The Editors' Note:

JERRY COLONNA, the gent whose mug is reproduced on the cover, photographed in natural color by Jack Albin, started his career as a trombone-player. His clowning—plus flourishing mustachio and bushy eyebrows—put him into comedy spots on Fred Allen's, other shows. Currently Mr. Colonna is a big moment of the Bob Hope laughfest.

THE voice that shouted "Hi-yo Silver! Away!" is silenced forever. Tiny ears which have been glued to the loudspeakers in eager anticipation of the galloping horse's hoofs, the breathless command to a faithful horse, may never know the difference. But the Lone Ranger is dead. Ironically, this famous radio horseman met death in an automobile accident near Farmington, Mich. Also, ironically, this man whose voice is better known than the President's received his first widespread newspaper stories on the occasion of his death. Except for his voice, Earle W. Graser was a nonentity. Modest, retiring, he lived a quiet life with his family and not even his next-door neighbors knew that he was the far-famed Lone Ranger. They put a mask on his face, made him a man of mystery, and children of all ages and all countries idolized him for his heroic qualities, his Robin Hood characteristics.

Children may never know that the Lone Ranger met an untimely death. They may not know it because the Lone Ranger will ride on. The show was soon to get a new sponsor on a large network. Before that it had been sponsored locally in some sections.

News of the death of Graser came as a thunderbolt to its producers.

Already a successor has been selected. His name is Brace Beemer. He played the part for a short while after the program's origin some years ago. We express our hope that children, anyway, may never detect the slight differences which may occur. There is no tragedy to equal that of youth upon the death of an idol. In this case, through the magic of radio, youth may be spared that knowledge.

Neither will it be a matter of deceit. For youth, the Lone Ranger still lives. He is alive in the toys and hats and paraphernalia that line toy counters; he is alive in the films which bear his name and thrill Saturday matinee crowds. But mostly he lives on the air—and in the hearts of all children, from six to sixty.

But the Lone Ranger is more than a radio character. He is a symbol of the courage and the hardihood and the justice which is a part of America. And as such a symbol he will never die. He will live through the fine qualities of artistry Earle Graser breathed into him and because of the work of producers who made him a living, idolized piece of Americana.—The Editors.

THE LONE RANGER rides on—another voice cries, "Away!"

Hollywood's NEWS PICTURE of the WEEK

Look who's here! Paulette Goddard and Gene Markey

LAST week, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's news picture featured Charlie Chaplin's date with Carole Landis. This week's news picture supplements that. A few nights after the Chaplin-Landis photo had been taken, Paulette Goddard appeared pretty as you please with producer Gene Markey (above). Since the Chaplins make no announcement about (a) marriage, (b) separation, (c) reconciliation, and since this publication is not yet wired for sound, the picture speaks simply for itself. If you think this situation is confusing, turn to "The Stars' Mixed-Up Loves" on page 8. If you think this is the only noteworthy Goddard appearance of late, turn, again, to the preview of "Pot o' Gold," page 6.

Movie Party on the High Seas

OUT to sea went "The Sea Wolf" for its world premiere. Along went a score of Hollywood celebrities and a hundred pressmen and cameramen to see, celebrate and record. This trip, March 21, aboard the liner S. S. America, with the auxiliary aid of buses and planes, brought the world-premiere custom right up to the minute and gave Warner Bros. claim to another first—the first premiere at sea—in the joust with junkets. Fittingly so, Warner Bros. has specialized in streamlining the old trade trick of first-showing ballyhoo and in making the transplanted premiere more than a publicizing, merchandising stunt—establishing it as a colorful filmland institution. Their pioneering junket to "Dodge City"; their splurge in "Virginia City"; their "Knutz Rockne" celebration in South Bend, Ind.; their "Fighting 69th" festivities in New York—these, with others, have dotted the country. So now the Warner studio goes ultrarealistic, ringing up the curtain on "The Sea Wolf" in the lounge of a ship at sea. In fact, so realistic was the stunt that about one-third of the guests had to give up and go to their staterooms because of the rough-water-rolling of the boat! Nevertheless, the overnight trip from Los Angeles to San Francisco was a success, for there was much besides the screening of the new picture to make the cruise momentous and pleasurable. The S. S. America, a 40,000-ton luxury liner, sports elevators, a blue-tiled swimming-pool, nine bars, a newsroom, special broadcast facilities, and all kinds of sports and music opportunities were provided. There was also plenty of Hollywood glamour around the swimming-pool. The trip featured as its climax a tour to the Valley of the Moon ranch, near San Francisco, home of Jack London, famous author of "The Sea Wolf." It all added up to an appropriate and imaginative—if just short of colossal—world premiere.

THE S. S. AMERICA, of the United States Lines, normally plies between New York City and the Caribbean, has been kept from transatlantic service by the war. March 21 it carried a Hollywood party for an ocean premiere of "The Sea Wolf"

Newest Wrinkle in Premiere Junkets

orchestra and John did some impromptu solo work on the drums. And movie-goers needn't be disillusioned with the stuff that seagoing stars are made of, for Robinson and Garfield were two of those who kept sea-legs and stomachs under control

"The Sea Wolf" Takes to the Water

sported a badge reading "Paul Muni." And Eddie Robinson wore one that said "Shirley Temple," just to kid autograph-seekers. The ship and its swimming-pool were an ideal background for the bathing beauties, who posed for passengers and news cameramen

AFTER DOCKING Saturday morning at San Francisco, the guests were loaded into four big buses and taken to the Jack London ranch near Sonoma, forty-five miles from the Bay City. Here a luncheon of barbecued chicken, red beans, green salad and dry light wine was served

PRISCILLA LANE and John Garfield go for a tour of the big boat to see its many luxurious accommodations—beauty parlors, barber shop, flower and clothing shops. Priscilla, though not in "The Sea Wolf," is a Warner Bros. star. She was one who didn't appreciate the ship's rolling

orchestra and John did some impromptu solo work on the drums. And movie-goers needn't be disillusioned with the stuff that seagoing stars are made of, for Robinson and Garfield were two of those who kept sea-legs and stomachs under control

Trip Whets Eddie's Appetite

THE GAY JUNKET wound up with a return trip by bus or plane. Some were quite tired—as above pair of Warner still cameramen unawakened by apparent heckling

Movie-Radio Guide
Proudly Presents:

A New Star—Joan Leslie!

MOST girls seeking stardom in films strive for years, perhaps never achieve their goal. At sixteen, Joan Leslie—born Joan Brodell—faces almost certain stardom as the result of a series of fine film portrayals and particularly because of her pathos-filled delineation of the club-footed girl of "High Sierra."

The Background:

As a matter of fact, Joan cut her eyeteeth in pictures, under her own name appeared in a long list of films as a child star before emerging in full-blown adult roles. Before coming to Hollywood she was a member of an acrobatic dancing-team consisting of herself and her two sisters, Mary and Betty. If you ask Joan the cause of her success, she will tell you "the bank holiday." Perhaps she's correct. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE feels she would have found stardom if there had never been a depression and a bank holiday to throw her father, John Brodell, out of a job.

The Brodells lived quietly, simply in Highland Park, Detroit, where their father worked as a cashier in a bank. When the bank holiday put him out of work, more fortunate than other depression victims, Mr. Brodell had three talented daughters who rallied to the family cause. They formed a dance-team, worked the local theaters, eventually went on tour, thought they had reached the peak that day—five years ago—when they were booked into the Paradise Club in New York.

The Break:

It was only the beginning. An M-G-M talent-scout saw Joan there, tested her, had her assigned to work in "Camille," with Greta Garbo and Robert Taylor. To the youthful, screen-struck youngster, Garbo was something a little less than a goddess. Her most thrilling moment, she recounts with a smile, was when she chatted with the famous Garbo. The chat consisted of an "Oh, excuse me," when she got in Garbo's path, and a deeper "Pardon!" from the Garbo.

Joan—who changed her name from Brodell to Leslie to avoid confusion with Joan Blondell—lives with her family in a modest Hollywood apartment. Now that Joan's future has become more definite and since the other girls are also signed to term contracts in Hollywood, the family plans a house in the film center.

The Lowdown:

Joan looks older than her sixteen years. She is tall for her age, five feet four inches, and weighs 118 pounds. Her hair is auburn, her eyes hazel, her personality effervescent and Irish. But when she talks it is evident she is still a little girl. She is wholly unspoiled, sweet-tempered, and a striking quality is her loyalty to the family group—a loyalty shared by all and a family group so closely knit as to be inseparable.

