BOB HOPE LAUGHS AT HIS LIFE

A CE comedian Bob Hope, who returned to the airlanes September 23, laughs in mock self-satisfaction at his new, ninety-six-page comic autobiography, "They Got Me Covered," while Muk, the Paramount Studio's acting chimpanzee, apparently is either laughing or perhaps giving Hope the razzberry. The volume, not to be sold but designed to be distributed by Hope's radio sponsor, was given an initial print order of one million copies, and it is anticipated that three million will be the total demand. Hope, after finishing his latest picture, "Nothing But the Truth," with Paulette Goddard, went into seclusion on a Pacific beach and wrote the excruciatingly funny story of his life, planned its one hundred uproarious illustrations and picture captions and turned down an offer of ten thousand dollars by a commercial book publisher who saw in it a gold mine if the story were sold to the public. Said Hope, "People can't afford to spend a dollar for a book —at least not for one about me." The volume, according to the laughmaker, is "from soup to aw-nuts about that charming fellow, me."

HOPE GOES TO WORK: "In school they taught me that two and two were four, that there were sixteen ounces in a pound and that one-half dollar from a dollar left fifty cents. Then I went to work in brother Fred's butcher shop and had to learn arithmetic all over again! Fred is a very good butcher—his thumbs weigh fifteen pounds."

HOPE BREAKS INTO VAUDEVILLE: "The word vaudeville is very dear to me . . . it is really the place I gained all of my experience, such as timing, ducking, etc. When people tell me vaudeville is dead it makes me very sad. I'm sure it isn't dead. It's just in an oxygen tent and if I stay away from it, it has a chance to revive." HOPE GOES ON THE RADIO: "Of course, like all beginners, I suffered from mike fright. When I approached the microphone I shivered . . . and the microphone would shudder a bit too . . . Then I got an offer to appear as guest on the Rudy Vallee program. We certainly made a good team—Rudy, the 'Vagabond Lover,' and me, I was known as the 'Bum Comedian.' I stayed on Rudy Vallee's program for three weeks. Then one day he decided he'd rather have his friends than my money."

As the chestnuts ripen and the yellow leaves drop softly on the brown earth. the low setting sun mellows this lion's heart.

A most usherable morsel. It is called "Smilin' Through", that timeless classic of American theatre annals written dramatically by Janes (Cowl and Murfin) and screenatically by Donald (Ogden Stewart) and John (Balderston).

Those who have bathed their eves in the romance of Moonyean Clare will be interested to know that in this moondrenched incarnation, the director, Frank Borzage, has rendered us a musical version.

Starring the incomparable Jeanette MacDonald. And co-starring the logical choice-Brian Aherne as Sir John Carteret.

Gene Raymond and Ian Hunter must be emphasized, for they are major curves in a rounded cast.

As the theatre darkens and the travelling curtains part, leaving an afterimage of the main title, the strains of 'Two Eyes of Blue Come Smilin' Through" pleasantly massage our hearts and a lovely wistful story of honor and chivalry unfolds.

Many of us are in love with the spirit of "Smilin' Through". Many more of us will be when we see and hear Jeanette's Moonyean in perfected Technicolor.

There are songs that no one can deny. All of us will react soulfully to Miss MacDonald singing "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" and "Just A Little Love, A Little Kiss".

THE metamorphosis of Olivia de Havilland from "sweet young thing" to a filmland glamour girl is one of the events of the year in Hollywood. Another event is the natural-color portrait of Miss de Havilland by Scotty Welbourne, which graces this week's cover of Movie-Radio Guide. A collector's item, to say the least!

THIS WEEK: It is doubtful whether in the history of radio there has been a greater audience than that which listened to the speech of President Roosevelt on September 11. Even in the heat of the last election and in subsequent significant moments, no single voice has brought so many people together in front of their radios. Broadcast in many languages, the words of Roosevelt struck home to the lands of friends and foes alike. Agreeing or disagreeing with the President, it must be granted that millions all over the world look to him and the people who support him as the one great force for freedom still remaining.

By coincidence, Movie-Radio Guide in this issue publishes the results of its readers' vote on the President's policies. Included with this carefully tabulated poll, based on the answers of thousands of good Americans, is a list of questions readers have asked us to put before the Administration. Some of these have been answered, some haven't. The editors feel strongly that the Government should set up a bureau of information to furnish the people with answers to vital questions between the irregular reports of the nation's statesmen. If there is to be certain unity in this country it cannot be achieved completely so long as doubts remain as to the intentions of our leaders.

On page 14 of this issue you will find the selections of football experts on football winners. We hope this added service to Movie-Radio Guide readers will help them to enjoy the gridiron season more than ever.

NEXT WEEK: The war is now reaching a fever pitch. We have listened to dozens of experts on the air, seen hundreds of maps. Somehow we haven't had a clear picture of just what is going on. To that end, the editors have selected Movie-Radio Guide's own war analyst, found an outstanding artist to tell a different sort of week-by-week story with unusual maps.

We want to make sure that our readers don't have too much war on their doorsteps, but we haven't been able to resist a story entitled, "Radio Commentator Under Fire." Coming in next week's issue, this deals with the actual experiences of an American foreign correspondent under fire.

That rascal Charlie McCarthy will be back again with us next week in a picturized story telling about the lates't trouble Edgar Bergen's boy wonder is having in the land of movies and radio. To keep him company there is the unusual story of the greatest actress in Hollywood. She is NOT Bette Davis, as you might expect. We won't tell you who she is, and you'll never guess. All the editors will say at this date is that there are any number of surprises in store for you in the next issue of Movie-Radio Guide .- The Editors.

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE APPLAUDS:

Wendell Willkie

N NORMAL times a defeated candidate for President disappears from public view quicker than a magician can pull a rabbit from his silk topper. Although he did not become President, Wendell L. Willkie has not kept last year's Republican presidential candidate out of the public eye.

There are few people who, after meeting Willkie in person, dislike him, no matter how bitterly they may disagree with his personal views. As do many other Americans, the editors believe Wendell Willkie might have made a much closer race, might even have been the chief in the White House today if he had cultivated a better radio voice. Whether this is so or not, his voice is still heard abroad in the land, vigorous and purposeful. Some believe he did "an about-face." His friends know that Willkie is sincere.

One way or another, the editors choose to applaud Wendell Willkie because of his stand for the motionpicture and radio industries, defending them against the charges of propa-ganda-spreading. The ruling which which barred him from cross-examining witnesses in the Washington investigation has not kept Willkie from impressing everyone that he talks common sense.

If movies are guilty of "propaganda," so are books, newspapers—so are iso-lationist senators, their opponents, the President, the people. We thank you, Mr. Willkie, for not being afraid to step into the middle of a hot argument which might easily have made you exceedingly unpopular.

come to love and admire—their most amazing First Lady. To some it was a dynamic, achieving woman speaking. To some it was a social worker, a great humanitarian. To others it was America's first stateswoman. Eleanor Roosevelt is probably all of these, but first and foremost the woman who spoke was simply a wife and mother.

For, although born into a life of wealth and impeccable social position, Eleanor Roosevelt can be explained in no other way than as a typical American girl who married the man she loved, reared a family and is devoting her life to them and her country.

her life to them and her country. Eleanor was a shy, awkward, reticent girl when she met another Roosevelt, the debonair young Franklin that Eleanor Roosevelt was—and is— Delano, in 1903. But different as they a wife and a mother. -J. C.

were, the two had lofty ideals in common, the same love of books, the same contempt for the vapid social whirl of the times. They were married in 1905 and for many years Eleanor's activities centered exclusively about the home. As her husband's career blossomed the Roosevelt family grew until there were five children.

