WHAT does it take to make one a star? Talent, undoubtedly. But talent is not everything. Many persons with exceptional talent have failed miserably in the en-tertainment world. What one needs in addition to talent is showmanship. Showmanship can sometimes make one a star when that person is not too greatly talented. A typical case in point is Kay Kyser. Kay is not a great musician, yet his showmanship has made him one of America's most famous bandleaders. Wherever he goes with his band, records are broken, crowds are thrown into a state of rhapsody. Why? It is because Kay is a superb showman-master of the art of pleasing the public.

Others far more talented in a musical way could take a few lessons from the "Ol' Professor." What are some of his secrets? The first and foremost principle which Kay follows is "to make the crowd think I'm their friend."

He is forever testing the pulsebeat of the dance and music crowd. An interesting example of Ky-

An interesting example of Kyser's superb sense of showmanship was related the other day in Variety, a trade publication. Kay had received a letter from a group of women in Manteca, Calif., who wrote, "Many of us have heard you play in the Bal Tabarin in 'Frisco, but we guess you're too big now to bring your band to Manteca."

Kay showed them how big he was by taking his band to Manteca. He proved that he was big enough to realize that even though he lost a few thousand dollars through having to cancel an engagement in a larger city, he was gaining something far more valuable—the everlasting friendship and regard of an entire community. For that and other exhibitions of showmanship, of which the entertainment world stands in greater need, Movie-Radio Guide applauds Kay Kyser!

HARD work seldom merits cheers in Hollywood. In nine cases out of ten the comment concerning sudden success of an actress is "What a lucky fluke!" No fluke is the steady rise to fame of Rita Hayworth, who hardly more than a year ago was a "publicity clothes-horse" whose screen efforts were confined to weak bit roles. Now twenty-two, Rita looks as though she were born to a life of ease, actually has had little time for play in the whole twenty-two years of her life, which began in New York City.

Slowly, Rita has perfected herself as a competent actress, ignored Hollywood night-life and all that goes with it. Now she comes to the screen as a sudden hit in Tyrone Power's "Blood and Sand." On the heels of this, her studio, Columbia, is co-starring her as a dancing partner of Fred Astaire in "You'll Never Get Rich." This will be the first time Astaire has had an outstanding dancing partner since the days of Ginger Rogers, and the last rung of the ladder which constitutes Rita's steady, earnest climb to the portals of well-deserved fame.

The Editors' Note:

THIS WEEK'S COVER of Bob Hope (right) might be considered a one-picture story of Bob's adventures in his new picture. "Caught in the Draft." The movie itself is a riot, but even funnier is Hope's own description of it on pages 6-7, this issue. The unusual color photo was made on the set by Movie-Radio Guide's Jack Albin.

THIS WEEK: The crying season is on again in Hollywood. Certain movie-makers are complaining that the "box-office" is dropping off seriously, and the suspicion grows that to offset this situation many a little secretary and small-salaried worker may soon be in jeopardy of their jobs. This is ridiculous. Remember how movie-makers were horrified at the loss of the foreign markets? They lost them, yet business was as good as ever for most studios.

The trouble sits right on Hollywood's doorstep, and save for a few outstanding producers, eyes are shut to real facts. If the public stays away from pictures, it stays away because pictures lack quality. Hollywood right now is busy remaking old plots simply because those old plots were once "big boxoffice." Everybody wants the sure thing. And when the latest flop is previewed everybody "covers up." Special exploitation and whirlwind publicity campaigns "hypo" pictures, fool Hollywood into thinking a good job has been done.

It is a fact that there are a handful of producers who haven't had a solid hit picture for years. Yet they go on drawing huge salaries, blaming everything from the economic situation to what's happening on the African front for public apathy.

Hollywood can take a lesson from radio. Every day the airwaves produce dozens of shows—some good, some bad. Entertainment pours out of radio in a perpetual stream. There are no

"big name" producers who take bows among themselves in radio. For the most part, radio producers are young men with average salaries of around $250. While Hollywood is amazed no end at the genius of Orson Welles with his "Citizen Kane," movie producers haven't awakened to the fact that there are a half-dozen "Orson Welles" in radio who could do better than the film production genii who have shot their bolts.

Who? Irving Reis, who produced the Coast end of Archibald MacLeish's "The States Talking" program in "The Free Company" series and other outstanding programs. He has produced more good entertainment in six months than many a Hollywood genius does in six years. There are others, including Vic Knight, who has been with Eddie Cantor for years.

What's the solution for Hollywood? It doesn't rest in firing the small fry but in cleaning out the deadwood that really is responsible for entertainment the public doesn't want to see. This hasn't been a pleasant editorial to write—we are glad we have it off our collective chests!

NEXT WEEK: Putting out a publication week after week is mostly hard work, but once in a while there is a high moment. Such a thrill comes next week. It's the cover—Sandra (Baby Sandy) Henville and her baby brother in full color—as appealing a picture as ever published. Watch for it!—The Editors.

Old-Time Swim Party for Stars

To News Desk:

I'M JUST back from the dizziest event I've seen in Hollywood for a long time. It was gagman Milton Berle's swimming-party harking back to the dear dead days when a bathing beauty was the backbone of the movie industry. Fifty guests came, most of them in real old-time bathing-suits. Mack Sennett, the Ziegfeld of early bathing-beauty comedy films, was guest of honor. He picked as 1941 Glamour Girls: Judy Garland, Ann Miller, Carole Landis, Patti McCarty, Bonita Granville, Linda Darnell and Sheila Ryan. The party cost $1,000—and, boss, not a drop of liquor was served, believe it or not!—D. R.

JACKIE COOPER does a lifeguard strut for admiring Bonita Granville. Party was at Beverly Hills Sand and Pool Club

BURGESS MEREDITH, who has been carrying on for his friend Jimmy Stewart with the girls, plays with Frances Neal

"BIG" HIT of the party was Laird Cregar, threehundred-twenty-pound actor who made his movie debut in "Hudson's Bay." Here he dances with the girl who brought him, Georgia Hawkins

The Gag That Backfired

Most Fun This Week:

BY ACCIDENT the party just missed being the scene of Judy Garland and Dave Rose's first quarrel. As a picture gag, Judy was to smack Dave in the face with a pie (first picture at right). Dave wasn't supposed to smack the pie right back in Judy's face—but, involuntarily, he did, with the result seen in center picture. Judy was taken aback, a bit peeved. But Judy and Dave made up soon (extreme right) without real fuss

Jackie Cooper-the Wonder Boy

To Feature Desk:

AGREE that Jackie Cooper rates a story after his fine piece in "Ziegfeld Girl" and appreciate the assignment. I've been pretty close to him for the last three years. He was fifteen when we met, a little rough around the edges. He's a much brighter lad than he was then and is twenty pounds heavier. It's always been my theory that there is something wrong with obviously nice boys. Mark Cooper down as the exception. He is a complete gentleman at all times-it doesn't matter whether he's talking to the star in a picture or house in Beverly Hills bought for him and Bonita.

school learned what sort of lad he really was when he went there after he began to "lay an egg" in the awkward age. The principal called his handled himself very well. His family her, Jackie is eighteen now. There's a personal sincerity about Bonita Granville was always around Jackie you find in few people. In his in the background, but he never paid work there is no one outside of Spencer with the whole gang hanging around much attention to her. About a year Tracy who matches the depth of his ago Jackie stopped seeing Judy and performances. He's a small edition of Tracy with a touch of Gary Cooper; but better than any of that, he's strictly Bonita and Jackie are really a cute Jackie Cooper and a man to watch.

