Bette Davis
Meets
Leading Man
She Chose

BETTE DAVIS first met the young actor who is now playing the newspaper reporter opposite her in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" on July 11 at Warner Bros. Studio. He is Richard Travis (nee William Justice), and his is the most important male character in the picture aside from the title role played by Monte Woolley. The news behind her meeting Travis is that Bette chose him without ever having met him! She recommended him after seeing a screen test he made. Warner executives agreed with her choice, as they already had marked him as a comer. Travis, six foot three and blond, hails from Arkansas, where he achieved statewide fame as an athlete, a newspaper writer and film critic, and later as a radio and stock-company actor. Bette also recommended for their first good roles Jeffrey Lynn, Geraldine Fitzgerald, James Stephenson. (For pictures of Miss Davis in "The Little Foxes," see page 7.)

The Editors' Note:

GRACING the cover of this week's Movie-Radio Guide in full color, Cary Grant and Joan Fontaine also will soon be seen together in "Before the Fact," a romantic comedy produced by RKO. Color photography is by Gaston Longet. For details of actor Cary Grant's private life, read "Hollywood's Puzzling Bachelor" on page five

THIS WEEK: Soon 900,000 more young men in this country will be deserting their customary walks of life for Army training. Perhaps one of them comes from your own family. Or he may be the boy next door. The chances are good that he may never actually go to war, so that should be the least of your worries about a loved one at the moment.

What should worry you, and worry all good Americans, is his state of mind. We personally wouldn't want any of these lads to see a movie cartoon we looked at a few days ago. It showed a soldier in the person of a duck being ordered to leave his sweetheart and join the Army by a pompous rooster which cackled at the girl that he'd see her later. The thought of what may happen to the girl or wife he leaves behind and the suggestion that officers may have special power or privilege beyond the line of duty is strictly un-American.

Movie-Radio Guide urges that Hollywood and radio producers begin to think heavily in the terms of the psychological reaction their entertainment may have in the minds of men training to defend this country. Movie-Radio Guide urges that the morale of our Army be preserved by thinking in terms of the individual soldier. Radio programs should be constructed to provide the type of entertainment he likes when he can listen. This may take sacrifice on the part of radio sponsors and civilian listeners. Hollywood producers should make an immediate effort to determine the tastes of the soldier for particular types of movies. If "home, sweet home" stories irk him and he prefers something the Hays office would frown on, then it should be just too bad for "home, sweet home" and the Hays office.

The average soldier can't swagger around in a swank uniform, his thumbs hooked in a Sam Browne belt. His uniform, chances are, fits him ill. But he is more important to this country than the radio listener who buys soap, automobiles or razors. It may be, too, that this average soldier one day will, among other things, make this country safe for movie-goers as well as church-goers. So if he likes a particular type of radio show or movie, he should have it. And, if his uniform doesn't fit him well, get him a better one!

NEXT WEEK: That side-splitting gent, Bob Hope, is in again, this time with a "Nothing But the Truth" quiz. There's also a visit to the Aldrich family, every picture of it fun. Altogether, a light, breezy summertime issue packed with enjoyment, dotted with thrills. Don't forget that radio and movies are your greatest entertainment—and Movie-Radio Guide is the publication that increases your enjoyment of that entertainment a thousandfold. Your dealer will be happy to reserve a copy for you.

Movie-Radio Guide APPLAUDS Citizen Marlene Dietrich

ABOUT a year ago beautiful Marlene Dietrich became an American citizen. Previously she was a German national, but she had never agreed with the Third Reich and the Reich consequently would have none of her.

Today the glamorous Miss Dietrich is giving her all-out talent to entertain American boys in Army camps and Navy bases from San Diego to north of San Francisco, Calif. Between June 14 and July 3 she alone did seven shows at as many military camps, and at two of them spent extra hours going through the wards of military hospitals and repeating her act for lads who could not leave their beds. Nor did glamorous Marlene travel in a limousine on these appearances. No, sir, Marlene got there and back each time in ordinary buses and in Army Command cars.

Miss Dietrich insisted on no maid on these appearances. She did her own make-up and her own dressing, and for a dressing-room often used a tent with bare ground as the floor. At Hamilton Field it was quite cold when she worked, and while the soldiers themselves were wearing regulation Army overcoats, Marlene knew they wouldn't be happy seeing her in furs, so she took a chance on catching cold and appeared in her brief and slinky evening gowns.

Marlene works hard in her act for the soldiers. She sings at least six songs (always includes "Falling in Love Again") and then does a clever comedy sketch with whatever other entertainers are on the bill.

For genuine spirit of patriotism that this actress is showing most practically in these hours of national emergency, for her unselfish gift of her talents under difficult working conditions, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE applauds new citizen Marlene Dietrich.

Mickey Rooney

in "LIFE BEGINS for ANDY HARDY"

OFFICE BOY

NEWEST in the popular "Andy Hardy" series is "Life Begins for Andy Hardy"—and life really does begin in an exciting, dramatic picture which takes him through the period of making up his mind whether or not to get a job and go to work or to start to college in the fall. Like the others in this remarkable series, this picture is a combination of humor and pathos, another fine portrait of the growing-up process of a typical American boy. Andy, through his efforts to obtain a job in the city, faces some of the more unkind aspects of life for the first time. His final decision to go home and start college in the fall is a wise one, both from Andy's point of view and from that of the scenario writers, because this film's ending points logically to another Andy Hardy picture.

Judy Garland, making her first screen appearance since "Ziegfeld Girl," sings two songs and most capably enacts her role as Andy's sweetheart. Two newcomers to the series, Patricia Dane, who plays the part of a city siren who "vamps" Andy, and Ray MacDonald, as a discouraged dancer who commits suicide, fit into the plot excellently. "Pat" Dane recently was signed by M-G-M to a long-term contract after appearing as one of the beauties in "Ziegfeld Girl"; MacDonald is a nineteen-year-old dancer from Broadway, who makes his screen debut. With its fresh plot, new faces and, of course, Mickey Rooney, "Life Begins for Andy Hardy" is solid entertainment.

HOME has its unpleasant aspects, but, decides Andy, it's a great place after all!

Peggy Diggins

QUEEN OF THE SEXTETTE

To News Desk:

WINNER and newly crowned queen of the "Navy Blues Sextette" is pretty Peggy Diggins (indicated by arrow, right). Peggy amassed most votes in the recent MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE ballot, garnering 41.2 percent of total number of votes cast. Claire James was a close second. In deference to the four others, we will not list the order of selection. Let it be said the voting was close and heavy, conclusive proof that all girls in the "Floradora Sextette of 1941" have honest-to-goodness chances for stardom.

Selection of Peggy Diggins was as much of a surprise to her as it was to the studio, and should convince the latter that here is a girl with plenty on the ball, certainly deserving of a real break—and soon.

Who is Peggy Diggins? MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE interviewed her for you the day our cameraman, Bruce Bailey, made these pictures.

Peggy is a native New Yorker, born Margaret Mary Diggins of Irish-American stock. She attended a Catholic convent, later Mt. Vernon High School, where she was active in golf, tennis, archery, basketball, swimming. She still enjoys these sports.

At sixteen she quit high school to be featured with Harry Richman and Milton Berle in a song-and-gag act. The break that brought her to Hollywood was unusual. While dancing at the Stork Club with her boy friend, a syndicated columnist tapped her on the shoulder—and bingo! she was in pictures with a long-term contract at Warner Bros.

She made a promising start with parts in "Honeymoon for Three," "Santa Fe Trail," "High Sierra," and now with the sextette in "Navy Blues." Her career is definitely on the upswing, so watch her climb.

Peggy is a fine pianist. She lives modestly in the valley north of Hollywood with Marguerite Chapman, also of the "Navy Blues Sextette." Peggy loves clothes but keeps within her budget. Right now she is looking forward to the preview trip of "Navy Blues" to Honolulu. As for us, we'll be content seeing a lot more of her on the screen.

Cary Grant

HOLLYWOOD'S PUZZLING BACHELOR

To News Desk:

CARY GRANT will hit the screens shortly in another good picture. Nearly all of Grant's pictures are good. This one's very good. I know, because I "sneak" previewed it.

It's "Before the Fact," an RKO film with Joan Fontaine co-starring and Alfred Hitchcock directing. That last clause insures its worth, even if it didn't boast of Grant.

But the point about the story of "Before the Fact" that struck me as particularly fitting is that in the play Grant is a likable, improvident society blade. And that's just about the real-life role Cary has to play nowadays, much as he dislikes it.

You see, Cary would much rather live a life of ease and loafing than keep on being what he is—a high-priced Hollywood leading man, lionized by society and heckled by social niceties. But he's caught in a whirlpool of cinema success, and, try as he might, he cannot escape.

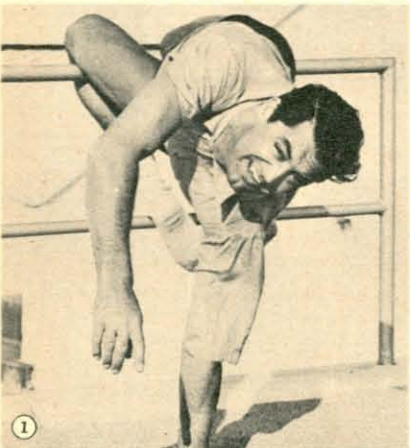

Last year Grant was the champion giver to British and American Red Cross. In one lump he donated nearly $125,000, his salary from "The Philadelphia Story," then almost doubled that with other sums.

This year is a duplicate of last year for Cary. He'd like to have had a vacation between "Before the Fact" and his next film—perhaps time to marry Barbara Hutton—but he decided otherwise. He remembered heartless bombings of Bristol, England, where he was born, set plans to do another picture for British War Relief, and has plunged into the work of aiding the U. S. United Service Organizations.

Money Grant raises or gives is never for munitions, and it's always spent in the U. S. The funds go for clothing, food and shelter for England's helpless, or in case of the U. S. O., entertainment for soldiers.

Grant isn't giving for publicity's sake. He'll be madder'n hops when he reads this story, true as it is, because he's just that sort of fellow. He's giving because he wants to, and he thinks that is his business. It is, but I think the public should know about it, too. —E. P.