Then, in the summer of 1921, Mr. Roosevelt's illness—infantile paralysis —came as the terrible blow which ushered in perhaps the most heroic period of her life. Refusing to treat him as an invalid, she brought his political friends to see him, entered politics herself, passionately determined that he should come back. By the time F. D. R. had recovered, was elected governor of New York in 1928, he and his wife were a political team. "Eleanor and I" was his phrase, politically speaking, but even above that Eleanor Roosevelt was—and is a wife and a mother. —J. C.

HER MOTHER, a great beauty, was disappointed in Eleanor's plainness, called her "Granny." Tall, awkward, as photograph with brother "Ellie" shows, Eleanor felt the imagined onus of the ugly duckling, grew up with passionate sympathy for the underdog

HER MARRIAGE at twenty-one to Franklin Roosevelt surprised New York society in 1905. She was still shy, and no beauty; he was dashing, popular and handsome. But they had common ideals, like tastes. It was a Roosevelt family alliance, a happy mating

AT FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT'S SIDE through splendid victories, through illness which all but wrecked his life, Mrs. Roosevelt has stood, a bulwark of encouragement. At home she has been mistress of his house; in politics, his partner. Today, as he struggles with momentous world problems, she finds time in her own breakneck schedule of activities to be home whenever he needs her

THOUGH HER CHILDEN are all married, raising families of their own, Mrs. Roosevelt still loves to talk of them, write of them as in her newspaper diary, "My Day." She is not a matriarch, rather has been, like her husband, too indulgent. This picture, taken when F. D. R. was running for vice president in 1920, shows all except James. Movie-Radio Guide Reports On:

JOAN BENNETT MOTHER and SIREN

HOLLYWOOD has been called a lot of names, including an "ermine-coated hell" by a famous writer. But most notoriety drenching the flicker capital results from brain-needy, publicity-at-any-price Hollywood neophytes letting themselves get out of control. Their antics harpoon the cinema hamlet with a reckless, risque brand, cause the lives of orderly stars to be newsworthy by contrast. One of Hollywood's most orderly stars is Joan Ben-

One of Hollywood's most orderly stars is Joan Bennett. For over a decade she has mixed her screen career as a wife and mother, kept both under control. She runs her life on a schedule as punctual as the New York Central, Routine is a "must" with her. Your reporter asked her recently, "Why aren't you ever just a little late or early for an appointment?" Her honest, laconic reply was, "I just can't be!"

Joan, while making a picture, works out all her household details so that her secretary can follow the schedule. Each week she goes over the household bills, plans menus for the following seven days. She also supervises and plans the schedules for her two daughters. She usually spends evenings home with her children and husband, occasionally enjoys an evening out.

One of Joan's favorite recipes for keeping her careers under control is to allow herself an hour or so a day alone. During this time she plans things, works out problems in her private and professional life. She claims it's wonderful for giving a new perspective, whether you're sun-bathing, reading, swimming, knitting or just relaxing and thinking.

Joan Bennett has done a commendable job of synchronizing her private and professional careers. Her career as a mother has always been under constant control. Her career as an actress, dependent considerably on what pictures the studio gives her, she has only recently begun to control. For a time her screen portrayals gave emphasis to a certain director's remark that "all she has is the beautiful face and perfect body God gave her." Suddenly she recoiled at the insipid parts to which she was assigned, demanded and received parts with more protein. She is now doing roles with variety. On the screen she has become something vital because she is not doing roles unless she feels and believes in them.

So at thirty-one Joan is coming into her own. With each new picture she varies her hair-styling, believes it is good psychology and a personality hypo. When not making pictures she is an avid reader searching for roles "made for her." She also studies voice, dancing, anything that will be an asset to her career. Her recent performances bear out her fresh acting surge. She was "deglamorized" in "Man Hunt," turned in

She was "deglamorized" in "Man Hunt," turned in an excellent performance as the cockney-tongued chit of Cheapside. She followed this with a fine piece of work and further deglamorization in "Wild Geese Calling," and is now about ready to trump both those acting-tricks in the British invasion picture "Confirm or Deny."

After seeing Miss Bennett in this picture, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE feels certain you will "confirm," not "deny," that she has her career as an actress as well as a mother under perfect control. —L. R.

What About the President's Policies?

NEVER before has any President of the United States of America been called upon by the people to lead the nation through more perilous times than Franklin Delano Roosevelt. He must accomplish his task in the midst of many cross-currents of opinion among his own people and a quickly changing international scene. Movie-Radio Guide has polled its readers concerning their ideas about the foreign policies of the President, policies that are the more a target for criticism since they affect the daily lives of every man, woman and child in the country.

A multitude of voices speak a Babel of conflicting ideas. We should give allout aid to Britain . . . we shouldn't. We should aid Russia . . . we shouldn't. We should drop all relations with Japan . . . we shouldn't. The man in the street in America today is more strongly opinionated than ever, yet his voice carries a militant demand that this

A majorsevelt. Of this majority, almost ninety percent approve his policies.

Yet ten percent who voted for him do not wholly approve. Of those who did not vote for him a sizable per-centage, 33.3 in the poll, still at least partially favor his policies and a larger per-centage, 66.7, definitely do not.

A sizable majority of those voting attest to belief in Roosevelt's sincerity. Like-wise, more than half of those voting believe that he will be ,numbered among our greatest Presidents.

Movie-Radio Guine feels that the people generally are sometimes not well versed on the plans and motives of the government. They deserve explanations, should receive explanations that do not divulge valuable information to unfriendly nations. For this reason, the editors respectfully submit a list of questions, most of which have been submitted by readers, which they be-lieve the President or a competent authority in the government should answer for the people.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dear Mr. President:

The editors of this publication believe that the people in times of stress are frequently confused, and that this confusion of the public mind does not make for national unity. The results of MovIE-RADIO GUIDE's poll show a substantial majority favoring your policies. Yet a great number of people, willing to do anything to protect this nation, have serious doubts concerning certain governmental activities. Some of these doubts are probably the result of misinformation and rumor. Still they persist. These are a few of the questions:

1. Since about $50,000,000,000 has been appropriated for national defense, why don't administration leaders take definite action to increase soldier pay to $40 a month when this move to strengthen army morale would cost approximately $300,000,000, a comparatively small fraction of the total defense appropriation?

2. Why does the State Department issue export licenses for oil to Spain despite the suspicion that the ultimate desti-nation of these shipments is Nazi Germany?

3. Exactly what is being done to protect the interests of the small businessman in danger now of losing his livelihood while monopolists reap profits?

4. Despite frequent statements concerning price control, strong advances in price on necessities of life continue without apparent reason. What is being done to protect the little man on this point?

5. Is there any truth in the charge that American oil companies are shipping gasoline to Pacific islands where it can be purchased by German oil tankers refueling submarines and sea raiders?

6. Are current government moves on the international scene being made strictly with the purpose in mind of preventing our Army from being sent abroad?

7. Is it true that certain interests are hamstringing the development of the St. Lawrence waterway, the most important source of cheap water-power in America not yet utilized?

8. Don't you think it advisable to openly consult some critics of the administration who, despite their opposition views, might have important contributions to make toward national defense?

9. Isn't it possible for you to more often issue communiques to the American people to correct false stories now being circulated about administration policies?

10. Is it a fact that our defense efforts are far ahead of figures given out and that official facts are concealed to keep them from potential enemies?

