LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SALUTE TO AMERICAN RADIO

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

Occasionally you hear of an individual or a concern advocating government-owned radio in America. I was one of the first international artists ever to broadcast in Germany. In Berlin, there is only one radio station in operation and it is government-owned. Every German citizen with a radio receiving-set must pay the government two marks per month for the privilege of listening to government-censored programs. In England, they charge their listeners ten shillings for a license to house a receiving-set. After a listener has paid his fee, what he does hear is decidedly inferior to American offerings. If there's a long wait between scheduled broadcasts, an English announcer simply steps to the mike and says hurriedly, "We shall now play some gramophone records until the next program comes on." I salute American radio, which is NOT government-owned!

Marek Weber, Chicago.

(Mr. Weber is conductor of the Carnation Contented program over NBC.)

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

Is it true that Hollywood is losing its best shows and that the new programs will come from the New York World's Fair? Sometimes I almost hope so.

Mrs. F. J. Buckner, Tuckahoe, N. Y.

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

Radio will never actually leave Hollywood, because half of the talent of these United States is located right here. I don't mean the stars alone, but those people whose names may not mean anything but whose varied performances give this or that radio show the exact lift it needs. It is up to some enterprising agency to present this wealth of talent. Hollywood will always have its share of radio shows. It may not be the radio center, but it will have as much, if not more, than it has this present year.

Ken Dolan, Hollywood.

Manager-Agent Ken Dolan is credited with having piloted Frances Langford to fame, knows the talent-radio business inside out. He speaks as an authority.—Ed.

THE MODERN WAY

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

I understand there has been some eyebrow-raising about my swinging operatic arias. I can't understand why. Music, being a universal language, ought to be universal property in the sense that singers and musicians should interpret it as they see fit. The operatic arias I sing have beautiful melodies which lend themselves to popular interpretation. Such numbers as "M'Appari" from Martha, "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls" from Bohemian Girl, "Gavotte" from Mignon, and "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson and Delilah have been given new popularity because they can be sung in a modern way. Thousands of radio listeners throughout the country have written in asking me to sing these numbers. Inasmuch as they are in popular demand, why any question about singing them?

Bea Wain, New York.

NEW DEAL FOR RADIO ACTORS

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

I think we artists who have ever slaved in the bonds of sustaining programs owe a vote of thanks to the progressiveness of the Mutual network for its pioneering in the development of cooperatively sponsored programs.

Through this new radio idea, local sponsors can purchase attractive programs of big-time stature by buying the program in its own individual city. Thus any number of local sponsors buy the same show and split the cost.

In this way such programs as "Famous Jury Trials," "Show of the Week," "Lone Ranger," Fulton Lewis, Jr., "The Lamplighter," and my own "Johnson Family" have reached many more listeners than would be possible otherwise.

It is a new deal for radio actors and one to bear continued watching.

Jimmy Scribner, New York.

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

This is one time when the mountain comes to Mohammed. So many movie stars have turned over to radio that I thought you would like to know that here is one time when a radio star goes to Hollywood. Yours truly leaves December 1 for the Grand National lot to make six westerns.

Through RADIO GUIDE I would like to express my thanks to all my friends who have listened to my little program on Mutual.

Hope they remember me on the screen when they come to play Screeno.

Tex Fletcher, New York.

MELODY FIRST

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

With all the recent controversies appearing in print over who originated this or that style of rhythmic pyramids, broken chords, tic-toc rhythms, etc., it appears to me that musicians and arrangers alike are losing sight of the fact that the public cares less about the style of an orchestra than they do in hearing the melody of a song.

THE STORY BEHIND THE COVER

"SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS" VISIT LUX THEATER MONDAY

AN ELDERLY gentleman in Oklahoma saw "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" four times.

A young couple in Chicago affectionately call their expected first child "Dopey."

A pair of fond Negro parents in Alabama named their piccaninny "Snow White."

You probably know someone who makes you think of Sneezy sneezing or Doc stammering or Bashful blushing.

And you'll very probably be at your radio Monday night when "Lux Radio Theater" presents "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," with substantially the same cast that portrayed the voices on the screen.

You and I and millions of others have become Snow-White-conscious. The little princess and her seven tiny companions—especially Dopey—have become institutional, like matrimony, Santa Claus and taxes. We accept the characters as humans, and call them by their first names just as if we were comrades.

It is easy to drift into extravagant terms when speaking of this masterpiece of Walt Disney's, the modern Aladdin, for it is one movie production that deserves the application of the movie bromide "stupendous" if the word means anything at all.