CARY GRANT'S life is that of a social lion, but not by his choice. If Cary could select the life he'd like to live, it might be a great deal like he appears in these informal pictures of him taken at home. (1) Trying a trick he learned as a boy in an acrobatic troupe. (2) Just loafing. (3) Spending time at the piano. Cary sings well, once worked for Hammerstein

"BEFORE THE FACT" is a story of London just before the war started, deals with high society in England. Above: Cary with Joan Fontaine, his highly imaginative wife in the film. Below: Cary likes to loaf, but not precisely as he does in this picture!

Movie-Radio Guide Visits Sets of:

- 1-Deanna Durbin
- 2-Tyrone Power
- 3-Bette Davis

Deanna Durbin and Robert Cummings

No. 1—DEANNA DURBIN

WITH CHARLES LAUGHTON monopolizing attention of directors with his big death-bed scene on Universal's "Almost an Angel" set, Deanna Durbin and Bob Cummings, finding time on their hands, proceed to amuse themselves. Innocently they began (1) with sliding down the banister of a foyer set not in use at the moment, but Bob (2) decided to add a new wrinkle to the time-honored method with the result (3) that Deanna picks up the pieces at foot of stairs. Whereupon (4) Mr. Cummings suggests Miss Durbin might like to try. (Result censored.)

CAROL BRUCE (left), dropping in from another set, joins Deanna in paying respect to a great actor, Charles Laughton, just as he was about to die for Universal in "Almost an Angel," which has Deanna as hat-check girl engaged to Bob Cummings, son of dying multimillionaire Laughton

No. 2 TYRONE POWER

BUSY ON LOCATION for a scene in a "A Yank in the R. A. F.," Tyrone Power (left) had a double dose of aviation the day Movie-Radio Guide visited 20th C-Fox set—for just as the director was about to call "This is a take," he had to change it to "Hold it, there's an airplane overhead." There was, too, and it was the giant Douglas B-19 bomber, off on its first flight! Air-minded pilot-acting Power, who is spending every spare moment adding hours for his private pilot's license, was plenty thrilled at the plane. Meanwhile Betty Grable, right, was making costume tests for the film in a bridal dress. Bothered by a couple of impacted wisdom teeth, Betty neither looked nor acted like the blushing bride!

No. 3 BETTE DAVIS

FOR THE SECOND TIME Bette Davis is playing Herbert Marshall's wife on the screen. (First time was in "The Letter.") On the set of Sam Goldwyn's "The Little Foxes," Movie-Radio Guide eavesdropped as Marshall and Bette (below, left) discussed Bette's recent illness, their next scene. This is the movie version of the Broadway hit, which stars Bette as a coldly ambitious woman endangering the life of her ailing husband (Marshall) through her avarice and power-hunger. In the end she loses her wealth, which is stolen by unscrupulous fellow conspirators, her husband, who dies—and the respect of her daughter, who rebels and marries newspaperman Richard Carlson, caught by a roving cameraman on "The Little Foxes" set (below, right) in a costume which he wears for a screamingly funny scene

GENERAL

"Sweater Voice"

When the Hays office banned the "sweater girl" it only spurred on Hollywood's jittery but energetic publicists to find a worthy substitute or some means of capitalizing on the ban. First Paramount Studio came through with the title "Sweater Girl" for a picture now in production, and then last week the Columbia angle-hounds cropped out with a good one. They tagged nineteen-year-old Adele Mara, former vocalist with Xavier Cugat's orchestra, as the girl with the "sweater voice." Her voice is supposed to be as warm and sexy as a tight-fitting sweater.

New Title Idea

M-G-M is toying with a new title idea. So far the current Garbo picture, in which Garbo will rumba and appear on the screen in a bathing suit for the first time, is still untitled. Studio execs are seriously thinking of releasing it as "The Garbo Picture," thus making it the first time that a picture has had only the name of the star for its title. Incidentally, while Garbo rehearses the rumba number, she insists that the rumba band play with their faces to the wall.

Lupino clan, will have four of her waltz compositions released for the phonograph record market this fall.

Lessons by an Expert

There is a sequence in "Panama Hattie" that requires Ann Sothorn to do a strip-tease. She's taking lessons from an expert on how to get the most out of it and still get by the Hays office. The expert is Joe Yule, Mickey Rooney's dad, who put in a good many years at vaudeville and burlesque, where such "coming offs" were going on.

Horse Pays Off

It's tough to beat the bang-tails, but George Raft and Betty Grable seem to have hit the jackpot. Several weeks ago MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE reported that Raft had claimed the horse Kay-Diane at Hollywood Park and had presented the filly to his glamorous sweetie, Betty. Since then the horse has more than won the claiming price in purses and because of its winning habits is the toast of the form players. Guess that kind of a deal makes for horse-cents and love insurance.

Ginger Oregon-Bound

They may not be taking "The Oregon Trail," but a number of Hollywood's film notables are buying get-away-from-it-all homes in the Oregon country. Latest homestead purchaser is Ginger Rogers, who bought 300 acres near Medford. Bell-sheep buyers of Oregon land were Thomas Mitchell and Walter Brennan. Ginger's plot is on the Rogue River.

Mature Gets Movie Role

How do you get a choice role in pictures? Ask Vic Mature. Mature, who used to go with Betty Grable, was in the New York hospital where he was recovering from an appendectomy and was visited by Virginia Peine, who used to go with George Raft. Miss Peine brought Mature a copy of the book "I Wake Up Screaming," which George Raft was very keen about doing with Miss Grable at 20th Century-Fox. But that lot signed up Mature, and gave him the part Raft wanted. That's Hollywood. And the title of the book will become "Hot Spot" on the screen. That's Hollywood, too!

THE WAR

Coast Guard Bogart

Next to his happy home, Humphrey Bogart is in love with his boat, a thirty-eight-foot power cruiser. So when he generously offered the boat's services to the Coast Guard, he couldn't stand the thought of their taking him up. Boat-loving Bogart offered his own services as well, if needed.

Olivier in Plane Crash

Reports from England that Laurence Olivier had been injured in a plane crack-up have been confirmed. However, the consequences were not serious. Outside of a severe shaking up and minor abrasions, Olivier came through it luckily.

HOSPITALIZED

Tonsils K. O. Withers

Fifteen-year-old Jane Withers, in the movies seven of those years, was forced to stay away from the studio for the first time last week when she came down with an acute attack of tonsillitis. As soon as she finishes her current picture the infected tonsils will be clipped.

Brazilian Cook No Help

Carmen Miranda, the Brazilian dancing-singing sensation who packed them in on Broadway and is now doing her routine before the Hollywood cameras, imported a Brazilian cook because she was blaming American food for her recent poor health. Enter the Brazilian food furber and Carmen is bedded again with the same old intestinal trouble.

HONORS

Nancy Kelly Rodeo Queen

Guest of honor at the annual Salinas, California, rodeo held July 19 and 20 was screen actress Nancy Kelly. Nancy headed the parade and presented the trophies to the winners. She recently filed suit for divorce from her screen actor husband, Edmond O'Brien.

When last heard from, Mrs. Grayson, Kathryn's mother, was still plenty disturbed over daughter's marital leap. The newlyweds will buy their own home as soon as they return.

ASSIGNMENTS

What Your Favorites Are Going to Do

As soon as she finishes "You Belong to Me" at Columbia, Barbara Stanwyck skips over to Goldwyn for "Ball of Fire" with Gary Cooper . . . Ida Lupino will play the feminine lead opposite Tyrone Power in the sensational story, "Benjamin Blake" . . . Jean Gabin, the French Spencer Tracy and constant companion of Marlene Dietrich, will make his American movie debut in 20th Century-Fox' "Moon Tide." Jean's English is still in need of some polishing . . . Warners has purchased the biography of James J. Corbett, "Gentleman Jim" of boxing fame, for athletic Errol Flynn. Corbett was one of the most colorful heavyweight titleholders and a public idol for years. His "prime" weight and Flynn's are identical . . . Pat O'Brien has been handed the top male role in "Law and Order, Inc." . . . Ginger Rogers, who won an Academy Award as a working girl in "Kitty Foyle" and scored a success as a telephone operator in "Tom, Dick and Harry," will be another glorified working gal in her next, "Self-Made Cinderella."

LIFE STATISTICS

Should Happen Soon

Now that Uncle Sam has passed a ruling deferring all men over twenty-eight, the marriage of gay Priscilla Lane and John Barry, her newspaper-publishing beau, should happen at any moment. They'll probably take their trip to the altar right after Priscilla finishes "New Orleans Blues."

Falsified Stork Report

Reports that Merle Oberon, wife of Alexander Korda, would be visited by the stork in October have been denied by the actress as being untrue.

Second Marriage Planned

"As soon as Phil finishes his tour near the end of September I will go east and we will be quietly married," says Alice Faye regarding her and her husband's future plans. The couple were wed last May in Ensenada, Mexico. This American ceremony will mark their second trek to the altar. Alice was also definite in saying that this present separation marks the last long separation from Phil Harris.

Tony and Lana Spat

The oft-given MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE hint that there would be a rift in the Lana Turner-Tony Martin love-match took place last week. There was some outside dating on both sides, but before the bout had gone very far it looked as though the two battling love-bugs had shaken hands and called it a draw. Tony, after his tiff with Lana, dated Helene Fortescue Reynolds, an "ex" of a tobacco king and an actress at RKO who is outdoing Veronica Lake in affecting the latter's hair-do. They were seen together at practically every night-spot in Hollywood and environs and at Hollywood Park. Meanwhile Lana was far from lonesome. Drillmaster-flyer, erstwhile Academy Award winner Jimmy Stewart dropped into town and Lana was on his arm at Romanoff's and Ciro's. With Stewart back at Moffett Field, Lana and Tony showed up at a local golf club, glowing all over and certainly looking as though the lovers' spat was a thing of the past. So that's all of the play-by-play description for the present.

Hollywood Merry-Go-Round

The Babs Hutton-Cary Grant romance is still hot . . . Carole Landis and ex-hubby Willis Hunt, Jr., who parted ways after a few brief months of marriage, dining at the Scheherazade . . . Jean Gabin hosting a dinner for Marlene Dietrich at Ciro's. Jean Gabin also with Michele Morgan, entertaining the French consul. We still believe Jean would like to be spending more time with Ginger Rogers . . . That De Havilland girl, Olivia, is at it again. In New York it was Burgess Meredith. In San Francisco it was millionaire Ike Livermore. Back in Hollywood it's Bob Stack and Gene Markey, with Livermore commuting from the Bay area whenever he can cut in.