BRIDGING THE AWKWARD AGE by retiring rather than bluff his way, Jackie rose to stardom again in 1937 in a come-back picture, "Boys of the Streets." Today he earns over $2,000 weekly. A drummer, he and his friends (above) enjoy jam sessions. Singer is Judy Garland

BEST SCENES of Jackie's career are those as Lana Turner's brother in the M-G-M picture "Ziegfeld Girl" (above). This role marks him as definitely an accomplished actor, in spite of his youth, a personality to watch

Movie-Radio Guide Recommends: "Caught in the Draft"

"HOW TO GET IN GOOD with your girl's father. I thought he was an actor and that made him mad. What does that make me?" asks Hope. Well, he wins the girl (Dorothy Lamour) though she escorted him to a real recruiting sergeant instead of a phony, thereby making sure he joined Army

5. "SO I SMASHED into the Colonel's automobile while trying to take in the double feature, 'Tanks for the Memory' "is Bob's way of passing this one off. The tank is something Paramount's prop department will remember, too. They couldn't get a real

2. "NOT THAT I WANTED to get flat feet to avoid the draft, but I thought I might look better in my wedgies" is Bob's explanation for this one. Additional style note: Since the Army has changed its uniform, Paramount had to employ three shifts of tailors for weeks to make new, correctly styled uniforms

3. "SO ME, WISE GUY, I thought the phony sergeant was at the desk as I 'enlisted.' I gave him the office. He gave me the business and the works." That's how Bob describes the basic plot of "Caught in the Draft," in which he gets into the Army by mistake as the result of a grandstand play to girl friend

WHAT BOB HOPE LEARNED IN THE "ARMY"

4. "WHEREUPON I PEELED to much I felt like Sally Rand. I'm one of her fans you know," is Hope's cute way of captioning this picture. In the actual filming of the scene, he peeled potatoes for about a half a day, got to be quite an expert at it too, as did Bert (Eddie Bracken), Steve (Lynne Overman, r.)

6. SAYS HOPE: "This picture really belongs in 'Esquire' with a caption reading 'What the well-dressed guard on duty without his pants on will try to get away with.' "In addition to its timeliness, "Caught in the Draft" is the ideal type of picture for Hope because it shows off his fast-talking and wisecracking brand of humor to the best advantage

7. "HERE'S WHERE I ALMOST got 'Caught in the Draft' again," explains Hope, "but my blond nurse-girl friend covered up for me. She had to!" Major Harold E. Hopping, technical advisor, obtained some old maps to be used in the picture. In taking them out of their case, Brig. General Harcourt Hervey's Croix de Guerre, which had been missing for fifteen years, was found!

8. "WHEN THE Colonel caught me guarding his daughter in the bedroom, he didn't think the scene would pass the national board of review," gags Bob. Goings-on in this film wouldn't happen in a real army, but they're fun

9. "I MARRY the Colonel's daughter, which proves to everybody but the Colonel that all's fair in love or war," explains Hope. And that tells how "Caught in the Draft" turns out for Bob Hope!

What promises to be one of the biggest smash hits of the current vogue in service comedies is Paramount's "Caught in the Draft," starring Bob Hope. Because Hope is such a funny fellow, we thought you'd like to hear about the picture direct from him. So here you are.

Pork and bean Rice pudding Salad Salute

By Bob Hope

WERE you ever in the Army? No? Well, you may be any minute, so don't brag. Take me for example. The Army wouldn't, but maybe you will. I was in the "Army" for six weeks making
"Caught in the Draft" for Paramount, and maybe you'd like to know what Army life is like. To give you a rough idea:

I started off by being scared to death by a .45 Colt automatic and falling kerplunk right into a slimy, oozy mud puddle right when I was trying to make an impression on Dorothy Lamour, who plays Tony, the daughter of a U. S. Army "mess sergeant" (that's doughboy talk for a colonel).

Then, I think that the "brass hat" (officer) who is visiting my movie set is an extra and toss mud on him to get him into character . . . I find out my error later when I make another mistake and enlist accidentally in the real Army-and he's my commanding officer! Funny, he never does seem to like me after our first meeting. And he keeps bringing up the issue at various timessuch as when he discovers me on guard duty at the nurses' barracks with only underwear on under my overcoat. What's wrong with that?

His daughter Tony (that's Lamour and very tony, too) tries to get me a job driving his car, but the meanie transfers me to a tank corps instead. I still can't see why the Colonel got sore when a blond hitchhiking nurse we had picked up tickled me in the ribs and caused me to smash the tank into his automobile. The Colonel was covered by insurance, wasn't he? That's when I started my course in learning how to peel potatoes. After two tons of spuds, I finish just in time to get tossed into the guardhouse for wandering off the reservation and into Tony's bedroom. I was only chasing a nightmare, wasn't I? Everything is all right after that, except that I make another slight error in my aim and shoot off the Captain's favorite toe, and later jump from a transport plane without a parachute on. I turn out to be a very brave guy (who, me?) in the end and I win the Colonel's daughter. But I still can't remember what I did with my uniform breeches and blouse. It was very embarrassing to turn up at my own wedding without them!

So let that be a lesson to you, men. Always salute the colonel. He'll like that.

DOROTHY COMINGORE (she is the second wife of Charles Kane): "He's the richest man in America. Well, of course I love him"

GEORGE COULOURIS: "Charles Foster Kane is nothing more or less than a communist!" (Coulouris plays the part of the guardian of Citizen Charles Kane)

RIJTH WARRICK (she portrays the role of publisher Charles Foster Kane's first wife): "He's wonderful. I'm going to marry him next week at the White House"

EVERETT SLOANE (Charles Kane's loyal editor): "Sure, Kane started the war, but if he hadn't, do you think the United States would have the Panama Canal?"

Direct from the characters of the picture itself come these revealing descriptions!

BECAUSE Orson Welles' "Citizen Kane" rapidly is becoming the most-talked-about picture of the year, and because hundreds of opinions about it have been published and broadcast, Movie-Radio Guide feels what actual characters in the play have to say about Kane in the picture itself should be interesting, presents those opinions herewith. Hailed on one extreme as the most important picture of the decade, treated as just another run-of-the-mill production on the other, "Citizen Kane" must have something to arouse the storm of comment it has. Perhaps there's a clew to be found in the statements of the different characters in the play on this page, many of the actors as new to films as Welles himself, who rang the box-office bell his first try before cameras, shouldering writing-producing-acting responsibilities—while he did it!

ERSKINE SANFORD: "Charles Foster Kane is a ————" (Sanford is the editor who worked on the "Enquirer" before it was taken by Kane) RAYCOLLINS (politician who ruined Kane's political aspirations): "Kane governor? Listen, when the voters of this state learn what I've found—!"

AGNES MOOREHEAD (as Kane's mother): "Of course I love him. He's a great boy. I gave him sixty million dollars"

JOSEPH COTTEN: "Maybe you're right. That's what all the girls say about him at first." (Cotten is Kane's college chum, one of his employes)

Today in Hollywood

All studios and every actor and actress is cooperating with the government these days to make newsreel sequences and radio transcriptions boosting the sale of Defense Savings Bonds and stamps. Nor in most cases were the actors acting; like Penny ("Blondie") Singleton, they generally bought the bonds they were photographed buying.

Calling Gable, Taylor

No sooner does a name actor get off on a needed vacation until his home studio begins paging him to return. Such is the case of both Robert Taylor and Clark Gable. Taylor, vacationing in the East with Barbara Stanwyck and shopping for an orphan to adopt, is wanted quickly by M-G-M to make "When Ladies Meet" with Joan Crawford and Greer Garson. Gable, whose vacation is well protected by contract, is desired likewise to co-star with Joan Crawford, but in "Somewhere I'll Find You." La Crawford's stock is tops since her "A Woman's Face."

