The Babe in the Manger

EVERY Christmas since 1933, those homespun philosophers Lum and Abner—in real life Chester Lauck and Norris Goff, respectively—have broadcast the same script about the birth of a baby in a barn to a destitute carpenter and his wife. Again this Yuletide the veteran team (pictured below) will repeat the celebrated sketch on NBC.

Because Lum and Abner have given to radio a classic, it is here printed in condensed form for the benefit of those who may wish to preserve its beautiful thoughts:

The night is cold but clear, and fresh snow covers the ground. The light of the stars shows dimly on three men walking along a country road, each carrying a large bundle. It is Lum, Abner and Grandpappy Spears.

GRANDPAP: There it is right ahead of us. We're going right, men.

LUM: Yeah, we can jist foller the east star . . . How did you find out about these folks, Grandpap?

GRANDPAP: Well, Doc Miller and his woman et supper over at our place and we was settin' there visitin' after we got done eatin' and the telephone rung and told Doc to get right on over here.

ABNER: Well, who done the callin'?

GRANDPAP: Oh, some feller named Joe sompin-another . . . Said they'd been into the county seat to pay their taxes and they weren't no room at the hotel, so they come out here to this old barn to spend the night.

LUM: And he said they was sorter 'spectin' the baby to be born tonight, huh?

GRANDPAP: Yeah, that's the reason they called Doc Miller.

ABNER: I doggies, my arm's gittin' tired.

LUM: Well, here, let me carry them blankets a while and you can carry this oil heater. Is that box of groceries gettin' heavy, Grandpap?

GRANDPAP: No, I'm all right. We ought to be there drecky anyhow . . . Hit was mighty thoughty of you fellers to come over here at night this-away.

ABNER: Well, I'm jist glad you called me, Grandpap. I'm jist proud of a chance to help.

LUM: Yeah, this makes it seem more like Christmas to me—doin' for somebody else. Trouble with a lot of us, we sorter lose the Christmas idee altogether. Think too much about ourselves. The real Christmas spirit is the happiness we git outa makin' others happy.

ABNER: Yeah, there we was settin' there at home; thought we was enjoyin' ourselves and these folks out here about to spend Christmas in an old barn thisaway. No, they wouldn'ta been no Christmas to it if you hadn'ta called us up, Grandpap.

LUM: Wait a minute—I b'lieve that's the barn yonder, ain't it?

GRANDPAP: Yeah, that's where they're at.

ABNER: That's due east from where we was all right, fer there's the east star right over the top of the barn.

LUM: Yeah, there's Doc's horse tied to the fence there.

GRANDPAP: We better not be talkin' too loud, fellers. Don't want to disturb 'em none.

LUM: Here comes somebody to the door—Hidy, Doc!

DOC: Oh, hello, there! Well, what are you three old codgers doin' out here?

GRANDPAP: Why, we jist got to thinkin' after you left, Doc, these folks might be needin' somethin'.

ABNER: Yeah, Doc, we brung a oil stove and some bed-kivers.

LUM: And here's a box of groceries.

DOC: Well, they sure are needin' 'em. Haven't any heat of any kind in there. Usin' what little hay was left in there for a bed. Took and piled it up in the manger; made a purty good bed, but these covers'll come in handy.

LUM: How's the lady, Doc?

DOC: Gettin' along as well as could be expected. You men better stay out for a while.

LUM: Yeah, shore. We'll wait out here.

GRANDPAP: If there's anything we can do, Doc, let us know.

DOC: All right, thank you . . .

LUM: Well, sir, I was jist thinkin' here. Here we are three old codgers, gittin' along in years, standin' around out here waitin'—waitin' fer a little baby to be born. Hit's sorter like as if we was waitin' fer somebody to take our place.

ABNER: Well, course we don't like to talk about sich things, but we've 'bout sarved our time, I reckon.

LUM: Hit's sorter like the years. Here 1941 is almost gone. They's been a lot of things happen, but hit'll soon be forgot. Here'll come 1942 bringin' new hope and new courage. And we're sorter like the years, us three old fellers. We're sorter like 1941 and we're waitin' on 1942—the little baby in yonder. (Door opens.)

LUM: Any news yet, Doc?

DOC: Well, men—it's a fine baby boy!

Jack Benny Tells on Wife Mary

By Jack Benny

I'M GLAD of this opportunity to write the lowdown on Mary Livingstone, because at home or on the air I never get the chance to say anything. There's a gal that always has to have the last word, and trouble is, it's usually funny.

Yes, Mary and I have our differences, but about the only time we ever really clash is on Wednesday night. As far as I'm concerned the only good thing about that program is Kenny Baker, who, incidentally, has a higher I. Q. than Allen. Now don't think I have anything against Fred personally—I just can't stand him. If Mary tunes in on him next week I'm going to take the earphones and run 'em through the meat-grinder. (Well, I guess I should wish Freddie a Merry Christmas.) That's the trouble with me, I'm not a louse.

But getting back to Mary, she loves to entertain. And I think she should—I like to have people in, too. Incidentally, Bob Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck have been at our house seven times this month. We've been to their house only three times and the month is nearly over. I wouldn't mind that so much, but Taylor eats like a horse. I don't know how he keeps his figure.

Another thing, Mary always tries to give the impression that I'm tight. Well, I'll tell you something about her. When I was making "Charley's Aunt," she wouldn't even lend me a girdle. I had to go out and buy one! And I needed it for only eight weeks. Oh well, I'll think of some way to use it now.

ANYHOW, there's one thing I can say for Mary—she's not the least bit jealous. She was out at the Korda studio watching me do a very passionate love-scene with Carole Lombard the other day, and when I kissed Carole Mary just laughed and laughed. Clark Gable was standing there and he laughed too. I'm glad that Mary and Clark aren't narrow-minded.

Guess that's about all for now. I've got to go out and get my Christmas tree. I've got a swell one picked out. Hope you all have a very Merry Christmas.

SAYS JACK (above): "You'd think my jokes weren't funny to hear Mary laugh at those corny cracks Phil Harris dishes up. I guess I should have stuck to my violin, been a maestro

"HERE I AM again (left) as Hamlet in my new picture with Carole Lombard, 'To Be or Not to Be.' Funny thing, Mary—see her with me at Ciro's at right? —Mary isn't jealous at all!"

"I PICKED UP some snapshots from my scrapbook just to prove how I rate with the glamour girls in Hollywood. First, I point to Rosalind Russell—isn't SHE impressed, though? Claudette Colbert feels the same way about me"

"YOU CAN SEE that Gracie Allen's simply crazy about me. (I do wish she'd stop calling me Jackie-Wackie!) Of course, it's all in fun, but it does amaze me the way I have with the women!"

(and Miss Livingstone Replies)

By Mary Livingstone

WRITING an article about Jack Benny so close to Christmas, unless I'm careful what I say, is apt to upset him no end. And I don't want to do that. He gave me a lovely earring for Christmas last year and I'd like to get its mate this season.

First of all, don't get the idea that Jack is penurious, meaning tight. The man is just ahead of his time, that's all. For instance, for as long as I can remember he has been saving paper bags, tinfoil and string. Now everybody's doing it. Of course it took a national emergency to alibi that one—but I did.

Then too, many folks are under the impression that when Jack gives a party he always invites more guests than we have sandwiches. Actually, our ice-box is packed with food. Jack keeps it locked, but that's only to keep people from opening the door and melting the ice. If there was some way to get the food out without that happening, you could have all you wanted.

However, there's one member of our household that gets all he wants to eat—Carmichael, the polar bear. We've discovered that you've got to feed that animal. Jack didn't throw him enough fish last year and the first thing we knew the gasman was missing.

Now don't get the idea that I'm complaining. Our house is very comfortable and we have a nice swimming-pool in the back yard. And now that the rainy season is here, there's water in it! Just enough for wading now—but a good cloudburst and we'll be able to use the diving-board.

WELL, I guess that's about enough of the lowdown on life with Benny. He's really a thoughtful and generous guy, especially at Christmas time. (I'll get that earring!) And it looks like we're going to have a real old-fashioned Yuletide. As a matter of fact, right now Jack is over in Ronald Colman's yard chopping down a Christmas tree.

Merry Christmas, everybody!

P. S. Get a load of Jack in the Santa Claus suit on the front cover. I knew that outfit when it was drapes. And besides, Rochester made the coat too tight!

SAYS MARY: "As a matter of fact, a lot of Jack's jokes are funny, but if I laughed at all of 'em, he'd get to thinking he's good. And there are times that if I didn't laugh to cover up you'd hear the egg drop!"

"JACK AND I—at least I—have a lot of fun at backgammon (left). You see, I always win—with Joan's help. Jack likes to hear Joan (r.) play the piano and I do too (keeps the Benny violin out of sight!)"

"REALLY, Jack's rather an old fuddy-duddy. He says he doesn't mind a little dust now and then, but when he finds the tack he used last Christmas to hang up his stocking still there on the mantel—well, that's Jack!"

