What Will Marriage
Do to Mickey Rooney?

EDDIE CANTOR
"Time to Smile," NBC

THE EDITORS' NOTE:

THE most flexible of entertainment mediums, radio already has passed through its peace-to-wartime transition. Without exception, every station in the United States is on a full-time war footing today. For the most part, it's "business as usual," although each station has received a set of secret instructions by which it will be governed in case of an actual and local emergency.

The speed of radio's transition has been possible because of the nature of broadcasting. Radio programs always have been changed, canceled, rewritten practically on a moment's notice. For that reason, changes in broadcasting could be made swiftly.

Already, simply by our day-to-day tuning-in, we know how the war is going to affect radio and the entertainment it provides. But how about the movies?

No less important to the nation's entertainment, filming a motion picture is vastly different from producing a radio program. Making a movie is a long, laborious process, usually requiring months of research and preparation in advance of the actual "shooting schedule," which may run five to eight weeks, even longer. For those reasons, and since many pictures were completed and awaiting release when the war began, changes in motion-picture entertainment will be slower in coming. The war's influence will not be felt in the movies themselves for another two or three or perhaps six months.

What will happen then?

Changes in radio broadcasting have been few to date, with the exception of those areas which have had blackouts. Changes in wartime movies will be few also, according to preliminary reports.

Lowell Mellett, director of the Office of Government Reports, has been appointed by President Roosevelt coordinator of films during the war emergency. In a letter recently made public, the President was quoted by newspapers as having written:

"The American motion picture is one of our most effective media in informing and entertaining our citizens. The motion picture must remain free in so far as national security will permit. I want no censorship of the motion picture; I want no restrictions placed thereon which will impair the usefulness of the film other than those very necessary restrictions which the dictates of safety make imperative."

All of which is very fair. No citizen, in the face of current conditions, would have things otherwise. The movies will not suffer, and together the two greatest mediums of American entertainment—radio and the motion picture—will march shoulder to shoulder doing their share to help win the war.

ACROSS THE DESK: Here is a paragraph from a letter which arrived at press-time. A reader writes:

"Listening to our news broadcasters, commentators and analysts, I cannot help but be impressed by the feeling of confidence they radiate, even when they are describing reverses and predicting black days to come. It seems to me almost as though many of these men, in close touch with the international scene, know more than they are telling. And that what they know—is good. I wonder if you have felt it too?"

We have—haven't you?

PICTURE OF THE WEEK:

Bob Hope's Most Difficult Assignment

HE DIDN'T want to do it, but the script called for it. So Bob Hope, long a fervent admirer of blond Madeleine Carroll, planted a firm, swift kick in the lingerie of Miss Carroll on the set of Paramount's "My Favorite Blonde." This is MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's exclusive photographic record of the event. Naturally, the bit of business outraged every nerve and fiber in a man of Hope's chivalrous ways, and more than it appears he sought to ease the blow as much as possible. But the action for the scene from the picture called for slapstick and the "show must go on," said Bob.

"My Favorite Blonde" is a spy story to end all spy stories. In it Bob is up to his usual mischief and Mady comes as something extra special in British agents. That it is rip-roaring comedy goes without saying. Before movie-goers see Mady as a spy, however, they'll see her as just a beautiful girl in "Bahama Passage," which is just now being released by Paramount.

← MAKING "BAHAMA PASSAGE" (left and right), Madeleine Carroll had some unusual experiences, too, with Stirling Hayden. First, she went to Nassau in the West Indies to make the picture. Second, she received some very expert sailing-lessons from the nautical Mr. Hayden in return for showing him some tricks of camera acting. Third, she came back to the U. S. to be greeted with fantastic stories of her tropical romance with Hayden—a romance which didn't exist. The picture itself turns out to be a gorgeous Technicolor production, revealing Miss Carroll under Caribbean skies and in love with Stirling Hayden. And Bob Hope is sad because it wasn't his luck to do the romance story with Mady instead of having to kick her in "My Favorite Blonde" →

Help Name the Prettiest and Most Promising Starlet of 1941

Here's your chance to be a judge of glamour

—Welbourne
NANCY COLEMAN (above): Warner Bros. starlet; has important part in "Kings Row." Learned much from Gertrude Lawrence while playing in "Susan and God." Five feet six, 120 pounds, red hair

—C. Kenneth Lobben
VERONICA LAKE (below): Also the object of powerful publicity as Paramount's blond bombshell. Gained film prominence by her siren role in "I Wanted Wings." Waxen blond hair, 98 pounds

—Ernest A. Bachrach
PEGGY DRAKE: An RKO-Radio Cinderella girl; won lead part opposite Jon Hall in "The Tuttles of Tahiti" without previous important film experience. Born in Vienna, Austria. Five feet two, 104 pounds, brunette. Also an accomplished dancer and singer

—Maurine
JANE RUSSELL: Though her first screen appearance will be in Howard Hughes' "The Outlaw," she is one of the most widely publicized of the newcomers. Was a doctor's receptionist when her chance came via her photograph. Five feet seven, 122 pounds

—Frank Powolny
ANNE BAXTER: 20th Century-Fox starlet; has appeared in "Twenty Mule Team," "The Great Profile," "Charley's Aunt," other pictures. Five feet three, 111 pounds, hazel eyes, chestnut hair. She likes to walk and she likes to eat. She's a Hoosier

—Clarence Bull
LARAINÉ DAY: Young in years and in length of screen experience, she looms as a potential big star by virtue of her work in "My Son, My Son," "Foreign Correspondent," "Doctor Kildare" series, other films. Five feet five, 112 pounds, brown hair

THERE may be shortages in some commodities, but there's no current scarcity in the visual luxury of lovely young femininity decorating the silver screen. And no scarcity in acting talent among those youthful visions of delight. Every year American moviegoers are confronted with the pleasing process of film neophytes making their initial bid for success, some with accompanying publicity splurges, some with not so much press notice. Every year the movie fans find interest in watching the development of the beginners, in picking their personal favorites, predicting success for individual stars and seeing how their prophecies turn out. And each year producers of pictures have a problem of determining which of the beginners show most promise of reaching the higher levels of performance and box-office appeal. Putting these facts together this year, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE decided to do something—both to help fans get a more purposeful kick out of their personal opinions and to assist producers in gauging the popular estimates of the new feminine candidates for stardom and glamorization. On these two pages is a gallery of the girls who have already forged to the front

JANET BLAIR: Was vocalist with the late Hal Kemp's band before Columbia signed her for pictures. Has enticing, throaty singing voice. Five feet four, 110 pounds, chestnut hair, brown eyes. She will be seen in "Trinidad" with Pat O'Brien and Brian Donlevy

MARY LEE: Republic's western-film candidate for female-starlet honors. At twelve she was singing with Ted Weems' band. Gene Autry heard her and hired her to play in his pictures. Now has a long-term contract. Five feet, 100 pounds even, brunette

ANN AYARS: Black-haired, blue-eyed Ann wound up with a screen contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer when her heart was set on a grand opera career. Born right in Beverly Hills, California. After screen test she landed feature role in "Dr. Kildare's Victory"