Hess to Screen

To cash in quickly on the world's most astounding news event of the year, Warner Bros. have inserted a Rudolph Hess flight to England sequence in that lot's soon-to-be-re-leased picture, "Underground." The film deals with the anti-Nazi activity seething within Germany today, and the Hess escape is considered a significant proof of disharmony within the Hitler ranks, and therefore an element of the screen play. Frank Wilcox will be the movie Hess.

Likewise capitalizing on news, 20th Century-Fox has announced, on the heels of their elopement, that Alice Faye and Phil Harris will be costarred in a Mack Gordon and Harry Warren musical picture entitled "Great Guns."

Nazi Film Menace

Nazi propaganda organ "Facts in Review" claims that during the past year tremendous gains have been made by the German film industry, indicates that in the "new world order" the Axis movies will play an important "educational" role. The gains, of course, are in occupied countries; the education will depend on who wins the war!

More Trouble for Orson

Because the Mexican government is wary of its relations with the Nazis, it has refused Orson Welles permission to make an anti-Nazi film in Mexico. Plot of the story is action of a young American who helps to nip a Nazi coup in the bud in the land below the Rio Grande. Official excuse offered was that it would offend the national dignity, implication being the Mexicans were unable to defend themselves. However, Welles—after his notable "Citizen Kane"—is much in demand. Warners wants him to make "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and Towne and Baker want him

Gable Near Home

Clark Gable has returned as far west as Las Vegas, Nevada, from his eastern vacation, and last week was registered at the swank El Rancho Vegas. Frances Langford, embraced too enthusiastically by Ken Murray in a love scene for "Radio Revels of 1942," suffered a sprained back. NO. 2: WHEN WILL JUDY GARLAND MARRY?

Reports from inside sources that Judy Garland will have a birthday party June 10 and announce her engagement to Dave Rose are denied and denial may be true, but Judy originally did intend to announce her engagement sometime in June, and could have been dissuaded only by her mother, who definitely approves her romantic interest in the talented young composer-arranger. Also denied is the fact that Judy has wedding plans. This is hokum.

Judy already knows just what her wedding will be like and who will be there besides herself and the groom. Check this against what happens later. Judy will have only a small wedding when she has one—a wedding about a quarter the size of Deanna's, but Judy will invite almost all of Hollywood to her engagement party. ### Mrs. Kane Wins Plum

Dorothy Comingore, skyrocketed to stardom by her part as the second wife of "Citizen Kane," has been assigned to the romantic lead opposite Edmond O'Brien in RKO's "Unexpected Uncle." Charles Coburn has been obtained to play the uncle role previously planned for the recently injured Thomas Mitchell.

Pidgeon Wins Plum

Walter Pidgeon, who is reported to have established himself as a star of the first water in the not-yet-pre-viewed 20th Century-Fox picture "Man Hunt," will stay at that studio for another starring assignment as the lead in "How Green Was My Valley."

Other Deals Set

Jane Wyatt, recently signed by RKO-Radio to carry the second lead in "Unexpected Uncle," has been loaned out to Republic to make her first picture under her RKO contract. Republic asked for her as lead in "Hurricane Smith," in which, strangely enough, she will play a character named Joan Wyatt. During the week Paramount Studios announced they had signed Alberto Vila, number 1 Latin-American screen star, to a seven-year contract. Columbia Pictures contracted anew with Harriet Hilliard, wife of Ozzie Nelson.

Movie-Radio Guide

CRITICS' REPORT

WE MAKE no apology for our Column this week. It's somewhat on the bitter side, You can blame that on one W. R. Wilkerson, who wrote the following line one day in his trade paper, the Hollywood Reporter: "There's something wrong with the picture business at this point," Mr. Wilkerson says. "The box-office has dropped too low to ever refer to it as a slump-it's a washout!"

This Hollywood sage-and he is one -has numerous reasons for his statement. This columnist, purely an ob-server for the last ten years, can speak only from the customer's side of the matter. Hollywood, we think, is mighty lucky that those who review pictures are as kind as they are. Hol-lywood needs more than anything else a good strong dose of the truth. Herewith is some of that, so pull up a chair, you movie moguls:

For one thing, you boys seem to think about everything but your busi-ness, and that's story-telling. You want a big-name producer, a bigname star, a big publicity campaign, a big premiere. And after you get all done with boiling all these BIG elements together, a pint-sized thirty-five-dollar-a-week critic walks in on your picture, takes one look and mumbles, "It st-ks!" The sad part of it is that the critic usually is right.

Now don't send us messages saying, "If you could do better, why don't you?" We'd take you up on that for $1,500 a week, but for that $1,500 you wouldn't have a writer. You'd merely have a man who was so worried about protecting that huge sum he'd borrow every tried and true situation to make sure his picture didn't flop.

BIG money is paid for good stories, but when the manuscript becomes celluloid it is shot through with routine situations, directed, acted in the old pattern. Result: A LITTLE picture. Perhaps we shouldn't have brought the subject up at all. It only means a huge stack of mail from readers who have been complaining to us for weeks in the same vein. Then we'll go right on as we have before-looking for a good story, finding it in one picture out of five

NOW THAT the public is discovering "Gone With the Wind" is a shade less amazing than its publicity, a great new drama is nearing completion at 20th-Fox titled "Belle Starr" and starring Gene Tierney. It is the story of the real aftermath of the Civil War. Above: Gene (center), Dana Andrews and Louise Beavers

THE WEEK

tries again to be a Thespian in "Too Many Blondes"

"Sunny"

Cast: Anna Neagle, Ray Bolger, John Carroll, Edward Everett Horton, Grace and Paul Hartman, Frieda Inescourt, Helen Westley, et al. An RKO-Radio release; produced and directed by Herbert Wilcox. Screen play by Sig Herzig from the musical comedy "Sunny."

WHEN Marilyn Miller was the sweetheart of Broadway, *Sally" and "Sunny." During the past couple of years a talented British actress, Anna Neagle, and her producing-directing mentor have been trying to do a Marilyn Miller on the screen. "Alice Blue Gown" was good, "No, No, Nanette" was very bad, but Miss Neagle's latest, "Sunny," will boost the dancing, singing English lady's stock considerably.

Of course, she is helped tremendously by the dancing ability of Ray Bolger, the love-scenes and singing of John Carroll, and the comedy of the Hartmans, Edward Everett Horton and others in the supporting cast. But, for all their help, Anna must be given applause for her work in this screen musical. She was applauded by the preview audience, which goes to prove the

A big lift will be given the lethargic career of Bolger, too, by this production.

VERDICT: On the RKO lot, Ginger Rogers tired of dancing pictures and went in for heavy drama to win an Academy Award. On the same lot, Anna Neagle has tabled such dramatic successes as Queen Victoria to win laurels as a singing dancer. That's Hollywood. This is a good picture.—C. S.

"Too Many Blondes"

Cast: Rudy Vallee, Helen Parrish, Lon Chaney, Jr., Jerome Cowan, Shemp Howard, Iris Adrian, et al. A Universal picture: produced by Joseph G. Sanford and directed by Thornton Freeland. Screen play by Maxwell Shane and Louis S. Kaye.

DEAR Rudy Vallee:

After all these years of knowing you and with my evaluation of you going up every year, I was a pretty sick critic last Tuesday night when I hopefully saw your new Universal picture, "Too Many Blondes." I wanted and all your friends wanted you to be good, for you are a swell person, we all agree. So naturally we were pulling for you.

But the story, budget and what-not let us down. It wasn't a bad picture, nor was it good. It was so-so, and mediocrity is one thing I know you don't like. To be a good actor, I know, is one of your fondest ambitions. So cheer up. I think you were a much better actor this trip than your last several times to the screen.