These and dozens of other questions come to the minds of Americans. If they have been an-swered, many have not digested the answers or did not happen to hear or read them. The editors suggest that a Bureau of Information be set up to regularly release facts that can be released without jeopardizing national defense in order to promote a stronger unity. Such a bureau would be welcomed by the average American, who now is frequently in doubt as to what constitutes fair opposition and what might be sabotage of thought by agents of other countries, friendly or unfriendly.

Respectfully, The Editors. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE.

SCOOP PICTURES! ERROL FLYNN SLAPS JIMMIE FIDLER

ERROL FLYNN, exploding a longborne private grudge against Jimmie Fidler when he met up with him Sat-urday, September 20, at the Mocambo Cafe, let fly, with either two slaps or a punch and a slap, at the Hollywood news broadcaster who made himself unpopular with the movie industry the week previously at Washington hear-ings in which he testified against what he termed propaganda screen plays. But the pictorial evidence, obtained exclusively by Movie-Radio Guide cameraman Jack Albin, who trailed Flynn to the Scheherazade Restaurant following the affair, would indicate that Flynn got the worst of the melee by one lacerated ear and a lost pair of diamond cuff links. (1) Immediately after the melee, Flynn, center, holds right hand up to explain to Edwin and Mrs. Schallert (right) how he slapped Fidler (left, concealed, is Bruce Cabot, and front is Nate Stein); (2) Flynn poses to show ear which he said was pierced by tines of fork wielded by Mrs. Jimmie (Bobbe) Fidler, and (3) Fidler, later, smiling as he shrugs his shoulders, tells his side of the fight. (See "Flynn-Fidler Ruckus" for details.)

Flynn-Fidler Ruckus

On Friday, September 19, Jimmie Fidler, in his MBS broadcast of Hollywood gossip, included the item:

"When Toumanova, the ballet dancer, left for New York this week, a mystery man took her to the plane. To escape recognition, he wore dark glasses. His hat was pulled down and his collar turned up. The man was Errol Flynn."

This and other dubious gossip items are believed by certain Hollywoodites to be the reason why the next night when Flynn saw Fidler and wife Bobbe dining at the Mocambo night-club his reflexes became energized.

Flynn said he used an open hand; Fidler said Flynn's fist was doubled up. Immediately the cafe was in an uproar. Jean Gabin, there with Marlene Dietrich, whose broken leg is still in a cast, tried to get her out of the spot for fear of added injury; Lupe Velez was spotted standing on a table brandishing a catsup bottle at no one in particular! The near-riot was quelled by quick-thinking bandleader Phil Ohman, who played "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Momentarily quieted by the anthem, friends separated Flynn and Fidler; the former returned to his table but continued looking at Jimmie. About ten minutes later, when dancing by the Fidler table, Flynn was heard to say something to Fidler about "Haven't you gone yet? Someone ought to run you out of Hollywood," and "Where are my diamond cuff links? Fidler probably got them." Then he reached for Fidler again and this time , slapped him. Bobbe Fidler, according to Flynn, joined in the fight this time and punctured his ear with a fork; Fidler claims this untrue, that Flynn's ear was cut in the ensuing scuffle and separation

BLASE HOLLYWOOD

SURE-FIRE attraction to entertainment-surfeited Hollywood is the circus. Bring on the big top, and adult stars and youngsters come out of their hiding and act just like other human beings. To Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey show last week went Movie-Radio Guide cameraman Bruce Bailey to record this array of celebrities having fun watching "the greatest show on earth." (1) Rita Gould, ex-Mrs. Beery (left), was amazed, but Carol Ann Beery was bored, while Wally was amused by the performance. (2) Linda Darnell (center) got a kick out of treating her sister Monte and brother Sonny to the big show. (3) What's this? You're right, it's Shirley Temple having a good laugh with the clowns. of the two.

On Monday, September 22, Fidler asked a court warrant for and a peace bond to be required of Flynn. The court continued the hearing to Thursday, September 25, to hear Flynn's side of the story.

One angle of the battle is definite. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE obtained sole and exclusive picture coverage of the ruckus.

Billie to Revive "Follies"

One of the famous shows that made Broadway an institution as well as a street, "The Ziegfeld Follies," will be revived by Billie Burke, stage and screen actress and Florenz Ziegfeld widow. Explaining, Miss Burke says: "World conditions being what they are, I think the public would again welcome big, lavish musicals as a medium of escape." Plans are only in the formulative stage, but Miss Burke will devote her time to this end as soon as she completes her role in Warners' "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Cooper Stand-In Quits

After sixteen years as Gary Cooper's stand-in, with whom he came to Hollywood, "Slim" Talbot has decided to go back to "ranchin'" and has accepted a foreman's job in Oregon. His last day on the set, Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck pulled a surprise party for the lanky ex-Montana cowboy. Impetuous tears made "Slim's" eyes blink; all he could say was, "Well, I'll be gosh darned."

Chaplin-Goddard Married

An end to the several-years-old and much-discussed mystery of the marital status of Charles Chaplin and Paulette Goddard came recently when Chaplin himself announced that he and Miss Goddard are married. It is believed that Chaplin will be summoned before the Senate's investigating committee on movies and made the announcement to prevent that body from posing the question.

Rooney's Benefit Tennis

Ubiquitous Mickey Rooney teamed with Ted Schroeder, national doubles champion, to give W. C. Choy and Frank Parker a tough tennis test before bowing to the latter couple in an exhibition match held September 14 for the Chinese War Relief. Rooney, a better-than-average court swatter, turned in a creditable performance and executed a couple of shots that left Frankie Parker flat-footed. However, Parker and Choy, the Chinese champion, had too many guns, sank the Rooney-Schroeder duet 6-2 before 3,500 action-happy fans.

Patsy Kelly, Dodger Batboy

At writing time the National League battle between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cards is tighter than a new shoe, but if the erstwhile daffy Dodgers capture the coveted bunting, Brooklyn-born Patsy Kelly will be their batboy. Patsy is another of the horde of incurable Dodger rooters, and as you read this the comedienne may well be toting bats for Medwick, Camilli and Reiser.

Young America Movie Poll

Poll-minded America is now being told how the juveniles feel about the movies. Young America, a national weekly, comes through with a survey which shows that teen-age boys see pictures 4.3 times per month, pay fifteen cents for a ticket and are usually accompanied by a pal. Errol Flynn is their top favorite, followed by Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper. The choices indicate they are action addicts.

THE WAR

Arliss Stays Put

Rather than leave his family and country at a time like this, George Arliss, great character actor and a refugee from Hollywood since 1935, has refused a large offer from 20th Century-Fox to make a picture in this country. The man who played "Disraeli" was wanted for a leading role in the coming Tyrone Power picture, "Son of Fury."

Stewart Thespian Corporal

Corporal Jimmy Stewart is prepping himself for a tour of the Army camps as an Army actor. He is scheduled to play the leading male role in "G-2," a heavy drama of the Army intelligence service. Benefit performances may be presented to civilian audiences.

$100,000 for U.S.O.

Edward G. Robinson is doing his Christmas giving early. That steady Hollywood citizen will receive one hundred thousand dollars for his next picture, "The Night Before Christmas" but has already donated the amount to the U. S. O. The picture has to do with the Christmas spirit. Eddie's gift will give body to the script.

Another "War" Absentee

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., will leave Hollywood for Washington October 10 to accept a government assignment. Being a lieutenant in the Navy, it is likely he will be assigned to a battleship or to a London post. Rumors that he would be given a diplomatic post in South America have collapsed. His last picture for some time will be the recently completed "The Corsican Brothers."