Movie-Radio Guide CRITICS' REPORT

MOVIE VIEWS by Carl A. Schroeder

Dear Public:

WE WISH you could have been with us this week when we paid a call on Miss Marlene Dietrich in her Beverly Hills Hotel bungalow. We have never been an ardent admirer of Marlene as an actress. We didn't know her as a person.

Now we admire her enough to tell you folks—a half million of you—about her. And we think that what we have to say should be read by movie producers too. A week or so back, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE reviewers weren't too kind about Marlene in "Manpower." They said she was "posey," and she has been on the screen. BUT, Marlene has a fan following that has seen her as you and I never see her on the screen. This enthusiastic group is composed of more than 100,000 soldiers who have seen her in the Army camps she has visited. (See page 2.)

When Marlene steps out on the improvised stage they throw their hats in the air and cheer her. What does she do that is so different from her movie work? Nothing much—she just "gives out" because she wants to make the boys happy. She is easy and natural. She isn't dressed up like a 1918 version of a movie siren. She doesn't hand out the "vamp" style of performing that has so typed her in pictures. Her delivery is strictly American, aimed at a male audience.

The point of all this is that Hollywood bosses should make a real American out of Marlene. That's what she is—she has her citizenship papers. Let you may not quite believe this, we quote a letter she received from infantry Captain Frank F. Koops after a visit to Camp Roberts: "You may get the idea of what the men thought of you from the expression of one man who said, 'She's a regular feller.' Please believe me, I can think of no greater compliment from a soldier!" Making Marlene a "regular feller" to the rest of us shouldn't be too big a job for the celluloid wizards. Or is it?

COMING ATTRACTION

Brief Picture Guide

Outstanding "A" Pictures

A WOMAN'S FACE: Joan Crawford crime drama. (Adults.)

BLOSSOMS IN THE DUST: Greer Garson gives Academy Award performance with Walter Pidgeon in important sociological drama. (Adults.)

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope ducks being an Army selectee by enlisting by mistake. Laughs galore. (Family.)

MOON OVER MIAMI: Betty Grable sings, dances to get rich husband, Don Ameche. (Family.)

SERGEANT YORK: An honest fictionized story of what really happened to a soldier. (A family must!)

TOM, DICK AND HARRY: For an evening of good entertainment and fun see "Tom, Dick and Harry." Ginger Rogers is splendid. (Family.)

Recommended "B" Pictures

MAN HUNT: Walter Pidgeon as the man who sets out to kill Hitler. (Adults.)

MANPOWER: There's plenty of rough and rowdy action and dialog in this melodrama. (Adults.)

MILLION DOLLAR BABY: Cute story of girl who inherits million. Priscilla Lane, May Robson. Travelog features. (Adults appreciate most.)

Aviation

FORCED LANDING: Richard Arlen in surprisingly thrilling flying picture which introduces sparkling new personality, Eva Gaboff. (Family.)

I WANTED WINGS: Above any film produced in recent years. Should be seen by all to inspire Americans with the high traditions of U. S. Army Air Corps. (Family.)

Western

NEVADA CITY: Warfare between stage-coach and railroad line, with Roy Rogers. (Family.)

SINGING HILL: Gene Autry rides again. (Family.)

ARIZONA BOUND: It's full of continuous action, and for the dyed-in-the-wool western fan, okay entertainment. Buck Jones, Tim McCoy and Raymond Hatton ride again. (Family.)

Other Offerings

ACCENT ON LOVE: Promising George Montgomery protests easy life, turns ditch-digger. Drama with a message. (Adults.)

DANCE HALL: Cesar Romero, Carole Landis perform well in girl-hates-boy story. (Adults.)

Mystery

MURDER BY INVITATION: Is the rich lady insane? See Wallace Ford and Marian Marsh work it out. (Mystery fans.)

SHADOWS ON THE STAIRS: Frieda Inescourt, Heather Angel, three strange murders. (Mystery fans.)

Comedy

BRIDE CAME C. O. D.: Bette Davis, James Cagney tell the story of the rich, sophisticated heiress who is kidnaped, learns a lesson in love. Outstanding. (Family.)

CRACKED NUTS: Stu Erwin, Mischa Auer, City slicker tries to trim a hick. (Family.)

FATHER TAKES A WIFE: Gloria Swanson comes back in story of an actress who finds marriage retirement more hectic than acting. (Adults.)

HELLO, SUCKER: Theatrical story starring Hugh Herbert. Double bill fare. (Adults.)

THIS WEEK IN RADIO

Guy Lombardo begins new series Saturday; "Vox Pop" returns Monday and Friday

Saturday, August 2

"VAUDEVILLE THEATER" is a new show, featuring baritone Dick Todd, actor Jim Ameche, D'Artega's orchestra, and guests, heard on a limited network Saturday mornings. The new show is founded on the premise that vaudeville is not dead but has merely changed its style to fit new tastes and mediums. NBC.

EDT-11:30 a.m. CDT-Not Avail. MST-Not Avail.
EST-10:30 a.m. CST-Not Avail. PST-Not Avail.

"R. A. F. FIGHTER PILOT" is a new series of four episodes, in its second installment this week, which spectacularly tells a true story of the brilliant exploits of Britain's air fighters. Now physically unable to fight, and attached to a British air commission in the United States, an R. A. F. flight lieutenant, whose identity is not to be revealed, tells his own powerful story. NBC.

EDT-5:45 p.m. CDT-4:45 p.m. MST-2:45 p.m.
EST-4:45 p.m. CST-3:45 p.m. PST-1:45 p.m.

GUY LOMBARDO and his immensely popular orchestra begin a new series of programs for a different sponsor this Saturday, replacing the "Spotlight" show. Unique feature of the new series is that it immediately follows the Wayne King show on the same network, thus parading the two most favored of all "sweet" bands in succession, though not for the same sponsor. CBS.

EDT-8:00 p.m. CDT-7:00 p.m. MST-8:00 p.m.
EST-7:00 p.m. CST-6:00 p.m. PST-7:00 p.m.

Sunday, August 3

"BEHIND THE MIKE" will present bandleader Phil Harris and Clara, Lu 'n' Em, whose neighbor-chatter act was very popular in earlier radio days. NBC.

EDT-4:30 p.m. CDT-3:30 p.m. MST-1:30 p.m.
EST-3:30 p.m. CST-2:30 p.m. PST-12:30 p.m.

TONY CABOT, who turned his back on a promising career as a concert violinist to become famous as a saxophonist, will be presented by emcee Tobe Reed, and his orchestra will be featured as the "band of tomorrow" on the "Summer Bandwagon" show. NBC.

EDT-7:30 p.m. CDT-6:30 p.m. MST-4:30 p.m.
EST-6:30 p.m. CST-5:30 p.m. PST-3:30 p.m.

BORIS KARLOFF will enact his famous interpretation of Edgar Allan

Poe's "The Telltale Heart" on "Inner Sanctum Mystery" this Sunday. NBC.

EDT-8:30 p.m. CDT-7:30 p.m. MST-8:00 p.m.
EST-7:30 p.m. CST-6:30 p.m. PST-7:00 p.m.

Monday, August 4

FLETCHER WILEY returns to the air with his informal chats about everything this Monday, to be heard once each week. CBS.

EDT-2:30 p.m. CDT-1:30 p.m. MST-11:30 a.m.
EST-1:30 p.m. CST-12:30 p.m. PST-10:30 a.m.

"VOX POP" returns to the air this Monday for a new sponsor (it will also be heard Friday). CBS.

EDT-8:00 p.m. CDT-7:00 p.m. MST-5:00 p.m.
EST-7:00 p.m. CST-6:00 p.m. PST-4:00 p.m.

"FORECAST" will present this week from Hollywood Adolphe Menjou and Verree Teasdale in "Deductions De Luxe," a comedy-mystery drama, and from New York "Made in America," with John Frederick and guests. CBS.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

Tuesday, August 5

"FOR AMERICA WE SING," new American music series in the interest of the U. S. Treasury's defense drive, will present as this Tuesday's guest soloists classical singers Rose Bampton and Robert Weede. NBC.

EDT-8:30 p.m. CDT-7:30 p.m. MST-5:30 p.m.
EST-7:30 p.m. CST-6:30 p.m. PST-4:30 p.m.

EVELYN LYNNE replaces Virginia Verrill as soloist on "College Humor" this Tuesday. (See item in "Today in Radio" department.) NBC.

EDT-10:30 p.m. CDT-9:30 p.m. MST-7:30 p.m.
EST-9:30 p.m. CST-8:30 p.m. PST-6:30 p.m.

Wednesday, August 6

"TREASURY HOUR" mobilizes for its defense series this Wednesday another imposing array of talent—"Believe It or Not" Bob Ripley, operatic baritone John Charles Thomas, Fanny "Snooks" Brice and screen artists Norma Shearer and Melvyn Douglas. CBS.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

Friday, August 8

"VOX POP" goes on the air this Friday, taking over Ben Bernie's spot and sponsor. NBC.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-8:30 p.m.
EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-7:30 p.m.

EVELYN LYNNE inherits Virginia Verrill's second singing spot, that of vocalist on "Uncle Walter's Dog House," effective this Friday. Another cast addition is the comedy team of Gill and Demling, who will alternate with comedian Linn Borden thereafter. NBC.

EDT-9:30 p.m. CDT-8:30 p.m. MST-6:30 p.m.
EST-8:30 p.m. CST-7:30 p.m. PST-5:30 p.m.

ILKA CHASE will broadcast her sophisticated "Penthouse Party" from a barn this Friday. It isn't an ordinary barn, however. It's Westport's (Conn.) famous Red Barn, where Miss Chase is appearing with Dennis King in a summer stock play, "Love in Our Time." She will do her broadcast from the quaint playhouse between the second and third acts of the stage play. CBS.

EDT-10:00 p.m. CDT-9:00 p.m. MST-7:00 p.m.
EST-9:00 p.m. CST-8:00 p.m. PST-6:00 p.m.

Emergency Rations

HOLLYWOOD.—Frances Langford, of CBS "American Cruise" fame, can be stranded in a bomb shelter without food or drink and survive several days! It's all because of her new necklace, made up of thirteen fully grown but dwarf coconuts that mature only to the size of a pecan. They were grown on her Florida ranch.