Next to chatting with Garbo, Joan lists her first evening gown—purchased only a few months ago—as her most thrilling moment. But despite the evening gown Joan has few boy friends, many girl friends of her own age. Mickey Rooney is the most interesting person she has ever met, but he's not her "big moment." He is one of her favorite actors. Charles Boyer is the other. Garbo and Bette Davis are her favorite actresses. She is a sports enthusiast, plays a bang-up game of badminton and ping-pong, a fair game of tennis. Her favorite extravagance is dime-store shopping.

Her home life is simple, unaffected. Mrs. Brodell rules the household and Joan and her sisters share in the labors and chores of keeping it. Mr. Brodell manages the girls' business affairs.

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE feels that stardom will never alter the realness of Joan just as it feels her role in "Sergeant York," now being made, will establish her as a star of importance in films.

1. THIS is not just another face, 2. MRS. AGNES BRODELL never and Joan Leslie, who signed a Warner contract at fifteen, is not just another girl. She's star stuff! lets screen fame interfere with home life, lays down the law to her three marked-for-fame daughters

3. JOAN practises dancing and singing as she works. She entered films five years ago, looks older, talks younger than she is

4. JOAN'S WARDROBE included only one evening dress (with which her mother is seen helping her here) until recently. Now she has several

5. WHEN THE Brodells first came to Hollywood, depression victims, the girls helped by working in night-clubs. Now Joan can afford a wire-hair pup

6. ALTHOUGH JOAN had appeared in "Camille," with Garbo, and in a Deanna Durbin film among others before landing her Warner contract, her tender and thrilling portrayal of the invalid child of "High Sierra" won her wholehearted critics' applause

7. AFTER PLAYING love-scenes with Gary Cooper in the forthcoming "Sergeant York," Joan had to go to school on the studio lot. This film will make her a star

ONE OF the first requisites of a young actress is that she be a good mimic. Joan is excellent. Her impersonations of the famous are rare. Left: She does Garbo in her "I want to go home" routine for Movie-Radio

PERHAPS MORE startling than the Garbo impersonation, even, is Joan's mimicry of Katharine Hepburn, at right. Joan demonstrates her observant nature, her ability to project herself into varied characters—proof she's a REAL actress!

Recommended- "Pat a' Gold"

1. THIS IS THE BOY who is music-mad, gets in his Uncle's hair and a mess of trouble because of his swing mania. Uncle (Charles Winninger) wants him to go into his health-food business, but the boy (Jimmy Stewart) sticks to his music-shop though it means a meager living

2. THIS IS THE GIRL (Paulette Goddard) who helps her mother run a boarding-house where Horace Heidt's band lives, rehearses. The boarding-house is across the street from Uncle's office and the music disturbs him. The boy, now broke, goes to work for Uncle

3. THIS IS THE UNCLE who can't stand music, gets sore at the boy because he wants to be a musician instead of a food tycoon. He also is sore at the girl and her mother because they refuse to kick Heidt's band out into the street or to silence them. The boy adds to the complications by going into the girl's boarding-house when he hears the music which—unknown to him—has brought his uncle's temper to breaking-point

4. THIS IS THE BAND that particularly irks Uncle—although thousands of listeners all over the country pay thousands of dollars to hear Horace Heidt and his lads bear down on a tune. As a matter of fact, what Uncle's sleep-walking radio program needed most just then was a band like Horace Heidt's to breathe some life into it

5. THIS IS THE TOMATO the nephew tosses when the old man comes to the boarding-house threatening legal action unless the band is silenced. It is also the tomato which makes that young man the hero of the neighborhood—which still doesn't know his kinship to the foodmaker

6. THIS IS THE LANDLADY (Mary Gordon), who with her daughter goes to court and appeals for the nephew's release after he is arrested by Uncle—who still doesn't know who the tomato-thrower is. The judge, a friend of the landlady, lets the youth off, later throws Uncle into the hoosegow for contempt when he talks back

RADIO'S BIG FORTUNE-HUNT PROGRAM BECOMES JIMMY STEWART'S LAST PICTURE

7. THIS IS THE JAIL the uncle lands in when he crosses the judge, who is a friend of the landlady, the mother of the girl who is in love with the nephew. And what the congenial surroundings of the jail do to the uncle's disposition is something the nephew doesn't know—and can't bear to think of. So he begins plotting to get Uncle out of town for cooling-off spell

8. THIS IS WHAT really makes the world turn 'round, the nephew turn handsprings, the landlady's daughter walk around in a daze. Script-writers call it love. Only fly in the ointment is that the girl hates everything connected with Uncle's clan—and the boy is a member of that clan, unknown to her. Meanwhile, they have their fun—in blissful ignorance while the sun shines

9. THIS IS the phony doc—take off those whiskers, Horace Heidt, we know you!—who pulled the gag which gets Uncle out of town and gives Jimmy a chance on the radio program, Heidt's orchestra a big break

10. THIS IS the stunt that fools Uncle, sends him scampering off to Canada to recuperate. The band, concealed about the house, plays; the "doc" makes Uncle think he is hearing things

11. THIS IS the wheel that resulted from an idea. It makes the program a success, Uncle a fortune, gives the band a break and paves the way for a romantic, happy ending—boy gets girl!

JIMMY STEWART'S last picture before entering the army was the just-completed "Pot o' Gold," produced by F. D. R.'s son, Jimmy Roosevelt. By the time the last trumpet blare of Horace Heidt's band, also featured in the film, died away in the rafters of the rented studio at RKO, Jimmy was en route to Fort MacArthur to appear in the biggest show of our times—America's mobilization of her army for defense. "Pot o' Gold" is Jimmy Roosevelt's first production, following a year of tutelage under the Great Goldwyn. He started from scratch—no story, no stars, no studio, no dough and no release. United Artists agreed to release it, money was raised, a stage rented, stars (Jimmy Stewart and Paulette Goddard, no less) hired, work was ready to commence. Then director George Marshall was rushed to a hospital for an emergency operation; when Marshall recovered, Stewart wasn't available; when Stewart was available again, Goddard wasn't. But the cameras started rolling on December 9, the film was completed six weeks later. Cut and edited now, Jimmy Roosevelt's "Pot o' Gold" will be seen soon throughout the country.

RECENTLY Lana Turner discovered Tony Martin, right, which put an end to her romance with Vic Mature. These characters come into the mix-up later. Just keep on following the arrows until you complete the cycle. We guarantee you'll be as confused as the editors

STOP HERE—but not for long. George Raft is now much interested in Betty Grable, above, and we're right back where we started. Which is where? What of Jimmy Stewart? About Vic Mature, Rudy Vallee? Your guess is as good as ours, and theirs

Movie-Radio Guide's Report On:

The Stars'

Mixed-Up Loves

Here is your latest photographic communique from the badly befuddled romance front in Hollywood!

REMEMBER when so many pictures of Norma Shearer and George Raft, above, were appearing? That looked like the real thing and gossipers even speculated that Raft's long-delayed divorce might arrive at any minute. Well, nothing came of it. Sorry!

A SNAG would have occurred if Tony Martin had reconciled with Alice Faye, below. But he didn't. And so the merry-go-round goes 'round. Alice has many and assorted dates. Few will now remember that her very first dates were with Rudy Vallee

WILLING RUDY, below, dated Pat Dane, who had gone with Vic Mature, who had dated Lana Turner but concentrated on Liz Whitney, former wife of Jock Whitney, who dated Olivia de Havilland. All of which should give you an idea of who's dating whom

BEFORE DRAFT—and before Raft, too—Jimmy frequently saw Norma Shearer, above. But the night before he went soldiering he dated Ruth Hussey. Then, after the draft, Olivia de Havilland went places with Burgess Meredith. Hah—we're getting nowhere

True?

LEFT: A genuine romance that will conclude in marriage is Movie-Radio Guide's judgment of the Bill Holden-Brenda Marshall affair. Riding on no merry-go-rounds, these two youngsters take their work and their romance very seriously

False?