JANE FRAZEE: Universal's singing starlet. Has had bright career singing in theaters and cafes; sang on commercial radio show with Larry Clinton's band. Her work in "Buck Privates" won her stardom in "Sing Another Chorus." Auburn hair, green eyes during 1941. Maybe you like twenty-three-year-old, red-haired Nancy Coleman. Like Dorothy Lamour, she rose from an elevator-operating job, getting her first professional dramatic experience in radio in San Francisco. Perhaps Peggy Drake, who was born Liese Lotte in the enchanting Vienna, Austria, of other days, appeals to you. Undoubtedly you've seen dozens of alluring photographs of Jane Russell these past few months, and she could quite conceivably be your pick. Of course, there's Veronica Lake, she of the blond, slender seductiveness. You might be inclined to the wavy-haired, hazel-eyed type of Anne Baxter, who, by the way, was high in the running for the lead role in "Rebecca." Perhaps you like the smile of Janet Blair, a colleen whose real name is Martha Lafferty. There's winsome, warbling little Mary Lee; and black-haired, blue-eyed Ann Ayars; and auburn-haired, green-eyed Jane Frazee. Exciting Gene Tierney has scored in "Tobacco Road" and "Sundown." A ballot is printed herewith for your use in helping to pick and boost the future winners among the current starlets.

GENE TIERNEY: Came to Hollywood via the stage from eastern society. Made screen debut in "The Return of Frank James." Also clicked in "Tobacco Road" and "Sundown." Five feet five, reddish-brown hair, green eyes. Miss Tierney caused widespread talk and friction in her own family by eloping with Count Oleg Cassini last summer. She will be seen next in "Son of Fury"

Printed below is a ballot for your use in voting for the actress of the group pictured on these two pages whom you think is the "prettiest starlet" and for the one you consider the "most promising starlet." Vote for first and second in each category. Place a figure 1 and figure 2 opposite the names of your choice for first and second. Tear along the dotted line and send your ballot, pasted on a post-card or in an envelope, to Movie Starlet Poll Editor, Movie-Radio Guide, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill., not later than January 31, 1942.

Eddie Cantor Returns to Broadway

↑ FUNNIEST SCENE of "Banjo Eyes" is this, in which Eddie and comedienne Audrey Christie progress hilariously from gags to lugubrious romance with a door-key as the starting-point

PLAYING SIX DAYS a week in "Banjo Eyes," Cantor must still carry on with the huge job of producing his "Time to Smile." Left to right: ↓ Director Bob Welch, Eddie, agency's J. M. Allen

"BANJO EYES," Eddie Cantor's new Broadway show, has famous comedian Eddie as the lovable laughing-stock he always plays. Tight shoes do not mean anything to officers, learns rookie Cantor, especially if they don't have to wear them!

ENERGETIC Eddie Cantor is outdoing himself. The short, wiry grandfather-comedian with the banjo eyes is back on Broadway in his own production, "Banjo Eyes." He's doing it in addition to his hit radio show, "Time to Smile" (Wed., NBC). And anybody who is up on his radio knows that starring in a broadcast like "Time to Smile" is a laborious, time-consuming job—a full-time job. Broadway shows are no snap, either. Theater-wise people were aghast at the idea of Cantor taking on "Banjo Eyes" on top of running his weekly radio show. But before opening in "Banjo Eyes," Eddie was convinced in his own mind that he could do both. He streamlined conferences with radio writers, sponsor representatives. He set aside time for benefit performances and war duties. Then, as owner and star of the stage show, he opened for a hit run in Philadelphia, playing every day except Wednesday. Now Eddie is on Broadway playing to full houses. In "Banjo Eyes" Eddie plays a typical Cantor role as the gullible little guy, wears everything from out-size pants and a coat four sizes too big for him to blanket plaid suits. And both on Broadway and on the air he delivers the goods.

↑ GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS—and Eddie's big orbits don't miss a trick in scene from the finale. Cantor-owned, Cantor-produced, Broadway show "Banjo Eyes" is all Cantor at his rollicking best

BEING BACK ON BROADWAY has its thrills and nostalgic satisfactions, but Eddie Cantor keeps his eyes on millions of radio listeners who ↓ tune him in every Wednesday night, on NBC

What Will Marriage Do to Mickey Rooney?

MICKEY ROONEY and his bride-to-be, Ava Gardner, make no secret of their happiness, posing in the living-room of Mickey's home, where he lives with his mother, Mrs. Nell Pankey. Mickey has just turned 21

—Jack Albin

WELL MATCHED, both high-spirited and full of pep, these youngsters enjoy life and enjoy each other, like the same things. Here they are at a popular Hollywood bowling-center with Mickey marking down scores

TAKEN by surprise at the idea of the boy who plays Andrew Hardy planning to marry, mothers all over the country are wondering, "Is Mickey Rooney marrying a nice girl?" "Isn't Mickey Rooney awfully young to think of getting married?" "What will marriage do to Mickey?" For mothers, the girl makes all the difference in the world—and in lovely, eighteen-year-old Ava Gardner they won't be disappointed. She has all the answers. Perhaps the simplest answer is that, for these two youngsters, it's the real thing. It's real love!

Ava is slightly taller than Mickey but cuddles to his level. She has kittenish gray-green eyes, is a flashing brunette. A southern girl from Smithfield, N. C., Ava grew up pretty enough to become a New York model. An M-G-M scout saw a photo of her in a New York show window and decided that Miss Gardner would do more than all right in Hollywood.

That's how Mickey came to see her soon afterward at lunch in the Metro commissary. He angled for an introduction and a date.

It hit Mickey on the head right then, like a pile-driver. The Mick's been deliciously happy ever since and he thinks this is the greatest thing that ever has happened to him. He and Ava want a quick and quiet wedding—which may take place even before this is printed. It's that important to both of them. For wondering mothers, one look at this couple is enough. This IS real love.

There are other questions. Will Mickey keep on clowning, or will he become more mature? Can Andy Hardy fans get used to Mickey as a young married man? Those who know him give a short answer to the first question. Married or not, he'll be the same old Mickey. And as for the Andy Hardy role, Mickey's acting will be good enough to carry that role, or any other which may come his way.

—E. P.

WHAT MARRIAGE will do to Mickey's puckish humor and typical-boy screen personality, expressed in above pose, is a puzzle to many

IT SHOULD not be forgotten, though, that Mickey is fast growing up to adulthood in acting-power, eagerly, confidently awaits heavier dramatic work

MARRIAGE is likely neither to hasten nor retard his normal dramatic development. He's still Andy Hardy for fans. He can be much more

"BRAT" GROWS UP

Virginia Weidler bit Barrymore in her first role; now she sings, dances and dates

VIRGINIA WEIDLER got her first film assignment when she was two and a half years old. She was to appear with John Barrymore in "Moby Dick." But she raised such a rumpus, screaming at everything and everybody and scratching and biting Barrymore, that they had to replace her. She made a comeback as a homely, cute six-year-old with Constance Bennett in "After Tonight" and clicked. Since then she has barged through numerous films, throwing monkey wrenches into romances with her brat roles. But suddenly Virginia is a little brat no more. In the soon-to-be-released M-G-M film, "Born to Sing," she's a pretty, vivacious young lady of fourteen years who sings and dances and has her first screen "date," with Ray McDonald. The movie in which Virginia achieves the sudden transformation is built around the musical narrative, "Ballad for Americans," which brought America to its feet via radio several years ago. The little actress' growing up extends to finances, too. She has a new contract that will bring her $2,000 a week.