HOLLYWOOD.—“Just say that we are recovering,” Gracie Allen remarked when interviewed regarding the sixty-children party she and George Burns had hosted at their Beverly Hills home as a double birthday celebration for their youngsters, Ronnie, six, and Sandra, seven. Hamburgers, hot dogs, ice cream and soft drinks were consumed by the truckload, swimming kept Gracie busy life-guarding, and George assisted by putting bandages on seven minor leg scratches and four head bumps. Youngsters of Bing Crosby, Norma Shearer, Bob Burns, Lou Holtz, Stu Erwin and Phil Harris were a few of the junior celebrities on hand, or out of it.

LOSE WEIGHT
this amazingly easy, safe way

If you want to take off ugly fat—look better and gain energy at the same time—without following strict diet lists or taking strenuous exercises or drugs, do this:
First, mix ¼ glass of Welch's Grape Juice with ¼ glass of water and drink before meals and at bedtime.
Second, eat sensibly, which means you avoid overeating; thus reducing caloric intake considerably.
You don't suffer a hungry moment. Yet! This method which Dr. Damrau of New York demonstrated in tests among a group of intelligent and cooperative people who followed directions implicitly was responsible for an average loss in weight of 7 pounds per month. This remarkable method is just as beneficial and effective for overweight men as it is for overweight women. There's only one thing to watch. Eat sensibly, which means you avoid overeating, and be sure to use Welch's Grape Juice, selected by Dr. Damrau in his convincing test. It's always full strength. Can be diluted and still taste delicious—making it economical to use.

Irene Rich, lovely star of the screen and radio, now past 40, weighs the same as she did at 16. She recommends the easy Welch way to reduce.

Try Delicious Welch's Grapelade
New jelly-like jam with tangy deliciousness. Made from fruity parts of finest concord grapes. Ideal spread for crackers or bread. Rich in food energy. And children love it.

Special program on the occation of the forty-fifth anniversary of the writing of the book, "David Harum," by Edward Noyes Westcott. Because Westcott, a banker who lived in Homer, New York, was given only one year in which to live, he decided his last remaining ambition was to write about the greatest character he ever knew - David Harum. The program will include dramatizations from the life of David Harum and interviews with local people who knew him.

MUSIC NOTES: A recent survey of listening trends indicates that more and more set owners are listening to concert music. While popular music attracted two percent more listeners in 1940, serious music showed an increase of six percent. . . . Incidentally, Henry Weber, Mutual's concert conductor, avers that there is no such thing as "light" and "heavy" classical music. He cannot see any valid reason why summertime music has to be light and frothy. "Music is to soothe, entertain and educate," says Weber. "Any score that does not do this is bad" . . . The Ford Summer Hour will have Meredith Willson as its conductor for the last two concerts of its summer season. . . . A composer's work came in for some heavy praise by Edwin McArthur, the young American conductor, who lauded it for its "therapeutic value." "How is it therapeutic?" he was asked. "It cures insomnia," was the reply.

RADIO VIEWS by Martin Lewis

PROBABLY few listeners are aware that twenty-one years ago the stork in the person of several scientists delivered to a waiting public an infant which was destined to become a giant in stature and of immense public importance. I am speaking of radio, which was born on November 2, 1920, when station KDKA of Pittsburgh began a regular schedule of broadcasting with the Harding-Cox presidential election returns. Today, instead of one station broadcasting, there are 822, and, instead of a relatively few set owners, there are some 47,000,000. This growth, more than anything else, indicates that radio is justified in describing itself as having "come of age."

Since on this coming November 2 radio will celebrate its twenty-first birthday, this writer suggests that preparations be made to broadcast a gigantic "Cavalcade of Radio" program, with some of the entertainers who pioneered in that field invited as guests. They certainly deserve recognition, and, besides, there are millions of listeners who would take pleasure in hearing many of them who are no longer on the air.

I would like to see the networks combine, if possible, in an effort of this kind. I would like to see taking part some of the following, whose names are still revered wherever radio is a subject for discussion—early favorites such as George Jessel, Al Jolson, Jack Pearl, Ruth Etting, Gertrude Niesen, Morton Downey, Arthur Tracy, Harry Horlick's A. & P. Gypsies, the original Show Boat crew, Seth Parker and his gang, Ed Wynn, Jessica Dragonette, George Olsen and Ethel Shutta, etc.

It would be thrilling to hear once again an excerpt from each of these and other top programs of yesteryear. Yes, a "Cavalcade of Radio" would indeed be a fitting way to celebrate radio's "coming of age." Drop us a postcard and let us know if you agree.

Oboler Leaves Radio

HOLLYWOOD.—Arch Oboler, well-publicized radio writer who exploded at and deserted his last sponsor over a matter of policy, will have no more sponsors to worry about. He has deserted radio and signed a writer-director-producer contract with 20th Century-Fox picture studios. But before he gets under way he will be tutored in film methods by Mark Hellinger.

Rudy a Corporation

HOLLYWOOD.—Rudy Vallee and several of his friends have filed papers with the California Secretary of State for a company to be called "Rudy Vallee Presents, Inc." The purpose of the new company is to supply entertainment to Army camps. Members of Rudy's radio program are slated to be used.

Rome Gags Broadcasters

ROME, ITALY.—All American radio correspondents in this capital have been notified that the facilities of Italian stations are no longer at their disposal. This order applies mainly to NBC, as CBS has already suspended broadcasting following advice from its correspondent here that new and increasingly rigid censorship restrictions made further Italian broadcasts impracticable from a news standpoint.

CBS to FBI

NEW YORK.—All crank mail addressed to CBS will hereafter be sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which will examine it for subversive characteristics.

Dorothy Thompson Talks

NEW YORK.—Dorothy Thompson, boldly speaking commentator and columnist, will broadcast over NBC a series of talks to America soon after she arrives in London for a several weeks' period of surveying the war situation.

ACTIVITIES

Bergen One-Nighters

HOLLYWOOD.—Edgar Bergen has announced he plans to make a series of one-night appearances through the Midwest and East during the late summer and fall months. Several of his Sunday coffee programs may be broadcast from Chicago.

Stars Take Trips

HOLLYWOOD.—Bill (Wallace Wim-

ple) Thompson, his brother and parents are on a motor tour of Canada from Vancouver to Montreal; Crane Wilbur, producer of "Big Town," and wife Lenita Lane have headed north for Seattle and Alaska; Walter Pater-son, the Nick Lacey of "One Man's Family," is making a motor tour of the Pacific Northwest and western Canada, and singer Donald Dickson is showing son Kaye Don America first by taking him along with him in an automobile swing between his concert engagements in Ohio and Wisconsin.

Building "Banjo Eyes"

HOLLYWOOD.—Eddie Cantor, on vacation from his radio chores, is collaborating with screen-writer Gene Fowler and various gagmen in preparing the script of his next picture, "Banjo Eyes." It's to be a cavalcade of Cantor's career.

Hersholt Hosts Cripples

HOLLYWOOD.—Jean Hersholt was host at his "Dr. Christian" CBS program airing July 16 to eight members of the Crippled Children's Society of Glendale, Calif. The youngsters witnessed the broadcast from wheelchairs on the stage of the radio studio.

SIDELIGHTS

Lynne Likes Work

CHICAGO.—Evelyn Lynne, who just passed her twenty-first birthday, must be about the busiest girl vocalist in radio now. The Texas beauty has just succeeded Virginia Verrill (anticipating the stork) as soloist on "College Humor" and "Uncle Walter's Dog House." She is already heard as vocalist (alternating with Nancy Martin) on the six-hours-a-week shows, "Breakfast Club" and "Club Matinee." And she has been featured as singer-actress on "Whoopin' Holler," heard occasionally on Saturday nights.

Where's Jimmie?

NEW YORK.—So much trouble has been caused by the kids of "Reg'lar Fellers" attending the movies between the show's regular and repeat broadcasts that a new ruling is now in effect. Before leaving the studio after the main broadcast they must list the name of the movie which they are planning to attend. The job of combing Times Square's myriad movie houses was too much for the studio's ushers.

Two Voices Change

CHICAGO.—Bud Barton, central character of "The Bartons," will grow up like a real boy, writer Harlan Ware has announced. Instead of remaining at a constant age, he'll grow older during the story. Controlling factor in this decision was the fact that juvenile actor Dick Holland's voice is changing, so Bud's must change on the air or sound silly.

Helps Write Laws and Jokes

CHICAGO.—Luther Patrick, U. S. Representative from Alabama, has a gag rule that has nothing to do with parliamentary procedure. He writes gags. Specifically, he has contributed for seven years to the stock of comedy dispensed by Pat Buttram, also a son of Alabama, on the "National Barn Dance." Congressman Patrick was an entertainer before a politician.

Not That Smith

NEW YORK.—Jack Smith, the vocalist on "Johnny Presents," is not the "Whispering" Jack Smith of early radio days, although a good many listeners fondly hold to this belief. The new Jack Smith got his solo start after having sung in Ray Block's Swing Fourteen Chorus. The "Whispering" Jack Smith many radio listeners came to know and love is broadcasting over WEAJ in New York.

CONTROVERSY

Too Many "Claudias"

NEW YORK.—CBS' Forty-fifth Street Theater no longer has a sign on its marquee announcing the broadcast of the serial "Claudia." The show is now heard in a studio. Reason given for the change is that the play "Claudia," which occupied a theater directly across from CBS' theater, didn't like the idea of having to compete with a free radio show of the same name. The radio program, moreover, has been renamed "Claudia and David" because of objections from producers of the stage play.

Dam That "Mill Stream"

HOLLYWOOD.—It was very embarrassing on one of those quiz shows from here last week when an audience member was asked to sing an old tune. He started to warble "Down by the Old Mill Stream," but that tune is controlled by ASCAP (at war with radio), and since there was nothing the audience-canvassing announcer with mike in hand could do, the producer signaled the engineer to cut the program off the air. It was cut too until Mr. John Q. Public wound up his old selection!

And "22" Is Kisses

WASHINGTON.—The FCC reports that it has no authority to ban Paul Sullivan's sign-off, "Good-night and thirty," the use of which has been protested by many listeners. Apparently most of those protesting the sign-off don't understand its meaning. According to the FCC's research department, in the old days when telegraphic copy was handwritten the telegraphers would mark the copy's end with three X's, the Roman numeral for 30. Incidentally, you might like to know that "73" means "Best regards."