RIGHT: On the verge of receiving her final decree, Alice Faye—who is seen on the merry-go-round—has been dating John Conte. This was supposedly serious. Recently she dated Phil Harris (r.). Movie-Radio Guide thinks their dates are for fun

STILL HANGING ON? Well, Olivia was also dated by Gene Markey, once wed to Hedy Lamarr, below. Hedy then fell for John Howard, who had dated Dotty Lamour, who now romances with Greg Bautzer. See what we mean? Hold your hat, here we go—

BETWEEN GIRLS who wanted to date him and girls he wanted to date, Jimmy Stewart, left, was seen with Marlene Dietrich. That was a detour. Meanwhile, Gene Markey—remember him?—was dating Carole Landis, who had also dated Franchot Tone

OUT OF THIS scramble, romance experts—as who isn't?—found Howard Hughes dating Ginger Rogers, left, which looked more serious than Ginger's dates with Jimmy Stewart, who, a few months later, was excited about Olivia de Havilland

GENERAL

Gloria Swanson Comes Back

Seven years absent from the screen, former screen glamour queen Gloria Swanson was signed last week by RKO-Radio Pictures to co-star with Adolphe Menjou in "Father Takes a Wife," the Dorothy and Herbert Fields play. During her absence from films, Miss Swanson, who is generally conceded to be the first movie actress to make women clothes-conscious, has been traveling in Europe and living in New York City. "The Affairs of Anatol," "Zaza," "The Humming Bird" and "Manhandled" were among her standout pictures. Question first asked by all Swanson fans, "Is she still young looking?" is easily answered. Gloria looks ten years younger than her real age; has kept herself in the pink.

Cary Grant in Whiskers?

Much to do during the week over Cary Grant's impending playing of the title role in Warners' production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Excitement started when studio executives sent up a test balloon saying they wished to add romance to the play, would have Grant make love (in whiskers?) to his silently suffering secretary. But Grant fans, to say nothing of Countess Barbara Hutton, objected to their idol hiding behind spinach and speaking nasty lines through seven reels of celluloid. Conclusion: Much to do about nothing. Grant is not signed yet, and perhaps this is just a "Scarlett O'Hara" build-up of public interest in the forthcoming picture.

THE WAR

Confusion at San Diego

Men in uniform at San Diego these days are (1) members of Uncle Sam's Navy or (2) members of the cast of Warner Brothers' "Dive Bomber." So confusing has the situation become to the military police that they have evolved a rule to separate the real from the reel sailors. The rule: All the actors have long hair!

Called to Service

Virginia Dale's fiance, George Vogt, has been called to Camp Roberts. Billy Seymour, jeweler for the stars, is awaiting call. Eddie Norris is arranging his affairs in order to be ready.

Letter from Ann Dvorak

Word from England comes from Ann Dvorak that her husband, Leslie (Please Turn to Next Page)

Errol Flynn Says:

"I CONSIDER my role in 'Dive Bomber,' now being filmed, the most significant to date. It feels good to be out of costume pictures for a change and to get into uniform for a strictly American film.

"Because I have had such a mania for travel I probably am more acutely aware of the dangerous position in which this country of ours can suddenly find itself.

"On my last trip to South America I rode for a whole day cooped in a plane with a Nazi agent, among other passengers. In one South American city I was attacked in headlines by dictator-controlled newspapers, defended by democratic editors. I feel that the people of South America are beginning to understand the importance of friendship with the United States, but a great deal of important work remains to be done.

"When you quote me, please point out that these are purely personal observations. I am not trying to set myself up as an authority, but merely answering Movie-Radio Guide's question about South American relationships which, honestly put, deserves an honest answer."

WHEN VIRGINIA WEIDLER'S mother gave a birthday party recently to celebrate Virginia's fourteenth birthday, thirty-five young guests came out to their Westwood home to have a little fun. ## Messages From Nation's Leaders Urge Gary Cooper on in Great Role

NO MOVIE set in Hollywood was more besieged by visitors this week than sound-stage number 7, where "Sergeant York" is being filmed. Producers Warner insist that it will be the most exciting picture of 1941, and Gary Cooper personally told Movie-Radio Guide reporter that it is the first film in years that really has him moved to vast enthusiasm.

Cooper plays the title role as Alvin C. York, a Tennessee mountain boy from the Valley of the Three Forks of the Wolf. Drafted in the first World War, this real-life hero was a conscientious objector. After induction, his battalion major offered him a ten-day furlough in which to make up his mind whether he wanted to fight or not. They swapped Bible quotations, and after a lesson in American history, York agreed to stay in the Army.

The role is tailored to measure for Cooper, has brought enthusiastic messages from military and other national figures. Taking it easy, Cooper is looking forward to the scene he plays next week: The one in which soldier York sharpshoots through a hail of machine-gun bullets, brings in 132 German prisoners. Cooper, over selective service age, will probably never serve in the Army, but his performance is already an inspiration to young men, even before it reaches the screen.

TWO OF THE 600-ODD BABIES who will appear in "Blossoms in the Dust," M-G-M's film of a woman's unselfish devotion to other people's children, are Brona and Susan Cooper (above). They're six-month-old twins; their father works for Hollywood make-up wizard Max Factor

Fenton, is in His Majesty's Navy and that she is serving with an ambulance corps.

HOSPITALIZED

Appendix Removals

Into a New York hospital April 8 was rushed New York's matinee idol, Hollywood's glamour boy, Victor Mature. The diagnosis: Acute appendicitis. Immediate operation necessary. Hospital chart: Patient's recovery excellent, but the actor must retire from the Gertrude Lawrence play, "Lady in the Dark."

Similarly in Hollywood, Mildred Coles, young player who was to get her first break in the second "Scattergood Baines" picture, "Scattergood Pulls the Strings," was stricken April 7 by acute appendicitis; operation necessary. Into her part went Suzanne Peters, but producer Jerry Brandt has promised to give Miss Coles a part in his next film.

LIFE STATISTICS

Robert Young Cigar-Pricing

The Robert Youngs, already proud parents of two children, are expecting an addition in June.

Julie Bishop, of the Warner Brothers stock list, and actor David Bruce will wed in June.

Vicki Lester and Eddie Cherkose, the writer, are reconciling.

Orange blossoms are budding for attorney Bentley Ryan, partner of Dorothy Lamour's beau, Greg Bautzer, and Marguerite Chapman.

Romances

Ruth Hussey, who was going to write to Jimmy Stewart, at Charlie Foy's with John Shelton . . . Charles Lang and Helen Parrish golfing Sunday at Girard . . . Margaret Lindsay, who hasn't been seen lately with Bill Lundigan, forgetting him for Charles Wendling, Claudette Colbert's brother . . . Franchot Tone with Marie Bryant at the Hollywood Tropics; Tone waiting backstage at Earl Carroll's for Maureen Howell . . . Eddie Norris with Jean Wallace at the Cafe Lamaze; Jean Wallace with Gabriel Dell at the Bit of Sweden . . . Laraine Day and Ray Hendricks at the Florentine Gardens and again at the La Conga.

HONORS

Bette Davis, pride of New Hampshire, returning to Littleton, N. H., for the premiere of her newest picture, "The Great Lie," blushed to learn that Gov. Ralph Blood had proclaimed the day—her birthdate—as "Bette Davis Day."

Hostess of a bomber is no gag occupation in the case of Deanna Durbin, who last week was voted that honorary title by twenty-three members of the Royal Canadian Air Force who are currently in training at a Toronto camp.

Newcomer Jane Russell, pretty brunette first to be seen on the screen in Howard Hughes' "The Outlaw," was named honorary hostess of Camp Roberts, San Miguel, at ceremonies staged there on Army Day.

CONTRACTS

Rooney's Stand-In Graduates

Dick Paxton, stand-in and confidant of Mickey Rooney, with whom Paxton lives, has been awarded a contract by Paramount to join the supporting cast of "Henry for President," the next Aldrich picture, starring Jimmy Lyon and Charles Smith.

Richard Whorf, a Lunt-Fontanne regular, has been contracted to play the leading role opposite Bette Davis in "The Gay Sisters."

EN ROUTE

Delayed honeymoon of happy bridegroom William Powell and blushing bride (of some months) Diana Lewis was scheduled to begin this week; the trip was to start with a cruise through the Panama Canal to New York City.

Back from Manhattan has come Judy Garland. The young Metro singing actress has been making benefit appearances for the British War Relief.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke returned this week from a visit to Toronto, Canada, where he reunited with wife Helena Pickard, now engaged in touring the Dominion in a British war relief stock company, and her brother, Walter Pickard, just transferred to pilot training in Canada after a hitch in the R. A. F. abroad.

Planned Journeys

Spencer Tracy to New York, there to see the town with his son John, now in school in the East . . . Doug Fairbanks, Jr., to South America on a good-will tour—perhaps in an Army bomber . . . Joan Crawford to New York as soon as she has finished "A Woman's Face."