This first full-length cartoon feature, from almost any angle, is actually stupendous. To be practical and American, take first the financial phase. We can slide over effusive general praise, but reduce a phenomenon to dollars and cents and we all understand—and become interested. If you were offered the total original war debt to the U. S. of Finland, our most regular debtor, or the possible ultimate earnings of "Snow White," you might jump at the first offer. It might be wise to think twice, however, and then flip a coin; for the Finland debt was eight and one-half millions, and it is conjectured that the movie's gross income may reach an all-time high of $10,000,000. It has passed the half-way mark and the dwarfs go blithely on singing—not Dopey—their hearty "heigh-ho."

Then there are the Disney related enterprises, which figure prominently in the financial receipts and the colossal publicity of the production. Saunter through a five-and-ten at Christmas shopping-time, spot the biggest single group, stroll over and see if it isn't Dopey—a very nearly alive marionette—stopping the show as usual, with both children and grown-ups gawking and laughing. Haunting the counters are dolls, picture-books, and even models of soap. Grumpy frowns from a lampshade. Snow White curtsies in the corner of a lace hanky. Sneezy winds up for a cataclysm on a plate. They're almost omnipresent. There are over 150 companies engaged in producing "Snow White" by-products, so it can't be denied that the depression has a fairy godmother!

Hollywood thought Walt Disney was crazy when the news first leaked out that he was planning to produce the fairy-tale as a full-length cartoon. Disney planned and worked serenely on, confident of his vision, but not even Walt, modest young man that he is, expected the fantasy to resolve itself into the biggest film revolution since the advent of sound a decade ago.

When "the tumult and the shouting dies," it will probably be found that this picture is the biggest smash hit of all time; and there isn't a big-name star in it—unless it's the name Dopey. Indeed, Dopey and Hitler are in the same category as world figures, for the picture has been shown in forty-six countries besides the United States, including such crossword-puzzle places as Iraq and Iran. The animated characters have been made to speak—all except Dopey—in ten different languages. The show was held over in Glasgow, giving rise to the comment that the picture even made Scotsmen loosen their purse-strings. At Bombay, India, the show got more publicity than Mahatma Gandhi's hunger fasts, and fans stormed the doors with such vehemence that you might have thought they were fleeing from "untouchables."

HOW large a part the music played in the success of the picture and how much the story contributed to the popularity proportions of the music cannot be exactly analyzed. The two go together like ham and eggs, and either has enough merit of its own to stand alone. There were more real song-hits woven into the picture by the artistry of Frank Churchill, Larry Morey and Albert Hay Malotte than are heard in most strictly musical films. As a group the tunes formed a flying wedge that almost monopolized the radio field of popular tunes for a while, and several of them even went into the class of popular music that lives beyond a few months. The stirring "Heigh-Ho," the rollicking "Whistle While You Work," the plaintive "One Song," and others collectively contributed many hours of delightful entertainment on the air, and once in a while we still hear one of them tunefully revived. Placed in their original settings, the songs are even more appealing, bearing out the fact that imagination and music walk arm in arm, both springing from beneath the hard but thin surface of everyday realism.

Few of us really want to grow up and become hardened, do we? Circumstances prod us away from the sweet, simple imaginings of childhood. It takes a renaissance like the colorful Snow White fantasy to acquaint us with those fundamental stirrings in our hearts—and there, embellished with melody, genuine fun, and picturesqueness—is the secret of Snow White's and Disney's accomplishment.

The whole phenomenon, astounding in our modern hard-fisted world, is a ringing triumph for pure fancy and simplicity, and it proves quite conclusively that we all believe in fairies, for which we may well give thanks. Puck, the most Disney-like of Shakespeare's characters, once said, "What fools these mortals be!" but cute little Dopey just dumbly grins and proves that sometimes it is wise to be foolish.

This very Dopey, who stole the show and tucked it safely away in the spacious folds of his flowing garment, may be the permanent perpetuator of the show. Disney has indicated that the immense popularity of this particular little gnome may persuade him to make Dopey a regular character like Donald Duck and Mickey Mouse. Long live Dopey!

By the way, you can hear—yes, hear—Dopey in this "Snow White" radio production Monday. Oh, no, he won't talk, not even for radio, but he'll have a bell on!

The radio production of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" may be heard on the "Lux Radio Theater" Monday: 9:00 p.m. EST — 8:00 p.m. CST 7:00 p.m. MST — 6:00 p.m. PST

DRAMA

The dramatic shows seem to have been neglected in the midst of the holiday fever. There are, however, two productions definitely scheduled at this time, in addition to the "Snow White" presentation (page 1).