PROGRAMS

Campbell Burns' Angel

HOLLYWOOD.—Campbell's soups and beans are the sponsors who will bring Bob Burns' own "Arkansas Traveler" shows to CBS airplanes starting September 19.

Berle with Laughton

HOLLYWOOD.—Charles Laughton is to be teamed with Milton Berle in a new commercial program series to begin over MBS from here starting in September.

Television Gets Sponsors

NEW YORK.—Television has already landed four sponsors, although it has only been available for commercial sponsorship since July 1. The programs being sponsored are Lowell Thomas' news program, which was formerly televised on a non-commercial basis; "Uncle Jim's Question Bee"; Ralph Edwards' "Truth or Consequences" and Bulova Watch time-signals. The latter manages to be televised by showing a clock with appropriate chimes.

SHORTS

Nan Grey, star of "Those We Love" (now off the air) and wife of jockey Jack Westrope, admits she is expecting the stork next winter . . . Don Quinn, Fibber McGee's writer, and his wife may adopt a baby in the East after their Honolulu vacation . . . Johnnie Johnston, NBC singer, has been signed for a part in Paramount's "Sweater Girl." Johnnie has heretofore only been the singing voice of other screen actors . . . Helen Stevens Fisher, long familiar to "Farm and Home Hour" listeners, is the author of a new game book, "A Good Time at Your Party" . . . Bob Bailey (Dr. Frazier in "Road of Life") is father of a new daughter, Roberta . . . Richard Tompkins Killmar is the name given to the new son of actor Richard Killmar and his wife, Dorothy Killgallen, columnist heard on CBS.

MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT may return to the air in a regular series this fall. The First Lady, whose last regular program was sponsored by a soap company, is scheduled this time to broadcast for a coffee-producing group at a reported $2,000 a week

RAYMOND GRAM SWING looks out upon war-time London from his hotel window after arriving in an American bomber to survey conditions. Swing is a popular figure with the people and officials of England

LORD HALIFAX, British Ambassador to the United States, was cheered by 20,000 workers at the Lockheed plane plant at Burbank, Calif., when he spoke to them and NBC listeners in appreciation of America's efforts to aid Britain

GERTRUDE NIESEN, whose mother just bought her a mansion for her birthday, dances often with actor Burgess Meredith at the Stork Club and other New York spots. Meredith is heard on "We, the People"

Don't fail to get your next week's copy of MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE because—looking at you from this issue's vivid, color cover will be Madeleine Carroll and Stirling Hayden in a scene from their forthcoming film, "Bahama Passage." Did they have a romance while making "Bahama Passage" at Nassau? MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE gives the answer in this issue, in addition to giving you comedian Bob Hope's latest "truth quiz" and revealing details of radio's most popular fun family—"The Aldrich Family." Be sure to get your copy!

EX-HAM ACTOR, BURLESQUE BARKER—

Here's the lowdown on Goebbels' "gagman" E. D. Ward! Also: Important changes in transmissions

Edited by Charles A. Morrison
President, International DX'ers Alliance

ON TUESDAY and Thursday evenings at 10:20 p.m. EDT, E. D. Ward (alias Edward Leopold Delaney), Berlin's "gagman," is introduced as follows: "The facilities of the German Shortwave Station have been extended to E. D. Ward. His opinions and views are his own, not necessarily those of the station." (If you believe this you'll believe anything.) Ward's dry, harsh style of speech—reminiscent of Ned Sparks—was probably acquired when he was a Manhattan burlesque barker. His lingo, strictly American, is full of slang and the kind of racy wisecracks that are considered snappy along Broadway. Example: "Roosevelt and Knox are determined to make Communism as innocent as Shirley friends, "Hal and Olive," of Glenview (a small town near Chicago), Illinois. American reporters discovered that Hal and Olive were actually Harold and Olive Kennicott, once fellow troupers of an Edward Leopold Delaney, whom they finally admitted was the E. D. Ward of the German Shortwave Station. A little judicious pumping and some subsequent sleuthing revealed most of the facts about Delaney's life.

Little is known concerning Delaney's early youth, but it is believed that he was born of a poor Irish family in southern Illinois. His acting career started in 1910 when he became Blackie in a road-show edition of "Get Rich Quick Wallingford." Mrs. Olive Kennicott—now fifty-two, still attractive—played opposite him in this road show. He left the troupe in 1915 to travel to Australia, where he became the killer in the thriller-diller drama, "Seven Keys to Baldpate." The year 1920 found Delaney back in the U. S. A., this time managing a road tour for the "Our Gang" kids. In the years that followed, Delaney held various jobs—Broadway press-agent, movie advance man and barker for a burlesque show. Although he was away from America several times, the bright lights of Broadway always drew him back to New York like a magnet.

In 1934 Delaney decided to try his hand at fiction, wrote "The Lady by Degrees," later "The Charm Girl," both racy and rather tawdry books.

DELANEY was in Europe when war broke out in 1939 and returned to the United States aboard the same ship that carried the survivors of the ill-fated Athenia. Almost immediately he scurried off to Germany, where he obtained a job working for Goebbels.

In January, 1940, Delaney (still unidentified but now calling himself E. D. Ward) first appeared on the programs of the German Shortwave Station. As a roving reporter Ward marched with the German army as it went into Denmark, Norway, the Lowlands, France, making "supposedly" independent observations which were recorded and later broadcast over the German Shortwave Station. After the fall of France, Ward, presumably so instructed by Herr Goebbels, began to turn the major share of his attention to the United States. It was hoped that his American slang and wisecracks would appeal to his fellow countrymen. His talks thus became thrice-weekly features of the German transmissions to North America. He also doubles frequently as an actor, doing risqué lines in the Berlin "Cabaret" broadcasts.

E. D. WARD is the right-hand man of Fred Kaltenbach (whom we will discuss later). Kaltenbach is the chief of the staff of Berlin propagandists who broadcast to North America. Ward's talks are simple and homely, often coarse and blunt. He calls a spade a spade (even though he usually calls the wrong spade).

In listening to Ward, remember that he is not a military expert, not a statesman, not even a keen student of international affairs but an ex-ham actor, burlesque barker and writer of tawdry fiction now employed as a clerk in Papa Goebbels' propaganda warehouse who, by catch-phrases, wisecracks and Americanisms would like to sway American public opinion.

Memo to Department of Justice: "Does renegade, traitor Edward Leopold Delaney of Glenview, Illinois, still hold citizenship rights in the United States of America?"

For some of the material on E. D. Ward I am indebted to the following sources: Current History and Forum, Time, CBS, BBC Press Service.

This is the second of a series of articles on foreign commentators by Mr. Morrison. Watch for the next in an early issue of Movie-Radio Guide.

Temple," or, "Millions of people in the United States are no more anxious to ally themselves with Communism than the southern Democrats are to ally themselves with the Negroes."

E. D. Ward, a handsome man now in his late fifties, his once coal-black hair tinged with gray at the temples, has always been very reticent about his private life, and he tried hard to preserve his incognito at the Berlin Shortwave Station. He might well have been successful had he not inadvertently mentioned at Christmas time that he was happy to have received a postal card from his old

General Notes

A NEW London frequency, GRQ (18.03), is in use daily from 6:55 to 9:30 a.m. EDT in the eastern transmission of the BBC . . . Berlin now broadcasts to North America daily as follows: From 5:50 p.m. to 12:00 midnight over DJB (15.20), DJD (11.77), Y (11.845); from 5:50 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. EDT over DZD (10.54). The regular Berlin program to North America over DZD (10.54) is interrupted at 6:45 and 7:15 p.m. EDT so that this station can serve as a point of origin for pick-ups to our American networks . . . "Radio Eire," Irish short-wave station, announces the following new schedule of transmissions: 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 to 2:15 p.m. on 17.84 megs; 2:30 to 5:00 p.m. on 15.12 megs, and 5:10 to 6:00 p.m. EDT on 9.595 megs . . . LLH (9.65) at Oslo, Norway, is now transmitting a special program for North America

LINTON WELLS, world traveler and author, comments on world news nightly over station WCAB

each evening starting at 10:00 p.m. EDT. The broadcast is not very well received on account of interference from Berlin station DJW, which operates on almost the same channel . . . Jamaica station ZQI (4.70) broadcasts weekdays from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. EDT . . . Mail is now coming through again from Dakar, Senegal, West Africa. Wm. C. Palmer of Parma, Ohio, announces that he recently received a verification of reception of the Dakar short-wave station via Atlantic Clipper . . . Guests used to be welcome at the studios and transmitter of KGEI on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay, but such is not the case at KGEI's new transmitter location at Belmont, Calif. Fear of sabotage has caused strict regulations concerning admittance of strangers to transmitting sites. One or two of our international stations have already had expensive and delicate equipment damaged by fires of unknown origin.

Radio Stars From Kid Performers Grow

From precocious childhood to talented womanhood, these stars worked hard for success — and found it!

RADIO has grown greatly in the past decade. So have some of the kids who were entertaining prodigies in the earlier days of radio. And just as radio is here to stay, so are some of these talented youngsters. Most of the kids got their start on such children's programs as "Let's Pretend" and "Coast to Coast on a Bus" and progressed under the direction of such experts as Nila Mack of CBS and Madge

Tucker of NBC. Many of them attended the Professional Children's School in New York City so they wouldn't interrupt their radio careers. Typical of these kids, who cut their permanent teeth on a mike, is Jackie Kelk, Henry Aldrich's pal Homer and formerly smart-kid stooge for Allen, Cantor, O'Keefe. Representative also are the young ladies pictured then and now on this page.