For the answer, watch your radio playmate, John Barrymore. Never in John's life has anyone taken a scene away from him. You can be just as good. I know you will be eventually, because a Rudy Vallee is a perfectionist, and a perfectionist just keeps on going until he is tops.

VERDICT: This little comedy has one virtue—it only lasts one hour. Vallee gets in some very good singing, and the trio has Martha Tilton doubling for Helen Parrish for harmony. It's strictly light fare, okay for the family, but not a rave.

—E. P.

SCENE OF THE WEEK

NOTHING IS LOVELIER than a beautiful woman who dances well, and Anna Neagle proves it in her dance numbers from "Sunny." Scenes at right are from one of the sequences in which Miss Neagle makes up for the not-quite-so-interesting "No, No, Nanette." There is no more refreshing personality on the screen today than lovely Anna Neagle. Those who wish to argue this point with Movie-Radio Guide critics can do so after they have seen the picture

End of Monday Programs

THE REMAINDER OF THIS WEEK'S PROCRAMS FOLLOWS ON PAGE 24

THE FEEDING of this lion cub, Elmer Blurt, was heard on Al Pearce's show. Charles Gay (left), head of a California lion farm, gives Pearce pointers BLOND LOUISE KING gained singing fame in Canada, stepped into solo spot on "Contented Program," is now feminine vocalist on "Hit Parade"

MRS. MARY A. AMBROSE, 85, oldest person to receive "Pot o' Gold," gets autograph of Horace Heidt upon his visit to her home town, Buffalo

BACK AT WORK after marriage are Pauline Byrns and Jerry Pre-shaw, singers in Six Hits and a Miss group on Bob Hope's show

by Martin Lewis

A SHORT time ago we had occasion to drop into a studio in NBC's New York headquarters, where we found a number of small children sitting around a table with earphones clamped to their ears. They were laughing and talking animatedly. Suddenly their voices were stilled. An-nouncer Ben Grauer was saying, "Come in, London."

For a moment thereafter there was an interval of silence, and then a thin eight-year-old boy, his voice tight with excitement, cried into the microphone, "Hello, Mummy . . . hello, Pops . . . This is David in America."

From across the sea came back the reply, "David, my child! It's good to hear you, son!"

You can imagine just how good the sound of that child's voice made the mother in London feel. Standing there in the studio, listening to the ex-changes of "cheeries" and halting, heartfelt greetings, we suddenly real-ized that in making possible a momentary reuniting of these British child refugees with their parents back home, radio was indeed playing a Good Samaritan role.

There have been more than a dozen of these broadcasts since they were begun last October. Through them more than 150 children have been able to speak with their parents. Another of these heart-throbbing conversations will take place June 1 at 1:00 p.m. EDT. If you haven't as yet heard one, then tune in at that time. It will be an experience that you will not easily forget. What do the kiddles and their fathers and mothers talk about when they converse with one another? The war? Its hardships? Not at all. On the contrary, the conversations are about ordinary things—what the children are doing in their new-found homes, things about their old homes—their dogs, kittens, pet turtles, aunts, uncles, cousins left behind . . . school, old playmates—familiar things, the mention of which tightens the throats of both parent and child.

Some of the children request that their toys be sent to them. One boy asked for his bike. Another said, "Daddy, you might send me my cricket bat, because there is a cricket club in New York and I am going to have a knock at the net sometime.

To us their accents are definitely British, but to the parents it appears that the children are acquiring Ameri-

GENERAL

No Government Control

St. Louis, Mo .- "Neither the government nor two or three private groups shall control broadcasting in this country," said FCC chairman James L. Fly in assuring the National Broadcasting Company that the Federal Communications Commission's recent order to dispose of one of the two NBC networks did not presage taking over of radio by the government. He added: "There is no present that state, who created the kindly but forceful old common-sense philosopher, "Josh Higgins of Finchville," a network favorite for years, has quit NBC, and, with the network's good-will, has transferred his activity to Burlington, Iowa, to become manager of a new radio station. Striking was the tribute paid the radio character only a few days before he left the air by commentator Capt. E. D. C. Herne on his NBC morning news program: "It is a great pity that these dictators cannot be forced to spend a few hours each day with my friend, 'Josh Hig-gins of Finchville.' If these dictators only had one-millionth part of his homely philosophy and good common sense there would be no wars . . .'

Today in Radio

Chairman Fly says "no government control"; Kate Smith forms song company; Josh Higgins goes home can accents. An Americanism frequently used by the children is the word "Okay."

In another of the broadcasts a father couldn't believe it was his son talking.

But he had a way of finding out.
"Snort, Allan," he said. "Snort like a pig-you know, like you used to."

A not so amusing incident occurred, however, when a mother in speaking to her daughter remarked that she had forgotten and had set a plate for her at the dinner table.

Back in the New York studio a little girl blinked hard and exclaimed, "Oh, Mummy . . . dear Mummy!"

That over-the-sea broadcast left your reporter with a terrific lump in foreseeable emergency which would result in the government's taking over the broadcasting industry."

Kate Has Song Company

New YORK.-Kate Smith and her manager, Ted Collins, have formed a song-publishing company, which they have named Collwill Music. The firm is beginning business with three songs, including Miss Smith's latest patriotic tune, "We're All Americans." "We're All Americans" was written by Jim

Josh Higgins Goes Home

CHICAGO.—"Josh Higgins" has gone home to Iowa. Joe DuMond, native of

War Baby Can Take It

LONDON.—Listeners in America who heard John MacVane, NBC's London reporter, make the following observation, didn't get the whole of the story. Said MacVane: "Will the babies of wartime Britain consider in years to come that quiet nights and days are abnormal and out of the ordinary? One baby I know of last night in London heard the crash of gunfire and the noise of hostile planes. Coming on his first night on earth, the sounds didn't seem to have any effect on him at all. For the baby these sounds will probably be just customary noises, like the sound of the wind in the trees and the surf on the shore . . ." The new-born baby that MacVane was referring to was his own. It was born in the midst of a London air raid.

SIDELIGHTS

Beulah Carries On

CHICAGO.-It has come to light that Marlin Hurt did his clowning with a heavy heart on the initial broadcast of the new "College Humor" show. Only a couple of hours before broadcast time Marlin received word of the death of his mother in DuQuoin, III. He went through his comedy routine as colored-maid Beulah in characteristic funny fashion, then left immediately after the show for his home

Duck Has High Ideas

CHICAGO.—Pat Barrett, who plays Uncle Ezra on the radio Saturday nights and hangs out at his Hebron, Ill., farm most of the remainder of the week, is about ready to move into the city for privacy. All because a duck is living contrary to duck nature on Pat's farm. Mallard ducks usually nest on the ground but this one is serenely ensconced in a home thirty feet up in a tree. People from miles around have been coming to see the high-minded duck, disturbing the peace and quiet of Pat's farm. Suggestion: They might put Quiz Kid Gerard Darrow on the case!

Very Special Request

New York.—Boake Carter, the news analyst, received the following letter from a lady in Michigan. It read:

"Dear Sir

"My husband's birthday is May 16. I wish you would please sing these songs at 5:45 a.m. They are 'Nobody's Darling' and 'How Dry 1 Am.'

"Thank you. We will be listening, as we do enjoy your program best."

Take a Bow, Fred

Hollywood,—Freeman Gosden and Charlie Correll ("Amos 'n' Andy") returned to Hollywood after a fortnight's business vacation in New York with this to say: "That Fred Allen is the finest and greatest artist we've ever worked with. Our exchange of guest appearances on each other's broadcast was an outstanding highlight for us in our many years of broadcasting."