St. Louis turned out in its finest bib and tucker to attend the world premiere of Republic Studios' "Sis Hopkins" and see at first hand Jerry Colonna, Judy Canova, John Wayne, Ona Munson, Don Barry, Mary Beth Hughes and Lois Ranson, who were flown there for the occasion.

MISCELLANY

Shower for Bride Durbin

Fair picture mates of Deanna Durbin crowded the American Room of the Hollywood Brown Derby last night to provide a gala lingerie shower with Helen Parrish and Anne Shirley as co-hostesses.

Norma Shearer Greeted Gabin

Jean Gabin, favorite French actor newly arrived in Hollywood, was made to feel more at home when cinema social leader Norma Shearer gave a party at the Mocambo honoring him.

Vallee in Kiss Marathon

Rudy Vallee, long famous for his preference of dark-eyed brunettes, will be called upon to kiss thirty-four blue-eyed blond beauties in his forthcoming Universal musical picture, "Too Many Blondes." Included in the Vallee song repertoire to be heard in the production is "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," a number that Vallee did much to popularize eight years ago.

Army Honors Hope

Bob Hope will be honored May 2 at Fort Ord, Monterey, Calif., when his solo starring picture, Paramount's "Caught in the Draft," is to be premiered there with lights, flowers, stars and the entire U. S. Army encamped there. Already the clamor of stars and studio attaches is great to get seats to the opening. Incidentally, Hope has been heckled of late by some columnists who twit him about employing "twelve" comedy material writers. "As a matter of fact," Hope explains, "I do engage five writers, but I need them not alone for radio but for my motion-picture work and benefits." There is no actor in the business who does more benefit performances than Hope!

Great Men's Ladies

"The Great Man's Lady" is having a special sort of premiere showing in Hollywood. Wives and widows of many famous great men of America are being invited to attend the showing of this Paramount flicker starring Barbara Stanwyck. Among the invitees are Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, Mrs. Thomas Preston (widow of Grover Cleveland), and Mrs. Thomas Edison.

Hollywood Is Whispering—

ABOUT the eye-opening first screen production of Orson Welles, "Citizen Kane," previewed by critics April 9. This is the picture Hollywood was set to laugh about; then saw and gasped (1) at its audacity, (2) at its general excellence. Welles, writer-producer-director-star of the film, has the last laugh at Hollywood skeptics who doubted the ability of the "wonder boy." Meantime, Welles was enjoying the scenery of Albuquerque, N. M., with his next bride-to-be, Dolores Del Rio, before returning to the cinema capital. Discussed and fairly definite as his next picture is "Cyranos de Bergerac," with Welles playing the title role and directing; Alexander Korda producing; Ben Hecht screen-writing. "Citizen Kane" will be road-shown on a two-a-day, reserved-seat plan within the month at New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE CRITICS' REPORT

BEST DRAMATIC SCENE this week is that in "Citizen Kane" where Orson Welles as tycoon-publisher Kane, becomes enraged when he discovers that his second wife, played by Dorothy Comingore, has left him. Into her boudoir he charges (as shown in these clips from the actual film), throws her garments on the floor, tears the costly furnishings into bits and smashes her books from the shelves

MOVIE VIEWS by Carl A. Schroeder

"THIS STUDIO IS HOT," our press agent friend pointed out as we walked into the Green Room. The Green Room is the studio commissary, most important function of which is to feed actors and give gentlemen of the press free meals. On this particular day the customers were run through the place in four shifts. Warner Bros. had hit an all-time high with 5,027 employes on the payroll. Cagily the press-agent would give no figures as to salaries being paid, but the stars alone could receive no less than $75,000 for a week's work.

After luncheon we walked onto every one of eight sets, were as bowled over as the greenest tourist. In the space of three hours we watched Gary Cooper, Dietrich, Eddie Robinson, Errol Flynn, Fred MacMurray, Ida Lupino and a dozen other familiar but lesser lights at work. We noted that crowded living conditions on the studio lot have Dietrich living in Cagney's dressing-room while he's on lay-off, George Raft parking his feet on Bette Davis' divan while she's away in the East. Some switch! These are the pictures: Lupino and John Garfield in "Gentle People." Gary Cooper in "Sergeant York," Errol Flynn in "Dive Bomber." These are the biggies, with "Manpower," starring Dietrich, "Underground," "Bad Man of Missouri," and "The Flight Patrol" being far from "smallies."

Hot? We'll say Warners is hot! The studio even has had to fall to and build its own airplanes for two war pictures—dive bombers, Hurricanes, Spitfires. None could be borrowed, so the craft shop built them, complete with propellers and motors. We couldn't tell them from the real thing, but being useless for actual fighting we wished there were some way the studio could pass them on to the Axis when through with them—just for a lark! Our personal recommendation for this week is to keep all of the $10,000,000 worth of pictures mentioned here on your list—it's a load of entertainment dynamite!

CAUGHT AT DEADLINE—"Reaching for the Sun": This Paramount picture, with Joel McCrea, Ellen Drew and Eddie Bracken, is good entertainment but it doesn't solve any social problems. Satire, properly placed, was the saving factor of the production, and director Bill Wellman did a mighty good job of putting it in—with the aid of Bracken, mainly, and both McCrea and Miss Drew.

REVIEWS

"Citizen Kane"

Cast: Orson Welles, Joseph Cotten, Dorothy Comingore, Everett Sloane, Ray Collins, George Coulouris, Agnes Moorhead, Paul Stewart, Ruth Warrick, Erskine Sanford, William Alland, et al. Mercury production for RKO-Radio. Produced and directed by Orson Welles. Story by Herman J. Mankiewicz, Orson Welles.

"THIS is not the story of any man, be he living or dead. Kane and all other characters involved are wholly imaginary." This is the waiver which appeared at the close of Orson Welles' picture. It is the artistic approach to saying, "It ain't so." Whatever it means, this critic takes Mr. Welles at his word, reviews his much-discussed effort on that basis.

"Citizen Kane" is a biography. Its subject is a poor boy who inherits great wealth, in his manhood becomes a newspaper publisher. Under guise of being a people's champion, Kane uses his wealth for his own unholy devices. The film's announced purpose is to find just why Kane uttered the one word, "Rosebud," when he died. Actually, no two people will agree on Welles' purpose. Did he intend to expose the malpractices of great wealth? Did he try to show that no one can force his fellow men to love him? Or was he simply concocting a film version of his Mars broadcast?

VERDICT: Whatever Orson Welles intended he did achieve this: The necessity for every critic with a normal I. Q. to admit that he is a great actor. That other producers, steeped in finesse and "knowledge" of the picture business, can take lessons from Mr. Welles. That Mr. Welles, if he ever tackles a picture that is really basically constructive, will become the most important man in Hollywood. P. S. He hopes not! —C. S.

"The Reluctant Dragon"

Cast: Robert Benchley, Frances Gifford, Nana Bryant, Barnett Parker, Buddy Pepper, Claud Allister, Billy Lee. A Walt Disney picture; directed by Alfred Werker. In Technicolor. RKO-Radio release.

DESPITE the fabulous intake of "Snow White," Walt Disney must be pretty well convinced by now that feature-length cartoons as a whole lack the punch to make them box-office hits. They are the cocktail before dinner, or the mint after coffee—not enough for a completely satisfying entree.

Disney's latest, "The Reluctant Dragon," is as pleasing as any cartoon Mickey's master mind has turned out. Praise of its beauty in color, story and animation cannot be too high. But even with the introduction of human characters into about half of the film, it still lacks the bango with which a Coney Island barker lures the customers.

DISNEY'S "Reluctant Dragon" serves tea

The picture opens with Bob Benchley—who does a great job—having a brainstorm which he thinks will make a good cartoon. He goes to the Disney lot, and en route to the boss' office gets lost in various buildings. His adventures are amusing as he conceives the idea of the verse-writing dragon who hates to fight and who sounds like Ed Wynn when he says so. The cartoon itself, i. e., "The Reluctant Dragon," is every bit as good as one of Disney's Mickey Mouse or Donald Duck cartoons—and that's good!

VERDICT: If you want to learn how to make a cartoon go see "The Reluctant Dragon." If you don't want to learn how, go see it anyway. It's worth a look.—D. R.