Conrad Nagel, whose distinction as an actor has outlived the careers of many flashier screen idols, will step from the wings to the center of the stage this week on the "Silver Theater." In addition to his m.c. duties, Nagel will star with Ida Lupino, young English screen actress, in David Garth's radio play, "Challenge for Three." (Sunday, CBS, 6:00 p.m. EST, 5:00 CST, 4:00 MST, 3:00 PST.)

For the first time this week the late Henry Van Dyke's immortal Christmas story, "The Sad Shepherd," will be presented on the air. The story is being produced by MBS and the Federal Theatre Radio Division by special permission of Charles Scribner's Sons. The publishing company declined several commercial offers and then gave the rights gratis to FTRD—an unusual and noteworthy gesture. (Sunday, MBS, 8:30 p.m. EST, 7:30 CST, 6:30 MST, 5:30 PST.)

TIN-PAN PARADE —Sunday, NBC

Yep, we saw you, John, jostling through the State Street throng to get near that department-store window where the Lone Ranger was riding good old Silver. Don't deny it. You stopped also at the window where Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck and Dopey were performing. And didn't you go into one of the stores, glance furtively around to see if any of your friends were near, and enquire of the floorwalker the whereabouts of the toyland department? Well, John, we're all kids at heart, and, just between us, here's a tip. There's going to be a program Sunday that will tell you all about the history of toys—and dolls. Of course you aren't so much interested in dolls, but your wife Mary still remembers her first little dollie—and probably still has it tucked away in a trunk, though she won't admit it. Maybe it will give you a feeling of fellowship to know that the ancient Egyptians had dolls besides Cleopatra and even the Cro-Magnon man had toys. By the

SUNDAY IS MUNN-DAY —Sunday, NBC

Fifteen years in radio and never without a sponsor! Can you match that, Bing Crosby and Rudy Vallee? Well, that's the record, and not the only record, of Frank Munn, tenor star of the "American Album of Familiar Music"—and, Kenny Baker, you're not the only singer on two big commercial shows, for Frank Munn is also star of "Waltz Time." One of the most lastingly popular and most consistently good performers on the air, Frank is one of the least ballyhooed and keeps no scrapbook of his own achievements. But fifteen years this month without a sustaining program!—Frank deserves an especially enthusiastic round of applause. This week, as usual, with no brass fanfare, Frank will step to the microphone on the "American Album" hour and sing in his well-called-golden voice "Panis Angelicus" and "Just for Today." This show boasts an excellent and balanced array of talent and selections in good taste. On this particular program, for instance, Jean Dickenson, sensational young coloratura will sing Mozart's "Alleluja"; and other numbers, including "Home Sweet Home," "Ave Maria," and "Bells of St. Mary's," will be presented by Elizabeth Lennox, contralto, Bertrand Hirsch, violinist, the Buckingham Choir, Arden and Arden, piano duo, and Gus Haenschen's orchestra.

BIG MAN FROM NORTH —Monday, CBS

Would you like to meet a real he-man? Paul Bunyan could break every rib in a man's body with one finger. Jack Dempsey never did that. Paul Bunyan could lift a mule and hurl the beast fifty feet through the air. Only Samson could beat that. Paul Bunyan could fell a full-grown oak with one blow of his huge woodsman's ax. Could you do it? Of course, Paul is only a legendary superman, but this colossus of the north woods is one of America's most colorful traditional heroes. The tall tales of his feats among the tall trees have thrilled young and old. If you wish a closer acquaintance with the storied Mr. Bunyan, without the hazard of having all your ribs broken, you can hear not only the tall tales but also some intimate facts about the mighty woodsman Monday. The "Cavalcade of America" will present a dramatization based on the supposed deeds of the elusive Mr. Bunyan.

DUEL FOR DEMOCRACY —Wednesday, NBC

"The Public Interest in Democracy" is a title that tells a story. It is the title of a new program that began last week, presenting a conversational huddle between two nationally known political commentators, Mark Sullivan and Jay Franklin. The set-up has two definite lines of interest. In the first place, as indicated in the title, it is built around the quickening interest of the average man and woman in the present battle-lines between democracy and dictatorship. In the second place, the program plays upon the intensified shifting of party lines into "liberal" and "conservative" groups. Sullivan is classed as a conservative, Franklin as a liberal. Sullivan has opposed the present administration in such matters as NRA, court plan, and other steps tending toward centralization; but he has upheld Secretary Hull's foreign policy. Franklin has criticized some phases of the foreign policy and has supported government reorganization and TVA. It should be interesting to hear ourselves speaking in some measure many of our strong opinions, phrased by the expertness of Sullivan and Franklin.