"JACK IS sensitive. When I told him he should walk on all fours ALL of the time because he looks more natural, was he burned up!"

SAYS JACK: "This is one time I'm going to have the last word. Take the refrigerator. All I can ever find there late at night are reducing-crackers! After me giving Mary five dollars for grocery money last month!"

GARY COOPER

He's the Public's Choice for Screen "Lou Gehrig"

GARY COOPER, the former Montanan, one-time newspaper cartoonist and cowpuncher, is the choice of MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE readers to play the role of Lou Gehrig in Sam Goldwyn's forthcoming screening of the ball-playing hero's life. The lanky Cooper, known during the past year as the star of such big pictures as "Meet John Doe," "Sergeant York," and soon to be seen in "Ball of Fire," is the star whom readers tendered the most ballots in the recent poll to advise Mr. Goldwyn of the popular choice.

But oddly enough, despite the high-ranking vote of 1,243 ballots cast in Gary Cooper's favor and the coincidence that Cooper is under contractual commitments to Goldwyn, there is a drawback. Cooper is right-handed, and Gerhig was a southpaw.

If somehow this physical deficiency of the great Gary can be overcome, it looks like a head-on chance that Cooper will play the life of Lou Gehrig on the screen. But that left-handed business has yet to be solved.

When notified at Sun Valley where he was resting that he had topped the MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE poll, Cooper said little. He doesn't talk much. "Is that so?" he replied. Then he did an odd thing—he began to practise throwing snowballs left-handed!

With more than three-quarters as many votes as Cooper, John Wayne, an actor much like Cooper, was the runner-up. John Payne was a close third, and Bill Gargan wasn't far behind for fourth. In the "second division," to paraphrase, in order were Spencer Tracy, George Tobias and Dennis Morgan.

There were more than thirty-five candidates for the role, including four major and former major league ballplayers. These include Jimmie Foxx, who polled the most votes—131—Mel Ott, Waite Hoyt and Bob Feller.

However, Sam Goldwyn isn't satisfied yet with the results of the many screen-tests he has given in his search for the perfect Gehrig. In fact, he is still testing, and at press time was at work setting up tests of George Montgomery and Dennis Morgan.

So, while Cooper is the public's favorite, he doesn't have the part yet. But he is practising throwing with that left arm of his! —E. P.

—Bruce Bailey

LEO (THE LIP) DUROCHER, manager of "Dose Bums" who almost won the World Series pennant, tested for a role in the Goldwyn film, but not as Gehrig, just as a player on the picture's "Yankee" team. Imagine Leo in a Yank uniform!

MR. AND MRS. GEHRIG? Only time will tell whether Gary Cooper, popular choice for role of Gehrig, and Teresa Wright, who zoomed to fame in "The Little Foxes," will play these roles. (Miss Wright's testing for part of Gehrig's wife)

BELOW: In "Ball of Fire" Prof. Potts (Gary Cooper) learns the meaning of "yum" from Sugar-puss O'Shea (Barbara Stanwyck)

GARY COOPER in "Ball of Fire" is one of a group of serious-minded professors who lead a cloistered, scholarly life until Barbara barges in

IT'S BARBARA STANWYCK'S aim to show Gary that a "yum" is a very special, delectable kiss. Barbara is also a prospective "Mrs. Gehrig"

THE YUM? It looked like this on the screen when they finally got it. A "yum" is just a high-powered kiss, which if extended becomes ymmmm!

ADOPT A SOLDIER, SAILOR, A MARINE!

Will you help make Christmas merry for the boys who are making our country safe?

JEANETTE shows her guests a card trick or two. Miss MacDonald and husband, Gene Raymond, themselves enter into the fun at the parties they hold for service men and dates

THE RAYMONDS look on with satisfaction while the guests (service men and girls from U. S. C. and U. C. L. A.) pitch into a chicken dinner topped by Jeanette's own home-made ice-cream

STORMY, the Raymonds' terrier, "prays" in an effort to get some food while the guests are eating at Gene and Jeanette's Bel Air home. By the end of the day Stormy was too full!

THIS will be a lonesome Christmas for some of Uncle Sam's service men. Some of the men in training are too far away, or have official duties or just can't afford to go home for the holiday. They'll be sacrificing some of their Christmas enjoyment for the sake of the security of all of us, you know. Maybe some of us can do them a Christmas favor, and thereby do Uncle Sam a defense favor. There are a lot of homes that have a little extra space in the house, at the table, around the Christmas tree. And there are a lot of generous people who may not know just how to go about expressing their generosity. Here's a tip. Any person or family who would like to extend Christmas or New Year hospitality to a service man or two may get in touch with the nearest U. S. O. office and make the arrangements.

Several Hollywood stars have been setting a good example of playing host and hostess to service men. In a previous issue, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE "applauded" actress Patricia Morison for launching a campaign to "Entertain a Soldier for Christmas" and volunteering to arrange it for those writing to her in care of Paramount Studios, Hollywood. Gene Raymond and Jeanette MacDonald have practically adopted Uncle Sam's forces by virtue of the biweekly "Date Leave" parties which they've been holding since early last summer at their home. The parties have been highly successful and have set a pattern that might well be followed throughout the country—at least this Christmas season.

The boys deserve a real home holiday. Let's all pitch in and give it to them!

—D. M.

GENE tends the open fireplace while the young men and women chat and dance. The Raymonds have been holding their "Date Leave" parties every alternate week since early last summer

LEFT: Swimming was a favorite feature of the parties during the summer. By personally participating in the activities of their guests, Gene and Jeanette have been able to see how much hospitality means to these often homesick trainees

RIGHT: Jeanette and a private from Camp San Luis Obispo indulge in a game of ping-pong while other guests loll in sunshine. The Raymonds hope their parties will inspire others to open their homes to service men now and then—especially for Christmas

Today in Hollywood

THE "I DO'S" have been flying thick and fast among celebrities recently, and in widely separated localities. Milton Berle and Joyce Mathews were married in Hollywood December 4. Above, they drink a wedding toast of punch

IN NEW YORK Mayor LaGuardia took time out from his pressing duties to administer marriage vows for movie comedian Mischa Auer and singer Joyce Hunter (above) day after Auer's divorce from first wife became official

AND in Las Vegas, Nev., Astrid Aliwyn and businessman Charles Fee culminated an elopement wedding at El Rancho Vegas, from which they are shown emerging above. The actress first met the bridegroom when he called to return a book his sister had borrowed. The bride wore a simple black crepe frock, silver fox wrap and green orchid corsage

GENERAL

The Women Vote

In spite of efforts to talk the group out of the stunt, latest reports at press time were that the Hollywood Women's Press Club would continue with their announced intention of naming the "most cooperative" and also the "most uncooperative" stars of the year. Final announcement, which was scheduled for both December 18 and 23 by various agencies, allegedly will be made from the following group of players: Most cooperative: Bette Davis, Rita Hayworth and Ann Sheridan among the women; Clark Gable, Bob Hope and Robert Taylor among the men. Early nominees for the "least cooperative" award were said to be Marlene Dietrich, Jean Arthur and Ginger Rogers, while this dubious honor among the men was centered around Fred Astaire, Bing Crosby and Ronald Colman. The Hollywood Women's Press Club is an organization of women fan writers and reporters who cover the film capital.

"The Major and the Minor" for Ginger

Following completion of "Roxie Hart" at 20th Century-Fox, Ginger Rogers is scheduled to appear in "The Major and the Minor," for Paramount, the first picture under a recently signed contract with that studio. "The Major and the Minor" is an original story described as a romantic comedy with a modern American background.

No other castings have as yet been announced.

Tracy, Lamarr Teamed

After dozens of announcements and several false starts, "Tortilla Flats," by John Steinbeck, has gone into production at M-G-M. Heading the cast of this tale of the happy-go-lucky Californians of Tortilla Flats will be Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield, with Pat Dane in a supporting role.

Columbia Builds Saloon

The "White Skull" saloon of Tombstone, Arizona, outlaw rendezvous in the days of the Old West, has been duplicated exactly at Columbia studios for the new Joe E. Brown comedy, "Shut My Big Mouth." Sets of this type will provide an Old West authenticity seldom seen in comedies. "Shut My Big Mouth," in addition to Brown, will introduce Adele Mara, a newcomer, as Brown's leading lady. Victor Jory will be the bandit-leader.

Accent on Carole

Working on "To Be or Not to Be" with Jack Benny, Carole Lombard faces an unusual problem. Carole has a habit of picking up the speech accent of anyone she is around a great deal, and with the thick German dialect of director Lubitsch and the Hungarian accent of cinematographer Rudy Mate flying around the set continually, Carole already is beginning to talk in a German-Hungarian argot, which is a scrambled combination, to say the least.

Beaver on Power

Tyrone Power fans are due for a shock when they see their favorite in "Son of Fury," pirate story of the 1800's. Power, who plays the hero in a sea story, will wear a beaver (beard, to you) in much of the picture. Plot is being worked out so that he'll be clean-shaven for his love-scenes with Gene Tierney, however.