Munn's Loyal Fans

New York.—Frank Munn's absence from "American Album of Familiar Music" and "Waltz Time" early in May, because of a severe bronchial cold, prompted thousands of his fans to write inquiring about his condition. The deluge has been recorded as among the highest received at NBC in New York.

Modeling by Ear

famous artist, is listening to the NBC serial "Against the Storm" in his studio each day, and he's drawing a set of character studies based on his air impressions. He has never seen any of the performers who play in the sketch.

PERSONAL

Casualties Numerous

Hollywoop.—John Barrymore, recently bedridden by the flu, was unable to broadcast on the May 15 Vallee show on account of laryngitis, but comedian Frank Fay did a superb job of pinch-hitting, Connie Boswell, who was to have played the cello on the May 15 Crosby show, cut her untoughened finger-tips on the cello strings while practising and had to delay the musical treat. Edward G. Robinson, with painfully injured knee suffered on the movie set of "Manpower," broadcast May 14 regardless. Donald Woods, "Those We Love" actor, had his tonsils removed May 7, with no complications.

Bea Wain to Tour

New York.—Bea Wain, now that she has been replaced on "Hit Parade" by tall, blond Louise King, will soon take a singing swing around the vaudeville circuits. She hopes to make more money on the stage than in radio.

Steel to England

New York.—Johannes Steel, Mutual's news commentator, left for London, where he will spend two weeks gathering a first-hand view of the course of the war. Coincident with his departure Elmer Davis left London, England, for a return to the United States. He had been on the same mission.

Snooks Catches Grunion

Santa Monica, Calif.—Fanny Brice, radio's Baby Snooks, who has been vacationing at the ocean here between broadcasts, now believes in the grunion fable. Always skeptical when people told her of the little fish which run on California beaches like smelt at certain seasons, Fanny saw her beachfront alive with grunion one night last week, so she assembled her guests and proceeded to catch several bushels of them.

Director-Skipper Sails

CHICAGO.—Blair Walliser, director of numerous radio shows and co-owner with actor Ken Griffin of the renowned Lake Michigan sailing yacht Revenge, is off on a three-week Pacific cruise. Object, besides pleasure, is to pick up practical tips on navigation, looking toward a commission in the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve.

PROGRAMS

"Hollywood Premiere" Sticks

Hollywood.—Louella Parsons' controversial "Hollywood Premiere" series will not end as expected June 27, but will be continued indefinitely on a paid-guest-star policy, according to latest word from the agency officials. Incidentally, this show was the scene of a record long-distance audition May 9. Merie Oberon appeared on the show and immediately afterward she received an offer to do a series of broadcasts over an Australian network. Picture commitments prevented any possible deal.

Charlie Seeks Singer

HOLLYWOOD. — Charlie McCarthy's coffee program is still casting about for a feminine musical foil for Donald Dickson. Under consideration are movie songstresses Ruth Terry and Susanna Foster. Auditions are still being held, however.

Heatter Vacations

NEW YORK.—Gabriel Heatter, for four years master of ceremonies of "We, the People," takes a leave of absence beginning with this week's broadcast—his first vacation from the program since he succeeded Phillips Lord. Edgar A. Guest will handle the show in Heatter's absence. There is speculation whether Heatter will return to the program in the fall because of the pressure of his news-comment broadcasts.

MATINEE IDOL Victor Mature was rehearsing for "Lincoln Highway" when blond Charlotte Green walked in, pointed watergun at him and demanded that he take her to lunch. Recovering his poise, the debonair Mature complied—and Charlotte collected a twenty-five-dollar wager

SHORTS

First tune to be heard over MBS upon the return of ASCAP music to that network was "Bedelia," by William Jerome and Jean Schwartz. It was played by Jan Garber's band the night of May 13, at the time the new contract became effective . . . The six most-requested numbers on the Fred Waring "Pleasure Time" program are:
"The Lord's Prayer," "Ave Maria,"
"The Rosary," "Lost Chord," "Finlandia" and "Star Dust" . . . Franklyn
MacCormack, announcer for Wayne King's program and "College Humor," has completed 100,000 miles of air travel, is getting the private-plane bug himself . . . Thor Ericson, who used to play Yonny Yohnson when "Kaltenmeyer's Kindergarten" was on the air, was inducted into the Army May 28 . . . NBC farm announcer Everett Mitchell received many mes-sages of sympathy from listeners when his mother died recently . . . National release will be given June 6 to the Paramount one-reeler dramatizing the production of the air serial "Those We Love." All the stars of the sketch are seen in the short, and Jimmle Fidler does the narration . . . Harlow Wilcox, "Hollywood Premiere" announcer, has started building a nineroom home in Encino, Calif. . . . Dennis Day is preparing to go on a stageappearance tour beginning June 5... Hugh Rowlands (Skip in the new "Wings on Watch" serial) is taking a special Army course preparatory to becoming a flying instructor, since he's an experienced private pilot.

1808: Jefferson Davis, president of the Southern Confederacy, born in Abbeville, Ky.

MUSIC NOTES. Another of radoby sainten to the National Federation of Music Clubs, which meets in Los Angeles June 19, will take place this Saturday over NBC. The program will begin with vongs by Martha Tilton, will begin with vongs by Martha Tilton, will take place the Saturday over NBC. The program will begin with vongs by Martha Tilton, will be the East man School Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Howard Hanson.

Edwin McArthur, brilliant American conductor, will conduct the "NBC Symphony Orchestra Saturday evening in six movements of Handels" Water Music, it is interesting to note that for many years it was be leved that the composition was written for the purpose of appearing the wrath of George I, King of England, which had been evoked when the King permitted Handel to visit England—George having been at that time Electro of Hanover. Later he succeeded to the English throne ... is Thomas Beecham, conductor, will probably make his last appearance of the Ranover. Later he succeeded to the English throne ... is Thomas Beecham, conductor, will probably make his last appearance of the Colors. It is understood, however, that the authorites have cooperated with him by stationing the players near places where they can be available for concerts A spring and summer sea soin of chamber music by the Haddo City Music Hall String Gynghony under the direction of Murice Baron) will feature lesser known works for chamber music ensembles, including a number of compositions by contemporary composers, both of the U. Look at your radio, Mr. and Mrs. Listener! Has it a short-wave band? Do you ever use it? Or are you the kind of person to whom short-wave tuning is complicated and difficult?

BY CHARLES A. MORRISON

If you are that type of person, it's time to wake up. All over the world events of signal importance are occurring. A titanic struggle, which may become our own battle in time, is being waged. As the owner of a short-wave radio you are privileged to get firsthand information of that struggle. All you have to do to have a ringside seat in every theater of war is to learn to use the short-wave band on your radio!-The Editors.

ATURALLY foreign stations do broadcast in foreign languages. They also broadcast in English. All leading world stations broadcast regular daily transmissions to North America. If you want to hear Jack Benny, you must know what time he comes on and over what station. By the same token you must learn, for example, that London broadcasts to us nightly from 6:20 p.m. to 12:45 a.m. EDT, that Berlin broadcasts from 5:50 p.m. to 12:00 midnight EDT.