COMING

AFTER A YEAR-LONG ABSENCE from films, Joan Crawford returns soon in M-G-M's "A Woman's Face," with what may prove to be the most interesting role of her career. As Anna Holm, she is a woman blackmailer who is regenerated when surgeon Melvyn Douglas removes hideous scar from her face

Star Sparkles

● Back from a month's vacation in Miami, first one since his "Easy Aces" began thirteen years ago, GOODMAN ACE reports that he finally met the other Jane Ace. This Jane Ace resides there and has been corresponding with the Aces since the program started. The irony was that he had a hard time convincing her he really was Goodman Ace.

Star Sparkles

● CANDY CANDIDO, comedian and bass player with TED FIO-RITO'S orchestra, is an inveterate cigar smoker. When he signed his pact with Fio-Rito, he insisted upon a clause allowing him to smoke on the band stand. During night-club engagements Candy may be seen puffing away contentedly on his stogie while sawing on the bass fiddle.

ALONG THE AIRALTS

WEEK OF APRIL 26-MAY 2

RADIO VIEWS by Martin Lewis

SUMMERTIME usually is a time of peace and quiet along the broadcasting front. Along with many of radio's listeners, most of the big network programs are on vacation. Those programs which take their place are usually low-budgeted affairs, designed to fill in until the resumption of normal broadcasting activity in the fall. Radio in summer merely marks time.

Is this a true picture? Perhaps it used to be, but it isn't any more. Of late years the broadcasters, and the networks in particular, have become increasingly aware of the importance of continuing the high quality of entertainment afforded by the more costly winter programs. Since the advent of portable radios, thousands of listeners now are able to continue their radio listening from vacation spots. Good reception afforded by radios in automobiles is another factor. Today, wherever they may be, most radio listeners can tune in.

Many of the new programs which you will hear on the air this summer will be given extraordinary care and attention, particularly in the matter of direction and production, for the networks are more than ever aware of this increased summertime listening. They also are aware that these sustaining programs, if properly designed, may become tomorrow's big-time sponsored shows. Remember when "Information, Please" and "Truth or Consequences" were on sustaining?

IN connection with the latter thought, the editors of MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE long have had the opinion that the networks, by their improper regard for the possibilities of sustaining shows, were passing up many good opportunities to develop commercially profitable programs. Now that they are beginning to see the light, listeners should hear better sustaining shows. Some of these sustainers now on the air already appear to possess commercial possibilities. "Deadline Dramas," "Joe and Mabel" and "Gold If You Find It" are three whose prospects seem very bright at this writing.

Incidentally, it might be a good idea for the broadcasting systems to employ talent-scouts, such as big-league baseball and the movies have. They could tour the country's radio stations seeking outstanding local talent and programs and would undoubtedly pay for their keep many times over.

Whether this suggestion is accepted or not, we believe that your summertime listening should be better than ever this year. So don't forget to take along that portable radio when you go off to the mountains or the seashore. Summertime now is "good listening" time.

HEADLINE NEWS

Frederick W. Wile Dies

WASHINGTON.—One of radio's pioneer newscasters and commentators, Frederick William Wile, died April 7 at the age of sixty-eight. Wile was the first American commentator to cover by radio an international event, the Five Power Naval Conference in London. He began broadcasting in 1923 on a Washington, D. C., station, later became known particularly for his political campaign analyses.

Brace Beemer, the original Lone Ranger (above), resumed the role after the death of Earle Graser had worked to further the interests of the Guild's relief fund, and, having been informed of the objections, she would withdraw her radio program at the expiration of the current contract.

Newscaster Goes Abroad

NEW YORK.—Following the example set by Wendell Willkie and Harry Hopkins, Elmer Davis, CBS' news analyst, took a Clipper plane for England to look over the war situation first-hand. He expects to return about the first of June.

BACKSTAGE

Garbo Shuns Mike

HOLLYWOOD.—Mystery woman Greta Garbo, the elusive great actress, almost was heard on the Gulf Screen Guild Theater season-closer Sunday, April 20, but she weakened and pleaded microphone fright. Garbo, who never yet has broadcast in a radio drama certainly, and probably never has said even as much as a "Hello" into a microphone, was approached by Conrad Nagel and Roger Pryor, m.c. of the Screen Guild series. First she said yes, she would volunteer her services for this program, the proceeds of which go to a motion-picture charity. Then, even as they were talking, she changed her mind and said no, she would be too nervous to broadcast. Nagel assured her that she could broadcast in the privacy of her own home; that radio wires would be run to her home and thus she might overcome her microphone fright. She wavered, said yes, and then almost as rapidly changed her mind again. Garbo, who has turned down $10,000 fee offers to go on the air a single time, was afraid to break the ice.

Dark, petite Sammie Hill is star of "Home of the Brave," which moves from CBS to NBC this week

Neighbors Meet in Studio

CHICAGO.—Add to your list of radio oddities: Two couples, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. J. Goss traveled separately from Portland, Ore., to Chicago, visited "Breakfast Club" and sat near each other. But they didn't know they were almost next-door neighbors until they were introduced to each other when Don McNeill interviewed them in the "Breakfast Club" audience.

Singer Making Comeback

NEW YORK.—Bobby Gibson, young brother of song stylist Fredda Gibson, has resumed his radio career after a recovery from a sinus ailment which forced him off the air over a year ago.

Nets Fight Over Fights

NEW YORK.—The National Broadcasting Company has announced suit against Twentieth Century Sporting Club, the Mutual Broadcasting System and Gillette Safety Razor Company in the New York Supreme Court. NBC claims the right by agreement with Twentieth Century to broadcast boxing-bouts exhibited in Madison Square Garden between October 1, 1941, and June 1, 1942, as it has broadcast them for the past four years. It had been announced that, effective June 1, 1941, MBS would get exclusive right to the Garden broadcasts under the sponsorship of the safety-razor concern, through a contract with Mike Jacobs, veteran fight promoter of most major boxing-bouts.

Louella Parsons Withdraws

HOLLYWOOD.—The fight of the Screen Actors Guild to eliminate free appearances of name talent on radio shows resulted in Louella Parsons, Hollywood columnist, announcing that her new radio program, utilizing movie stars, would be terminated after June 20, 1941. The Guild itself produces "Screen Guild Theater" for the benefit of its own charity activities and considers as competition other shows using free movie talent. Miss Parsons said that for twenty-five years she

Jack Benny shrugs with mock resignation to the studio audience as the "Quiz Kids" humble him, to the amusement of Don Wilson (r.) and others. Several of the juvenile experts appeared with Benny April 6 and April 13

Bobby was discovered by a CBS executive singing in an empty studio when he was a page boy three years ago. He sang with Ben Bernie, Mark Warnow and Johnny Green. His first comeback step is in the role of a singing migratory worker in the "Big Sister" serial.

To Grow or Not

CHICAGO.—Dickie Holland, young star of "The Bartons," at the in-between age of fourteen, is beginning to develop a voice that takes sudden tangents in the vocal scale. For this reason author Harlan Ware is faced with the inevitable problem of whether or not to let Bud Barton grow up in the serial or keep him a kid throughout the story. Maybe the writer can get a clew now as to whether Bud should grow older from the fact that the story placed very high among the children's programs in the Star of Stars Poll, results of which were announced last week.

Bracelet for Barclay

CHICAGO.—Because Luise Barclay's voice reminds a listener of a one-time friend, the star of "Arnold Grimm's Daughter" is the proud possessor of a unique bracelet more than a century old. "Every time I hear you over the air," the fan in Richlands, Va., wrote, "I think of an old friend who moved to England eight years ago. The bracelet is a keepsake from her. It was an heirloom given her by her grandmother."

Post-Curtain Comedy

NEW YORK.—Something new is being introduced to studio audiences at "Truth or Consequences" these days. The very popular stunt-show offers a fifteen-minute impromptu post-broadcast session of the game, with Ralph Edwards carrying on his emcee job after airtime.

Fighters Mike-Frightened

NEW YORK.—It was noticed that fighters Lou Nova and Max Baer were scared by a microphone, when they appeared on Eddie Cantor's "Time to Smile" show. Just before the show Baer confided over an ice cream soda that he was nervous about the act. And Nova came into the same Radio City drug store a little later for some hot tea to help settle his stomach.

Dolores Gillen is the realistic voice of the little boy Barry in "Joyce Jordan, Girl Interne"

HONORS

Price of Popularity

HOLLYWOOD.—Bob Hawk wishes he weren't so popular. Or that the money he gives away on his CBS "Take It or Leave It" show weren't so sought after. At any rate, he fears he and his sponsors may have had to step on too many toes last week when the Hollywood demand for tickets to the broadcast topped the record demand reported so far at this radio headquarters. The airing, on April 13, was Hawk's 52nd weekly appearance on the Columbia network. Two shows were staged—each to 2,000 people.