BRAT: Above, right, is Virginia Weidler in her familiar role as the homely little scoundrel whose smile belies her capacity for mischief

YOUNG LADY: And below is the new Virginia who, in the forthcoming "Born to Sing," will dance with Ray McDonald, sing and look lovely

MUTINY!

—Walt Davis

NOTHING WILL BE ALLOWED to stand in the way of Hollywood's full cooperation in the war. Immediately after Pearl Harbor, stars were called into a general meeting by Norma Shearer. One of their first achievements was to pass a resolution of "mutiny" against a ruling by the Screen Actors Guild which had made it necessary for all members of the Guild to be paid their minimum-wage scale when they appear at an Army camp or Naval base. Mutineers who signed resolution include Hollywood's highest and mightiest. Left to right around table: Cary Grant, Gary Cooper, Ronald Colman, Edward Arnold, Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, John Garfield

OTHER INDIGNANT SIGNERS of the "mutiny" resolution were Jack Benny and Carole Lombard. They and their fellow stars have enlisted for the duration, will be on call to entertain, sell bonds, do anything Uncle Sam wants them to do. Note: Jack isn't proposing here; Gable is watching! The comedian is telling one of the stories that make him popular in any group

Jimmy Stewart Makes Good

On New Year's Day Corporal James Stewart became Second Lieutenant James Stewart, U. S. Army. Having earned the respect and admiration of Army men and the public for enlisting when he didn't have to, drudging cheerfully through nearly a year of ordinary soldiering, Stewart is receiving sincere congratulations from everyone now. The actor received his commission from Lieut. E. L. Reid at Moffett Field, was assigned to duty with the West Coast air training center, and thus had his ambition to enter the air corps fulfilled. He was an expert flyer in civilian life. Stewart said he was more excited about receiving his commission than about winning the 1940 Motion Picture Academy Award.

A group of Columbia stars have put themselves on record for all-out support of America's war by signing a scroll titled "New Year Resolutions for Victory in 1942." It reads:

BOOKS FOR THE BOYS

ON THE LOOKOUT, like other Americans, for something tangible they can do to help out in the war effort, screen actresses hit on an idea which will produce plenty of enjoyment for soldiers and sailors. They sold Billy Wilkerson, proprietor of Ciro's, on making a "Book Night" of it at the high-tariff, star-patronized nightclub. Every couple was to bring book donations for Army and Navy camps. Cover and all proceeds of Ciro's for the evening were to be turned over to the book fund. With scores of stars cooperating, it was a huge success. Dorothy Lamour brought thirty-one books, became the champion donor, and soldier boys present to pick up and truck the books back to various

Travels "Straight" Fifteen Years

Bud Abbott of Abbott and Costello celebrated his fifteenth year as "straight man" Friday, January 9. Although figuring in thousands of gags and situations in that time, eleven years of which he spent with Lou Costello, Bud has never told a joke! He concentrates on "feeding," and without the proper "feed" the punch line would have no value. All of which would seem to make Mr. Abbott world champion for "straight man" efficiency.

RKO Buys Twice-Told Tale

"Battle Stations," Borden Chase's dramatic story of American sailors, said to be the first story ever published twice in the Saturday Evening Post, has been purchased by RKO-Radio. First published in the Post in January, 1939, "Battle Stations" was reprinted for war-conscious Americans in the same magazine in September, 1940. It concerns the adventures of a group of U. S. Navy gunners assigned to protect a London-bound freighter from raiding Nazi submarines and it will be produced as a movie by Islin Auster.

Film M-G-M Steno's Romance

When M-G-M stars Ruth Hussey in "War Bride," actress Hussey will be dramatizing the war romance of a former M-G-M stenographer. Annalee Whitmore was a steno when Merwyn Leroy discovered her, got her a screen credit for script work she did on "Andy Hardy Meets a Debutante." But just as M-G-M was planning big things for Annalee, she lit off for China to marry newspaperman Mel Jacoby. When war broke out, the Jacobys were in Manila honeymooning. Annalee began writing "color" stuff from the Philippines, sold it to a national magazine. Now she has written the story of her own war romance and honeymoon under fire, which M-G-M will film as "War Bride."

Jane Wyman on Baby-Minding

It's lullabies by remote control for Jane Wyman, who has an angle on baby-minding any working mother might fancy. Jane, who spends most of her day at Warner Bros., where she is making "Larceny, Inc.," has made fifty-odd home recordings of nursery rhymes, lullabies and little stories for her eleven-month-old Maureen Elizabeth. "They seem to amuse her," says Jane. "And besides, I have a selfish reason. I don't want my child to forget her mother, after all."

THE WAR

Maureen Has Hubby Back

John Farrow has returned to Hollywood and his wife, Maureen O'Sullivan. He is on sick leave from the British Navy. While on duty in the South Atlantic, Farrow was stricken by a serious tropical disease, nearly died in a hospital in Curacao. The former director spent four months in bed, lost his hair, including eyebrows and lashes. Because of the seriousness of his illness, there is some doubt as to whether he will go back into active service, which he entered two years ago. The reunion took place at M-G-M, where Miss O'Sullivan is making "Tarzan Against the World."

Richard Webb Enlists

On his way to the officers' training school at Fort Benning, Georgia, is young Paramount contract player Richard Webb. Webb enlisted at year's end, reporting to Fort Ord, Calif., for induction and examinations. He has already served a three-year "hitch" in the Army and it was this, together with unusual acting talent, that got him his first break as cadet sergeant in Paramount's "I Wanted Wings."

MOVIE- RADIO GUIDE CRITICS' REPORT

Cast: Ann Sheridan, Robert Cummings, Ronald Reagan, Betty Field, Charles Coburn, Claude Rains, Judith Anderson, Nancy Coleman, Ann Todd, Scotty Beckett, Mary Thomas, et al. A Warner Bros. picture, produced by Hal B. Wallis and directed by Sam Wood. Screen play by Casey Robinson from the novel by Henry Belamann.

Type of Picture: An exceedingly well enacted screening of the best-selling novel "Kings Row."

This Is the Story: In childhood, Bob Cummings loves Betty Field, and Ronald Reagan is loved by Nancy Coleman, whose doctor-father (Charles Coburn) thinks, as Ronald grows to adolescence, is too wild for his daughter. Bob, on the other hand, returns from prep school to read medicine with Betty's father (Dr. Alexander Tower, played by Claude Rains) and learns she has been confined to the doctor's home and grounds, allowed no society, for years. He still cares for Betty but cannot contact her. When he does, she tries to tell him what is wrong with her, that she really still loves him but that they can never marry. He thinks she is crazy. That night she kills her father and herself. Bob leaves to study medicine, specialize in psychiatry, abroad. Ronald stays in town, begins to court "tough" little Ann Sheridan. Then he loses his fortune and his fine friends, finds Ann and her family true blue. Her dad gets railroad work for him, and one night on the job he is injured. Dr. Gordon, Nancy's dad, is called, declares amputation of both legs necessary. When Ronald comes to and discovers what has happened, he, too, becomes a mental case. Between Ann and Bob, who returns from abroad, all the idiosyncrasies, phobias and manias of his friends are cleared, and a happy ending follows.