Double for Henie

When Sonja Henie returns to the screen for 20th Century-Fox in February (Please Turn to Next Page)

ary, she'll not do the one picture previously announced for her, but two pictures instead. "Iceland," which already has been announced as a Henie musical, will be followed by "Quota Girl," in which Miss Henie also will star. Or, if possible schedule changes are made by the studio, she may do "Quota Girl" first, following with the musical.

Judy and Dave Vacation

Newlyweds Judy Garland and Dave Rose are planning a whirlwind honeymoon trip beginning January 10. Dave will have three weeks' vacation from his radio show at that time, and Judy is planning to arrange her schedule so the two of them can take a trip. Sun Valley, New York and Florida already are on the itinerary and heaven knows how many more will be added.

Menjou Sets the Styles

When Adolphe Menjou was assigned to "Roxie Hart" with Ginger Rogers, a picture which is set in the 1920's, he arrived for work showing exactly what the well-dressed man of that period wore. Reason for Menjou's get-up was not only that the part called for the clothes but that he had them in his wardrobe! Menjou, who spends $15,000 yearly on clothes, has never discarded a suit. He keeps one hun-

ONE WAY to find out what Hollywood stars are in New York at any given time is to take a peep into such popular night-spots as the Stork Club. If you had taken such a peep recently into this much-in-the-columns nitery, you might have seen Tyrone Power and wife, Annabella (left, above), on a visit east. Or you might have seen the Don Ameches (left), likewise seeing the metropolis on a vacation. And you might have noted Desi Arnaz and wife, Lucille Ball (left, below), celebrating first wedding anniversary, when Lucille flew east to join her stage-touring husband dred of them in a Los Angeles vault and had simply hauled out the clothes he had worn in "A Woman of Paris" in 1921 for the "Roxie Hart" assignment.

AILING

Jane Withers Hurt

Jane Withers, long-standing juvenile star at 20th Century-Fox Studios, sustained a lacerated scalp and back injuries at the lot last fortnight when she slipped on the wet floor of a set during the making of rain scenes. The accident caused Jane to take a week's layoff. Incidentally, she had just received a special award from the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago for her work in the filming of "Young America."

Elaine Helps John

When doctors failed to make progress with the curing of the ailing John Barrymore at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, they called in his last ex-wife, Elaine Barrie. She has worked wonders with the veteran actor, and there was talk at press time that he might make his December 18 Vallee radio show date. There was also talk that John and Elaine might reconcile—on the firm condition that Elaine's mother was not included in the reconciliation.

NEXT WEEK!

War conditions permitting, complete information as to how war-time conditions will affect your radio listening will be revealed by Curtis Mitchell, U. S. Army.

LIFE STATISTICS

Mature Stumps Guessers

Probing newspapermen are having little luck trying to learn what is behind the planned then often canceled flights of Mrs. Victor Mature to New York City. Vic knows; says nothing, and reaps publicity thereby. Added complication last week was the sudden exposure of Mature's first marriage, a childhood affair with Frances Evans Charles, which was dissolved even before Mature studied at the Pasadena Playhouse. Mature's "ex" broke into print when she obtained license to wed Corp. Ray Alman Smith.

Dan Dailey, Jr., Free

Dan Dailey, Jr., M-G-M contractee, was divorced last week in Florida by his first wife. Rumored romances of young Dailey have included Ann Rutherford, Eleanor Powell and Lana Turner.

C. B. DeMille, Grandpa 6th

Cecil B. DeMille passed grand-parental cigars for the sixth time in his life last week when, on December 2, his daughter Katharine (Mrs. Anthony Quinn) became the mother of an eight-pound-seven-ounce daughter who will be christened Kristina. Two Sundays ago, Irene Dunne became godmother and Spencer Tracy the godfather of Pat O'Brien's daughter. And winding up the stork-market reports, young actor Bill Holden became stand-in for his stand-in, Dick Barrett, last week and helped the latter to pace the floor until the Barrett nurse announced "It's a boy!" Cast and crew of Paramount's "Out of the Frying Pan" chipped in to start baby Barrett's fortune off with a U. S. Defense Bond.

Merry-Go-Round

As predicted, Dorothy Lamour and attorney Gregory Bautzer have come to a parting of the ways, and Dotty will console herself with a Fifth Avenue shopping-tour . . . Now Ida Lupino and Louis Hayward are definitely together again; looks like just too

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE CRITICS' REPORT

COMING ATTRACTION: The new and exciting romantic team of Robert Taylor and Lana Turner is introduced to fans in M-G-M's dramatic story, "Johnny Eager"

"THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON"

Cast: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Arthur Kennedy, Charley Grapewin, Gene Lockhart, and large supporting cast. A Warner Bros. picture; produced by Hal Wallis and directed by Raoul Walsh. Screen play (an original) by Wally Kline and Aeneas MacKenzie, from the history of the life and death of General George A. Custer.

Type of Picture: A rip-snorting, soldier-fights-Indian action melodrama of two hours' length glorifying the life and death of General Custer in a half-true, half-fictionized drama.

This Is the Story: If Errol Flynn had lived at the time of General George A. Custer, this probably would have been the story of Flynn—not Custer—for history left much of Custer's life unrecorded—and to an experienced Hollywood reporter it is pretty obvious that the blanks were filled in with paralleling antics and episodes from the life of one E. Flynn, who has not yet "died with his boots on," but probably will. Just give him time. The story need not be recounted to students. Custer attends West Point, is a problem youth there, is a demon (Flynn?) with the ladies, becomes a fabulous Civil War captain, and later, as the general and Indian fighter, is massacred by Indians on America's western plains.

Verdict: This is strong he-man stuff, especially tailored to fit the Errol Flynn fan market and the boys and girls who like plenty of gunpowder and heroics. For the family, we guess. —E. P.

BRIEF PICTURE GUIDE

Outstanding Pictures

CHOCOLATE SOLDIER: Nelson Eddy and Rise Stevens team up. (Family.)

HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY: Best-selling novel of Welsh miners masterfully presented with Walter Pidgeon, Maureen O'Hara, newcomer Roddy McDowall. (Family.)

ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN: Inspirational story of a Methodist preacher, the kind of picture you see only once in a decade. Starring Fredric March and Martha Scott. (Family.)

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Brian Aherne and Gene Raymond turn in a grand musicale. (Family.)

SUSPICION: Cary Grant and Joan Fontaine expertly enact a romantic murder mystery. (Adults.)

THE MALTESE FALCON: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor and Peter Lorre provide one of the best crime thrillers since the "Thin Man." (Adults.)

TWO FACED WOMAN: Greta Garbo comes back as twins, does everything, including irking some state censors. (Adults.)

Other Offerings

BIRTH OF THE BLUES: Bing Crosby at his best, with Mary Martin, Carolyn Lee. (Family.)

DUMBO: One of Disney's best. (Family.)
HOT SPOT: A mystery thriller packed with suspense and dramatic intensity that make it a must. Victor Mature, Betty Grable and Carole Landis perform brilliantly. (Adults.)

INTERNATIONAL LADY: George Brent, Basil Rathbone convert Ilona Massey from espionage. (Adults.)

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN: Powell and Loy again, and as good as ever. (Family.)

TARGET FOR TONIGHT: Remarkable R. A. F. film actually made under fire. Most realistic picture to come out of the current European war. (Adults.)

Comedy

DESIGN FOR SCANDAL: Sophisticated comedy, starring Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon, with Edward Arnold. Very clever. (Family.)

KEEP 'EM FLYING: Abbott and Costello as mechanics to stunt-flyer Dick Foran, with Martha Raye and Carol Bruce. Funny, of course. (Family.)

PLAYMATES: Kay Kyser, John Barrymore, Lupe Velez and Ginny Simms in a screwy slapstick comedy with plenty of good music. (Family.)

SKYLARK: Claudette Colbert, Ray Milland, Brian Aherne satirize high-pressure married life in the upper crust. (Family.)

YOU BELONG TO ME: A zany married-life farce with Stanwyck, Fonda and newcomer Roger Clark. (Adults.)

Western

GO WEST, YOUNG LADY: Penny Singleton does, meets up with Ann Miller and trouble. (Family.)

SCREEN STARS no longer scorn radio. Most of them welcome chances to appear before the mike for the sake of added prestige and pay and the excitement of working in a different medium. They have some fun on the side, too. For instance, Betty Grable at a rehearsal for CBS "Screen Guild Theater" awoke Melvyn Douglas with a sly hotfoot (above). Dead serious, however, was Myrna Loy (right) when she gave vent to this dramatic snarl on "Silver Theater" much work and nerves for Ida. She'll take a long rest on the desert . . . Ann Sheridan and George Brent DID quarrel, but now she's wearing his "non-engagement" ring again on her third finger, left hand . . . Charlie Chaplin explains those Hedy Lamarr datings as business; he wants her for his next picture; Hedy and John Howard got together again for lunch at the Brown Derby . . . Olivia de Havilland is seeing wealthy Jim Laramore and producer John Huston while pining for Jimmy Stewart and Gene Markey . . . Bob Stack and Gail Amber at the Hollywood Tropics; Lana Turner and Tommy Dorsey doing the town, and Lana's ex, Artie Shaw, getting the rush from Jerome Kern's daughter Betty. Edmund O'Brien and his Mrs., Nancy Kelly, cooing again at the Scheherazade . . . Pat Morison and Lieut. John Hicks, of March Field, at Trouville . . . Glenn Ford making a double play for Evelyn Ankers and Michele Morgan.