McGees' Anniversary

HOLLYWOOD.—April 15 marked the sixth anniversary of Fibber McGehee and Molly on the air for the same sponsor. After their NBC broadcast, the veteran radio team, Marian and Jim Jordan in real life, were guests at a cocktail party given in their honor.

PERSONAL

Draft Eligibles

HOLLYWOOD.—Actor Elliot Lewis, heard as the leading man of radio dramas originated here, and Harmon Nelson, Bette Davis' ex-husband, are standing by for their selectee army calls. Both are next in line.

When fighters Max Baer (l.) and Lou Nova appeared with Eddie Cantor, the winner of their subsequent bout was to get three-fourths of the $1,000 fee for their appearance. That meant Nova (the winner) collected!

Weddings

HOLLYWOOD.—Pauline Byrnes, the Miss, and Jerry Preshaw, one of the Hits of the "Six Hits and a Miss" heard regularly on Bob Hope's Tuesday night NBC aircasts, decided that they couldn't wait until June, so eloped by motor car April 8 to Las Vegas, Nev., where they said the magic words making them man and wife. Hope provided them with a farewell party and the automobile in which to elope. The singing ensemble's name will not be changed, however. Denny Wilson, one of the four Music Maids of the Crosby Music Hall, was wed Saturday, April 19, to Bill Markus, former musician with John Scott Trotter's orchestra, at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn.

"Kettering" to the Kid

CHICAGO.—Musical fathers might take a tip from Frank Kettering. The musical director of the "Treet Time" morning program on CBS has set to music every one of the Mother Goose rhymes, recorded each on a separate record, with himself playing the flute or the violin. All this to amuse his four-year-old daughter, Carol Sue.

PROGRAMS

Famous Story Radio-ized

NEW YORK.—"Bulldog Drummond" is now on the air. For the first time the colorful adventures of the amateur detective and soldier of fortune are being dramatized for radio, though the stories have previously been adapted from the books for motion pictures. The series replaced Mutual's "Show of the Week" April 6.

"Helen's Home" Expands

NEW YORK.—"Helen's Home" is scheduled to make its bow as a big-time network serial July 7. The series, which is written by Della West Decker, has been heard for some time over a Texas network.

Danger! Program Ahead

NEW YORK.—"Danger Is My Business" is a new program which will be heard over Mutual beginning June 2. It will deal with the adventures of men and women in dangerous occupations and survivors of perilous experiences—movie stunt-men, acrobats, telephone "trouble shooters," animal-trainers and the like.

Unfinished Play—Finished

HOLLYWOOD.—Sherwood Anderson's unfinished play will be presented soon by "The Free Company," probably on the May 4 broadcast. Originally it had been planned to leave the manuscript untouched as a memorial to the author, who died recently. However, increasing demand to hear what Anderson had to say about American freedom resulted in the decision to air the play. The play is titled "Suspicion."

"Reg'lar Fellers" on Air

HOLLYWOOD.—Replacing the Jack Benny program for the summer will be "Reg'lar Fellers," adapted from the famous newspaper comic strip by the same name. Beginning June 8 the show will join the company of other programs taken from newspaper comics—"Blondie," "Gasoline Alley," "Jack Armstrong," etc.

ditional assignment, a part in "Bulldog Drummond," heard Sundays on Mutual . . . Cora Witherspoon, noted for her work in Broadway theatricals and Hollywood films, recently made her debut in daytime serials—as a police matron in "Myrt and Marge" . . . ## LONDON'S WORLD SERVICE IN ENGLISH

GREAT BRITAIN has the greatest short-wave center on earth. It all started only a few years ago, back in 1927, with a 12,000-watt experimental station, G5SW, at Chelmsford. In December of 1932 the British Empire Service was officially inaugurated. The total equipment at that time consisted of one 15,000- and one 20,000-watt transmitter located at Daventry, not far from London. Today, on the same site, there are some thirteen transmitters in more or less continuous operation. The power of each transmitter ranges from 10,000 to 50,000 watts. As many as four simultaneous programs are sent out from Daventry. These include the BBC World Service in English; two separate BBC services for Europe and the BBC foreign service for outside Europe. Daily programs or news periods are broadcast in some twenty-five different languages. To handle all of this ethereal traffic twenty-seven frequencies are employed. Listeners are familiar with the calls for the older frequencies such as GSA, GSC, GSD and GSF but several new ones have been added recently, namely, GRW (6.145), GRR (6.075), GRS (7.065), GRT (7.15), GRU (9.45) and GRV (12.04).

London's complete broadcast schedule is so complex and detailed that it would be impossible to publish it in its entirety; however, since the BBC broadcasts in English are of such timely importance to numerous MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE readers, I am giving them in the following table (kindly bear in mind that London schedules are subject to frequent alteration) Time is Central Standard.

Baby Snooks' Birthday Party

Fanny Brice
Entertains
On April Fool's Day

INVITATIONS, as Snooky as you please, announced contest for press cameramen

TWICE-JINXED by California rain, Baby Snooks' long-heralded birthday party came off March 30, and it was a hilarious affair. Friends and press came out to exclusive Dickson's Ranch dressed "western" and stayed for rodeo stunts, April Fool gags and a luscious steak barbecue. Best gags were pulled by Fanny "Snooks" Brice on her radio Daddy (Hanley Stafford) of the popular Thursday night coffee broadcast. Yelled Snooks, attacking a dainty morsel in her best form at the table above, "Daddy, look what I've got—a piece of snake!"

SNOOKS—the cunning little darling—refused to be fooled by her Daddy when he coaxed, "Come, look at the nice horsie," and under his breath, "I hope he gives you a kick . . ." Late in the evening everybody—which included Ken Murray, John Conte, Meredith Willson, Jerry Colonna, Don Wilson, Roy Rogers, others—went home happy, fully "April Fooled" day before April 1

SMILEY BURNETTE arrived in this ancient Buick. On it he had loaded a very modern cargo of starlets. The western star's car came in handy when Snooks decided to try a running lasso of Daddy Stafford

METROPOLITAN AUDITION WINNERS

CLIMACTIC moment for three young Americans and for thousands of radio music-lovers was recorded by Movie-Radio Guide's photographer as the 1941 winners of NBC's "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" exultantly showed conductor Wilfred Pelletier their prizes—contracts with the Met and thousand-dollar checks. The three, left to right, are Lansing Hatfield, Mary Van Kirk, Mona Paulee. Hatfield is a twenty-nine-year-old Virginian, a Peabody Institute man who's sung with several minor opera companies. Miss Van Kirk, daughter of an Akron, Ohio, policeman, ruined a children's choir with her loud voice but is now a star contralto at Cleveland Institute of Music. And Mona Paulee, who boasts of her "good peasant stock," started as a night-club singer, later won understudy opera roles. For them the event was a real triumph. They were chosen from an original list of 700 singers. They passed preliminary auditions to get a hearing on the program. They survived stiff competition. Now, on the final broadcast, they stand on the threshold of fame—a grand-opera career!

The Songbird of the South, Kate Smith

1. KATE SMITH AND TED COLLINS arrive at studios for their Friday rehearsal at 11 a.m., full of pep. They need it, because they won't leave until the repeat show to the West Coast signs off at 1 a.m. Ted and Kate have worked as a team since Kate's first days in radio, are now organized as the Kated (a combination of their first names) Corporation

2. WELL GROOMED, the Southern Songbird does her own make-up, takes pride in her personal appearance. Her hair and nails are done at Saks-Fifth Avenue. Final dab of powder goes on now

3. CHARLIE AND MIN (Charlie Cantor and Minerva Pious) at the same time are deglamorizing themselves in the only other dressing-room. Audience always giggles at the comic regalia they don for their side-splitting dialect comedy skits

4. DIRECTOR COLLINS cues young Susanna Foster, who appeared with Allan Jones (at mike) in an adaptation of their film, "There's Magic in Music." Walter Kinsella, radio actor (extreme right), was a member of supporting cast. Responsible for all instrumental music on the show is Jack Miller, whose orchestra is seen in background