Verdict: For adults only. Truly great picturization of an important novel which may win Academy Awards for its cast. —E. P.

camp, asked her to autograph all of them. She did (far left). A good miser, Barbara Stanwyck (above, left) spent a lot of time with them about camp life. Gorgeous Ann Miller, Columbia Pictures' dancing actress, planted herself right in the midst of the soldiers and made them very happy—as can be plainly seen above. As a door prize for the evening, Wilkerson put up a $100 Defense Bond, for which Reggie Gardiner (at left of mike in picture at right), the guest master of ceremonies, had Barbara Stanwyck and husband Robert Taylor draw the lucky number. And actress Vicki Lester found herself richer by $100. "Book Night" was not only fun for Ciro's patrons; it was a constructive kind of service work, typical of what Hollywood women are doing in war-time

Hitchcock Starts "Saboteur"

Director Alfred Hitchcock has started cameras grinding at Universal on the Frank Lloyd war picture, "Saboteur." Set in present-day America, "Saboteur" co-stars Priscilla Lane and Robert Cummings. Hitchcock is keeping the story's ending a secret.

Patriotic Passport

Credit a clever patriot idea to Rena Borzage, wife of director Frank Borzage. Mrs. Borzage inaugurated a domestic passport system at a large buffet dinner party she gave where each guest had to show a defense bond or stamp in order to get past the front door!

LIFE STATISTICS

Sheridan-Brent Wedding

First big movie wedding of 1942 came as a surprise in Palm Beach, Fla., where Ann Sheridan and George Brent were married January 5. Ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Sam Harris (widow of famed Broadway producer). The couple had planned to be married January 3, but their plane was forced down by bad weather, delaying arrival in Palm Beach.

Marital Front

John Archer, 1938 "Gateway to Hollywood" audition winner, now under film contract, and Marjorie Lord, actress, said "I do's." On the reconciliation list went Betty Jaynes and Douglas McPhail, now seen in "Born to Sing." Betty and Doug, separated five months ago, forgot their differences, called off their divorce and trimmed a tree together for their infant daughter, Joan Lorraine. Less fortunate was Edmond O'Brien, whose actress wife, Nancy Kelly, finally decided to go ahead with her suit for divorce against him. Several times Miss Kelly sued but withdrew suit when the case came up on the calendar. Also suing was ex-actress Marian Marsh, wed March 29, 1938, to Albert Scott, former husband of Colleen Moore. Miss Marsh was granted $200 monthly support temporarily.

Merry-Go-Round

Sheila Ryan and Don Castle are almost as serious as Paul Douglas and Virginia Field, who will wed soon in the East . . . Pat Dane has set her wedding date to Cedric Gibbons in the early spring . . . Martha O'Driscoll is wearing a diamond solitaire on third finger left hand. Lucky man is Walter Brewer, non-professional, brother of Mrs. Hal Roach . . . George Saunders has eyes only for figuresome Julie Warren . . . Ann Rutherford has an engagement ring from Dave May, son of Tom, the big store owner . . . Laraine Day and Ray Hendricks are arranging their private affairs for a merger . . . And Bill Marshall and Inez Cooper, the Lamarr look-aliker, will make it the idea of March . . . Ruth Hussey was rushed over the holidays by Lincoln Fogarty, her high-school football captain, who now lives in Kansas City, Mo. . . . Judy Garland and Dave Rose may get their honeymoon in soon; if so, it will include Sun Valley and Florida . . . Hmmm! December romance—Billie Burke dining with Charles Coburn.

AILING

Martha Raye Hospitalized

At the same time she was keeping her schedule of personal appearances in Cincinnati recently, Martha Raye was undergoing treatment at Christ Hospital for what doctors characterized as a very painful kidney ailment.

Walter Pidgeon Recuperates

Almost recovered from a stubborn sinus infection, Walter Pidgeon is back at work with Greer Garson in "Mrs. Miniver" at M-G-M. Pidgeon has been troubled with the sinus condition ever since appearing in "Blissoms in the Dust," when the ailment was diagnosed as caused by heavy carbon lamps used for filming Technicolor.

CONTRACTS—CASTINGS

Jane Wyman has been signed by RKO-Radio to play a major role in Kay Kyser's next, "My Favorite Spy" . . . Henry Fonda has been borrowed from 20th Century-Fox to star in "Little Pinks" for RKO. Orson Welles' Dorothy Comingore is being tested for the feminine lead of the Damon Runyon story . . . Gloria Jean and the Andrews Sisters will be seen together in a new film musical to be made by Universal, "Wake Up and Dream."

Coming Soon—Elmer!

NEWS AND PROGRAM LISTINGS

Axis Powers Blast Skies With Batch of Horror Yarns

JAMES FERGUSON, Britain's leading propaganda analyst, in speaking over the London Short-Wave Station, states that since New Year's Eve the air has been full of appeals from German leaders seeking to bolster the flagging morale of the home people in Germany. Hitler, Goebbels, Rosenberg and Dr. Funk all sounded gloomy notes, notes of "alarm," in their January 1 broadcasts to Germany. "Fight to Save Yourselves"—or in other words, fight to save Hitlerism—was the keynote of these speeches. The only way Hitler can make people fight for Hitler is to scare them by telling them what will happen if they don't. Daily trainloads of injured or dead soldiers pouring into Germany, great wagons stopping at every door to collect clothes for the freezing troops in Russia are not helping to lift German spirits.

Even Tokyo—victorious at the moment—warns its people by radio against overoptimism, saying the war may and probably will last for years.

Says Lindley Fraser of London in speaking of the decay of morale in Italy: "In the stronghold of Fascism the situation is far advanced. Anyway you take it the Italians can't win—and now they face America's might also arrayed against them. Try as they may they can't work up much hatred for the United States. Instead, they begin to hate the Nazis and Mussolini, Hitler's tool. People in all of the occupied countries want Hitler beaten, but they fall in two distinct classes: The 'Out and Outers' and the 'Pin Stickers.' The 'Pin Stickers' are against Hitler but they don't think he can be beaten. The 'Out and Outers' believe Hitler can and will be beaten and will do anything or go to any lengths to bring this about. Our job is not only to encourage the 'Out and Outers' but to bring the 'Pin Stickers' into their camp."

H. Wickham Steed, famous political analyst, speaking from London, states that Hitler's talks are the meanest kind of droolery. "In a recent speech, Hitler said, '1942 will bring us the greatest victory of all times.'" "Yes," said Wickham Steed, "1942 should show a great victory for Germany but not the kind that Hitler has in mind, for it will bring the beginning of the uprising of the true German people against the sinister forces of Nazism." Speaking of the part the democracies will play, he said: "One thing that Hitler didn't take into account in his plan prearranged down to the most minute detail is the tremendous in-born strength of free people who are used to individual responsibility and thinking. The great question in 1942 is not if but when will Hitlerism be condemned to perdition."