CASTING

Assignments

Richard Haydn, English comedy star, who scored as the fuddy-duddy professor in "Ball of Fire," has been signed by Paramount for the screen version of "Mr. and Mrs. Cugat." He will appear as Chuck, the dilettante poet-artist . . . For his new RKO picture, "My Favorite Spy," Harold Lloyd has borrowed actress Ellen Drew from Paramount. Miss Drew will play opposite Kay Kyser, who portrays an officer in the U. S. Army Reserve, called into active service on the day of his wedding . . . Patric Knowles has been signed to a seven-year contract by Universal.

THEATRE of the AIR

Presents

1. FURTIVELY Joe Marlin returns to his old office—now maintained by David Post—and refers to his notes on Grace Thompson murder case of about six years ago. Joe is trying to help young Denny MacKenzie, who is accused of murdering his aunt

2. ON THEIR WAY to the jail where Denny is awaiting trial, Mary Marlin and David Post discuss case which David will defend. Anonymous letter (from Joe) gives David Grace Thompson case as a clew

3. YOUNG MacKENZIE'S TRIAL will take place in January and in the meantime his loyal and influential friends try to brighten the grim days of waiting. Above: Mary Marlin, who knew Denny MacKenzie long before David Post took the case, is one of his frequent visitors

4. JOB OF DECORATING the Christmas tree in Mary's home this year is shared by David Post, to whom she is secretly engaged. This joyful occasion is one that Joe had been looking forward to, but now his former law partner is taking his place

"THE STORY OF MARY MARLIN"

PART II

JOE MARLIN hasn't yet found a way out of his predicament. His wife Mary still does not know that he's back in Cedar Springs. He is still hiding at the home of his friend, Jonathan Edwards.

Joe, who was the Senator from Iowa until he got lost in Russia several years ago, doesn't want to mar the apparent happiness of Mary, who has been appointed Senator in his stead and whom he believes is now in love with David Post, his former law partner. So Joe's son Davey continues to be the only person in Cedar Springs besides Jonathan who knows Joe is back.

Meanwhile, Marlin has become interested in the case of Denny MacKenzie, a youth about to be tried for the murder of his aunt, Effie Scott. When Denny's plight comes to Joe's attention, he draws up a plan of defense that he would follow if he were defending the lad. But his desire to help Denny is tempered by his determination to keep his presence in Cedar Springs unknown to Mary.

Being so close to his wife and yet so far away is more difficult than ever as Christmas approaches. Everywhere about town, families are preparing for the holidays, yet Joe can only look on, stoically keep his secret in the hope that it will be for Mary's happiness.

So Christmas Day passes with the family in the same town—but not together.

"The Story of Mary Marlin" has had its moments of tense melodrama, but current episodes apparently are leading to an all-important climax. Tune in Monday through Friday (NBC, CBS) with your MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE opened to this page.—A. M.

RADIO AND THE WAR

Broadcasting breaks the news of Jap attack, goes on 24-hour war schedule

AS WAR CAME to the U. S., radio newsrooms throughout the nation worked day and night to feed speedy, accurate news to America

For the record, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE presents herewith a resume of the first hectic twenty-four hours of war in the U. S. Surprising, yes. But MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE can point to numerous instances where readers have been offered accurate predictions. To wit: Edwin Hartrich's recent map-story, "Where Japan Will Attack Next." Now that our country actually is at war, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE proposes to intensify and enlarge its service, dedicate itself to cooperate in every way with radio in doing broadcasting's huge war-time job.—The Editors.

IT WAS 2:25 p.m., December 7, in New York and broadcasters were settling down to a normal Sunday afternoon.

Then eight fateful words flashed over the United Press news wire:

"White House announces Japanese have attacked Pearl Harbor."

Suddenly, newsrooms of all networks were in an uproar. Skilled experts went into action with lightning swiftness. Five minutes later Americans had the news—the U. S. was at war. And U. S. radio was at war, too.

From that moment radio was on a new footing. Comedy shows and dance bands went by the boards. News of the fast-breaking developments in the Pacific took over for the duration, interrupting any program at any time. Radio became a bulletin board for orders of the U. S. Army and Navy. Radio hams were ordered off the air. Radio studios were guarded against sabotage. Radio was indeed at war.

As could be expected, U. S. radio lived up to its reputation as the world's finest. Columbia Broadcasting System, about to go on the air with its "World Today" news round-up when the United Press bulletin came in, canceled broadcasts from Cairo and Geneva, in a matter of seconds set up calls to reporters in Manila, London and Washington. It was a war edition prepared with such speed as no newspaper could have touched. After reading of the bulletin by John Charles Daly came interpretations from London, Washington and New York. Then, suddenly, barely fifteen minutes after the first White House flash, Columbia's Ford Wilkins came in from Manila. But his voice—coming from nine thousand miles across the Pacific—was abruptly cut off. The censors were at work.

THIS RADIO ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT BROUGHT A DECLARATION OF WAR!

YESTERDAY, December 7, 1941—a date which will live in infamy—the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval and air forces of the empire of Japan.

The United States was at peace with that nation and, at the solicitation of Japan, was still in conversation with its government and its Emperor looking toward the maintenance of peace in the Pacific.

Indeed, one hour after Japanese air squadrons had commenced bombing in the American island Oahu, the Japanese ambassador to the United States and his colleague delivered to our Secretary of State a formal reply to a recent American message. While this reply stated that it seemed useless to continue the existing diplomatic negotiations, it contained no threat or hint of war or armed attack.

It will be recorded that the distance of Hawaii from Japan makes it obvious that the attack was deliberately planned many days or even weeks ago. During the intervening time, the Japanese government has deliberately sought to deceive the United States by false statements and expressions of hope for continued peace.

The attack yesterday on the Hawaiian Islands has caused severe damage to American naval and military forces. I regret to tell you that very many American lives have been lost. In addition, American ships have been reported torpedoed on the high seas between San Francisco and Honolulu.

Yesterday the Japanese government also launched an attack against Malaya.

Last night Japanese forces attacked Hongkong.

Last night Japanese forces attacked Guam.

Last night Japanese forces attacked the Philippine Islands.

Last night the Japanese attacked Wake Island.

And this morning the Japanese attacked Midway Island.

Japan has, therefore, undertaken a surprise offensive extending throughout the Pacific area. The facts of yesterday speak for themselves. The people of the United States have already formed their opinions and well understand the implications to the very life and safety of our nation.

As Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy I have directed that all measures be taken for our defense.

Always will we remember the character of the onslaught against us.

No matter how long it may take us to overcome this premeditated invasion, the American people in their righteous might will win through to absolute victory.

I believe I interpret the will of the Congress and of the people when I assert that we will not only defend ourselves to the uttermost but will make very certain that this form of treachery shall never endanger us again.

Hostilities exist. There is no blinking at the fact that our people, our territory and our interests are in grave danger.

With confidence in our armed forces—with the unbounding determination of our people—we will gain the inevitable triumph—so help us God.

I ask that the Congress declare that since the unprovoked and dastardly attack by Japan on Sunday, December 7, a state of war has existed between the United States and the Japanese empire.

With like speed, NBC burst into the august "University of Chicago Round Table," broke the news at approximately the same time, broadcasting simultaneously over Red and Blue networks and international short-wave stations. Mutual's key stations in New York and Chicago made separate announcements. Within minutes Americans had learned the shocking news. Within minutes they heard from experts what portentful significance lay behind the terse bulletin.

But radio's real job merely started at this point. Broadcasting networks and many local stations throughout the country immediately went on a twenty-four-hour basis.

NBC's Loren Thurston in Honolulu brought the first details of the attack, scooping news services and newspaper correspondents. Other radio correspondents brought the first news from other vital Pacific islands.

At home analysts and commentators stepped forward to help listeners realize the implications of war.

Almost immediately, too, David Sarnoff led a procession of prominent radio moguls in offering complete facilities of the chains to President Roosevelt for whatever use he saw fit. Quickly there came orders and announcements of many kinds from the Government. There were orders revoking leaves, ordering men to report for duty. There were warnings to industry to protect defense plants against attack. There were instructions from civilian defense officials for mobilization of air-raid wardens, police and fire departments. Ham short-wave operators were summarily ordered off the air by the FCC, an obvious precaution since many U. S. amateur signals are heard clearly in Japan.