WITH a deep, confident "Hello, everybody," Kate Smith, best-loved woman in broadcasting, sweeps you each Friday night over CBS into an hour of grand entertainment. This week MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE takes you on a behind-the-scenes visit to Columbia Playhouse No. 2 on 45th Street in New York, where her broadcasts originate. There is nothing of glamour or sophistication in Kate Smith. Nor is there in her radio show. Her personal popularity—Kate again was voted best popular songstress in MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's 1941 Star of Stars Poll—and the popularity of her show alike are based on friendliness, simplicity and outstanding talent. With ten years of broadcasting behind her, Kate is today an impressive figure in radio. She came to CBS as a singing-dancing girl of twenty-one, fresh from a Broadway show. Then for three big-time sponsors she lassoed listeners with "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain" and programs which she and her manager-mentor, Ted Collins, developed into great audience magnets. "The Kate Smith Hour" is now in its third year for the same sponsor. It has introduced to listeners such stars as Abbott and Costello, Henry Aldrich, and, this year, Charlie and Min (Charlie Cantor and Minerva Pious). It has featured guest stars from the front ranks of screen and stage. It has previewed many outstanding motion pictures. On the broadcast which MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE visited, Susanna Foster, amazing new sixteen-year-old film singer, and Allan Jones were guests in a presentation of their new picture, "There's Magic in Music." By 8 p.m. EDT on show nights several hundred persons are crowded into the Playhouse. They have been arriving since 6:45. At 7:55 announcer Ernest Chappell makes his appearance, gives a little speech of welcome and instructions for applause. Ted Collins, in midnight-blue tuxedo, steps to the microphone—after Jack Miller's band plays the theme song—and opens the show, concluding with, "And here is Kate Smith!" Kate, Ted Collins, Ernest Chappell and the orchestra remain on the stage during the entire broadcast. Other performers—guests, actors, Charlie and Min, Ted Straeter and chorus—are spectators off-stage while not actually doing their acts. Jammed into the narrow wings on both sides, they enjoy themselves, dance when the orchestra plays, comment on parts of the show. On cue from Ted Collins they walk briskly on stage and to the mikes. There are two complete dressing-rooms. One is Kate's private room, a home-like, comfortable spot, shared by Kate with her dog, Scottie. The other room is communal. Cluttered with mirrors and make-up kits, it's the place where Ted Straeter's girls primp and the men lounge. No one may leave the studio until the show is over, since all are included in the grand finale, when Kate sings "We're All Americans." Leaving the stage she shakes hands with whoever is in her path, reminds them not to be late for the repeat broadcast at 12 midnight. The atmosphere is as friendly actually as it seems on the air!

"GAY NINETIES REVUE"

5. AS TED STRAETER'S chorus sings, Kate stands to one side, swaying her head in time with the music. She looks at the audience, smiling as she recognizes friends. Straeter also accompanies Kate's solos

6. FOR HER OWN SONGS, Kate always has music, wears glasses. She sings to the audience rather than the mike, has a habit of keeping time by tapping her foot. Sometimes she directs with one hand, displaying large emerald-cut diamond ring. Her script is crisscrossed with penciled notes

7. WITH THE GRAND FINALE all members of the cast are on stage and take bows as Kate comes forward to say, "You have been so kind and generous in your applause—how about a round of applause for our guests? . . ." Then the house lights come on, the audience leaves and the cast retires until midnight repeat show

8. CLOSE-UP OF KATE singing her closing song, "We're All Americans" (reminiscent of "God Bless America"), shows her brown lace dress with diamond horseshoe ornament. Few people know that she does not read music but sings by ear. Millions know that, however she does it, Kate Smith's singing is in a class by itself—and it's tops!

Three Weeks With Jack Benny

No. 1. Jack Benny at Palm Springs

"LET'S go down to Palm Springs and get some real work done—away from the hubbub of Hollywood." That's what Jack Benny told his writers, Eddie Beloin and Bill Morrow, a few weeks ago when he was trying for a start on the script of "Charley's Aunt," current stage revival, which will be his next film. He should have known better! Getting wind of Jack's visit, the local press made it headline news; 30,000 requests for tickets to the broadcasts he was to stage there poured in from residents of the swank resort and surrounding country. Everyone in town wanted to see, talk to, entertain Jack Benny. Among them were movie stars, politicians, socialites, just folks. So Jack shelved "Charley's Aunt," rented a desert home and sent to Hollywood for wife Mary Livingstone and daughter Joan. Not only did the Palm Springs junket turn out to be a pleasant month-long vacation; it convinced Benny that he ought to get around with his show. Results: 1. He has already planned twelve programs to originate outside of Hollywood. 2. "Charley's Aunt" must wait for June 1 and Benny's summer vacation.

Next Week: Jack Benny at Home

THE SHOW MUST GO ON, but Benny and gagmen Bill Morrow (left) and Ed Beloin did their script work in desert attire, as lazily as they could manage, lounging about the house Jack rented for his stay. He had time for a game of golf with Mary every day (if it didn't rain)

IN CARNIVAL Palm Springs Jack Benny gave resorters a show, became big businessman, with badges ranging from "Advisor to Girl Scouts" to "Junior G-Man." His "Indian Guide" assistants are movie starlets Peggy Diggins (l.) and Jinx Falkenberg

FOR THREE broadcasts from the desert colony, tickets were at such a premium that scalpers sold some as high as two for $35, others for five and ten dollars. Thousands of requests were turned down in this celebrity-filled town

SCRIPT-READING IN THE SUN was the order of the day for the troupe. Even little Joan Naomi Benny, age six, enjoyed going over the script on the patio

Photographs by Bruce Bailey

THE OZZIE NELSONS (she's Harriet Hilliard) hold family conference before starting tour which wound up in Hollywood. Junior member is son David

HELEN O'CONNELL, Jimmy Dorsey's vocalist, flashes a smile—and an engagement ring. The lucky man is Fordham's star footballer, Jim Blumenstock

On The Bandwagon

By Maurice Granger

ARTIE SHAW is retiring temporarily from the band business in order to take a rest, probably in Mexico. Maybe Shaw hopes to discover another "Frenesi," which he brought back with him from the last visit he made south of the border. Artie is determined not to re-enter the dance field, asserting that the kind of music which he would have to give out would place limitations upon his desire to play "American music the way I feel it should be played." There are rumors that he is planning to make a jazz "fantasia" with Walt Disney. At any rate he is now in Hollywood, where he will remain for a few weeks before heading for Mexico.

Bright Idea Goes Haywire

That bright idea which the representatives of the sponsors of Benny Goodman had of combining his broadcast with dancing came to grief the very first night it was tried. More than 10,000 jitterbugs were on hand at Manhattan Center to gain admittance to an auditorium which at the most could hold only 6,000 people. As a result there was plenty of pushing and shoving, both inside and out of the place. And when firemen refused to let any more inside, those who were forced to remain outside started a small riot. Police riot squads had to be called out. From now on, say the sponsors' representatives, the audience's participation will be restricted to just looking on and listening.

Glenn Miller-Bobby Byrne Suit Settled

The $25,000 suit which bandleader Bobby Byrne brought against Glenn Miller for allegedly enticing his songstress, Dorothy Claire, away from his band, was dropped the other day when Miss Claire returned to the Byrne band. Bobby claimed he had her under contract. Glenn has engaged Paula Kelly to take over Dorothy's vocalist chores, while Bobby's thrush, Kay Little, moves over to Del Courtney's aggregation.

Bandata

Frankie Carle, Horace Heidt's ace pianist, has been ill for the past nine weeks as the result of a nervous breakdown . . . Shep Fields is another who was hospitalized recently. He underwent an operation for the removal of a cyst on his spine . . . George Hall is retiring from the band business and will turn over his band to Dolly Dawn, his vocalist . . . While the Beverly Twins are playing at the Arcadia Ballroom in New York, all twins will be admitted free. I wonder if that goes for twins who don't happen to look alike? . . . Reports which are being circulated to the effect that Red Norvo has given up his band (because the draft board took most of his players) are wrong. Red says that he has had to cancel a few engagements, but that he will resume as soon as he can engage replacements for the men lost to Uncle Sam . . . Frank Sinatra was placed in the hoosegow the other day when he was caught jaywalking across the street in Hartford, Conn. The cop, it seems, cried for Frank to stop, but Sinatra merely yelled back, "I'm half-way across now." Whereupon the irate minion of the law promptly called a station wagon—but not the kind you might imagine! . . . The Andrews Sisters, who are currently appearing in "Buck Privates," are now in Hollywood making a third movie, titled "Ride 'Em Cowboy." The gals recently concluded a tour of the country, organizing boogie-woogie clubs . . . Charlie Teagarden, younger brother of the famous trombonist-bandleader, Jack Teagarden, will organize a band of his own. Since he left his brother's band, Charlie has been working in a New York musical-show orchestra . . . The music of Xavier Cugat is now being heard over a couple of Philippine radio stations. This is the first time that an American commercial radio program has been heard over any of the Philippine stations.