Horror Stories

The propaganda horror mill is turning out a prize batch of yarns these days as Axis powers try to frighten us out of our wits. Radio Tokyo released a couple of dandies the other day. The first was their claim that one hundred Japanese nationals were seized from the Malay city of Ipoh by the British before its capture by the Nipponese troops, taken to the city of Kuala Lumpur and shoved (by the British) into burning oil tanks under bombardment by Japanese bombers. Radio Tokyo went on to report that during the evacuation of Penang by the British, Chinese coolies who were attempting to board the evacuation boats were shot and killed by the British to make room for white passengers. Only the fiendishly sadistic mind of a Japanese Oriental could conceive such yarns.

NBC International recently interviewed in its Radio City studios seven Pan-American Coffee Queens representing Brazil, Cuba, El Salvador, Colombia, Venezuela, Costa Rica and Mexico. Above: Eddie Cantor and Queens

Jane Anderson, prize fanatic of Berlin's commentators, put on a great show the other night. During her program period she interviewed two citizens from Latvia who ostensibly had come all the way from this northern country to tell the world about the frightful reign of Communism during the time that their country was held by the Bolsheviks. Too bad they couldn't speak English and that Jane Anderson had to elaborate upon their stories in her bloody, picturesque style. Screaming in her inimitable voice, she told how the leaders of Latvia were forced to do menial labor; men, women and children sent to prison and torture; property confiscated. The money paid them for their labor in factories was not enough to buy bread. They died by the thousands. Stalin had determined upon the systematic destruction of Latvia. On June 13 and 14 the dreaded OGPU dragged women and girls from their homes in Latvia, thrust them into crowded stock cars and took them to Russia. Many died on the way of thirst and hunger. Those who arrived were doomed to die under the knout. The Communists, she said, shot down thousands of men, women and children like dogs. Eyes were gouged out, legs chopped off, stakes driven through the eye sockets. Is it any wonder that the Latvian people were delirious with joy when the German troops moved into their country to give them their freedom? The plea ended with "Heil Latvia, Heil Hitler." She puts on a great show, this Jane Anderson. If Your Host Raymond ever lost his job on our radio show "Inner Sanctum," Jane Anderson would be a likely successor. I still prefer the horror hokum dished out by our American radio stations. The foreign tales are so crude and unbelievable, and besides they have neglected the creaking door and the rattling-chain sound-effects. Don't be taken in by these fantastic terror tales that are originated for one purpose only—to confuse us and make us distrust our allies; to frighten listeners and lower morale in general.

One but Not Forgotten

One of the first official acts following Japan's unwarranted attack upon Pearl Harbor and our consequent entry into war was to order all amateurs to suspend operations immediately. Amateur operators are not on the air, but neither have their licenses been suspended, for our government knows that sooner or later their services may be invaluable in defense emergencies. In order that amateurs throughout the country may be kept informed upon any events that may affect them, or their activities, one station, WIAW, official station of the A. R. L., West Hartford, Conn., has been allowed to remain on the air to relay government proclamations and messages to them. Nightly at 10:05 p.m. on 1916 kilocycles, and at 10:15

Duchess of Windsor Makes Debut as an Authoress

p.m. CST on 3950 kilocycles, WIAW may be heard on the air and making his report to the some 50,000 amateurs who are loyally standing by waiting for instructions as to what they can do to aid in this all-out struggle against a ruthless foe

Pacific Basin Notes

No Philippine short-wave stations have been heard on the air since the occupation of Manila by the Japanese troops. It is altogether likely that they will be put in operation for Japanese propaganda purposes in the near future. . . . The Chungking, China, International Station XGOY is now broadcasting to North America daily from 8:00 to 9:25 a.m. CST on 5.95 megs only. News in English is given at 8:00 and 9:00 a.m., a topical talk in English at 8:30 a.m. and the news in Cantonese at 8:45 a.m. CST. Chungking is seldom received in the central or eastern states since it shifted to 5.95 megs, but according to reports from the West Coast the transmission is well heard there. XGOY (5.95) also broadcasts to the South Seas daily from 6:20 to 7:55 a.m., with a news bulletin in English at 6:30 a.m. CST.

The European Short-Wave Front

The German Official High Command war communique in English is read slowly for press reception daily at 10:30 a.m. CST over DJB (15.20) . . . SBT (15.155), heard with much improved strength from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. CST, at times overrides neighbor station WRCA (15.15). This broadcast from Stockholm is for Swedes in all foreign countries and includes a news bulletin in English at about 9:03 a.m. CST. . . . A whole flock of Spain short-wave stations are in operation again. Roger Legge of Binghamton, New York, reports reception on 7.025, 7.037 (Valencia), 7.09, 7.13 and 7.14 megs (Oviedo). For the most part these stations operate in a network relaying the programs of "Radio Nacional de Espana" . . . A new Lisbon, Portugal, station, frequency of 7.17 megs, is in operation daily from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. CST.

Duchess of Windsor—Now Authoress

The Duchess of Windsor—charming Baltimore beauty for whom Edward "at long last" renounced the throne of Britain—has made her debut as an authoress. The book: A cook book. All proceeds from its sale will go to the British War Relief Fund. Mrs. Roosevelt has edited a foreword in the book called "My Favorite Southern Recipes." This interesting item of news was heard the other night over ZNS2 (6.09), Nassau, Bahamas. This station is on the air daily from 4:55 to 8:15 p.m. CST. A relay of the BBC news in English from London is carried at 7:00 p.m. CST, after which such local news items as that above are aired.

COMING EVENTS

This week's highlights include:
SATURDAY, January 17: A new program called "Family Party" is modeled somewhat after the pioneering "Musical Steelmakers." It presents a varying cast composed of performers, writers, producers and technicians of the numerous programs under the banner of one of radio's big sponsors, with hymn-singer Joe Emerson and food expert Betty Crocker as host and hostess. The program is heard each Saturday morning over some NBC stations.
SUNDAY, January 18: It will be the trial of the wooden soldier this Sunday on the NBC "Chase and Sanborn Program." Charlie McCarthy will be the defendant in court-martial proceedings from Moffett Field, Calif., for "chiseling a sergeant major's commission from the U. S. Marine Corps while serving in the Air Corps as a master sergeant." He will be defended by none other than actor James Stewart, now a second lieutenant at Moffett Field.
A new program called "These Good Old Days," replacing "Inner Sanctum Mystery" on NBC, takes listeners for nostalgic escape back to the gay nineties before both world wars. . . "Screen Guild Theater" (CBS) will offer Gary Cooper, Walter Brennan and Joan Leslie in "Sergeant York" . . . Bing Crosby will do one of his film musicals for "Silver Theater" on CBS.

MONDAY, January 19: Mrs. Roosevelt will be one of the guests at a Washington tea to be broadcast over NBC in the interest of the Fight Infantile Paralysis campaign.

THURSDAY, January 22: The Major Bowes "Amateur Hour" (CBS) will be cut to one-half hour beginning this Thursday, and "Big Town" will move from Wednesday to occupy the spot left vacant.

FRIDAY, January 23: Ransom Sherman's "Hap Hazard" returns to the air, this time on CBS.

WAR NEWS!

The program schedules of radio stations listed in these pages are frequently being disrupted in the present war emergency. However, for the most part, broadcasts will go on as scheduled except in cases where time is taken over for special news bulletins, around-the-world news pick-ups and announcements.