In those first hours under attack America gathered its mighty sinews for the gigantic task ahead. As recruiting offices were stampeded, as politicians forgot their petty peevishness, so radio upset its elaborate entertainment schedules. Now that the first shock has passed, it is natural that radio should return to a more normal schedule. But radio will remain the watchdog of our safety, ready to throw schedules to the winds fulfilling its war-time mission. Radio will remain a great rallying force for the national effort. And in this work MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE intends to offer every cooperation, to use every opportunity to aid listeners and broadcasters alike, until the happy day of our "inevitable triumph" when America can return to "broadcasting as usual!" —J. C.

Because war news this week eclipses all other broadcasts, the regular feature "This Week in Radio" is omitted. See program pages for highlights of war news broadcasts.

CHRISTMAS DAY for "One Man's Family"—and Father Barbour (J. Anthony Smythe) tells the story of Walt Disney's Dumbo, the little flying elephant, to Joan Lacey (Mary Lou Harrington), the daughter of Claudia Lacey (Kathleen Wilson), who listens, too

EDWARD R. MURROW, after three years of broadcasting news from London for CBS, arrived in New York Nov. 24 for a vacation and a lecture tour. Over one thousand attended CBS' welcome-back banquet for him

YOUNGEST "Quiz Kid"—and one of the most sensational—is Ruth Duskin, seven-year-old student of Chicago's Pope School. Ruth whisked through two and a half grades her first year in school, and she has been a hit on "Quiz Kids" for several weeks

GENERAL

NBC Plans Separation

NEW YORK.—The Radio Corporation of America, parent company of the two NBC networks, has filed a certificate of reservation with the Secretary of State's office asking the right to the name United Broadcasting System. This presumably is a step toward the separation of the Red and Blue networks of NBC, though both may remain under the control of RCA. Last spring the FCC ruled that NBC would have to dispense with one of the networks, but the ruling was suspended in October.

Abbott and Costello Quit

HOLLYWOOD.—Abbott and Costello will leave the "Chase and Sanborn Program," effective January 4. It is rumored that friction between the pair and Edgar Bergen—the natural outcome of billing two top-flight comedy acts on the same show—is responsible for the action of Abbott and Costello, who leave the program cast voluntarily.

Comedy Causes Trouble

NEW YORK.—NBC, an advertising agency and the sponsor of the "Chase and Sanborn Program" show have been named as defendants in a plagiarism suit brought by Barney Gerard, script-writer. Gerard charges that the defendants broadcast two of his dramatic scripts, titled "Follies of the Day," which he wrote and had copyrighted in 1918 and 1920. Skits put on by Abbott and Costello on June 1 and June 15, 1941, were alleged to have been based on Gerard's scripts.

WAR

Uncle Sam Wants Sponsor

NEW YORK.—The U. S. Treasury Department has announced that after December 23 the Bendix Corporation will not continue its sponsorship of the Government's "Treasury Hour" program, heard Tuesday nights. The reason given is that the Government does not wish to permit a private business concern to sponsor the revenue-for-defense program more than thirteen weeks. The Bendix Corporation is the second advertiser to sponsor the program. Last summer the Texas Oil Company inaugurated the "Treasury Hour" by presenting the Government an hour's time on CBS, thored a book, "Notes on World Unity," based on League of Nations reports. In the last World War he served as a captain in the U. S. Army.

PROGRAMS

"Ellery Queen" Returning

NEW YORK.—"Ellery Queen," the mystery-drama program which was last heard in the summer of 1940, will return to the air January 10. The program will be heard Saturday evening on NBC. This program is the outgrowth of wide popular interest in the "Ellery Queen" novels, written under the pseudonym of Ellery Queen by Frederic Dannay and Manfred B. Lee.

Maxwell (Not Benny's) on Air

NEW YORK.—Elsa Maxwell, far-famed as a planner of society parties, will become a radio commentator January 2. She is expected to make her program one of gossip about Hollywood, Broadway and cafe society. Graham McNamee will announce.

SIDELIGHTS

Man of Parts

HOLLYWOOD.—Jack Benny could build an automobile—a sort of Maxwellian monster—out of parts that have been sent to him (mostly collect) by "sympathetic" listeners in behalf of his famous Maxwell. So far this season Jack has received two radiators, six wheels, two fenders, an assortment of spark-plugs, a fan belt, a gasoline tank and the handle of an emergency brake—all taken from Maxwells en route to junk yards in all parts of the country. One of the fenders came all the way from Juneau, Alaska.

Cherchez le Welles

HOLLYWOOD.—Joe Cotten, one of Orson Welles' Mercury Theater players, had parked his automobile right in front of his home in Pacific Palisades—whence it vanished, leaving no clues. The police were called into the case, and the police were baffled. It was the Cotten maid who found the car after forty-eight hours of fruitless search by the law. She was chasing an escaping pup by the Cotten swimming-pool, and there it was in the swimming-pool—not the pup, but when its own commercial show starring Fred Allen went off the air for the summer.

TODAY IN RADIO

"Ellery Queen" will return; Abbott and Costello to part with McCarthy

New Vichy Reporter

NEW YORK.—Clinton Winant, brother of John G. Winant, ambassador to the Court of St. James in London, has been named CBS correspondent in Vichy, France, it was announced. Correspondent Winant is a graduate of both Princeton and Columbia universities, and for years has been a traveling investigator in Europe for American firms seeking information on foreign patents. He recently au-

CBC Admits Swing

NEW YORK.—Because their decision was deemed "important and desirable," the Board of Governors of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. have waived the ban against American news analysts being heard over Canadian stations, to permit Raymond Gram Swing to be heard over a To-

BOB CROSBY (right) congratulates Milton Berle on getting such a lovely bride as Joyce Mathews, New York show girl. Berle and Miss Mathews were recently married in Hollywood, Calif. Berle is comedy star and Crosby is orchestra-leader on the "Three Ring Time" program, which also features Charles Laughton and Shirley Ross (formerly on MBS, now on NBC Friday)

WHERE THERE'S a "service special" there's Hope. Paulette Goddard, who knows how to make friends and influence men, smiles her approval as comedian Bob Hope, well known for benefit shows, does his bit for the service by making a contribution to the Hollywood "Shaves for the Boys" committee, which is providing free shaving necessities to men in the armed forces the automobile. It was setting right side up at the deep end of the pool. Neither the maid nor the law found out how it got there.

The Cat That Barked

CHICAGO.—Don Gordon, announcer of the "Tom Mix" sketch, has been doing the mewing for the "black cat" that figures in the mystery part of the broadcast recently. But Don, who is a dog fancier, has had his mind pretty much on the Western Specialty Dog Show in which he entered his prize dachshunds. In fact, he had his mind on dogs when it should have been on cats once recently—and he barked instead of mewed when the time came for his stunt on the air. He changed his nature quickly back to the feline family, but he drew plenty of catty remarks from the kidding cast after the show.

ACTIVITIES

Andy Gets Real Office

HOLLYWOOD.—Radio's first permanent combination office and studio, especially designed for the purpose of preparing and broadcasting, was opened recently by the veteran team of Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll (who, you must know by now, are "Amos 'n' Andy"). Thus practically the whole world of the black-face characters is enclosed now in a twelve-by-twelve studio, a large office, a smaller office and two waiting-rooms. Incidentally, "Amos 'n' Andy" will return to the screen after an absence of several years in a Paramount short titled "Unusual Occupations." The CBS comics made their first and only previous film, "Check and Double Check," for RKO ten years ago.

Poetry on Platters

CHICAGO.—Tony Wons has been featuring a familiar favorite poem on each of his Sunday broadcasts. So enthusiastic has been the response of listeners that a recording company is interested in making records of Tony's readings of such poems.

Radio Literati

NEW YORK.—Publishers are preparing two new books written by radio personalities. One is "The American Sporting Scene," by John Kieran of "Information, Please," in collaboration with Joseph W. Golinkin. The other is "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," an autobiography by Joe Howard, veteran singing emcee of "Gay Nineties Revue."

HONORS

Stars Court Dean of Jazz

HOLLYWOOD.—George Burns and Gracie Allen honored their music-maker, Paul Whiteman, with a special party at Hollywood's Florentine Gardens when the hefty maestro opened an engagement there December 4. George and Gracie's guests were movie director Al Hall and wife, Pat and Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Joe Brown (she's former Sally Eilers) and the Evans Plummers. Whiteman drew hundreds of celebrities—including Rudy Vallee, Kay Kyser, the Robert Taylors, Dave Rose and wife Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Milton Berle and his new bride (former actress Joyce Mathews) and even the Gary Coopers.

Grand Marshal Kyser

HOLLYWOOD.—The unusual honor of being grand marshal of Pasadena's New Year's Day Tournament of Roses procession goes to Kay Kyser, who will lead many dignitaries and celebrities in the parade.

Cigar and All?

HOLLYWOOD.—Edward G. Robinson, big little man of "Big Town" broadcasts and movie masterpieces, has a new honor—one which probably makes a boyish blush intrude on his tough-guy visage. He has been selected by the Mannequins and Models

Association as an outstanding example of the man they would like to marry. This selection was based upon the principles of security, friendly marital relations and permanence.