Photographs by Gustave W. Gale, CBS

ROSLYN SILBER, first child star to be paid by CBS, has played the part of Rosie in "The Goldbergs" (CBS and NBC) ever since she was eight. She's twenty-one now and married, still plays in the pioneer sketch

PATRICIA RYAN, after ten years of broadcasting, recently scored a notable bull's-eye by being chosen for the title role in "Claudia and David" (Friday, CBS), substituting for Kate Smith for the summer

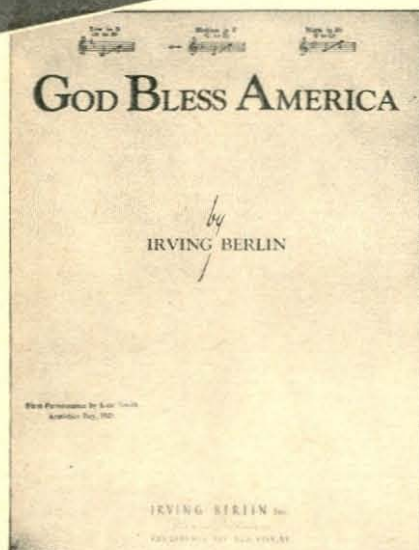

ESTELLE LEVY celebrated her thirteenth anniversary in radio this month. And this month (Aug. 11) she will play an important role on CBS' "Forecast." On that date she'll add radio singing to radio acting

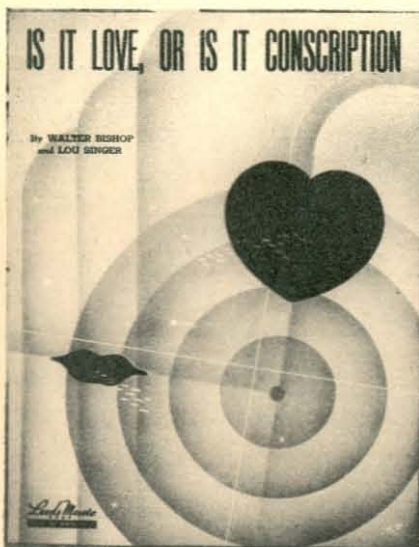

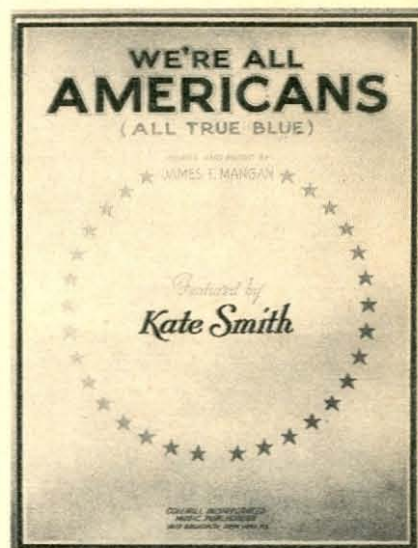

ETHEL BLUME, now married to singer Felix Knight, still plays teen-age girls—Betty on "Easy Aces," Kathleen on "Aldrich Family." She shows her versatility by reading commercials on Walter Winchell's program

REPORTS ON:

Tin Pan Alley's Defense Program

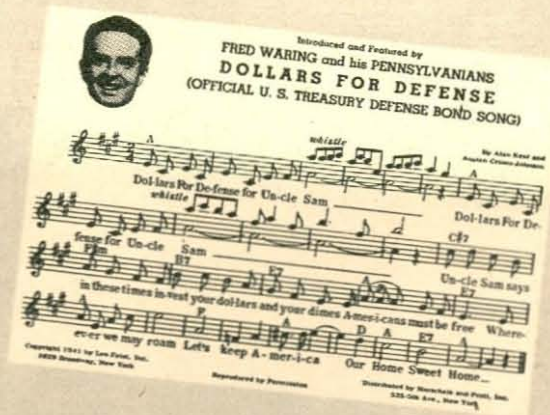

SEEING THE NEED for great patriotic songs before most song-writers, Irving Berlin (with Kate Smith, who introduced his "God Bless America") leads cohorts of music-makers in defense effort

AMERICA'S Tin Pan Alley has always been hypersensitive to the state of the nation. In 1917 its tune-tinkers wrote marching songs. In 1932 they wrote depression blues. Today they're going all out for national defense and inspired patriotism. Starting the procession several years ago, Irving Berlin, master song-writer for the masses, came out with "God Bless America," which has stirred the imagination of the people as no other patriotic song of the day. When the ASCAP-BMI struggle forced Kate Smith to drop "God Bless America" from her broadcast, she introduced another, James T. Mangan's "We're All Americans." These are songs carrying a broad appeal to patriotism. Others, like "$21 a Day—Once a Month" and "Gone with the Draft," are gag songs for the moment. More specifically pointed toward national defense are those such as Irving Berlin's latest, "Any Bonds Today" and "Arms for the Love of America." No one knows which will win the heart of 1941 America as "Tipperary" and "Over There" won the heart of 1917 America. Even in Britain on the front line of fighting, great new songs have been slow coming and old standbys like "Beer Barrel Polka" are still the popular ditties. But Tin Pan Alley will keep grinding out its tunes—always patriotically alert to the needs of U. S. A.!

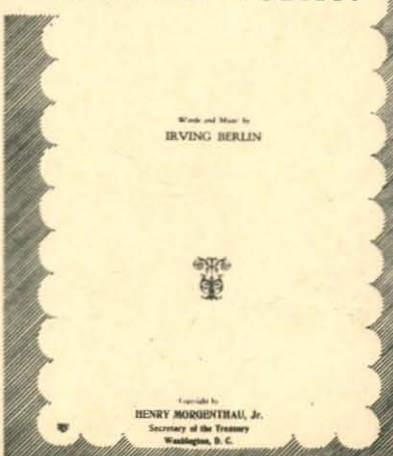

TIMELY, as America seeks to raise enormous sums of money needed for a gigantic defense program, is the song "Dollars for Defense," introduced by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians. It's been pronounced the Treasury's official Defense Bond song

"Truth or Consequences,"

FOR THIS LADY, as it does for all "Truth or Consequences" contestants, the crucial moment has come. If she can't answer question correctly, she must pay the dire consequence Ralph Edwards (back to camera) has ready. Propman Jack Farnell and producer Herbert Moss stand behind table as announcer Mel Allen hovers sympathetically near the lady. In the background a part of the overflow audience, squirming on the edges of their chairs, awaits fun which follows if she misses

ALL the words you can think of that mean "wacky" will not adequately describe the program Ralph Edwards runs on Saturday nights over NBC. Actually a sedate, old parlor game taken out of moth balls, "Truth or Consequences" has clicked as the greatest game program in radio.

Listeners to four CBS stations heard Edwards' phenomenal program for the first time on March 23, 1940. Five months later it was graduated to a Coast-to-Coast NBC network and just recently it was renewed for another year. Months ago it was playing to packed theaters throughout the country.

Ralph Edwards—then a plain but very good and very high-priced announcer—got the idea for his show at a house party when the grown-ups were roped into a children's session of "Truth or Consequences" and had more fun than the kids. He adapted the game for radio, planned to ask contestants questions and, if they failed to answer correctly, to impose a penalty in the form of a ridiculous "consequence."

Any doubts that listeners, being able only to hear the proceedings, might not find them so funny were quickly resolved. The "consequences" Mr. Edwards selects from listener suggestions are so fantastic, so ludicrous that listeners may still doubt, even after this MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE visit to the broadcast, that the studio audience could possibly have more fun than they. A husky construction foreman, failing to answer correctly, is asked to imitate a baby crying for his bottle—and to make it realistic. Given a nursery bottle and a bonnet, he quickly has the audience in hysterics. A business executive, given a ten-gallon sombrero, is asked to sing "I'm an Old Cowhand," at the same time shooting a cap pistol and riding a bucking electric horse. A man and wife are confronted with a young soldier who is to be married the next day and told to advise him about matrimonial shoals ahead. Another participant is blindfolded and equipped with rubbers, then told to wash a pile of dishes, fixing soap and water.

All the "consequences" are selected on the basis of their audible appeal. With additions of gentle sarcasm and hilarious kidding by Edwards, little is left to the imagination of listeners. What is left is supplied by these action pictures shot at a "Truth or Consequences" broadcast. —J. C.

NEXT WEEK:

"The Telephone Hour"

Radio's Phenomenal Parlor Game

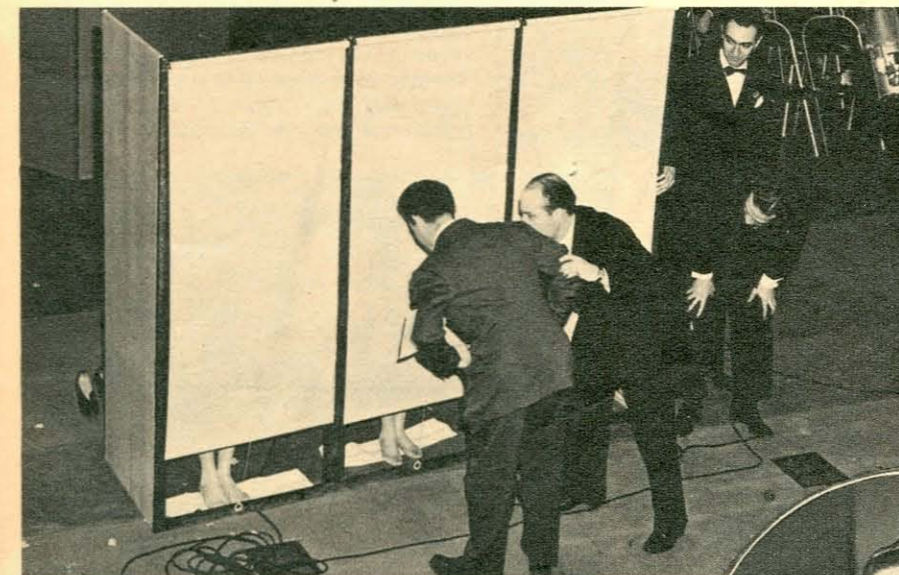

THIS IS "BEULAH," with Bob Prescott at the controls. Out of it comes the horrid sound which informs contestant and audience that answer is wrong. Bugler Prescott has all the answers on sheet before him, wastes no time

THIS GENTLEMAN is growling "woof woof," mooring "moo moo" and barking "bow wow" in same tempo used by trainmen calling station stops. Just to make things more complicated, Edwards (right) decreed he must lie prostrate on a turntable

FOR ART AND BEAUTY'S SAKE—as well as for fun—this hapless victim is ordered to do "Spring Dance on a Mattress," wearing snowshoes, wreath of posies, and carrying empty flower basket. Edwards proved descriptive genius here

IDENTIFYING YOUR WIFE by her ankles alone, as this contestant can tell you after trying it, is no snap. Three women with shoes removed were hidden behind shades, waited to be claimed by their husbands. All three of the men claimed the same woman!