BLACKOUT STATIONS

As a special war precaution, radio stations in some cities are periodically silenced. At such times you will find it possible to tune in high powered stations in other parts of the country that you ordinarily could not get. These stations will bring you newscasts and special announcements as well as many of the network broadcasts normally carried by stations in your own vicinity. Therefore, when the stations you usually listen to are off the air, try tuning to the nearest 50,000-watt station outside of the precaution zone. The following is a list of all the 50,000-watt stations in the United States and Canada:

MUSIC NOTES: Wagner's "Lohengrin," an opera in three acts, will be the Metropolitan's offering to music-lovers this Saturday afternoon. The opera, first produced at Weimar, August 28, 1850, was begun in Dresden and finished there in 1848, just before Wagner was compelled to flee the country for having taken part in the revolution of the following year. The story of "Lohengrin," the son of Parsifal, upon which Wagner has based his drama, is taken from many sources, the old Celtic legend of King Arthur, his knights and the Holy Grail being mixed with a German legend in the first. THE REMAINDER OF THIS WEEK'S PROGRAMS FOLLOWS ON PAGE 22

—NBC Hollywood

WHEN Jack Benny's stooge-bandleader, Phil Harris, opened at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles December 29, many Hollywood celebrities turned out. Of course, Alice Faye was there to give her husband an affectionate send-off (above). Seated with Alice is Bill Morrow, one of Jack Benny's writers

—NBC

COMMENTATOR John B. Kennedy (left) and actor Burgess Meredith made a dynamic pair in a broadcast of "Listen, America" (Sun., NBC), sponsored by the Women's National Emergency Committee. Meredith read the stirring Archibald MacLeish poem, "It Is a Strange Thing to Be an American"

Government Sues Nets

CHICAGO.—RCA, NBC and CBS have been made the defendants in a suit brought by the Federal Antitrust Division. The Government charges that the broadcasting chains are monopolizing radio broadcasting. Specifically, the complaint seeks to restrain the chains from entering into an exclusive contract with any radio station for more than two years, and barring electrical manufacturers from "reasonable access" to their studios for transmission of recordings. The complaint also seeks to require NBC to sell either its Red or Blue network, and for CBS to sell its stock in stations in towns having not more than four stations. The latter action, it is understood, would have the same effect in towns having four or less stations as would be the abandonment by NBC of one of its networks. There are 105 towns having four or less stations.

Radio Censor

WASHINGTON.—Byron Price, director of censorship, has named J. Harold Ryan, vice-president and general manager of a corporation controlling a number of radio stations, to serve under him as assistant, to deal principally with radio. In announcing the appointment, Price said that Ryan was coming to Washington at a great personal sacrifice.

Radio Aims for 1942

NEW YORK.—As a new year started, officials of the three major nationwide radio networks, in statements made separately, stressed the objectives of radio in 1942. Said Alfred J. McCosker, chairman of the board of the Mutual Broadcasting System: "Our resources will be made available . . . to designated governmental agencies that may require them . . . our second obligation lies in presenting . . . complete coverage of news . . . we will . . . give special thought to wartime program-planning and strive to evaluate emotional needs of our listening public." Said William S. Paley, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System: ". . . The American people shall continue to be the best-informed people in the world . . . We hope . . . to do our share toward maintaining the national morale with two great goals always in mind—(1) winning the war; (2) winning the peace." Said Niles Trammell, president of the National Broadcasting Company: "Costly preparation made by radio for national defense and for the war emergency now is paying off in service to the United States Government and to the people of America."

WAR SIDELIGHTS

Tip-Off on Big News

NEW YORK.—Alert listeners to CBS programs can detect the broadcasting system's code to warn technicians at every station on the network of special news announcements if they remember the following: Five minutes before a regularly scheduled broadcast goes off the air an unobtrusive tone signal is added to the sounds of the program, just a little below the level of the program. Three short dashes indicate that special bulletins will follow the end of the broadcast. Five short dashes mean the news will be unusually important. One long tone means that an urgent announcement will be made in ten seconds—that the program will be interrupted.

Singer's Brother Killed

HOLLYWOOD.—Mary Lou Cook, feminine member of the Merry Macs Quartet, has been notified that her brother, Corp. Harold Cook, was killed in action while helping defend Wake Island in the little band of Marines who so gallantly and spectacularly stood off the Japanese attacks until superior force overwhelmed them.

Officer Winchell Reports

NEW YORK.—Walter Winchell, a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve, has been called to active duty by the Navy Department. Lieutenant Commander Winchell has been assigned to the Public Relations Office. He will assist in the promotion of affairs for the Naval Relief Society. It is not believed that Winchell's assignment to active duty in the Navy will affect his radio or newspaper work.

Bonds in "Big Town"

HOLLYWOOD.—What the people of the United States are getting for the money they invest in defense bonds was powerfully dramatized in the "Big Town" show of January 7. In the story, editor Steve Wilson (Edward G. Robinson), answering questions posed by a small manufacturer who was worried about his business outlook, described the great personal sacrifices made in behalf of our nation by men virtually forgotten by history. The script was written by Crane Wilbur, the producer of the show, and Paul Franklin.

He Got to Sing

NEW YORK.—A young baritone's request for an earlier appearance than previously scheduled was granted recently by maestro Wilfred Pelletier of the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" program. The request was made by Leland Goodell of Caldwell, Idaho, when he learned that his draft number would come up sometime in January. Wanting to realize his ambition to sing on the "Met Auditions" program, Goodell wrote Pelletier, explained his reason for asking to appear ahead of time, and was notified that the program's schedule had been rearranged so that he could appear on the January 4 broadcast.

In the Tea Leaves

NEW YORK.—Final broadcast of the Helen Hayes CBS series is expected to be February 1. War conditions in the Far East have a direct bearing on the continuance of the dramatic programs, as the series is sponsored by a tea company. If there should be prospects of getting a continued supply of tea into this country from the Far East, Miss Hayes undoubtedly would remain on the air indefinitely.

HONOR

Hope Champ of Champs

HOLLYWOOD.—Bob Hope is the unofficial champion award-winner for

EVERYBODY knows that Wendell Willkie loves to talk. He also likes to listen. Above he's cocking an attentive ear to a point emphasized by commentator Linton Wells (left) in a studio chat after Willkie concluded a talk on a New York "Fight for Freedom" broadcast over CBS December 20

1941. He began the year with a special Oscar from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and climaxed it by winning the title of radio's "Champion of Champions" in the Motion Picture Daily poll. In addition, during the past few weeks, the comedian was voted "Most Photogenic Star" by the Hollywood Press Photographers Association, received the Golden Apple from the Hollywood Women's Press Club for being the "most cooperative star in Hollywood," and was cited by the U. S. Treasury Department for his work on behalf of defense bonds. Other honors came from the Newsboys of America, the American Legion, the Red Cross and other organizations, and he received letters of thanks from President Roosevelt and Canada's Prime Minister, Mackenzie King.

BACKSTAGE

Meet "Marta"

NEW YORK.—Because Arthur Tracy, the "Street Singer," now back on the air (NBC, Monday, Wednesday and Friday), has been so closely identified with his theme song, "Marta," it has often been called his own composition. Actually the song was "discovered" by Tracy while attending a cocktail party in Cuba. Another guest was Moies Simon, composer of the "Peanut Vendor," who invited Tracy to look over some of his unpublished tunes. Running through the collection, Tracy came across "Marta," with the original lyrics in Spanish. He asked and received permission from Simon to bring the melody back to the States with him, where he had an English translation written.