Hersholt Inherits Curio

HOLLYWOOD.—Jean "Dr. Christian" Hersholt has just been notified by Dr. Daothea Walpole, sister of the late author, Sir Hugh Walpole, that he has been bequeathed a huge carved paper-weight in Sir Hugh's will. Several years ago Walpole sent his friend Hersholt another prized gift, the original manuscript of "The Duchess of Wrexhe" and the manuscript of the preface to "The Rogue Harries."

CONTESTS

Essay Contest

NEW YORK.—An essay contest on the subject, "What Must We Do to Promote the Health and Well-Being of the American People?" is being held by Town Hall, Inc., which conducts the radio forum "Town Meeting of the Air." The contest, which closes February 1, offers sixteen cash prizes totaling one thousand dollars for the best five-hundred-word essays.

Georgia Woman Wins

NEW YORK.—"The Nichols—Family of Five" is the winning title for the Sunday NBC program which ran a five-thousand-dollar contest to establish its permanent name. The show had been temporarily called "Living Diary." The winning title was submitted by Mrs. Sarah S. Farmer of Marietta, Ga.

TEARS showed plainly in the audience when Mrs. John Herman and her son, Oliver Raymond Hall (right), were brought together on the "We, the People" program. The show's host, Eddie Dowling, is obviously affected by the first meeting in twenty-eight years of this mother and her son

WAR NEWS!

The program schedules of radio stations listed in these pages are frequently being disrupted in the present war emergency. However, for the most part, broadcasts will go on as scheduled except in cases where time is taken over for special news bulletins, around-the-world news pick-ups and announcements.

Time shown is EST; for EDT add one hour.

Next Week's Cover

Apple-cheeked Baby Sandy Henville will be MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's little "Miss 1942" on next week's New Year cover. One of Hollywood's brightest child stars, Miss Henville comes under MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's scrutiny next week, too, along with other child movie stars, in a revealing picture-story, "How Hollywood Safeguards Its Children." Also in next week's issue, look for a story packed with valuable information about how to get the most out of your new Christmas radio set. And for a complete, accurate guide to war news, see next week's program pages!

NEW WAR-TIME SCHEDULE FOR PACIFIC SHORT WAVE!

Brazilian Net Debuts

NBC Starts New Foreign Schedule

Edward R. Murrow on Vacation

Edited by Charles A. Morrison

President, International DX'ers Alliance

WITH the war in the Pacific going full blast, dozens of short-wave stations from Tokyo in the north to Java in the south have been put on a full twenty-four-hour emergency basis and thousands of words of propaganda, press news, flash bulletins, defense instructions, air-raid warnings are flashing from smoking microphones in languages that range from English to native Malayan. The Pacific war of words is on. Lukewarm interest in international affairs has changed to red-hot interest. Listeners are twirling the short-wave dials feverishly trying to tune in Japan, Manila or Singapore. With this situation in effect we feel it timely to give you a list of what you can hear, when and where may be actually on the air almost any time during this emergency. This department in MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE will bring you from week to week latest information concerning these Pacific war broadcasters.

NBC Inaugurates New Foreign-Language Schedule

Upon the shoulders of United States international broadcasters largely falls the burden of keeping people throughout the world informed as to the true policies and activities of our country in this time of great emergency. As a whole they are meeting the challenge nobly. By using greater power, more efficient beam antennae, a greater number of frequencies and more and more programs in foreign languages, they are finally giving the voice of the United States tremendous authority wherever listeners gather to listen, be it in the garrets of occupied countries, desert outposts of free territories or the cozy living-rooms of the democracies.

Last week I told you about the extensive schedule of foreign-language broadcasts that have just been initiated by the General Electric stations at Schenectady, N. Y. This week I have news concerning the latest and most ambitious foreign-language program undertaking of the National Broadcasting Company assisted by Westinghouse.

WBOS, Boston, owned by Westinghouse, is now carrying NBC's international programs daily from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m. EST with the exception of the hours from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. From 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. WBOS originates its own programs in English and from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. EST programs in Portuguese.

The complete foreign-language pattern of the NBC International Division which became effective on December 8 follows:

TO EUROPE:

- 8:00 a.m.—English: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (15.21)
9:30 a.m.—Swedish: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (15.21)
10:00 a.m.—English: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (15.21)
11:00 a.m.—French: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (15.21)
12:00 noon—English: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (15.21)
12:45 p.m.—English: WNBI (11.89), WRCA (15.15)
1:00 p.m.—Italian: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (11.89), WBOS (11.87)
1:30 p.m.—Italian: WRCA (15.15)
1:30 p.m.—Spanish: WNBI (11.89), WBOS (11.87)
2:00 p.m.—German: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (11.89), WBOS (11.87)
2:30 p.m.—Swedish: WRCA (9.67)
2:30 p.m.—Portuguese: WNBI (11.89), WBOS (11.87)
3:00 p.m.—French: WRCA (9.67), WNBI (11.89), WBOS (11.87)

TO LATIN AMERICA:

- 3:55 p.m.—Spanish: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (11.87)
4:30 p.m.—Portuguese: WRCA (15.15), WNBI (17.78), WBOS (11.87)
7:00 p.m.—Spanish: WRCA (9.67)
8:00 p.m.—Spanish: WBOS (11.87)
10:00 p.m.—English: WRCA (9.67), WBOS (11.87)
11:00 p.m.—Spanish: WRCA (9.67), WBOS (11.87)

New operating schedules for WRCA, WNBI and WBOS are as follows (EST):

For WRCA—8:00 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. on 15.15 and 2:30 to 3:40 p.m. on 9.67 to Europe; 3:55 to 6:45 p.m. on 15.15 and 7:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. on 9.67 megs to Latin America.

For WNBI—8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on

EDWARD R. MURROW: London CBS war correspondent home for five months to lecture, vacation

17.78 and 12:45 to 3:40 p.m. on 11.89 to Europe; 3:55 to 6:45 p.m. on 17.78 megs to Latin America.

For WBOS—8:00 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. on 15.21 and 1:00 to 3:40 p.m. on 11.87 to Europe; 3:55 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. on 11.87 megs to Latin America.

New Brazilian Network Makes Debut

Listeners who would like to hear the very best in Brazilian musical talent should not miss "Horo do Brasil" (Brazilian Hour), which is now broadcast daily from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. EST over the brand-new Brazilian network consisting of the following stations: PSH (10.22), Rio de Janeiro; PRF3 (11.765 and 6.095), Sao Paulo; PRE9 (6.105), Fortaleza, Ceara; PRA8 (6.01), Recife, Pernambuco, and PRC5 (4.865), Belem, Para.

PRF3 (11.765 and 6.095), Radiodifusora de Sao Paulo, P. O. Box 252, Sao Paulo, has only been on the air for about a month. One of the most powerful short-wave stations in South America—transmitter output rated at 25,000 watts—PRF3 may be heard with excellent signals on its frequency of 11.765 megs daily from 4:30 to 9:45 p.m. EST. Although most of the program material and the majority of the announcements are in Portuguese, occasionally station identifications or requests for reception reports are made in English or Spanish.

ONE BIG, HAPPY FAMILY

"Musical Steelmakers" stages annual Christmas party

EMCEE for "Musical Steelmakers'" annual Christmas party was J. L. Grimes (left), general advertising manager of Wheeling Steel Corporation. Gift from the cast were the ear-muffs Grimes sports here

WITH Christmastide approaching, members of the Wheeling Steel Corporation's "Musical Steelmakers" (Sun., NBC) gathered on a recent Saturday night at Wheeling, W. Va., Country Club to celebrate. And celebrate they did as one big, happy family, exchanging gifts, singing, dancing, entertaining one another and two score guests, enjoying themselves at an old-fashioned Christmas party.

Eager as a bunch of kids on Christmas morn, the crowd awaited the appearance of "Old Timer" John Winchcoll, not too well disguised as Santa Claus. Santa's pack was richly laden with twenty-five-cent gifts, all funny enough to stir up plenty of laughs.

It was midnight when guests departed in high spirits to get some rest before dress rehearsal in the morning.

Photographs by NBC

"THE SINGING MILLMEN" brought along their own lamp-post for a male-quartet rendition of "Sweet Adeline," without which, they considered, no party would be complete. Left to right above are: William Griffiths, Will Stevenson, Walter Schane and Frank Nalepa

SANTA CLAUS (above, center) gets a break when the pretty Evans sisters, members of the Steelmakers' Steele Sisters ensemble, express their appreciation for gifts he brought. Santa was played by John Winchcoll, who does narrations on the broadcast as "Old Timer"

THE ARDENNE WHITES (above), who used to sing love-songs together on the Wheeling Steel show when Mrs. White was Dorothy Anne Crowe—and still do—entertain party guests with more mike romancing. It was part of an impromptu show staged by the guests

LEFT: Singing stenographer Regina Colbert turns from Christmas carols to entertain fellow employes with some modern numbers. Here she's doing "My Bill" in the Helen Morgan manner to piano accompaniment of Wayne Sanders, announcer for Steelmakers

LEFT: The singing Steele Sisters couldn't have been happier if their gifts had borne Rue de la Paix labels. Actually, as custom decrees at Steelmaker Christmas parties, all gifts were inexpensive—and funny. They were largely responsible for much of the evening's merriment

RIGHT: As the clock is about to strike midnight, the whole company join hands and voices around the tables for the sentimental moment which highlights all of their Christmas parties. They sing a favorite song—and on this happy note ends their 1941 Yuletide celebration

"VOX POP" CALLING RUDY VALLEE

MRS. CHARLES McLAUGHLIN starts her call to Rudy Vallee as Parks Johnson (left) and producer Nate Tufts stand by

HOW would you like to have a long-distance-telephone tete-a-tete with Rudy Vallee? That was the rare prize awarded Mrs. Charles McLaughlin on the "Vox Pop" show (Monday, CBS), when Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth staged their broadcast in Winner, S. Dak. And this is the photographic record of Mrs. McLaughlin's prize call.