What are called short waves cover a lot of territory and include many types of service other than broadcasting of programs. There are police, aircraft, amateur, telephone, television stations, and many other kinds. Broadcast stations can be found on, and only on, certain little spots on the short-wave band. For sake of easy identification these spots are known as the 16-meter band, the 19-meter band, the 25-meter band, the 31-meter band and the 49-meter band. Your short-wave band, or bands, will be divided off into divisions similar to inch marks on a ruler. The main division marks will bear numbers-6, 7, 8, 9, and so on, probably up to 18 or 20. Each of these numbers indicates the frequency in megs (megacycles); for example, 6 would be 6 megs, 7 would stand for 7 megs, and so on. In MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE the station's frequency is always given in megs, as GSD (11.75), which simply means that GSD is operating on 11.75 megs, or half-way between 11½ and 12 megs on the dial. The 16-meter band will be found near 18 megs on your dial; the 19-meter band will be found near 15 megs; the 25-meter band will be found near 12 megs; the 31-meter band between 9 and 10 megs and the 49-meter band near 6 megs on the dial. These various bands may be indial. These various bands may be indicated as little heavy lines on your dial, indicated as 49 M (49-meter band), 31 M, 25 M, 19 M and 16 M.

When you have turned onto the short-wave band and have learned that short-wave broadcast stations are

49-METER BAND (6.12 to 6.00 megs)

(This band is unsuitable for foreign reception during summer.)

NOTE: Stations given in above chart are leading war stations. You will hear many other stations on the bands but once you have located a few of the above stations you will be able to find the others readily. Note table on next page giving EUROPEAN NEWS IN ENGLISH. By tuning slowly across band at one of the times given for an English news period you will be able to locate station in question quite easily. Suggestion: Look for GSD (11.75), London, at $:00 p.m. EDT.

grouped in small isolated bands, you will want to know what band to turn to for best reception. This will depend entirely upon the time of day and upon the season of the year. For this time of year use this guide:

Time of Day Choic	Choice of Bands
Early Morning16	19	31
Late Morning16	19
Early Afternoon19	16
Late Afternoon25	19	31
Early Evening25	31	19
Late Evening	25	49

Assume that you are on short wave and have now selected the proper band, depending upon the time of day. Next refer to the chart on this page which is a "Guide for Tuning in Leading War Stations." Refer in the chart to the band you are on and then plunge right in and try your luck by tuning slowly across the band and picking out the loudest station that is broadcasting in English. Hold onto it until you have definitely identified it. It will probably be one of the stations given in the chart, but if it isn't, re-member its location and try again. You will soon find one of the leading stations given in the chart. Suppose you are on the 25-meter band and you find that your station is GSD (11.75), London. This is in the chart and you will note that DJD (11.77), Berlin, is slightly above in frequency. Move your dial just a hair and you will have DJD, Berlin; just a little move in the same direction. more in the same direction and you will have 2RO4 (11.81), Rome. See how easy it is!

There are also certain peculiarities about each foreign station that help in identifying it. For example, the Rome stations use a twittering bird signal before each program starts and sometimes between items in the program. The German stations use a distinctive music-box melody, which is repeated over and over.

If you don't feel wholly satisfied with your first session on short waves, don't give up in disgust. You may have been unlucky enough to have picked out one of those rare periods when foreign recention is near Open. when foreign reception is poor. Once you have tasted the first thrills of foreign reception, however, you will want to try for other and more dis-tant stations. Follow the short-wave department in Movie-Radio Guide and soon you will be expertly twirling the dial from Berlin to Tokyo, and from Havana to London, with ease!

FTER months of construction and experimentation, commercial FM stations are beginning to spring up with accelerating speed throughout the country. These stations feature the new noise-free, high-fidelity type of transmission developed by Major Armstrong. FM stations now operating commercially, in the order that they began to broadcast and with the agency which operates them, are as follows:

W47NV (44.700), Nashville, Tenn. (op-erated by WSM) W71NY (47.100), New York City W71NY (47.100), New York City (WOR)
W51C (45.100), Chicago, Ill. (Zenith Radio Corp.)

(Milwaukee "Journal") eral de L'Afrique Occidentale Fran-caise, short-wave station FGA, at Dakar, is operating daily from 7:15 to 8:15 a.m. on 6.435 and 13.355, and from 2:15 to 3:15 p.m. CST on 6.435 and 9.41 megs. Transmissions on the 9.41-megs channel have been well re-ceived in this country but no reports of reception have come in lately.

General Notes

Programs sponsored by the Iraq government, are broadcast from Bagdad daily from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. CST over short-wave stations Y15KG (7.08) and HNF (9.78). These broad-casts are rarely heard in the United States but are well received in Europe and northern Africa, They remain the Paley Award Goes to Kansas Amateur Marshall H. Ensor (W9BSP), fortyone-year-old radio amateur of Olathe, Kansas, has been chosen for the William S. Paley Amateur Radio Award for 1940. Ensor will fly to New York for a presentation luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria June 2, where Mr. Paley, president of CBS, will make the award of the trophy. Ensor was chosen by the judges because of his service to the nation in voluntarily conducting courses in the fundamentals of radio over his own station, W9BSP, over a period of ten years. During this time he has given code-practise lessons on the air to thousands of young men and women, enabling them to pass their examinations for amateur radio licenses.

Schedule of Dakar Station

Dakar, important seaport of Senegal, French West Africa, is in the news again. According to information received from the Gouvernement Gen-principal source of news concerning the tense situation in Iraq . . . Believed to be the German Freedom Station, illegal transmitter dedicated to anti-Nazism, a German-speaking station on 9.66 megs is being heard daily from 3:00 to 3:30, 5:00 to 5:30 p.m., etc., CST . . . Commercial tele-vision has been given the "green light" by the Federal Communications Commission and it will make its nation-wide commercial debut on July 1. Certain definite standards relating to picture detail have been set up. The accompanying voice transmissions will be by the new FM radio. Television images are bigger and clearer than they were a year ago and have in fact been refined to the point where they can furnish a really enjoyable home service. Television backers would undoubtedly like to make a big publicity splurge on the coming debut of commercial television but hesitate to play it up too big for fear that sufficient television receivers will not be forthcoming from the manufacturers. Government radio orders are taxing the facilities of all radio plants and they are necessarily given priority. Sponsors in turn will hesitate to expend large sums of money backing the new service if they cannot be assured a reasonably large audience of televiewers. Thus it would seem television may be due for another in its long series of setbacks.

CHARLIE McCARTHY

Mayor of the City of Los Angeles

To MASTER CHARLIE McCARTHY, the country's best-known urchin, recently came a signal honor—the mayorship of Los Angeles during a celebration of International Boys Week, when for a day the city government was turned over to a boy mayor, boy sheriff, boy fire chief, boy district attorney and boy judges. But political honors were no novelty to Edgar Bergen's redwood protege. Already he was the world's only international fire chief. He had also served as honorary mayor of San Francisco. Consequently, "Hizzoner" felt quite at ease seated on a soft, padded leather chair before the endless, gleaming conference table at which Los Angeles' Mayor Fletcher Bowron usually conducts the city's affairs. In fact, he spent most of his daylong mayoral term in this same chair, wielding with particular delight the gavel described by himself as a "sap relation." Said Charlie: "If the Mayor has any problems he can leave 'em to me. So help me, I'll mow 'em down."

Movie-Radio Guide VISITS:

Ye Olde National Barn Dance

MOST-VISITED show on the air is "The National sented by performers in costume and with scenery Barn Dance," a Saturday night hayloft frolic which long ago won the heart of America with square-dance music, hillbilly ballads and comedy. Approaching the million mark now are the people who have flocked to Chicago's old Eighth Street Theater to see the broadcast-and as for no other broadcast they've paid hard cash for their tickets. Here, for millions more who have never had the chance to go, Movie-Radio Guide offers a photographic visit—and it's free! Although NBC listeners hear only a one-hour broadcast at 9 p.m. EDT, visitors can choose between two two-and-a-halfhour shows, both of which are heard on Chicago's station WLS. They see an actual stage show, pre- are the current hayloft folk for your pleasure!-J. C.

complete down to hayseed and cowbells. Girls in ruffles and pantaloons add to the old-time atmosphere with square dances and men appear in checked shirts and overalls. The "Barn Dance" is no one-man show. Among dozens of entertainers there is not a single star, but all are tops in their specialties. Since the broadcast was born back in 1924 as a two-man affair with square-dance caller and old-time fiddler, singers and comedians have been added week by week until the cast now numbers upward of sixty. Many "Barn Dance" stars have left for other fields-for example, Gene Autry, Lulu Belle and Scotty. Others fill their places-and here

Almost as old as radio itself, this great show still packs them in-and here is what they see!