Benefit Party

NEW YORK.—The New York chapter of the American Federation of Radio Artists will hold its annual party at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on February 20, the proceeds to go to the AFRA Sick and Benefit Fund to help finance the projected plan for low-cost medical service to radio artists.

Has Own Duck Code

HOLLYWOOD.—Clarence Nash, newly added voice of Herman the Duck on the Tuesday-NBC Burns and Allen broadcasts, marks his radio scripts with a code which nobody can translate but himself. He changes the actual lines of dialog in the script to a series of "Q's" (for quacks), separated by a variety of symbols, which are his guides for volume and intonation in the duck language. Nash is also the famous voice of Donald Duck in Disney screen cartoons.

Mysterious Fans

Louise Fitch, who plays Carol on "Road of Life," is sending out an SOS call to her very mysterious fan club who send her flowers and nice letters throughout the year, but always just sign themselves "Your Fans." All Louise knows is that there are twenty-two people in the club and one of the members must live in Chicago, for the letters are always post-marked from that city. Louise is interested in finding out just who her fans are in order to thank them for a lovely gift she received recently and to answer a question they asked her. In the script Carol is very much in love with Dr. Jim Brent. But for what seems ages to Louise's fans, Dr. Brent hasn't popped the question. Now Louise's fans want to know: Will Carol marry Dr. Brent? The answer is yes. But meanwhile Louise wants to know if her fans wouldn't please tell her who they are so she won't have to play private detective any more and can write them a "thank you" letter.

"Hit Parade" Altered

NEW YORK.—The "Hit Parade," perennial favorite of music-minded listeners, has undergone an alteration. The program now presents guest stars as an added attraction. The first guest under the new policy was Kate Smith, who appeared on the program Janu-

The men in these services have been invited to vote by mail for their choice of guest stars. The guest stars will replace the "musical extras" formerly presented each week by the "Hit Parade."

"Aldrich Family" Renewed

NEW YORK.—An unusual renewal of contracts has been made by the sponsor of the "Aldrich Family" series. Despite the war, which makes almost everything uncertain, the sponsor has gone ahead and renewed the show, not for one year but for six. The program, which made its debut in 1938, will thus run until 1947, at least. Its star, Ezra Stone, is currently in the Army, stationed in the Morale Division at Governors Island, N. Y., but is permitted to appear on the program each week.

FAVORITE room in the McNeill household is the living-room, where there is a log fireplace of modern design and a mirror covering one wall. Mother and Dad encourage the two older boys to read a while in the evenings. Robert Patrick, too, sits in on the gatherings often

FAMILY MAN: The Breakfast Club's DON McNEILL

THE many listeners who are accustomed to hearing Don McNeill hold forth as master of ceremonies of the unceremonious NBC "Breakfast Club" for an hour each early morning except Sunday might be inclined to think Don lives in Chicago's NBC studios to be on hand so early every morning and to prepare material for the six hours on the air. Not so. In the first place, there isn't much preparation other than the natural equipment of McNeill's versatile brain. And what little preparation is done for the scriptless show is done chiefly in McNeill's home. He and his family live in a lovely new nine-room home in suburban Winnetka. They moved into their new abode only a few months ago after eleven years of married life. One of the main keys to the long and steadfast popularity of McNeill is his pride in and devotion to his family, which consists of his wife, Tommy (seven), Donny (five) and Robert Patrick (nine months). Listeners feel an intimate relationship not only with Don but also with his wife and boys. Don talks about them on the air often, and they themselves participate in the program at Christmas-time each year. "Breakfast Club" fans address many letters and gifts to Mrs. McNeill and the children as well as to McNeill and the other "Breakfast Club" artists. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE has long known of the great popularity of this Chicago-NBC program, also of the wholesome, homelike atmosphere that exists between its stars and its listeners, because of the steady flow of mail praising the program and requesting stories and pictures. And very frequently the request is for pictures of Don McNeill's home and family. Here they are—exclusive pictures of the McNeill family in their new home.

—A. M.

ACTIVE, healthy, fun-loving lads are Tommy (right) and Donny. Outdoors whenever weather and parents permit, one of their favorite indoor occupations is "helping" Dad play with the miniature train Santa Claus brought to the three of them. Don finds plenty of time to spend with the boys

THAT little guy should have been in bed a long time ago, but he has developed an unusual interest in the stories Don reads to the older boys—and in anything else that keeps him up overtime! Incidentally, he was born last St. Patrick's Day, so he should have a bit of his father's blarney

"BIG SISTER"

PART II

THE courage and steadiness of women in wartime is admirably demonstrated by Ruth Evans Wayne, who displayed those same qualities when she had the job of being "Big Sister" to a younger brother and sister. She alone, in her circle of acquaintances, bears up sanely, adapting herself to war problems.

Not content with looking out for herself only, Ruth patiently listens to friends and counsels them as best she can. She has helped them with personal problems which have taken unusual twists because of the war.

With husband Dr. John Wayne expected back in the United States after having served with the English army, Ruth's outlook is primed with hope.

Those with whom she shares confidence are mindful of the determined spirit within her that promises good things for them, too. For Ruth Evans Wayne is the kind of person whose very existence thrives on her constant giving.

Now, when blessings like hers are so much needed, Ruth generously makes them go as far as possible.

—A. M.

1. UNWARE that Dr. John Wayne is returning, Diane begs her father, Dr. Carvel, for job in his office. This is embarrassing, since Ruth works with Dr. Carvel and Diane tried to come between Ruth and husband, Dr. Wayne

2. RUTH'S YOUNGER brother, Ned, is rebellious. He wants to enlist in the Army. Big Sister Ruth tries to explain how important it is for him to finish his studies rather than impulsively rush off to training-camp at this time

3. DR. BANNISTER (with Ruth, above) has done much to put Ruth at ease during the months when nothing was heard of Dr. Wayne. Now they await the doctor's return

4. THE LITTLE SISTER, Sue, has grown into womanhood, is now a mother. She delights in household duties, innocently enough lets her big sister, Ruth, take care of her more important problems

5. RED CROSS WORK is one of Ruth's many interests. Her place, not only in the home but in the community, is regarded as outstanding. With her husband back home, Ruth Evans Wayne will have fewer worries but probably more responsibilities. Follow her story Monday through Friday over CBS

JACKIE COOGAN reminds Bob Hope that neatness is an important quality in the show business as well as in the Army. The grown-up film "Kid" was spending an off day from military duties visiting friends in Hollywood. Coogan and Hope made a theater tour together several years ago

ANY SOLDIER BOY, not excluding one who has worked with Hollywood glamour girls, would get a thrill standing across the mike while Frances Langford sings a romantic ballad. Jackie Coogan got a close-up view of songstress Langford rehearsing while he was in Bob Hope's studio

"THE KID" Visits His Radio Pals

JACKIE COOGAN isn't "The Kid" any more. A lot of water has flowed under the bridge since a tike in ragged pants and a droopy cap captured the hearts of American movie-goers with his wistful way on the screen in Charlie Chaplin's famous film. All the water under the bridge hasn't been smooth, either. While growing to manhood "Kid" Coogan has been through some real-life troubles of his own—like the break-up of his marriage with Betty Grable and the much-publicized litigation between him and his parents over his film earnings. But Jackie still has a lot of friends. He spent a day visiting some of them in Hollywood recently. The pictures on this page were taken on that day. They show strikingly what a different "Kid" he is today. In place of the ragged pants and the droopy cap are the creased khaki trousers and the overseas cap of an American soldier. And in place of the pathetic urchin of that memorable picture is a stalwart man ready to give his all for Uncle Sam.