LIFE STATISTICS

Matures Still Denying

If there are two things the Victor Matures are best at, both are the denying of divorce rumors. Their most recent nixing splurge rolled out again when Mrs. Martha M. arrived back in Hollywood and was affectionately greeted by Vic at the airport. She immediately accepted a small role in his next picture, "Shanghai Gesture"; was seen at many Hollywood niteries with him, and said that right after she attends her sister's wedding in New York, October 4, she'll be back in Hollywood again ready to deny any and all divorce rumors. Victor is still her leading man!

Two Good Reasons for "Quiet"

If you have been wondering why there has been a hush on the Palmer Beaudette-Cobina Wright, Jr., romance, there are two reasons. Palmer, heir to automobile millions, has been told that his allowance will be cut shorter than a California winter if he keeps making newspaper headlines, and Cobina is determined that nothing will detour her screen career.

Crosby Rumors Blasted

South America, is busy touring the golf courses, the race-tracks and the famous horse-breeding establishments down under, but he is telling Dixie all about it via phone and cable. He wants her to fly down, and she may do so in time to make the return trip with him.

A "Married Bachelor"

Jack Buetel, young screen actor, has taken a chapter out of M-G-M's new domestic comedy, "Married Bachelor." Known as one of Hollywood's most eligible men, the news just broke that Jack has been a married man for three years. His wife has joined him in Hollywood now that he is safely signed to a starring contract.

HOLLYWOOD MERRY-GO-ROUND

The Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery romance looks washed up after going through the publicity wringer. On one week-end Ginger dated Joe Bryan, former SEP man, and neighbor Eddie Norris. Montgomery is back with former favorite Ann Rutherford . . . It's finis between John Howard and Hedy Lamarr. John is trying to captivate starlet Janet Blair's heart, but she's roam-mancing with a young fan-mag editor . . . Simone Simon is going places with Jack Forrester, Metro producer . . . Maureen O'Hara, back from her Reno annulment, is again dating with Will Price . . . Roz Russell and Fred Brisson were twosoming it at Ciro's . . . Ditto Norma Shearer and Ed Goulding daughter Cynthia's request for him to do a swan dive, Basil Rathbone will spend his Canadian vacation with wife, Ouida, leaning on a cane. Seems like Mr. "Sherlock" Rathbone was a little rusty at the hinges and his graceless effort brought on a sprained tendon. He hates diving, anyway. His five dogs usually plunge into the pool on top of him.

... Brent and Sheridan were a happy Mocambo couple. They announced their engagement and Ann was flashing a fancy ring.

Blondell Flu Victim

A rundown condition brought on by overwork has resulted in an influenza attack for Joan Blondell. Studio work on her new picture has been halted while she recuperates at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Oliver Hardy III

Elephantine Oliver Hardy, the twoton comic, has been ordered to bed for three weeks by attending medicos. The big man has a badly inflamed knee joint.

EN ROUTE

Sothern to Trek

As soon as she completes "Panama Hattie" and regardless of what happens to her trial separation from Roger Pryor, Ann Sothern will take a two-month vacation through the South and East. Mrs. Ray Milland will accompany her on the trip, which will include New Orleans and wind up with New York.

Cummings Southbound

Robert Cummings and wife will boat it to South America right after he completes his role in "Kings Row." Bob has already blue-penciled several film deals to take the vacation.

Jack Benny has entrained for New York to meet wife Mary Livingstone and take in the World Series if pos-

FLAGG PICKS 'EM

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG, in Hollywood on an assignment from the Associated Press wire-news service to sketch important, significant and beauriful picture people, selected Jane Russell, star of Howard Hughes' "The Outlaw" (to be released early in October), as "the most sensational young star since Jean Harlow and the most photogenic." That's Flagg's opinion, and here (1 and 2) is the evidence on which artist Flagg based his selection. Another pretty youngster (she is not yet eighteen) the famous artist selected for his portfolio was Linda Darnell (3), who is dressed as a college cheer-leader for her part in the currently shooting 20th Century-Fox picture "Rise and Shine"

ASSIGNMENTS

John Boles will star and sing once again soon in a Monogram picture, "Boy o' Mine"...June Havoc, sister of better-known Gypsy Rose Lee, came through with such a standout performance in her first picture, "Street Girl," she has been assigned a leading role in "I'm Dying to Live" ...It looks like boots and saddles for Robert Taylor again; M-G-M, with screen rights to Will James' "The Saga of the American Cowboy," figures Robert the most likely choice for the leading role. Taylor would like the part, but he doesn't want to be typed as a western star ... Billy De Beck's comic strip characters, Barney Google and Snuffy Smith, are to be brought to the screen by Monogram; production will start soon.

IN "THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON," starring Olivia de Havilland, Errol Flynn, Warners will present the life of General Custer. His rise to fame, his peace treaty with the Indians and his last stand make thrilling screen fare

"A YANK IN

REVIEWS

Cast: Tyrone Power, Betty Grable, John Sutton, Reginald Gardiner, Donald Stuart. A 20th Century-Fox production. Produced by Darryl F. Zanuck; directed by Henry King. Screen play by Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg, from original story by Melville Crossman.

Type of Picture: Subcommittee Senators who don't see this picture will undoubtedly paste it with a "propaganda" tag, but take it from your MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE editors, this is a war picture that is strictly not propaganda but rough, blood-tingling adventure and high-powered love.

This Is the Story: Tyrone Power is a young, cocky American flyer who winds up in England after ferrying a bomber over. There he meets Betty Grable, a former flame that he had extinguished in a fickle moment in Cincinnati and who now is a sizzling night-club entertainer. She and a couple of death-mongering Messerschmidts needle Ty into joining the R. A. F. Then the action starts, interspersed with some intimate love tangles and climaxed by the heroic Dunkirk evacuation.

Verdict: It is a great show. One of the best of the year, and a cinch to please every customer. Tyrone Power is again in a role that made him a box-office favorite, while Grable's fan mail will sky-rocket after this performance. -L. R.

BACHELOR"

Cast: Robert Young, Ruth Hussey, Felix Bressart, Lee Bowman, An M-G-M picture, Produced by John W. Considine, Jr.; directed by Edward Buzzell. Screen play by Dore Schary from original story by Manuel Seff.

Type of Picture: "Married Bachelor a light romantic comedy, M-G-M's well-placed kick-off for the fall laugh season.

This Is the Story: Robert Young, a small-time, get-rich-quick schemer, is married to Ruth Hussey, a wife in love but completely dissatisfied with their hand - to - mouth, one - jump ahead-of-the-sheriff existence. Young decides to hoe a straight and narrow row, but winds up as a super bookie who becomes indebted to a gangster for seventeen thousand dollars when an "eagle bird" romps home at 17 to 1. In searching for some easy pay-back money, Young gets hold of a manu-script, "The Psychology of Marriage," and, through a fluke, becomes a nationally known criterion on the art of marriage. Forced to pose as a bachelor, his publisher falls for his wife, and the situation gets as tangled as a morning-after memory. He finally accidentally exposes himself over a nation-wide hook-up, but he saves his marriage and all ends happily.

Verdict: Marital complications are always good screen fare; this one has more complications than a hypochondriac's dream. -L. R.

"HENRY ALDRICH FOR PRESIDENT"

Type of Picture: Here is another in the Henry Aldrich series, bringing to the screen at this time an entirely new cast headed by Jimmy Lydon. Truthfully, but with all respect to Jackie Cooper, the former Henry Aldrich of the screen, Jimmy Lydon and cast make this the most entertaining Aldrich Family picture yet produced.