EDDIE PEABODY, king of banjoists, old vaudeville trouper, plays some of the show's hottest, best tunes

THE DINNING SISTERS, teen-age torch trio, make the old hayloft ring with their popular swing tunes

blues singer Jane Kaye, whose evening clothes contrast vividly with scene

Kate Smith Goes to Hollywood-Part III. She Takes in the Sights

EARLY and late, Californians love to show off the vaunted glories of their beautiful state, and in Kate Smith they had an enthusiastic, appreciative visitor. During her three-week stay in Hollywood, where she did four broadcasts, Kate made time for sightseeing, shopping, visiting. She ducked in and out of Los Angeles curio shops. She visited Major-

General W. P. Upshur, reviewed his Marines at their base in San Diego. She made the favorite vacationers' tour of Santa Catalina Island. Here the southers songbird was the guest of Mrs. William Wrigley, Jr., at her showplace home atop Mt. Ada, had the view of Avalon Bay which only Wrigley guests may enjoy. Returning, at the invitation of pilot she steered one of the glass-bottomed boats from which sightseers view Catalina's gorgeous submarine gardens. Everywhere, Kate took her elaborate camera equipment, made color shots of many scenic spots. Everywhere, Movie-Radio Guide's photographer followed—and for her fans made these pictures of Kate at Catalina Island.

ENJOYING the Island's beauties and curiosities, Kate has the thrill of providing a perch for "Cocky," a seventy-year-old lemon-crested cockatoo, one of the exotic specimens which find sanctuary at the famed Santa Catalina Bird Park

KATE WAS GUIDED around the park by Superintendent Les Mobley, came to the penguins just at feeding time. Here she offers fish dinner to "Oscar," often seen in films. Next day Kate's party drove through Island's rugged hills

LEAVING THE INTERIOR, where they saw wild mountain goats, buffalo and wild boar and visited Eagle's Nest hunting-lodge, Kate leaves party to take color movies of Avalon Bay. Her busdriver points out scores of yachts at anchor below. After a tour of shops in the Hotel St. Catherine, where she purchased souvenirs, the party boarded boat for the mainland. They had seen Santa Catalina as only guests of the Wrigleys—which they had been—are able to see it!

HER WORK DONE and with glorious days of fun remaining only as a golden memory, Kate prepared regretfully to leave for New York, for she had enjoyed Hollywood every bit as much as Hollywood had enjoyed Kate!

HAT'S going to become of swing? The more popular this type of music becomes, the more it seems headed for the ritzier and more sophisticated places. The other evening, for example, the Museum of Modern Art in New York gave the first of a series of "Coffee Concerts," with John Kirby's band and other swing artists. It was called "Salon Swing," which of course means that it was somewhat tamer than the kind you hear at a jam session. Even so, it was well received by the audience. In case you're puzzled as to why the concerts," here's the reason: During intermission they serve coffee and crumpets. Again I repeat, what's going to become of swing?

Music is Sometimes a Stepping-Stone

Many a musician has found that music is sometimes a stepping-stone to bigger and better things. For instance, Bob Burns' piano-playing led him into inventing the bazooka. Bing Crosby was first a drummer and then a singer before he got into the movies. Rudy Vallee tooted a saxophone and crooned before radio called him to act as a master of ceremonies. Jack Benny did right well with his violin before he discarded it in favor of an outright comedy routine. In fact, Benny says that the most excruciating moment of his life was the time he appeared before an audience without the trusty instrument tucked under his arm. Fred MacMurray is another who graduated from band ranks to the movies. And so did Dick Powell. Dick was a trumpeter and then a bandleader before becoming a movie actor.

Bandata

Carl Hoff has not taken over Zinn Arthur's band, as reported. He has organized an entirely new outfit. Incidentally, the band began its first engagement at the Blue Gardens in Armonk, N. Y., May 16 . . . Gene Krupa has added Roy Eldridge, colored trumpet wizard, to his band. Eldridge will not be a regular side man but will be featured as a soloist . . . Benny Goodman, Larry Clinton and Charlie Barnet have been selected as the first bands to be starred in Madison Square Garden when the huge arena will be transformed into a gigantic night-club beginning May 30. The combination ballroom and cafe will enable the masses to dine and dance to the music of the country's foremost bands - all at a low cost . . Raymond Scott played fast rhythms at his engagement in Baltimore following the running of the Preakness race May 10. This is of interest because many people think rhythm tunes are popular in the South, where the enervating climate allegedly causes people to move more slowly and to prefer ballads and sweet tunes. Scott has found that southerners, suh, like their music fast, heat or no heat . . . Rio Rita, batoneer, has changed her name to Rita Shaw. She'll appear with Dorothy Lamour in a film titled "Aloma of the South Seas" . . . Bob Crosby is scheduled to do a film based on the juke-box craze. Incidentally, this is Bob's third picture assignment, which seems to indicate that the picture moguls are definitely sold on Bob as a film personality . . And while we are on the subject of films, we might as well add that Glenn Miller's picture which was originally titled "Sun Valley" has been changed to "Sun Valley Serenade"...Those reports that Frank Sinatra, singer for Tommy Dorsey, would quit are apparently unfounded. It seems they were started when Frank was ill for a time and Bob Allen substituted . . . Here's how Joan Merrill got her movie job in "Time Out for Rhythm" with Rudy Vallee, She had made a rec-ord called "How Do You Look?" which was heard by Columbia talent-scouts. They wired to New York: "How does she look?" New York saw her at night-club where she was singing and wired back: "Like a dream." That was enough.

Vocalistings

Frankie Masters' new vocalist is Atlantic City June 1.

Phyllis Myles. She replaces Marian Frances, who has been signed by NBC as a solo singing star. Incidentally, a palm goes to Frankie for releasing her, although he had a long-time contract . . . Carol Bruce, who left the Ben Bernie program recently, has arrived in Hollywood for that picture which she will make for Universal . . . Snooky Lanson is the vocal replacement for Larry Stewart in Ray Noble's band . . . Earl Hine's new singer is Madeline Green . . . Mary Ann Mc-Call has returned to Charlie Barnet as one of a quartet of girl singers.

Songstuff

The Army's new song book is just off the press. It includes two of the country's most popular tunes, "God Bless America" and "I Am an American," along with "The Star-Spangled Banner," "My Buddy," "The Caisson Song" and others which have long been favorite marching-tunes. How ever, we note that "Roll Out the Barrel" has been omitted from the list, although it is admittedly the top tune of both the American and British soldiers. Another song which failed to get into the book is "Mademoiselle from Armentieres." Trust the boys, however, not to be deterred from singing it by lack of official sponsorship!

Band Bookings

Tommy Dorsey is booked for the major portion of the summer atop the Hotel Astor in Times Square . . . Paul Whiteman is another who is set for an indefinite stay. He has gone into the Chez Paree, a Chicago night-club . . . Phil Harris and his boys leave this week for a tour which will bring them east . . . Count Basie is appearing at the Loew's State in New York this week . . . Bob Crosby will play an engagement at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City June 1.

