outside the bedroom door, so it hasn't cost you an extra step! Now you're facing the day with a pore-clean, apple-shining face. Leave your face clear and free to breathe while you are tidying upstairs rooms and making beds.

Make Beds and Bend

Also, the bed-making job is a swell opportunity for some constructive work on your figure. You'll just naturally have to do some stretching and bending, so why not do it scientifically and get some good out of it? Don't bend your knees when you stoop to pick up those blankets-stretch to the floor. You're bound to work in six good setting-up exercises right there, and seven days a week of that soon will show results.

Before you tackle those breakfast dishes awaiting in the kitchen, pat some Dorothy Gray Dry-Skin Lotion on your face as a lubricant and allday protection against dust, etc. It also will help heal those nasty little spots you've been worrying about. Leave it on till after lunch when the children have returned to school. This lovely peach-hued lotion disappears on your skin, so you won't look unkempt if a neighbor should drop in for a chat.

Do Some Overhead Stretching

Maybe this is your day to wash windows or sweep cobwebs from the Venetian blinds, so here's your chance to work in some overhead stretching. Even if you're right-handed, use both arms and alternate raising them to reach the high spots, flexing the muscles of your abdomen with each reach for those top-window panes. Your waistline will respond to such treatment, for, remember, all the most expensive courses on figure-control point up the importance of muscular exercise in the midriff.

We don't have to mention that if you're a smart housewife you'll be wearing a pair of rubber or dime-store cotton gloves while you dust and straighten up. So here's the time to soak your hands in a kindly lotion (Hind's Honey and Almond Cream is grand for this). Or, if your nails have been breaking and cracking, rub some Cutex Brittle Nail Cream on your fingertips. Keep a bottle of both handy in the kitchen and it won't take a second to finish a nail treatment more valuable than a manicure at your favorite beauty parlor. Now put on your gloves and start the dust a-flying, for your hand troubles will soon be out of sight, too.

Have a Kitchen Facial

While you're clearing up the kitchen after lunch you can use the twenty or so minutes you stand at the sink to good advantage. If you're bothered with oily skin you should take three minutes to apply a facial masque, and as it dries your pores will tighten and shrink. You might try several until you find the one that does most for your skin. For a starter, we suggest you look into that marvelous Solo Masque by Rose Laird. (It will take you only about five minutes to remove the masque.)

However, if your skin is always parched and thirsty, allow it to soak up a good oil during these twenty minutes. This will do much for a crepy throat condition, too. Primrose House Balsam Stimulant is just such an oil, with the added virtue of being able to stimulate circulation locally and give you that nice tingling sensation that makes you sure it's accomplishing miracles.

So goes your day of household tasks. Check your schedule and you'll discover that your duty to beauty hasn't taken more than twenty-five minutes from your working day.

Naturally, just before you start dinner you will freshen up for the master's return. This is the time to apply your make-up foundation. Follow the usual procedure with rouge and lipstick BUT hold off the powder until you hear his steps at the door. Then whip out the compact you keep in the kitchen and powder your nose. You'll look freshly made up and cheering to his tired eye, all glowing and lovely after your day's "work."

Balls & Boners

Bulls and boners are a part of broadcasting. No matter how experienced the performer or how famous the star, chances are that he will make on occasional slip or a statement with twisted meaning which is extremely funny. See how good your ears are. Try to catch broadcasters in some error-the funnier the better-and send your entry to Movie-Radio Guide, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago. The most humorous entries will be printed in this column. Watch for your contribution!

Mother Morrison on "Mother o' Mine": "Pop said he felt a rainstorm coming in his big toe."—Walter E. Kessel, 104 W. Charlton St., Savannah, Ga. (May 16 over NBC.)

Fletcher Wiley: "She is sick to death of the idea of cooking herself."-Mrs. W. D. Washburn, Poolville, N. Y. (May 19 over Station WFBL.)

Art Green: "Remember Crawford's are known to fit odd men."—Angela Mass, 136 Thirty-Fifth St., Brooklyn, N. Y. (May 18 over Station WMCA.)

News commentator (repeating statement of Secretary of the Navy Knox): 'We must insure safe shipping of supplies. As to the method—use your heads."—Phyllis Payne, Bancroft, Wis. (May 16 over Station WFHR.)

Forester F. H. Morgan: "This is something we are interested in here in America and in Arkansas as well."-A. M. Stokesbury, Fayetteville, Ark. (May 14 over Station KUOA.)

Parasite Plugs

Dear Sirs:

I've seen several letters in your publication criticizing objectionable radio advertising, but nothing on a more illegitimate practise. No fair-minded listener will object to a proper, dignified statement which is in reasonable proportion to the entertainment provided. My complaint is against the chiseling stations which cut short their station-breaks between network programs-which are already bearing their full share of advertising matter —in order to put in a plug for some spot advertiser.

This practise is a fraud in effect whether it is literally so or not. It is one of the ways in which stations can kill the goose that lays the golden eggs.

H. W., Baldwin, Hamilton, Ont., Can. Old-Fashioned Way

Dear Sirs:

I wish to express my opinion regarding the so-called "soap and washing-powder commercials." They help keep on the air all the interesting sketches which doubtless are popular with many listeners like myself. Not so many people can afford washing machines, and I for one enjoy and prefer the old-fashioned thorough way of doing things. So me for the good. improved-upon soap powders every time.

Mrs. Emilita T. John, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Peppy and Polished

Dear Sirs:

I want to say a word of appreciation for the little-publicized work of those peppy and polished Sons of the Pioneers on Uncle Ezra's program. I have immensely enjoyed their music both on the screen in western pictures and on the air. I think their versatility is remarkable, instrumentally and vocally. And some of the many numbers they have composed themselves are really masterpieces in the field of ballad music. I hope we hear them for many years.

Lester J. Wayner, Albuquerque, N. M.

 We hope so, too, and we think they'll be around in movies and radio for a long time. In fact, they're going back to Hollywood soon to make some more western pictures. We, too, have noted with interest the high standard of their many original ballads. Have you heard Bob Nolan's "Cool Water"? There's a real piece of music!—The Editors.

The "Story of Bess Johnson"

Meet the characters of Bess Johnson's new serial

AS DEAN of women at fashionable Mt. Holly School for Girls, actress Bess Johnson (see page 37) finds a new role in her recently inaugurated serial, "Story of Bess Johnson" (Monday through Friday, NBC, CBS). Once the sweet, sympathetic matron of Hilltop House orphanage, now Bess is advancing modern ideas of education, incurring the resentment of faculty members who resent her presence. Bess' fight for her ideals plus her own private romance make a fascinating story.

The Story for This Week

Monday, June 16. Barbara Bartlett wants to leave Mt. Holly but her father, Arthur Bartlett, compels her to stay, stays on himself. Barbara hints that Bess is "playing to marry him."

Tuesday, June 17. Natalie Holt and Wally Scudder, in love, dread being separated for the summer, discuss ways of getting her parents' permission to attend summer school. Meanwhile Bess, Mr. Jordan and Dr. Franklin have a problem.

Wednesday, June 18. Bess tells Arthur Bartlett that Mrs. Jordan threatens to name her as co-respondent in divorce proceedings. Daughter Patricia Jordan resolves to prevent it.

Thursday, June 19. Patricia packs to leave Mt. Holly, rejoin her mother, thus to protect Bess.

Friday, June 20. Mrs. Jordan informs Dr. Townsend, the college president, that she intends to name Bess as corespondent. Bess is called before him.