This Is the Story: Henry gets duped into running for student body president as a "blotter" candidate who will absorb a few votes from other candidates, thus make the school's big-shot rich boy a cinch to cop the election. This strategy backfires and Henry finds himself elected president, but Henry's troubles have just begun. He is accused of stealing his campaign speech. A "cheater" monicker is pinned on him, and expulsion from school follows. Only before the flicker runs out Henry has time to absolve himself and cohorts of the charges.

Verdict: Paramount has a "sure thing" in this Aldrich picture, and this first of a new series is bound to bring added importance to an already wellliked American institution .- L. R.

Here is your guide to great music on the air, planned to increase your listening pleasure

MUSIC NOTES: Saturday night, Allan Jones, romantic film tenor, and Marion Claire, soprano. will be heard in Franz Lehar's "The Merry Widow." The broad-cast will bring the two together for the first time in eight years. In July, 1933, Miss Claire and Jones made their light opera debut, singing in the St. Louis Municipal Theater. Their efforts were so well received that, fol-lowing the St. Louis engagement, the pair played the leading roles in "Bittersweet" at the Grand Opera House in Chicago. Since the conclusion of the "Bitter-sweet" engagement, both Miss Claire and Jones have achieved even greater fame and a larger popularity ... Sunday, Dorothy Maynor, famed negro lyrie so-prano, will be the guest aritist on the "Ford Sunday Evening Hour." Sir Thomas Beecham will again conduct the orchestra. ... Friday afternoon, MBS will broadcast the second of the Philadelphia Or chestra was given on November 16, 1900. The conductor, Fritz Scheel, directed the orchestra until his death in 1907. His suc-ressor was Carl Pohlig, who left the position of First Court Con ductor at Stuttgart, by permis sion of the King of Wurtemburg, Pehlig was followed in turn by Leopold Stokowski. It was Sto-kowski's brilliant musicianship which brought the Philadelphia of conductor is Eugene Ornandy. CHOI which brought the Philadelphia Orchestra to its present point of eminence. Fourth and present conductor is Eugene Ormandy, recognized as one of the world's foremost conductors. SYMI

F. D. R. Audience Biggest

NEW YORK.—The largest American radio audience ever to hear a speech of any kind, political or otherwise, was on hand the night of September 11, when President Roosevelt told the country that the Navy would attack German submarines and raiders coming into waters vital to American defense. A survey indicates that 72.5 percent of the radio-set owners heard the speech. The President's Charlottesville speech, broadcast a year ago, attained a rating of 45.5.

Seek Scalpers' Scalps

New YORK.—It wasn't until the United States government began broadcasting its own radio program that official cognizance was taken of juvenile ticket-scalpers who hang around in front of the radio studios and try to sell tickets to the broadcasts. The Treasury Department has requested Mayor LaGuardia of New York City to instruct officers on the

THE SEARCH of Burns and Allen for a new vocal star for their program (returning to the air Oct. 7) has culminated in the discovery of sensational tenor Jimmy Cash, grocery clerk in Burbank, Calif. Right: (1) Jimmy signs contract at work while Charles Lawman, his vocal coach and mentor, looks on; (2) he breaks the news of big "Cash" deal to wife Camille and daughter Berta Sue; (3) Jimmy has been singing to potatoes, but now he'll be singing to you studio beats to arrest those seen soliciting the purchase of radio tickets, supposed to be free.

President Crosses Up Mrs.!

NEW YORK.—Just ten days before Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was to begin her series of air talks for a Latin-American coffee group, the President signed an executive order placing severe restriction upon the importation of coffee from the Latin-American countries.

Evelyn Lynne to Marry

CHICAGO.—Here's a girl who believes married life is a full-time career—and proves it. Evelyn Lynne, sweet-singing brunette beauty of NBC's "Breakfast Club" and "Club Matinee," will be married late in October, and will give up the radio career which in the past few years has carried her to third place among female vocalists in last year's MovIE-RADIO GUIDE Star of Stars Poll and won her a warm place in the hearts of thousands of listeners. The young man for whom the twenty-one-yearold songstress (whose real name is Lynne Honeycutt) will renounce her professional career is Edward Coontz, program director of KVOO, Tulsa, Okla. It's a long-time romance. Marion Mann will succeed the retiring songstress on "Breakfast Club" and "Club Matinee."

FOUR Los Angeles-KFI announcers also have big network jobs. They are, I. to r., Jim Bannon ("Great Gildersleeve"), Herb Allen ("Dear John"), Wilson Edwards ("Gildersleeve"), Bill Stulla (Rudy Vallee)

ACTIVITIES

Hope Springs Here and There

CHICAGO. — Bob Hope, now-noted autobiographer with his humorous new book, "They Got Me Covered," has been covering some territory the past couple of weeks. The comedian flew from the Pacific Coast to appear at the Legion convention in Milwaukee. Next stop was Philadelphia for the premiere of the new Hope picture, "Nothing But the Truth," and for a benefit show and a benefit golf match with Bobby Jones. Then Hope flew back to Chicago to rehearse and broadcast his first radio show. Washington and New York were in the itinerary for broadcasts before the comedian's return home to Hollywood.

Benny Gang Warms Up

HOLLYWOOD. — A vacation-battered Jack Benny gang got together Sep-tember 15 for a recording session so they could see "how nervous they'd be for their first show on October 5.' In the spotlight were Benny's writers, Bill Morrow and Ed Beloin, who had just been rescued by the U.S. Coast Guard after drifting helplessly for twenty hours off Catalina Island.

Pine Ridge Busybodies

CHICAGO.—"Lum and Abner," for a couple of slow-and-easy old-timers, did some mighty active stepping in connection with the launching of their new NBC series from Chicago. Within the span of a few days they not only began their own Coast-to-Coast series but they also appeared as guests on the "National Barn Dance," "News of the World," "Quiz Kids" and "Na-tional Farm and Home Hour." All but the last-named are sponsored by "Lum and Abner's" pay-roller.

HONOR

Best "Family Program" HOLLYWOOD.—For the second suc-cessive year "One Man's Family" has received the American Legion Auxiliary award as "the sponsored program which has best served the American family." The presentation was made in a ceremony at the American Legion national convention in Milwaukee.

SIDELIGHTS

Heckler Heckled!

NEW YORK .- One of the biggest nuisances at a quiz program is the fellow who knows the answer and cannot restrain whispering it aloud. Appropriately, it remained for Ralph Edwards, conductor of the riotous "Truth or Consequences" show, to demonstrate how to squelch such hecklers effectively. When at a recent broadcast a man in the audience audibly whispered the answer to a question, Mel Allen, announcer, and Jack Farnell, an assistant, rushed over to him and pelted him with popcorn, soap flakes and flour. When it was all over, Edwards presented the di-sheveled victim with five dollars to show that there were no hard feelings on the part of the program.

Radio Star a Rodeo Boss

HOLLYWOOD.-Gene Autry's order of hundred and fifty hand-carved, silver-studded saddles for the use of riders in the rodeo he plans to stage in the spring of 1942 is believed by officials of the leather-goods industry to be the largest single order from an individual in history. The star of the "Melody Ranch" program is spending one hundred thousand dollars in preparation for the rodeo tour. Quarters for the troupe have been established on Gene's ranch near Ardmore, Okla.