Jackie, now twenty-seven, is a private first class, specialist third class in the U. S. Army. On this day he was on leave from his outfit at Port of Stockton, California. Jackie packed a lot of visiting into the one-day vacation, concentrating on a few movie lots and especially the Hollywood radio studios. He managed also to work in a guest appearance on Horace Heidt's NBC "Treasure Chest" program, leaving immediately after the broadcast to return to duty. —D. M.

JACKIE chatted with Burns and Allen while they watched their cast rehearse. Incidentally, Coogan took a flyer at radio dramatics in CBS' "Society Girl" sketch a couple of years ago

THE SOLDIER who earned a fortune as a kid actor won ten silver dollars for his answers when he appeared on Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" show as a highlight of his day off

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE VISITS: "THE SATURDAY NIGHT SERENADE"

NEVER HEARD on broadcast is Arthur Mundorff, who has made prebroadcast speeches to spectators, introduced the stars since the first "Saturday Night Serenade" six years ago. Now he also tells audience what to do in case of air-raids

THE CURTAIN GOES UP, pretty Jessica Dragonette steps forward on the arms of Bill Perry (left) and maestro Gustav Haenschen, curtsies to a thousand studio guests, with musicians in background

FOR six years the "Saturday Night Serenade" has been broadcast from New York over a Coast-to-Coast CBS network. Yet New Yorkers have never heard this program—a cross-section of American music. This Saturday, January 17, for the first time, station WABC, Columbia's key station in New York, will carry the program.

"Saturday Night Serenade," starring Jessica Dragonette, Bill Perry and Gustav Haenschen's orchestra, also has as a featured attraction the fourteen-voice Emil Cote Chorus. The entertainment presented by these musicians is limited by no iron-bound formula, is a miscellany of good music, a model of good taste.

For New Yorkers, Jessica Dragonette will be a rare treat. They haven't heard her since she left the Cities Service program in 1937. Miss Dragonette replaced Mary Eastman on the Serenade last summer, now shares billing with Bill Perry, who has been on the show since it started, as has maestro Gustav Haenschen. New also is Warren Sweeney, replacing Bob Trout, who now is in London reporting war news to the U. S.

Using CBS Playhouse No. 2 on West 45th Street, the same theater which houses Kate Smith's show, "Saturday Night Serenade" broadcasts to an enthusiastic studioful of music-lovers every weekend. Here are the stars in their setting for MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's music-loving readers! —A. M.

FOR THOUSANDS of listeners, Jessica Dragonette epitomizes all the glamour and early nostalgic thrills of radio. She dramatizes her exquisite soprano voice with gracious gestures, great personal charm, never uses sheet-music on broadcasts

"THE FAMILY HOUR"

PICTURING "Saturday Night Serenade" as an evening of music among friends, announcer Warren Sweeney calls himself "host." Besides this assignment, Sweeney does CBS news reports

SEASONED MAESTRO Gustav Haenschen's experience dates back to the days when radio was a play-thing. Haenschen conducts easily and naturally always, doesn't try to steal the show from his musicians

MODEST BILL PERRY pulls no dramatics when he sings, nods appreciation for applause. A fine tenor, Bill considered professional boxing and singing as careers, decided on singing—via radio

USING BUTTON SET which flashes instructions on a board near Haenschen, producer-director Roland Martini has full charge of program. He also directs the new Elsa Maxwell-Graham McNamee broadcasts

EMIL COTE and his fourteen-voice chorus appear on the CBS Playhouse stage only while they're actually participating in program. Composed of some of radio's best choral material, the group uses arrangements done especially for them by director Cote. The Cote Chorus rounds out the staff of musicians which make the Saturday night music festivals a treat for listeners

Two-Piece Ensemble or One-Piece Dress

"NOW I FEEL LIKE SIXTEEN AGAIN!"

"Droopy posture gone... low-down feeling banished... the energy of a young girl recaptured... Tum-E-Lift makes me feel like a new woman again!"—such are the phrases to be found in the testimonials we constantly receive. For example: "I like my Tum-E-Lift... I feel like 16 again and I am 37 now," says Mrs. A. S. of Detroit. So don't let waistline bulge and a tired back get you down! Lift up that dragging, sagging abdomen with a Tum-E-Lift, the slenderizing supporter-belt which brings invigorating mid-section comfort.

YOU WILL FEEL NEW, TOO!
Because you'll find Tum-E-Lift a pleasure to wear. You'll rejoice in its energizing all-day support. Mrs. C. L. of Arizona writes: "I can't tell you how much your Tum-E-Lift has meant to me. It made a lot of difference in my figure, and I feel great comfort wearing it. Don't think I'll be able to do without it again..." Order a Tum-E-Lift today, and see how it will make you feel and look fresher at once!

"The Flat Front" TUM-E-LIFT HEALTH SUPPORTER BELT

NOTE V-O-PENING

WITH FRONT LACES FOR PERFECT ADJUSTMENT (NEW, IMPROVED MODEL)

Tum-E-Lift is scientifically constructed to provide perfect comfort, perfect support. Adjustable front panels, of firm, rich brocade, control your figure the way you want it—merely tighten or loosen the laces—and presto! your midsection is reshaped to a slenderized, healthful, flat-fronted posture!

HOLLYWOOD INSPIRED! HOLLYWOOD DESIGNED!

Here's the secret of Tum-E-Lift—it's made of 2-way stretch elastic material—a lightweight, "miracle" cloth that's powerfully strong. Weaving actually preserves its strength. "No-roll" top. Long metal ribs in front—short ones in back—absolutely prevent "riding-up," curling, rolling, or bulging. Detachable garters. Color: Navy. Detachable stretch of soft mesh-lace for personal convenience. An exclusive, slenderizing abdominal support—obtainable only from us. Remember, you get the same fit and comfort you would expect from a made-to-order supporter-belt costing 2 to 3 times the price of Tum-E-Lift.

ITS COMFORTABLE SNIUG! LOOK INCHES SLIMMER AT ONCE!

Just like magic, Tum-E-Lift smooths out and lifts up your bulging "tummy" and sends immediate relief to weakened abdominal muscles. You look inches slimmer instantly—the moment you put it on! You feel and see the difference at once! Yet, Tum-E-Lift is flexible—it allows you complete freedom of movement! Bend, stoop, walk, sit, recline—this marvelous support is always delightfully comfortable.

ONLY $3.49

SEND NO MONEY

We take the risk. We guarantee this slenderizing, comfortable supporter-belt will give you thrilling satisfaction. If not, you don't spend a cent. Send no money now. Just pay for shipping. Pay postman $3.49 plus a few cents postage when your Tum-E-Lift arrives.

10-DAY FREE TRIAL

Try Tum-E-Lift for 10 days. If it doesn't make a "world of difference," send it back and your $3.49 will be refunded promptly.