EVEN LOSERS WIN. All participants get five dollars and five cakes of soap. The person whose performance of "consequence" is awarded highest rating on applause meter wins a grand prize of twenty dollars. Here is where they collect

Announcer Mel Allen

SHOW'S BIGGEST LAUGH

THE APPLAUSE METER hit the limit after this most laugh-provoking stunt in the history of "Truth or Consequences." Provided with raincoats, water pistols and buckets of water, the two women (left) were told to engage in a water fight. Then saintly-looking Mel Allen (above), stanch friend of Ralph Edwards, got the idea which brought the show's biggest laugh. Photograph at right shows result, for, at Allen's suggestion, one of the women emptied her water bucket over Ralph Edwards, drenching him to the skin. Completely befuddled, the only comment he could muster up was a plaintive query, "Why did you do it? Why did you soak me?"

Jimmie Fidler

AT WORK and PLAY

LAST year Jimmie Fidler left the air. The story was that he had stepped on the toes of certain important movie people, that he had outraged certain sensitive stars, that no sponsor was willing to sponsor his bold, independent gossip broadcasts. But today the irrepressible Jimmie is broadcasting again—Fridays on a Pacific CBS network, which presages a nation-wide network by fall—and with no punches pulled when he believes Hollywood deserves hard but honest criticism. As most people, Hollywoodians find themselves paradoxically respecting a man who tells the truth, however irritating it may be. Jimmie Fidler's frankness has proved to be his big asset. With his new sponsor, Tayton Cosmetics, Fidler has a contract unique in radio. It is for three years without the usual renewal clauses, and can be cancelled only if Tayton sales don't increase according to expectations. Fidler receives a percentage of gross receipts in addition to his salary. Now that broadcasting is added to his newspaper work, Jimmie relies more than ever on his battery of telephones. It's a twenty-four-hour-a-day job he's tackling, and these pictures show how he combines work with pleasure to do it.

FIRST RULE of a Hollywood gossip commentator is "Don't move away from a telephone." Fidler has several "legmen" gathering news for him, but phoned-in tips are quickest and best

EVEN THE PRIVACY of the swimming-pool on his San Fernando Valley estate doesn't bar calls. Not interrupting his fun, Fidler takes outdoor instrument wrapped in towel to prevent shock

BIGGEST JOB of Alfredo, Fidler factotum, is carrying telephones from one spot to another. At home Fidler receives an average of a hundred calls a week from stars and movie moguls

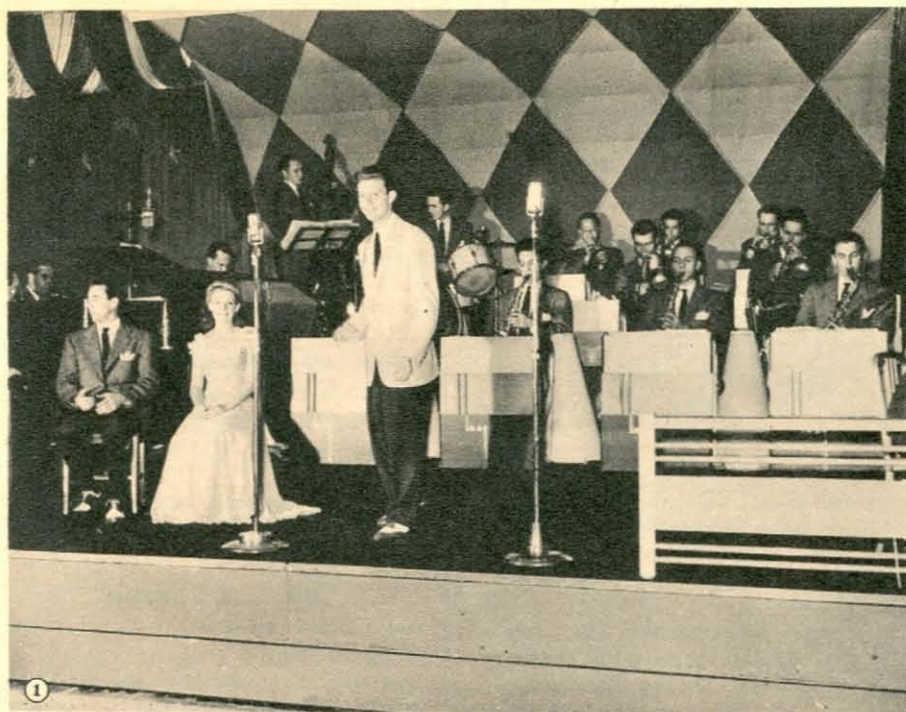

AT THE OFFICE there are three phones on the commentator's desk to take the fraction of 1,000 in-coming calls a week he takes personally. Two secretaries take others and check tips

RADIO SCRIPTS and newspaper column are done at the office, but Fidler often drafts "Notes from My Little Black Book," "Open Letters," other features on his portable in home study

AT MONTH'S END the piper must be paid, and subscriber Fidler writes the telephone company a check for $108.61. To Fidler, that's a bargain—it enables him to intermingle work and play

TRAVELING FAST toward the big-name-band brackets, Johnny Long's sweet-music outfit (1) is currently playing at the Terrace Room of the Hotel New Yorker (2). Maestro Long was born in North Carolina, learned to play the violin southpaw style. Helen Young (3), blue-eyed, vivacious songstress with the Long band, wanted to be a dancer, but a Sophie Tucker voice-award, won when Helen was thirteen, started her on a singing career. Twenty-three-year-old Bob Houston (4) shares vocal duties with Miss Young, is a crooner from Greenfield, Massachusetts. Johnny Long and his band are heard over an NBC network

BANDSTAND NOTES

By Maurice Granger

UP UNTIL this moment your correspondent has kept quiet about bandleaders appearing in motion pictures. Frankly, we were a little critical of the idea from the very beginning, but before saying anything we wanted to be sure that our judgment was borne out by facts. We believe that it has been. Our criticism of this practise is based upon the belief that most bandleaders are not good movie actors. With the exception of Kay Kyser, whose pictures have been good because he is a natural showman, most bandleaders have been flops in the movies. Those of you who saw Tommy Dorsey in "Las Vegas Nights," Orrin Tucker and Bonnie Baker in "You're the One," and Bob Crosby in "Rookies on Parade" will doubtless agree with me that their performances left something to be desired. The trouble with star roles in motion pictures is that they require no little acting ability, and that is something which a bandleader cannot expect to gain unless he devotes himself exclusively to that business. In this writer's opinion, it would be far better for all concerned if our bandstand favorites stayed out of the movies or else assumed a minor role, one which would not project them into the spotlight and thus bring out their acting faults. We hope the boys who wave the batons will take this hint which is passed along in good faith. Like the shoemaker, let us all stick to our lasts.

the fact that—and we quote—"the beautiful musical compositions of Beethoven, Brahms, Schubert, Chopin, Tschaiikowsky, Debussy and Foster, and many other masters, have been deliberately converted into jazz and swing without the knowledge and consent of the said composers now deceased." You will probably hear more about this when the bandleaders make their replies.

Bandata

Kay Kyser's announcement that he had established two scholarships in dramatic music and arts at the University of North Carolina has brought on some headaches. Everybody, it seems, wants Kay to recommend them for the scholarships, whereas it is left strictly up to university officials . . . Because he has had so many offers to do so, Benny Goodman may embark upon a tour of the country, playing classical music. The tour is not expected to last more than two or three weeks, with his band taking a lay-off during the interim. Benny would travel with a famous string quartet . . . Incidentally, when Jose Iturbi takes over the Rochester Civic Orchestra November 6 his nervous system is going to get an awful shock. The man who wouldn't play with Benny at a concert recently will find that harmonica-playing Larry Adler is the featured soloist . . . Bob Astor certainly moved fast after organizing his band. Within two weeks after the group began playing they were invited to appear on the Fitch Bandwagon radio program. This is an honor for which most young bands have to wait a considerable length of time . . . Vincent Lopez, who took up astrology and numerology as a hobby, will write a column on the subjects for a news syndicate . . . Four of Skinnay Ennis' crew were injured recently in a bus accident. These innumerable accidents involving bands must make the insurance companies feel awfully low . . . Johnny Long's sweet band is proving very popular at the New Yorker, where swing bands have long reigned supreme . . . Woody Herman will undergo an operation. Tommy Dorsey is another who submits to the knife soon . . . Bob Crosby denies that his band has broken up. He says that the boys are taking a much-needed rest. They started on their vacation July 6 . . . Sammy Kaye has been awarded the annual certificate of merit by the Ohio University

Alumni Association. He is the youngest alumnus to receive the honor, and the only bandleader . . . Will Osborne's band, which he organized in Hollywood several months ago, has been scrapped. He will start all over again.

Songstuff

BMI reports that in its first year of operations it brought the music of more than five hundred previously unknown writers to public notice. The music, says that organization, came from all parts of the country and from all walks of life. What's more, says BMI, it did not reflect the ideas of any one group but included the work of those who devote their entire time to the creation of music and those to whom this creation has been a sort of spare-time avocation. Incidentally, BMI's top tune-writers possess unique backgrounds. The composer of the currently popular "Hut Sut Song" wanted to be a singing evangelist; Helen Bliss, who wrote "I Went Out of My Way" and "The Moon Won't Talk," formerly worked in Macy's Department Store in New York, and is now a dentist's assistant; Una Mae Carlisle, the author of "Walkin' By the River," got tired of singing others' tunes and wrote one of her own which is now in the hit class. We could, of course, mention others, but perhaps by now you have an idea as to the wide variety of backgrounds which BMI composers enjoy. The leading song-writers of today are no longer Tin Pan Alleyites. In fact, one of them may be living next door to you.

Band Bookings

Sammy Kaye is currently on a theater and dance tour . . . Glenn Miller is "one-nighting" his way from Hollywood to New York, where he will open at the Hotel Pennsylvania September 8.

Highbrows Protest Swinging the Classics

This business of bands arranging classical tunes in swing time isn't going unnoticed by the more cultural element. Or so it would seem. We have been notified of a resolution adopted by the National Federation of Music Clubs deploring this practise. The Federation is particularly incensed over

You're Prettier Than You Think

BY ALBERTA NORTH

WHATEVER you call your facial faults can be minimized by what make-up you use and where. You already know this if you've listened to Richard Willis on WOR's "Here's Looking at You" program, for at each broadcast a member of the studio audience is analyzed and prescribed for, and the results are astounding!