Their Success Goes Double

CHICAGO.—A husband-wife team that is successful professionally as well as domestically is that of Owen Vinson and Pauline Hopkins. Technically, the former is a radio producer, the latter a writer. In actual practise they pool their talents and collaborate in writing, selecting and editing scripts, directing and in various other phases of radio broadcasting. The Hopkins-Vinson combination writes and produces "That Brewster Boy," writes "Midstream" and produces ground station told the pilot that Edgar Bergen's valuable dummy was still on the ground. The special plane came back and picked up Charlie.

National Anthem Made It!

New York.-After 129 years of what New York.—After 129-years of what Tin Pan Alley would call consistent plugging, "The Star-Spangled Ban-ner" finally made the "Hit Parade." The song, broadcast September 13, was played by Mark Warnow's or-chestra, with the 1,200 voices of the trudic ordinarce singing studio audience singing.

Andy Breaks Up Amos

HOLLYWOOD.-It happened just prior to their trip east for the World Series. Amos 'n' Andy were discussing the

"Knickerbocker Playhouse." At home and on the Vinson farm near Sycamore, Ill., somewhat the same system of collective action is followed in all the tasks from dressing one-year-old Kathleen to repairing the fence on the south forty acres.

McCarthy Misses Plane

HOLLYWOOD.—Charlie McCarthy was deserted-or played hookey-for forty minutes September 14 before a rescue party in a big airliner picked him up after an SOS called attention to his plight. The cast of the "Chase and Sanborn Program," with Rita Hayworth, guest star, was flying to Camp Roberts to do their broadcast when a message from the Burbank, Calif., borrowing of ten thousand dollars from the bank. In the Kingfish's voice, Andy said, "Yah, sah, I got de papers right here"—whereupon he pulled out of his pocket and laid in front of his partner Amos one royal flush, complete from ace to ten-spot. Amos took one look at the poker hand, and broke into laughter so hard that it was almost a minute before he could regain his composure.

Sponsor Adds Third Show

NEW YORK .- The sponsor of the Andre Kostelanetz show on CBS and the Singin' Sam transcriptions will soon launch a third show on MBS. It

Star Sparkles • RUBLE BLAKESLEY, the warm tenor balladeer with Lionel Hampton's swing band, once studied for and was definitely headed for -grand opera!

• "DEATH VALLEY DAYS" was first broad-cast in September of 1930, and since then nearly six hundred true stories of the Old and New West have been presented on the series, with the Old Ranger as narrator. The program is written by Ruth Cornwall Wood-man, who regularly makes trips to the Death Vallow region to other and authenticate her Valley region to gather and authenticate her story material.

FEW weeks ago came the announcement over the German-controlled Paris Shortwave Station that a powerful new shortwave transmitter was soon to be inaugurated at Vichy. That station, called "La Voie de la France" (The Voice of France), is now on the air and broadcasting to the world daily from 6:00 to 6:15, 6:30 to 7:15, 7:30 to 8:15 and 8:30 to 8:45 a.m. CST on a frequency of 15.24 megs. Experimental broadcasts have also been heard on a frequency of 11.845 megs. Programs over the new station con-sist of French music and talks. No languages other than French seem to be used. Between transmission periods the ticking of a metronome is used as an interval signal. At 6:00 a.m. CST the programs from Vichy suffer from interference caused by another station operating on the same frequency. Some believe the interfering broadcaster is Paris station Y, which is scheduled to operate on the same frequency at that hour.

Add Jane Anderson Expose

Regular readers of this department will recall the recent expose Movie-RADIO GUIDE made of Jane Anderson, Catholic fire-ball propagandist who spouts forth over Berlin stations DJD (11.77), DZD (10.54), Sundays and Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. CST.

Now comes additional and sensational information concerning Jane Anderson, as told to my friend, B. E. Lucas, popular Chicago Times column-Lucas, popular Chicago Times column-ist, by Jeff Sullivan of Arvin, Cali-fornia, friend of Jane Anderson's father. Mr. Sullivan claims that Jane Anderson was Deems Taylor's first wife, married in Mexico, before Taylor became famous. Sullivan laims to hong noid huga hotal hills claims to have paid huge hotel bills for her before she left this country, is now trying to collect. Sullivan stated further that neither Jane Anderson nor her family had any Catholic or other religious inclinations; that she possibly assumed the faith by marrying Cienfuegos, whose nobility, by the way, cannot be ascer-tained. Lucas says she is a religious faker pure and simple. So now it comes out that this Jane Anderson is not even sincere in her own convictions; far from being a Catholic zealot, she is a charlatan of the first rank seeking to gain followers by this propaganda trickery.

FOR ALL NATIONS is Bob Burns' new show, "Arkansas Traveler," new show, heard Tuesday over station WCAB

Finland Broadcasts News to U.S.

Although fighting with the Axis and thus technically lined up against this country, Finland is still very anxious to keep in our good graces. Proof of this is recent inauguration by Finland of English news periods expressly directed to U. S. listeners. Finland thus intends to give the real news to this country rather than an Axisdictated version. The Finnish Shortwave Station at Lahti broadcasts an English newscast at 6:30 a.m. CST over OIE (15.19), OFE (11.78) and OFD (9.50). This is not primarily for North American reception, however. At exactly 2:50 and at 6:55 p.m. CST Lahti broadcasts English news bulle-tins for the U. S. These can be heard over OIE (15.19) or OFE (11.78).

Moscow Transmits on Many Frequencies

Apparently trying "to make hay while the sun shines," Radio Center, Moscow, is literally flooding the U. S. with Soviet propaganda-casts, Soviet culture-casts, musical programs, news, by radiating especially for this country several times daily and over many frequencies. Present scheduled English programs for North America sent out daily by Radio Center, Moscow, together with the best frequencies for reception follow (CST): 7:05 to 7:30 a.m. over RV96 (15.18); 9:00 to 9:50 a.m. over RV96 (15.18); 4:51 to 4:58 p.m. over 15.18, 15.11, 15.23 and 11.90 megs; 5:00 to 5:58 and 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. over 15.18, 15.11, 15.23 and 11.90 megs, and 8:30 to 9:00 p.m. over 15.18, 11.90 and 11.75 megs. Ironically enough the Moscow station on 11.75 enough the Moscow station on 11.75 megs interferes badly with GSD, London, which is on the same fre-quency. Other Moscow frequencies which are used irregularly include 14.91, 15.255, 15.28 and 15.50 megs.

FM Radio Gains Popularity

Despite some delays in the production of FM transmitters and receivers, FM, the new noise-free, high-fidelity radio, is rapidly coming into its own.

BUCK BOYD is the Byrd explorer who verified listeners' reports on reception from Little America

Many of the larger cities now have several FM program choices to offer listeners having the new sets. Approximately seventeen FM stations are broadcasting regular commercial programs, the most recent to go on the air being W45CM (44.4), of Columbus, Ohio. W59C (45.9), FM sister to WGN of Chicago, had its official dedicatory program on Sep-tember 20. Construction permits have recently been issued to CBS for an FM station in St. Louis, Missouri, and to the Seaboard Radio Broadcasting Corp. in Philadelphia. Educational establishments are also adopting FM, latest of these being the Chicago Board of Education and the University of Illinois.