BOB SMITH of the University of Minnesota and member of the University's Boogie-Woogie Club came to New York to present degrees of Bachelor of Boogie to Andrews Sisters, left to right, Maxene, Patti, and LaVerne

Medical Melodrama

Dear Sirs:

For a long time I've wondered why the serial plays have so many doctors as their principal characters. Members of the medical profession have a valuable place in society, but as a steady dramatic diet they get pretty bore-some. These are not happy times. Most listeners turn to their radios to try and forget some of their worries and bodily To hear imaginary doctors and nurses continually making melodrama out of sickness and death is deplorable. Dahlia B. Wilson, Toronto, Ont., Can.

Battin' for Barton

Dear Sirs:

I'm a boy thirteen years old. So here is my idea of a swell program for children. It's "The Bartons." I've been sick during most of the winter, so I have been able to hear most of the programs. I've corresponded with Mr. Harlan Ware and his son, Dick, whom he writes the serial about, and they are both very nice. Mr. Ware was even good enough to have my name men-tioned during the program. To my thinking, this story of the life of Bud Barton and his folks is the best program for children and a dandy for grown-ups, too.

Wayne Krows, Sullivan, Ill.

There are a lot of other kids and grown-ups, including ourselves, who agree with young Wayne that Harlan Ware's whimsical, wholesome story of an American boy, "The Bartons," deserves to rank with the really outstanding programs in radio. If you haven't heard it, by all means catch it sometime on NBC week-day evenings.-The Editors.

Contest Commentary

Dear Sirs:

I've never doubted the fairness of radio contests. Even if they're decided pretty much by lot-which is what I've always contended—that's probably the fairest way, for I can't see how it would be humanly possible to decide some of them on actual comparison of merit.

I know of four persons in this little town who sent entries in a recent contest. They represent one-half of one percent of the population of the town. If that ratio held through the one hundred thirty millions of our country, it would mean that 650,000 people sent in entries. And some people send in several entries. That would take some super-judging to pick out the few

But I'm satisfied. I've won a few minor prizes.

Miss Lucy Huff, Chapman, Kans.

ASCAP Music Back

Dear Sirs:

I have heard that the prospects are good for ASCAP music to be brought back to the air soon on the networks. What about this?

Mrs. W. R. Sandow, Detroit, Mich.

 ASCAP music is already being heard again on the Mutual network as the result of a recent agreement. At this writing the dispute between the other networks and ASCAP is still unsettled. -The Editors.

Question Service

end of the story.

BETTY ATKINSON, world's champion drum majorette and twirler, is one of the outstanding features of the exciting "It Happens on Ice" revue now playing at the Centre Theater in New York City. Betty is eighteen years old, slim and pretty; so pretty, as a matter of fact, that it's difficult to believe she's eager to accept the four-year scholarship to the University of Southern California rather than achieve additional fame and fortune from her skating and batonwielding prowess.

'Baton-twirling, believe it or not, is a beauty exercise," Betty confided to me recently in a little chat between numbers of "ice-travaganza." "It firms the muscles that control the beauty and symmetry of the bust and it also tightens the flabbiness of the tissues and muscles of the upper arms. would be a fine thing if all women did a baton-twirling exercise say five or ten minutes daily with Indian clubs or a ginger-ale bottle to counteract that looseness of the muscles that begins to sneak in when one approaches the thirties." According to Betty, the baton-twirling exercise is accom-plished by raising one arm at a time parallel to the side of the head and rotating it in a backward direction to form a complete circle. Grip your Indian club, dumbbell or ginger-ale bottle firmly. Twiri your arm until you can feel your breast muscles begin to complain from the unaccustomed exertion. Alternate arms, a half-minute at a time for each one. We strongly recommend this exercise for those lacking architecturally in what it takes to wear the new sleeveless dresses.

Fun With Flowers

"Don't take your flower arrange-ments too seriously," advises Amelia Brookes, garden consultant at John Wanamaker's, during their recent flower show. "See that your flowers are approximately one and one-half times the height of the vase or one and a half times the width of the bowl. Mass your dark flowers near the base of the arrangement and try to make the stems apparently start from a central point. To accomplish this you will need some kind of holder. Sand, pebbles and chicken-wire will do in an emergency, and clippings from a privet hedge will also help to make your flowers 'stay put.'"

Lady Fair

Clairol's newest brain-child is a neat little mascara set for day and night use, holding a wee brush and comb to groom the lashes after the color has been applied. Put it down on your "can't do without" list and later on you'll thank me . . . Wrisley's floral cologne in the famous hobnail bottle has two additional "blessed events"bath crystals and dusting-powder in similar containers. There are five friendly fragrances from which to choose. Wisteria, the newest, has a lilting yet mellow charm . . . The new Harlequin sun-glasses will make ordinary fiestas seem like carnivals. Inci-dentally they'll bring you through the summer minus those hag wrinkles between the eyes that are the too frequent aftermath of sun glare. Praises be! . . . Faberge, the perfumer, has temporarily abandoned the siren theme in favor of a fragrance that Jeanie with the light-brown hair would undoubtedly have loved. "Chambray a winsome scent that appeals to the sentiment rather than to the senses . . . Pond's, who styles some of the world's most beautiful complexions, offers three glowing powder shades that should blend brilliantly with suntanned faces. Rose Cream, Rose Brunette and Dusk Rose are vitally lovely.

The Story of "The O'Neills"

I. FOUND HOLDING a gun over dead body of her husband, Eileen Turner (Arline Blackburn) admits guilt. "The O'Neills" are worried

2. IN JAIL awaiting trial for murder, Eileen is visited by her old friend, Mother O'Neill (Kate Mc-Comb), who is sure she's innocent

3. DANNY O'NEILL (Jimmy Tansey), newspaper editor and Eileen's former boy friend, brings attorney Kayden (Chester Stratton) to help get at the man they suspect in connection with the crime. For listeners, Movie-Radio Guide presents here a photo-story of the O'Neill murder mystery as it is being unfolded currently on the popular radio serial.

THE O'NEILLS" of radio have had their ups and downs during the eight years listeners have followed their lives over NBC and CBS, but never have they passed through such a trying period as now when Eileen Turner is on trial for the murder of her husband. Eileen is a close friend of the O'Neills and they are certain she is innocent. Yet she admits having murdered her husband. For some inexplicable reason she sticks to her story as Mother O'Neill, her former sweetheart, Danny O'Neill, and attorney Monte Kayden try to

Mother O'Neill. . Kate McComb Danny O'Neill . Jimmy Tansey Monte Kayden .... Ginger Raymond.. ...Jessie Fordyce District Attorney. ...........Don McLaughlin

4. DANNY TELLS Kayden of his suspicion that a certain Basil of whom Eileen has spoken is linked with crime. He tries to find him

5. IN HIS QUEST Danny meets old pal, night-club singer Ginger (Jessie Fordyce), who arranges date with Basil (Burford Hampden)

6. BASIL FLEES when he learns Danny's real identity; Danny and Ginger enlist aid of police and follow. Meanwhile, Mother O'Neill suspects Eileen's unborn baby is clew to the mystery. Eileen violently hated her husband and Mother O'Neill thinks she'd rather die than give birth to a child of his

7. THE TRIAL gets under way. Mother O'Neill, cross-examined by the district attorney (Don McLaughlin), admits being in Eileen's home on night of the murder, that there was a quarrel

8. COMPLICATING the task of defense attorney Kayden, Eileen takes witness stand to vociferously reiterate that she is guilty of the murder of her husband. What are Eileen's real reasons?

9. DESPERATE, unaware of Danny's discovery, Monte Kayden makes inspired plea to the jury. The verdict will be brought in soon. For the outcome of this mystery, tune in "The O'Neills"!