In case you haven't caught the "Vox Pop" frolics recently it should be explained that Parks and Wally—who for some time have been trotting about the country broadcasting their show from conventions, college campuses, spots in the news—have a new wrinkle in question-answer programs. Each week the big prize, awarded to the most interesting and best-informed contestant, is a long-distance-telephone call to some famous star. The call to Rudy Vallee was especially coveted—by the ladies.

In Winner, S. Dak., the pheasant season was on and an improvised studio had been arranged in the local American Legion hall. With pheasant-hunting as the general theme and with many pheasant-hunters present, Parks and Wally set out to interview a typical cross-section of the crowd. No pheasant-hunter, Mrs. Charles (Agnes) McLaughlin, housewife, turned out to be the most interesting quizzee, and to her went the prize call to Rudy Vallee, who answered at his home in Hollywood.

Interviewing Mrs. McLaughlin prior to the Vallee call, Parks Johnson laughingly touched on the romance angle, asked her about her marriage a year ago. "Were you engaged long?" Parks asked. Mrs. McLaughlin, who is known to her townfolk as "Big Sis," rose to the occasion, countered with another question, "Would you consider twenty-six years long?" When asked why the engagement had been of such record length, she answered, "Well, I wanted to pick my man!"

Only Mrs. McLaughlin's end of the long-distance-telephone call to Vallee went on the air. Here, for the first time, is Rudy's side—with photos made as he talked from Hollywood.

RUDY: "Hello, this is Rudy Vallee speaking."
MRS. McLAUGHLIN: "Hello, Rudy, this is Agnes McLaughlin speaking from Winner, S. Dak., where the pheasant season is on."

RUDY (who had just returned home from a tennis match): "Are you a real huntress?"
MRS. McLAUGHLIN: "Oh, no, I'm just a housewife. How are your adenoids, Rudy?"

RUDY: "Hah, hah! How are YOUR tonsils?"
MRS. McLAUGHLIN: "They're getting along as well as may be expected . . . Why don't you sing me a song?"

RUDY (singing): "My time is your time (ends singing) . . . Hear it all over our Sealtest program any Thursday night."
MRS. McL.: "I'd rather hear it in person"

RUDY: "Come on out. I'll take you to lunch at the Brown Derby. When are you coming?"
MRS. McLAUGHLIN: "Well, maybe after the pheasant season is over"

RUDY: "I'd love to entertain you at lunch. I shall take very good care of you and keep you away from the 'wolves' out here . . . and don't forget, listen to John and me Thursday"

KENNY BAKER got his broadcasting start with Jack Benny only to move last year to Jack's friendly enemy. He's still the timid—but good—tenor

PORTLAND'S first job is to be Mrs. Fred Allen, but her "Mis—ter—Al—len" is a byword after nine years of broadcasting as Fred's spouse-stooge

AL GOODMAN has come a long way since he made his exit from Russia disguised as a load of vegetables. Besides the Allen show, he is currently batoning star-studded "Treasury Hour"

Movie-Radio Guide Visits:

FRED ALLEN & CO.

Follow Fred Allen on and off the air to see how his sixty minutes of laughter and levity are strung together

IT'S the irony of show business that Fred Allen should slave day and night for a week to build his Wednesday night (CBS) show and then see the audience go wild over the spontaneous quips he tosses in ad-lib.

The man who is regarded as radio's brightest natural wit goes at his job in dead seriousness. Using a writing-staff only to build rough plot ideas, he budgets his week, laboriously pecks out scripts, allotting one day to the "guest spot," another to the "college student feature," still another to the "newsreel," until almost every hour is accounted for. At eleven o'clock in the evenings he quits typing so as not to disturb other tenants of his midtown apartment, continues writing with a pencil. For between-times relaxation there are gymnasium boxing-sessions, dinner out with wife Portland, church on Sunday, and a movie or show the night before the broadcast.

After an all-day fury of rehearsal and rewriting on Wednesday, Fred appears on the stage of CBS Playhouse 3 shortly before broadcast time, armed with pencil-sharpener, several pencils and his script. He presents the cast. Jimmy Wallington is "an announcer formerly in great demand." Larry Elliott (who wears a mustache) is the announcer whose "upper lip is brought to you through the courtesy of I. J. Fox, the furrier." Just before airtime Fred tells the joke he's been using on studio audiences for a long time. Typical Allen humor, it's "What Happens to a Laugh When You Stifle It." Another joke rounds out the guests' evening after the broadcast closes.

After the first show Fred goes backstage, shoves some coins into the hands of men waiting for hand-outs, and joins Portland and the others at the near-by Bryant Hotel Restaurant. This is his first good meal of the day. He and Portland don't leave their table until fifteen minutes before the second show.

Portland is a good deal like Fred. Quiet, pleasant, witty, she probably inherits her humor from her father, Dr. Frederick Hoffa, who named his children for the cities where they were born—Lebanon for Lebanon, Pa.; Portland for Portland, Ore.; Harlem for New York's Harlem. The fourth, Lastone, should have been the last one, but there was a fifth and Dr. Hoffa wanted the name to be Period. But Mrs. Hoffa rebelled at that point, so she's Fredricka!

Many nice things could be said about other Allen headliners—Kenny Baker, Al Goodman, Jimmy Wallington and the Mighty Allen Art Players—but you'll meet them all in MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's camera-conducted visit.—J. C.

"CLUB MATINEE"

NEW TO THE ALLEN SHOW this season is Vick Knight, astute producer-director who formerly produced shows of Eddie Cantor, Rudy Vallee, others. Knight, a specialist in variety programs, has special problem working with Fred Allen. As punctual as Allen is away from the mike, on his broadcasts he doesn't give any thought at all to timing. Hence Vick's headache

THE MIGHTY ALLEN ART PLAYERS are Fred Allen's own stock company, with enough versatility between them to handle almost any role he might hand out. Veteran actors all four, two of them—Charley Cantor and Minerva Pious—were recently starred in a series on Kate Smith's broadcast, too. Left to right: Alan Reed, Minerva Pious, John Brown and Charley Cantor

IT'S AFTER 11 P.M., so Fred pushes a pencil in his New York apartment, discarding typewriter to keep fellow tenants happy. Working every day of the week on the show, the Wednesday night wit works up to a climax on Wednesdays, grabs quick noon lunch in the studio (right)

HERE HE IS, ladies and gentlemen, at show-time! Portfolio in hand, the Allen grin spreading over his face, Fred looks more like the insurance salesman he sometimes wishes he could be than like the top-flight comic he is!

Father Wants Some Cheer

FEMININE FORUM — By ALBERTA NORTH

SEAFOORTH'S Grandstander Set — lotion, talc, cologne. $3.00

ALTHOUGH Father carries the bundles, foots most of the Christmas bills and ends up by playing Santa Claus, in the past he's usually gotten the short end of the sock as far as gifts are concerned. Neckties which don't match anything in his wardrobe, socks which he has plenty of anyway, or handkerchiefs that are pretty but not practical have been his usual lot. The old cry that it's "hard to find something for a man" is out. Run your eye over the handsome suggestions pictured below.

↑ PARKER Life Guarantee set, jet or pearl tone, 14k gold nib. $12.75

RONSON pipe-lighter with three holders, brass or bronze. $10

SAMSONITE overnight case, in brown, blue or ivory. $7.50

↑ MENNEN gay gift box with both lather and brushless cream. $2.00

PRO-PHY-LACTIC Jewelite brush-comb set in 3 colors. $3.50

HE'LL appreciate the pure briar, fine craftsmanship of Kaywoodie pipe. $3.50

GOLD-PLATE Injector Razor (Schick), 12 blades, automatic blade change. $1.00

EVER-READY Lucite Shave Brush. Badger rubber-set brush. $2 to $10

HIND'S four-item gift set in maroon box is smart for 50c

↑ D'ARTEGA: His new rumba orchestra has been signed as added feature of "Hit Parade" Saturday on CBS

BILLIE ROGERS: Only girl trumpeter with a male orchestra. She's attraction with Woody Herman's band

BANDSTAND NOTES

By Maurice Granger

WITH around ten thousand songs being written every year, it must be a terrific problem for the song-writers to properly name their brain-children. As a matter of fact, few of the songs which get published manage to retain their original titles, the publishers usually making the changes. The publishers, incidentally, seem to favor titles which are feminine. "Dinah," "Margarie," "Ida" and "Sweet Sue" are examples. Now comes a song written by Phil Spitalny and titled "Madelaine." When you hear it you will admit it is unusual, as does Barry Wood, who has just recorded it. In fact, Barry is curious to know if there are any girls named Madelaine, and, if so, what do they look like. For a snapshot of a girl named Madelaine who seems to best typify the girl in the song, he is willing to give an autographed record and an album of his songs. So if your name happens to be Madelaine and you have a snapshot of yourself, send it to Barry, care of this writer. Barry, of course, is the sole judge as to the girl who, in his opinion, best resembles the Madelaine in the song. We must also remind you that the snapshots are not returnable.