General Notes

Strengthening its radio as well as its military defenses, Singapore, the Gibraltar of the East, has added another short-wave outlet, also has in-creased the power of its older trans-mitters. The new station, ZHP4 (11.735), broadcasts daily from 5:00 to 9:15 a.m. CST simultaneously with ZHP3 (725). ZHP3 (7.25). These stations carry native, French and German programs, while ZHP1 (9.69) and ZHP2 (6.175) feature English programs and relays from the BBC in London . . . Aside from its regular daily programs, TAP (9.465), Ankara, Turkey, carries the following special features: CBS pickups, Mondays and Fridays, from 4:50 to 5:00 p.m.; press dispatches by Ray Brock for the New York Times daily at 5:00 p.m.; NBC pick-ups (except Saturdays) at 5:17 p.m., Saturdays at 4:30 p.m. CST . . . August Balbi, Los Angeles, California, reports reception of a powerful new Japanese station, JVZ2 (11.825), from 9:30 p.m. to 12:00 midnight and from 12:15 to 1:00 a.m. CST. This station does not use English TI4NRH, owned by my old friend

Amando Cespedes Marin of Heredia, Costa Rica, is now operating on the new frequency of 9.74 megs and at the new hour of 10:00 to 11:00 p.m.

1. SUSAN BENEDICT is running away from home. Lonely, neglected, she is leaving her father, who has always resented her presence, especially since recent death of his wife. Newcomer to Farmington, she has made no friends

2. WALKING NEAR the Jackson home, Susan is stopped and comforted by a stranger—Lillian Burke, Martha Jackson's sister. Lillian, who has experienced the same loneliness, is gentle and understanding, takes her into the house

"Woman of Courage"

MARTHA JACKSON, "Woman of Courage," is currently surprised and delighted at the change in her sister Lillian. It appears that Lillian, unmarried sister who lives with the Jacksons, is snapping out of her role as a neurotic, unhappy woman, resentful of Martha's charm and popularity. Change comes when Lillian finds a neglected, nine-year-old girl, Susan Benedict, running away from her father, Joe Benedict. Brotherin-law of the Jacksons' friend, George Harrison, Benedict came to live in Farmington after his wife died. The child blurts out a story that her father has never loved her because she is so different from her mother. When Benedict calls for Susan, he realizes his unkindness, makes friends with the Jacksons, especially Lillian. Lillian takes a romantic interest in Benedict. Listen to "Woman of Courage" (CBS) with these pictures before you.

SECOND HOME for Bob Trout and wife is their fifty-foot schooner, "Water Witch," which Bob bought in 1940. They wanted to sail to the South Seas, but a world war got in the way

LONGEST TRIP Trout has taken in his boat is from New York to Newport, R. I. Although he has done considerable boating, sailing is new to him, and charting course for a two-day cruise is an important job

TO MRS. TROUT, keeping the "Water Witch" shipshape means keeping galley clean. The Skipper, knowing his own best interest, often lends a hand, also swabs decks

MEET YOUR COMMENTATOR: Globe-Trotter BOB TROUT

WHEN lank, pipe-smoking Bob Trout goes to London this fall to relieve vacationing CBS European chief Ed Murrow, it will be an assignment taken in stride. Trout has traveled fast and far for CBS, and Clippering to Lisbon October 14 will be merely another interesting episode in his commentator career. Mr. Trout would rather be going to the South Seas. Since the days when he became known as the President's favorite announcer in Washington, he has had a yen for sailing, and last year he bought a fifty-foot schooner, Water Witch, which he is itching to take on a long cruise. But a war is on and the Trouts have long since learned the insatiability of a news-hungry public. Even their honeymoon turned into a ride on the presidential train. Special assignments—from British royalty's tour of the U. S. and Canada to reporting the inaugural trip of the Atlantic Clipper—always seem to crop up, spoiling vacation plans. So into dry dock once more goes the Water Witch —and to London Town goes commentator Trout. —J. C.

LAZY MAN'S LIFE depicted here is not for Bob Trout on duty. Traveling a year-round average of a thousand miles a week, he hops from one tough broadcasting assignment to another THREE BLASTS on this old-fashioned fog-horn is Trout's call for a tender to bring him ashore—and back to a heavy schedule. The "Water Witch" will be put in dry dock until Trout returns from Europe BACK AMONG chattering news-tickers, Trout jokes with fellow commentator Linton Wells. He's looking forward to the London trip, but even more to the South Seas cruise

Radio Covers the Maneuvers

It's ringside seats for dial-twisters as America's new Army goes to battle

UNTIL THE ARMY publishes its own record of September maneuvers there will be no accurate maps. Above map shows probable action only. Circle suggests boundaries of maneuvers; tri-angle shows battle lines. Invading army is indicated by dotted line, defenders by crosses moth September maneuvers, U. S. broadcasters are relaxing after the biggest war job they've ever tackled. Like the Army, radio went to maneuvers; like the Army, radio operated for two weeks anywhere and everywhere in a vast area of 22,000 square miles (see map), covering swampland. forests, grain fields, mountains and plains. There 500,000 troops moved about, using every conceivable type of weapon. Armored divisions, fighter and bomber squadrons, river boats, infantry-every branch of service combined to make the Louisiana maneuvers the most gigantic ever at-tempted by U. S. armed forces. Broadcasting networks had crews of reporters and engineers operating continuously. To get an idea of the magnitude of the job, follow the staff of Nashville's station WSM. Veterans of the mid-season Tennessee maneuvers.

A^S U. S. Army tycoons mull over when they followed the armies in a gadget-loaded railroad car, WSM regadget-loaded railroad car, WSM reporters and technicians knew their job when they went into Louisiana with FM and short-wave equipment carried in a new, specially built trailer. Pictures on this page, made during WSM's coverage of the "Tennessee war," demonstrate how they operated in the big-league battles of the "Louisiana war." There were plenty of headaches. Since Army leaders on both sides used hundreds of spies, saboteurs and fifthcolumnists, broadcasters had to be forever wary in order to avoid capture as "enemy aliens." Dragging their mobile equipment about, digging into ditches to hide from the enemy, radio men learned the arts of camouflage and reconnaissance. They had to stick with the Army though it meant crawling through mud, thickets and swamps-

IN 18th-CENTURY brocade and buckles—but minus hose—Dr. Giacomo McCarthy sets the mood, orally and visually, for Basin Street broadcasts. With the sedate commentator is bandleadervocalist Dolly Dawn, guest whom he introduced as Maestro Dollysandro Dawn. McCarthy is successor to Dr. Gino (Gene) Hamilton

WORTHY SUCCESSOR to Dinah Shore as darling diva of Basin Street is Diane Courtney (above). Yankee-born, Miss Courtney falls easily into the Deep South style of Basin Street boys. She was Fred Waring's original Honey of Two Bees and a Honey. Right: In jammed Radio City, studio audience watches Basin Streeters in action. Dixieland Octet is seen at left. Seated (center) are Loumel Morgan Trio, Professor Laval, Diane Courtney. Rear: McCarthy, Dolly Dawn

"GREETINGS, music-lovers!" With such genteel words, and using a script liberally sprinkled with the direction, "A LA DEADPAN," Dr. Giacomo Pretzelface McCarthy gets this program off to its usual zany start over NBC.

The Basin Street broadcast can, in fact, be adequately described as genteelly zany in its kidding of the classics by musicians, many of whom do the classics supremely well on other programs. Zaniest part of the show are commentaries of Dr. (Jack) Mc-Carthy, the blues-lovers' Deems Taylor. On the broadcast visited by Movte-Radio Guine, for example, the austere Doctor told listeners, "We are honored to have with us the Loumel Morgan Chamber Trio, who closed a concert tour last week at Kelly's Stables and who will shortly open in Chicago at the stockyards." Dr. Henry Hotlips Levine was introduced thus: "We hear the good doctor's strictly-from-Dixie reading of 'Hometown Blues' ... played a la it shouldn't happen to a dog."