Purely Personal

Mildred Bailey is apparently determined to carry through her plans to secure a divorce from bandleader Red Norvo, although the latter has been seen constantly in the night-club where she works . . . Gal admirers of Dick Jurgens need not be concerned over reports that he is contemplating marriage with radiactress Phyllis Dobson. They are merely friends, according to the word of both . . . Joe (Pagliacci) Reichman has insured his digits for $150,000. Each hand is insured for $50,000, and each finger for $5,000.

Recordmended

DECCA: "I'm the Lonesome Gal in Town," by Ella Fitzgerald and her orchestra; "The Blues," by Dick Robertson; "The Band Played On," by the Jesters; "Georgia on My Mind," by the Mills Brothers. VICTOR: "I Cover the Waterfront," by Artie Shaw; "My Sister and I," by Bea Wain; "Talking to the Wind," by Teddy Powell. BLUE-BIRD: "Perfidia," by Glenn Miller; "Sahara," by Larry Clinton. COLUMBIA: "I Found a New Baby," by Benny Goodman; "A Rendezvous in Rio," by Xavier Cugat; "I Boogied When I Should Have Woogied," by Will Bradley. ## HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU CAN'T WRITE?

Have you ever tried? Have you ever attempted even the least bit of training, under competent guidance? Or have you been sitting back as it is so easy to do, waiting for the day to come when you will awaken all of a sudden to the discovery, "I am a writer"?

If the latter course is the one of your choosing, you probably never will write. Lawyers must be law clerks. Doctors must be internes. Engineers must be draftsmen. We all know that, in our times, the egg does come before the chicken.

It is seldom that anyone becomes a writer until he (or she) has been writing for some time. That is why so many authors and writers spring up out of the newspaper business. The day-to-day necessity of writing—of gathering material about which to write—develops their talent, their insight, their background and their confidence as nothing else could.

That is why the Newspaper Institute of America bases its writing instruction on journalism—continuous writing—the training that has produced so many successful authors.

Sells Column to Newspaper

The success which has so recently . . . and surprisingly come to me is due to your training. I tendered to a newspaper editor, a column, "HOW TO DEVELOP YOUR PERSONALITY." Imagine my surprise and delight when he bought the column, with enthusiasm. He wants to get syndication. (The column runs daily except Sunday.) I cannot express my gratitude for your help.—Della L. R. Root, 191 South Transit St., Lockport, N. Y.

Learn to write by writing

NEWSPAPER Institute training is based on the New York Copy Desk Method. It starts and keeps you writing in your own home, on your own time. Week by week you receive actual assignments, just as if you were right at work on a great metropolitan daily. Your writing is individually corrected and constructively criticized. Thoroughly experienced, practical, active writers are responsible for this instruction. Under such sympathetic guidance, you will find that (instead of vainly trying to copy someone else's writing tricks) you are rapidly developing your own distinctive, self-flavored style—undergoing an experience that has a thrill to it and which at the same time develops in you the power to make your feelings articulate.

Many people who should be writing become awestruck by fabulous stories about millionaire authors and therefore give little thought to the $25, $50 and $100 or more that can often be earned for material that takes little time to write—stories, articles on business, fads, travels, sports, recipes, etc.—things that can easily be turned out in leisure hours, and often on the impulse of the moment.

A chance to test yourself

Our unique Writing Aptitude Test tells you whether you possess the fundamental qualities necessary to successful writing—acute observation, dramatic instinct, creative imagination, etc. You'll enjoy taking this test. The coupon will bring it, without obligation. Newspaper Institute of America, One Park Avenue, New York. (Founded 1925)

NOTICE Men 21 to 35—

No need to hesitate to test your writing ability, even though you are of conscription age. N. I. A. agrees to refund in full the tuition of anyone accepted as a student who is subsequently called for military service.

LETTERS FROM THE AUDIENCE

Express your opinions. Address, Letters From the Audience, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill.

"Lather" Commercials

Dear Sirs:

When I find a program I like, I listen to it, and I buy that product if I can use it, as I think it only fair to pay that return for the pleasure I derive from the programs. But when the program becomes so full of commercials I not only drop the program but I carefully avoid buying the product. The markets are too wide and varied for any one sponsor to insist that there is no product as good as his.

Another thing that slays me is an announcer who knocks himself completely out over his commercial. Some announcers have complete emotional breakdowns each day over soap. They can scarcely read for their choked-up feelings. I'm sure their favorite grandfathers must have been soap bubbles. Otherwise they couldn't work themselves into such a lather just over a bar of soap. I picture them, after a commercial, pale, perspiring and with clothes askew, being helped to a corner to regain strength so they can go through the whole thing again at the close of the program.

Naomi Hunt, Annapolis, Ill.

What a lot of radio people think is super-salesmanship a lot of average listeners, like the writer of this letter, don't.—The Editors.

Contest Requirements

Dear Sirs:

I appreciate your list of radio contests. But could you not state the full requirements for each? I sent in an entry in a contest. They acknowledged it but said it was of no value without a milk-bottle cap.

M. Lord, Daytona Beach, Fla.

The surest system for entering radio contests is to listen to the program and take down the requirements as they outline them. One purpose of such contests is to get the listener to tune in the program, and there may be clues that he can get only by listening.—The Editors.

Who Died?

Dear Sirs:

Will you please tell me whether one of the team of "Amos 'n' Andy" died a while back? If one died who replaced him? Or was it one of the team of "Pick and Pat" who died?

Mrs. Jeanne Poplin, Sanford, Fla.

"Amos 'n' Andy" and "Pick and Pat" are still intact. Mrs. Poplin is probably thinking of the veteran blackface team of Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, one of whom died a few years ago.—The Editors.

BULLS & BONERS

Bulls and boners are a part of broadcasting. No matter how experienced the performer or how famous the star, chances are that he will make an occasional slip or a statement with twisted meaning which is extremely funny. See how good your ears are. Try to catch broadcasters in some error—the funnier the better—and send your entry to MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago. The most humorous entries will be printed in this column. Watch for your contribution!

Actress on "Grand Central Station": "There's a young gentleman downstairs about sixteen wearing a blue suit with a crude haircut."—Irene Anne Brown, 700 Ninth Ave., Juniata, Altoona, Pa. (March 25 over NBC.)

Announcer: "All she needs to know is how to cook steak and make good coffee with apple pie thrown in."—Mrs. W. M. White, 426 W. Washington St., Monticello, Ind. (March 26 over Station WGN.)

Quin Ryan, news commentator: "The minister to Russia from Yugoslavia resigned because his country joined the Berlin-Romeo Axis."—Florence Miller, East Devils Lake, N. Dak. (March 26 over Station WGN.)

Announcer: "This next number is dedicated to Nellie Bracci who has just returned from the hospital wishing her the best of luck and complete recovery from her two friends Amelia and Antonio."—Cedric Hart, Dore's Sanatorium, Monrovia, Calif. (March 30 over Station KIEV.)

Del Sharbutt on the Lanny Ross program: "All you have to do is to eat it and put it on the table."—Gene Egler, R. R. 2., Atlanta, Ind. (April 1 over CBS.)

Helen Hyde, commentator: "I saw the Swordfish planes looking like sleeping butterflies with their wings folded inside the aircraft carrier Ark Royal after having eaten dinner with the captain."—Victor Koechl, Avon, Conn. (March 31 over Station WNBC.)

Actor on "Lone Journey": "I just heard the 9:15 walking up the hill."—Enid Zinns, 1900 Hoover Ave., Oakland, Calif. (April 2 over NBC.)

"OH, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning"

By Jerry Colonna

TAKE MY ADVICE, don't work for a funnyman—especially if you like to sleep. All I did was pose with some alarm-clocks (see cover), and my boss, Bob Hope, got the idea of planting alarm-clocks in my room to awaken me!

WELL, how do you think YOU'D look in my bed-socks? Anyway, I didn't take it lying down!

WHERE I got the hammer is still a deep mystery, but those bells didn't toll for very long

HOPE HAD to do some fast talking to the two hundred other hotel guests, who got mad when I told them his idea of a gag. Then he had the nerve to tell me, "You had to open your big mouth!" Disgusting, isn't it?