Bandata

Gray Gordon, who disbanded several months ago, has organized a new outfit in Chicago and will travel east soon. The band is still "Tic Tocless." Last spring Gray announced that he was through with his famous "Tic Toc Rhythm" arrangements . . . Joe Venuti's wife is recovering from injuries sustained when the car she was driving crashed into another. Mrs. Venuti was thrown through the car's windshield . . . Reports from Hollywood indicate that the band boom is growing. Glenn Miller, who appeared in Sonja Henie's "Sun Valley Serenade," will return in February for another picture, to be called "Iceland." For this second movie chore, 20th Century-Fox is purportedly paying him $100,000 . . . Now that ASCAP is back on the networks, a song cannot be repeated within three hours. Before the society's return the rule was an hour and a half . . . Boyd Raeburn and his band are the latest victims of a bus accident. The crash occurred while the band was en route to a dance date at Mississippi State College. Several of the bandmen were seriously hurt. . . Freddy Martin's band will appear in RKO's "The Mayor of 44th Street" . . . Harry James is being screen-tested for title role in "Young Man with a Horn."

Songstuff

Meredith Willson found his tune "Two in Love" just a little bit too popular the other day. He had decided to use the song on his own program, but found that Xavier Cugat had already cleared it for his broadcast. As we have said elsewhere in this column, network rules prevent a tune being repeated within three hours. So Meredith was placed in the position of being unable to broadcast his own song! . . . Maestro Teddy Powell, famed for his "Boots and Saddles," has written about fifty other songs for orchestra-leaders. However, in the two years that he has been bandleader, Teddy hasn't written a single song for himself!

RECOMMENDED

VICTOR: Marian Anderson's "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia"; Lanny Ross' "Sleigh-Bell Serenade." BLUE-BIRD: Glenn Miller's "Dreamsville"; Freddy Martin's "Whistling in the Night." DECCA: Jimmy Dorsey's "Any Bonds Today." COLUMBIA: Kay Kyser's "Humpty Dumpty Heart"; Harry James' "My Melancholy Baby"; Claude Thornhill's "Where Has My Little Dog Gone?"

Bulls & Boners

Bulls and boners are a part of broadcasting. No matter how experienced the performer or how famous the star, chances are that he will make an occasional slip or a statement with twisted meaning which is extremely funny. See how good your ears are. Try to catch broadcasters in some error—the funnier the better—and send your entry to MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago. The most humorous entries will be printed in this column. Watch for your contribution!

Bob Hawk on "Take It or Leave It": "We have two sixty-four-dollar winners tonight and they're both ladies so far."—Mrs. Claudia Odom, 113 Nottingham Drive, Macon, Ga. (November 16 over CBS.)

Announcer: "Thelma is going to switch over to the accordion. She has elected to slay Clayton's 'Grand March.'"—R. A. Cowdrey, Laverne, Okla. (November 20 over Station KGNO.)

Bill Wood, announcer: "Don't let this cold weather catch you with your battery down."—Mrs. Earl F. Hudson, Wayside, Kan. (November 19 over NBC.)

Letters FROM THE AUDIENCE

Express your opinions. Address, Letters From the Audience, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill.

"Those We Love"

Dear Sirs:

What is the news, if any, about "Those We Love"? I have listened for about three years to this program with real enjoyment. It is such a wholesome and entertaining story, and the entire cast splendid.

When the serial went off the air for the summer months, I distinctly remember the announcer saying it would return in the fall. I feel sure there are a great number of people who would like to hear about whether "Those We Love" is coming back or not.

Mrs. Chas. Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.

There certainly are a great many people who want to know about "Those We Love." Most of our readers recall how their own letters to our publication were instrumental in bringing that popular serial back to the air once before. Now again the reader-listeners are swamping us with the same message: "Bring back 'Those We Love.'" We regret that we can report no definite news about the return of the sketch. But we believe the listeners will be pleased to know how widespread has been this plea. And perhaps the response of our readers will prove efficacious once again.—The Editors.

For Fantasy Fans

Dear Sirs:

In a recent issue your department carried a letter from a club in Chicago asking for a new series of fantastic thrillers similar to "Lights Out."

I am sure these listeners will be interested to know about the new series of this type now heard over NBC Coast to Coast under the title "Dark Fantasy."

These are stories of the weird and the supernatural, written exclusively for "Dark Fantasy" by Scott Bishop, long a well-known author of this type of radio material and an expert on things mysterious, occult and fantastic. His collection of books on these subjects is the largest in the Southwest.

The program is produced in the studios of station WKY, Oklahoma City, Okla., under the personal direction of John I. Prosser, for many years an associate of NBC.

George M. Hamaker, Continuity Editor of WKY, Oklahoma City, Okla.

"Dark Fantasy" can be heard over NBC stations at 12:30 (after midnight) EST Friday night.—The Editors.

Best Broadcast

Dear Sirs:

Hats off to Orson Welles' "Mercury Theater" series, which has been improving with every broadcast. This series has everything—well-chosen stories, excellent direction and narration, superb acting and expert auxiliary music.

"The Hitch-Hiker," presented by Welles November 17, was the best broadcast I have ever heard. I sat spellbound while listening to it.

Harry McGirt, Wilmington, N. C.

MIDWEST'S NEW METHOD
PLENTY OF ROOM
BETWEEN STATIONS
Easy to Tune

ORDINARY METHOD
STATIONS CROWDED
Very Hard to Tune

THIS NEWEST and most exciting of radio inventions—9 bands in a popular-priced radio—has aroused the interest and enthusiasm of radio fans everywhere. A "headline" development, this new Midwest feature brings a "rich man's radio" within the reach of everyone.

Merchandising experts say they "never saw such a brilliant performer for so little money!" While ordinary prices are going up—Midwest tops its all-time record of giving bigger values with this truly great 9-band feature. Now, Midwest gives you not just 3 bands, not just 4 bands, not just 5 or 6 bands—but, 9 BANDS (on 6 dial scales).

You get the wholesale factory-to-you price when you buy direct from the Midwest factory—you save up to 50%—and you secure so much more in performance and in exclusive features. Midwest offers many sensational new features, this year, besides 9 Bands, such as—BAND SPREAD TUNING which makes Midwest radios 20 times easier to tune—makes them 10 times more sensitive than ordinary radios. And just wait until you hear Midwest's Crystal-Clear High Fidelity Tone! Here is new vivid realism—here is rich new clarity of tone. Midwest offers you an amazingly large trade-in allowance for your old radio—on many of the 1942 models shown in the big, FREE 1942 Midwest catalog. You'll be delighted when you see how much Midwest offers you for your old radio.

AERIAL

WITH ANY
MIDWEST RADIO

(For a Limited Time Only)

This advanced achievement in Aerials will be given you (for a limited time only) absolutely FREE with your order for 1942 Midwest Super Band Spread chassis, consoles or table models. This new Midwest Antenna steps up weak signals and makes for higher efficiency pick-up and finer long distance reception. Of course, all Midwest Super Band Spread Radios are equipped with the latest-type Loop Antenna which gives excellent results. However, in order to obtain the utmost out of these wonderful sets we especially recommend the use of the Midwest "Hi-Efficiency" Aerial, which greatly improves reception by cutting down man-made interference and static. Tests show that it eliminates many forms of static caused by electric refrigerators, telephones, vacuum sweepers, electric signs, electric lights, motors, etc. Write for the big, FREE Midwest 1942 catalog today!

Acousti-Sonic Loaves with Violin-Type "F"-Slot Soundboard . . . just one of 90 features offered in Midwest 16-tube radios. They spread the High Fidelity tone scientifically through the room—prevent "directional effect"—and make for greater radio enjoyment.

I have owned three different makes of radios, but my new Midwest tops them all. Distance does not make any difference with Midwest. I can get Berlin, Rome, London, just as clear as a local station. Its tone is excellent and I assure you that my next radio will be another Midwest.

I believe that you are very conservative in your statements. My Midwest has met all competition even when compared with other makes of radios that cost many times more. Congratulations and more power to you and to your organization for building "Tomorrow's Radio Set Today."