Rivaling Dr. McCarthy's commentaries in corralling fanatically devoted listeners is the blues-and-hot music served up by Paul Laval's Woodland Ten, Dr. Levine's Dixieland Octet, Diane Courtney and guests. Even the Basin Streeters' sign-off is a gag— "Adieu—which is French for 'So long, Slug!'" —J. C.

Next Week: "HOUR OF CHARM"

ARTIE SHAW gives out for his first Victor recording date with his thirty-two-piece orchestra

HE other day we were talking with George Hogan, who announces quite a number of Mutual's remote dance programs. Mr. Hogan, who is an intelligent young announcer, believes that the average program featuring a dance band from a hotel or night-spot is a stereotyped affair, badly in need of some form of production to lift it above the sameness that stamps each of these airings. Hogan contends that the time used by the average name band for its dance-music presentations does constitute valuable sustaining time. By that fact alone, he says, the radio sta-tions should do something for these shows, very much in the manner that studio-prepared sustainings are nursed and rehearsed carefully before they are given to the public. As many of you are no doubt aware, in the late evenings when dance music is about all there is on the air, program after program features the same half-baked one-line announcements from the announcers preceding each number. According to Hogan, there should be an attempt to stylize the band's con-tinuity with workable, sensible script. The announcer should also be given a larger opportunity to exchange banter, smart and timely, with the bandleader and give the entire period a produc-tion background. Another thing that would be eliminated, says Hogan, is the habit of announcers calling wrong numbers. This occurs because at the last minute the band decides to make a change in programming or reverse the order of the tunes.

BANDSTAND NOTES

By Maurice Granger

By way of putting in our own two cents' worth, we might add that it wouldn't be a bad idea for a bandleader to hire a bright young assistant producer now in radio. Those lads have plenty of original ideas about music and could easily devise a show that would meet the requirements which Hogan says are necessary for smart dance broadcasts. Would a stylized dance broadcast be successful? Who knows? Look at what the "College of Musical Knowledge" did for Kay Kyser.

Your Engagement Ring

Lives Happily Ever After

ANN THOMAS, Lily on "Meet Mr. Meek," likes the simplicity of the traditional diamond solitaire. Her engagement ring came from Black, Starr & Gorham MARGIE DAVIES, Syl-via on "Maudie's Di-ary," chose this $75 engagement ring. The central diamond is set off by small baguette stones on each side

By

SK any American girl and she'll tell you that a ring on the finger is worth two on the phone! That's feminine philosophy, and it's a wise girl who'll use her head not only to get her heart's desire but make just as careful a choice of the diamond engagement ring that comes with him.

Pretty well gone are the days when the young man popped the all-important question and produced the ring in the same breath. Today the modern girl goes right along with her fiance up to the counter of a local jewelry store and asks for a solitaire of such-andsuch a size in one or another cut, please, and then demands to see the stone under a magnifying glass before she'll let the young man put down the money!

Whether you plan to spend $50 or $5,000 for an engagement ring, there are fundamentals to know about in selecting your stone. Those of you who can afford $50, $70, or $100 for a ring are more important to jewelers than the rare customer who will spend in the thousands. So remember this when you are thinking of an engagement eler in town. You will find that he has diamonds of all prices, and because diamonds are valued by their weight, color, cut and clarity you are assured that a reliable jeweler will give you your absolute money's worth. Always remember that there are no bargains in diamonds. They are an investment, and by going to a jeweler whose reputation is sound you may be sure that your expenditure has been a wise one.

In buying a diamond there are four factors that always have something to do with the price tag. The whiter and frostier a diamond looks, the greater its value. The proportions of the cut, or shape, are important. And the degree of clarity counts. Practically all diamonds have some minute cracks or specks, but you don't want these to be visible to the naked eye. If you will think of the four "C words" when

The color of your stone is important. To judge color, look at a diamond by daylight as well as under the counter lighting. Gem experts use a clear north light for grading diamonds. The stan-dard for a bridal diamond is a steely, frosty white, as pure as ice. The amount of "fire" that darts through the gem depends on the number of facets, or sides cut into it to reflect the light. A round stone in the "brilliant" cut is the most dazzling of all. Your mother probably had a solitaire brilliant in a gold-prong setting. The newer squarecut and emerald-cut (the latter is square or oblong with niped-off corners) give less flash and flame but are clean-lined and modern.

OU must also try to select a becom-You must also if y to other instance ing ring. Here's another instance where a good jeweler will be a help to you. Just as a milliner knows all about shapes of faces and will tell you which hat fits your face, a jeweler knows all about the shape of hands and he'll help each of you choose a ring that belongs to your type, and thus flatters your hand.

The wedding band should always be of the same metal and engraved or turned to match the engagement ring. It is much less expensive, however, unless you're lucky enough to afford a little row of diamonds across the top or clear around the finger. It's smart to select your wedding band when you go for your engagement ring. Jewelers have sets that are designed to go together and you should certainly look at these.

I remind you again to choose wisely. A diamond is a "fragment of eternity." With the ring on your finger your love is for life-and your diamond for future generations.

Bulls & Boners

Bulls and boners are a part of broadcasting. No matter how experienced the performer or how famous the star. chances are that he will make an occasional slip or a statement with twisted meaning which is extremely funny. See how good your ears are. Try to catch broadcasters in some error-the funnier the better-and send your entry to Movie-Radio Guide, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago. The most humorous entries will be printed in this column. Watch for your contribution!

More Pleas for Martha

Dear Sirs: We want "Martha Webster" back on the air with the same cast. It was the best serial on the air-so true to life. It gave us listeners courage and in-spiration, too, and that's more than many serials do with all their trouble and woe.

Hazel Anderson, Farmington, Ill.

• The letter above and the one below are typical of many that have come to us since the serial "Martha Webster" was taken off the air .- The Editors.

Dear Sirs:

The letters to your column asking for the return of "Martha Webster" express the sentiments of many of us here in Canada. We think such a grand program deserves to stay on the air. Alice Bergman, Toronto, Ont., Can.

Tolerance, Please!

Dear Sirs: I'd like to say a word in favor of the sponsors. Many people are continually complaining about the commercials on our favorite programs. But let's consider the announcers, engineers, artists, and even the business officials, laborers and office clerks who make a livelihood directly or indirectly through those sponsors. It costs us but a fraction of a cent to enjoy the program, but it costs sponsors hundreds and thousands of dollars to produce them. If the listeners had to pay for the broadcasting, as they would if there were no sponsors, our entertainment would cost us dearly. So be fair.

The Summer Hermít Returns

Fred Allen is back at work after two months of seclusion in Maine

To FRED ALLEN, who writes his own scripts and works harder than most of his hard-working brother comics, a vacation is no laughing matter. Back in New York now, starting CBS Wednesday broadcasts, Fred and wife Portland have taken their usual vacation—two months of hermit-like seclusion at Old Orchard Beach, Maine. The Allens are plain people, have no more hankering for frills on their annual Maine vacations than at home in New York. Their summer cottage is a simple utilitarian affair like the other frame buildings at Old Orchard. Their recreation was of the usual Old Orchard variety — bathing, clam-baking and loafing. Their object: A respite from the labor of laugh-making.—J. C.

SADLY, ALMOST SOURLY, Fred prepares to leave Maine, helps wife Portland with packing for return to New York and the fall broadcasting season. He was back on "Texaco Star Theater" October I