Mr. Willis' advice is very sound and worth passing along to all of you who cannot come to the studio for personal analysis. The basic rule for loveliness through make-up, according to Mr. Willis, lies in the proper selection of color and the elimination of excess cosmetics. In other words, select the proper make-up and use it well.

Cosmetic manufacturers favor this theory too. That's why they make a point of bringing out a complete line of colors that blend together naturally, making it easy for you to choose the "right" make-up for yourself. You don't have to feel, either, that a complete set of matched make-up must be expensive. For example, almost every five-and-ten-cent store in the country carries Irresistible cosmetics, which are planned especially for women who know the importance of proper color selection. To identify one set of color harmonies from another, Irresistible gives them a distinctive name, such as School House or Pink Rose, and this name follows right through the line of powder, rouge, lipstick, foundation, etc.

If you prefer more expensive cosmetics you can also be assured of colors that suit you in almost every line that's sold in department stores all over the country. Richard Hudnut, for example, has that wonderful matched make-up keyed to the color of your eyes.

ONE of the most important steps in correct make-up is the application of rouge. Mr. Willis has a rule which applies to every face, and that is to apply it to the cheek-bones first, then blend it evenly and softly away from these center points. From there on the direction of shading depends on the shape of your face. Every woman over forty should take special care not to have any rouge around the eyes, as this will tend to accentuate possible wrinkles.

Also, if blemishes bother you try to blend them out with your make-up, do not try to cover them up with heavy powders that conceal your natural skin tone.

Angel Voices

Dear Sirs:

The dear angel voices of the Moylan Sisters must bring great joy into many lives. We look forward each Sunday to hearing their songs. I believe if every person in the world should hear their voices raised in beautiful song, peace wouldn't be such a remote possibility.

Mrs. John Hudock, Greensburg, Pa.

● The Moylan Sisters are heard on NBC Sunday afternoons.—The Editors.

Real and Clean

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to tell you how sorry we are to hear that the story, "Those We Love," has been taken off the air. Many of our friends feel this was one of the finest stories on the radio—so real and so clean.

We do hope you will try to get it back, and with the same cast. They were all wonderful and we learned to love them as a very nice family.

Why do broadcasters let the good stories go and keep some that have no sense to them at all? Here's hoping "Those We Love" will return very soon.

Mrs. F. W. Schmidt, Queens Village, Long Island

● Our best information is that "Those We Love" has left the air for the summer months, will return in September.—The Editors.

More Males

Dear Sirs:

You've always gladly accepted any suggestions from your readers. So I'm speaking up for your male readers. You have been printing many pictures of beautiful Hollywood actresses. We men would like to have an issue with at least a few pages of actors, such as Nat Pendleton, Wayne Morris, Buck Jones, Johnny Weissmuller, Robert Preston, Tom Neal, Fred MacMurray and others.

Milan Zirovich, Jackson, Mich.

Disgusting Cycle

Dear Sirs:

The old saying that one must take the bitter with the sweet certainly holds true today in radio. Ever since radio was invented, ever since the first program was on the air, there have been irritations.

First it was static, which was as prevalent in the early days of radio as daytime serials are now. The next and still rather prevalent annoyance is the way companies pay announcers large sums of money to waste time teasing their audiences with trick advertising. This can be swallowed, but when they offer thousands and thousands of dollars to someone for passing mere opinions on a product, it's just simply silly.

The whole thing is a disgusting cycle: They use more time praising a product to get more people to buy more of it so they will have more money to spend on more radio time on which to do more advertising.

Lydia Stewart, Rexburg, Idaho.

● Fortunately for listeners, few sponsors employ any longer the "disgusting" technique of salesmanship to which she refers.—The Editors.

1 THIS IS ATWOOD, the palatial plantation home of Robert Atwood and his mother, Jessie, a retired theatrical star. In this mansion preparations are in progress for the marriage of Robert to young Diane Pers

2 THE ATWOOD GROUP—I. to r., Kate, Robert, Diane, Jessie—spend congenial moments at backgammon, but underneath there are tense complications in their emotional relations

3 KATE HOPKINS embraces her son, Tom, as he arrives at Atwood for a furlough visit. Robert, in background, wonders if Tom will make a difference in his romance

4 TOM AND DIANE immediately discover they like doing the same things and begin to take an obvious delight in one another's company. It begins to look as if Robert's plan to test Diane's love may side-track the Pers-Atwood wedding

5 JESSIE ATWOOD (left) and Kate are aware of the situation. Jessie has done much to prevent Robert from marrying Diane, for she favors Kate, often insists to Kate the age differential between Robert and Diane would bar a happy marriage

6 ROBERT is arrogant, wealthy, and he frequently taxes Kate's patience; but she has good reason to believe he is growing more fond of her

7 AS THE STORY UNFOLDS this week, Diane and Tom become convinced of their love for one another. But the wedding date for Diane and Robert is fast approaching

"KATE HOPKINS"

PART 2. Atwood, the plantation owned and administered by Robert Atwood, is expected to be the scene of a marriage in the "Kate Hopkins" story (CBS, Monday through Friday). Amid preparations for the wedding of Robert to Diane Pers, twenty-two years his junior, there hovers the possibility that the ceremony may not be performed, for Robert has recently experienced an emotional attraction to widowed Kate Hopkins, his mother's companion. To test Diane's love—and perhaps clear his own path—Robert arranges to have Kate's son, Tom, an aviation cadet, visit the Atwoods while on furlough, thus bringing Diane and Tom somewhat together. Events this week are concerned chiefly with the probability that the young couple will fall in love with one another, and that Robert will make his feelings toward Kate more pronounced. The situation is sensitively balanced, with mother and son (Kate and Tom) involved in a sort of round-robin romance. Follow the affairs in these photos and on the air this week.

6 BIG WEEKLY CONTESTS

1-$1,000 BILL!
25-$100 BILLS!

THESE PRIZES
EVERY WEEK
FOR 6 WEEKS

GRAND PRIZE—$30 a Week for Life!

To be awarded at close of the six contests

JUST WRITE THE LAST LINE FOR THIS JINGLE

Safe Oxydol washes clothes white
Mild Camay helps keep your skin right
Don't take it from me
Use both and you'll see

Write out your last line on a piece of plain paper and send it together with 1 Camay wrapper and 1 Oxydol box top (any sizes or facsimiles) to Dept. MRG Box 25, Cincinnati, Ohio. Print your name and address.

FOLLOW THESE EASY RULES!

1. Print or write plainly your "last line" for the Camay-Oxydol jingle, using sufficient words to complete it. Your last line may contain any idea you think completes the thought of the jingle, but the last word should rhyme with "white" and "right". You can get the handy entry blank from your dealer or write on one side of a sheet of paper. Print plainly your name and address.
2. Mail to Camay-Oxydol Dept. MRG Box 25, Cincinnati, Ohio. You can enter each contest as often as you like, but each entry must be accompanied by one Oxydol box top, any size and one Camay wrapper (or facsimiles).
3. Cash prizes in each weekly contest are one $1,000 bill and twenty-five $100 bills. The winner of the grand prize of $30.00 a week for life (to be selected from winners of $1,000 weekly prizes) will receive an annuity policy worth $30.00 a week ($1560 per year). This policy will be issued by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee and paid for by Procter & Gamble. The grand prize winner may take $25,000 cash instead of $30.00 a week for life.

4. There will be 6 weekly contests, each with a separate list of prizes. Opening and closing dates:

	OPENS	CLOSES
First contest	Now	Sat. Aug. 9
Second "	Sun. Aug. 10	Sat. Aug. 16

Fourth "	Sun. Aug. 24	Sat. Aug. 30
Fifth "	Sun. Aug. 31	Sat. Sept. 6
Sixth "	Sun. Sept. 7	Sat. Sept. 13

5. Entries received before Sat., Aug. 9, will be entered in the first week's contest. Thereafter, entries will be entered in each week's contest as received. Entries for the final contest must be post marked before midnight, September 13, 1941, and

The largest steady income ever offered in a contest of this type—because it's sponsored by not one but two famous products—Camay, the Soap of Beautiful Women, and Oxydol, the safe laundry soap that washes clothes really white. They have put in all their prize money to make this a truly sensational contest! Think of what you can win. An assured income of $30 every week as long as you live—starting October 15, 1941—paid to you by the great Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee! And you have the choice of taking $25,000 in cash instead.

156 additional big cash prizes. There's a contest every week for 6 (six) weeks. Each week for six weeks Camay and Oxydol offer 1 crisp $1000 bill and 25 new crackly $100 bills! Enter all 6 of these contests. The winner of one of those $1000 bills will also win the Grand Prize.

This contest is so easy to enter! Just write a last line for the jingle shown at the left. It's simple and it's fun. So get busy. Get entry blanks from your dealer! Enter now and enter often.

must be received by September 26, 1941.

6. Entries will be judged for originality, suitability, and aptness of thought. The Judges' decisions will be final. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties. No entries will be returned. Entries, contents, and ideas therein become the property of Procter & Gamble.

7. Any resident over 18 years of age of continental U.S., Hawaii, or the Dominion of Canada may compete except employees of Procter & Gamble, their advertising agencies and their families. Contests subject to all federal, state and Dominion regulations.

8. The grand prize winner and the winners of the final weekly contest will be announced on or about Oct. 6 on the following network radio programs: Oxydol's "Woman in White" and Camay's "Guiding Light". Winners of weekly prizes will be announced approximately two weeks after the close of each contest. All winners will be notified by mail. A complete list of winners will be available after Oct. 13, 1941.

The purpose of this contest is to get more women to try the wonderful new High-Test Oxydol and famous Camay. Oxydol soaks dirt loose in ten minutes—gets your white wash sparkling white. And as for Camay—hundreds of lovely brides have told us how its gentle cleansing has helped them to new loveliness. Let it do the same for you!

Hints on how to win!

Try amazing new High-Test Oxydol for your dish-washing and laundry. And start using Camay—the beauty soap that is so wonderfully mild it actually seems to soothe as it cleanses. This will help you to think of ideas for last lines. Make the last word in your last line rhyme with the last word in the first two lines. For example, your last line might read: "They both are a perfect delight!" or "They'll help you from morning to night!"

One of the best ways to start is to write down all the words you can think of that rhyme with "white" like "sight"—"light"—"height"—etc. Then you can use them to build last lines.