WEEK'S BETTER PROGRAMS

OVER-TONE Thursday, CBS

It seems that Santa Claus is not Kate Smith's only regular visitor at Christmas time; at least, not so far as her radio program is concerned. Maybe Franchot Tone brought Kate some stick candy last year when he appeared on her last program of 1937 and got himself an invitation to return this year. However, the real reason Kate is entertaining the film star on her last 1938 broadcast probably is that Franchot is one of the movie actors who really click with radio listeners. He has a particularly resonant radio voice, and he can do a dramatic scene with the naturalness that listeners like. As long as Franchot maintains the standard of his past performances, he is welcome on Kate's program or any other.

BIZ BUZZING? —Thursday, NBC

"How's business?" is as popular a stock question as "Does the weather suit you?"—but it is usually asked and answered with more genuine concern. How IS business? The Democrats say it is still getting better. The Republicans say it will get better since the last election. The newspapers say one thing on the front page, another thing on the editorial page, and still another thing in the financial section. We know about our own business, but how about conditions in general? One of the best ways to find out precisely is to ask the heads of various industries for a frank statement. This week business and industrial leaders representing America's nine leading economic branches will be brought together to give you some of the answers. Here's your chance to get the facts from the men who should know. These men include: Philip A. Benson, president of the American Bankers Assn.; Dr. John F. Anderson, president of American Drug Manufacturers Assn.; Paul S. Willis, president of Association of Grocery Manufacturers; Sol Cohn, head of National Retail Dry Goods Assn.; Edwin S. Friendly, official of American Newspaper Publishers Assn.; Joseph Schenck, president of Motion Picture Producers; J. J. Peely, president of American Railroad Assn.; Alvan Macauley, head of Automobile Manufacturers, and T. M. Girdler, president of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

YEAR-END SERENADE —Saturday, CBS

Some of the best popular tunes of the last few years will be featured this week on the "Saturday Night Serenade." Here is a show which consistently entertains many thousands of Saturday night stay-at-homers, without benefit of a great deal of publicity hullabaloo. The singing of soprano Mary Eastman and tenor Bill Perry is good in any company, and the widespread experience of Gus Haenschen's orchestra in big-time radio attests to its excellence. This week's program line-up lives up to the usual standard with a selection which is exceptionally appealing. For instance, the orchestra will play four top favorites of the past year: "Rosalie," "Ti-Pi-Tin," "Pocketful of Dreams," and "Please Be Kind." Mary Eastman will sing the haunting streamlined classic, "My Reverie." Bill Perry will sing two topnotchers of a short while ago, "You're a Sweetheart" and "Love Walked In." The Serenaders will do "Thanks for the Memory," and the Ensemble, "A Tisket a Tasket."

"YE'S DANCE, CHILLUNI!" —Saturday, MBS, CBS, NBC

Gala is the word for New Year's Eve. Whether from relief at the passing of the old year or eagerness to welcome a new year of opportunity, or a combination of both, the carnival of merry-making gives promise this year of being the biggest yet. Some of the wildest scenes of mirth at midnight are at the dance spots. Many like to hail the New Year with music as well as horns and confetti. If you'd rather usher 1939 into a leisurely, comfy home scene,

A real veteran, a real singer is Frank Munn, whose tenor voice is heard on two commercials perhaps you'd at least like a taste of the revelry of music. Well, all the big-name bands and dozens of lesser-known orchestras will be on the air. Both CBS and NBC have indicated that there will be all-night "dancing parties," with dozens of orchestras from New York to San Francisco. MBS, noted for its complete offering of dance music the year round, is outdoing itself this New Year's Eve. It has on its schedule such names as Benny Goodman, Guy Lombardo, Kay Kyser, Tommy Dorsey, Eddy Duchin, Jan Garber, and a host of other outfits, swingy, sweet, but none swanky—for this is the time to "let yourself go." Whether you take it as a full course or in short orders, this feast of melody and mirth will help put you in the mood to welcome 1939 with a smile and a song.

THE RADIO PLAYBILL: THIS WEEK — "AUNT JENNY'S STORIES"

"AUNT JENNY'S STORIES" first came to the radio audience slightly less than two years ago. The listeners were quick to accept its true-to-life nature and the feature soon became one of the leading daytime shows. It is estimated that today approximately 9,000,000 people listen each week to "Aunt Jenny." The program is built around the storyteller, a kindly, warm-hearted woman whom everyone in her small town calls Aunt Jenny. Her real name is Mrs. Calvin Wheeler, and she is the wife of the editor of the town paper. Her stories from real life combine love, humor, pathos and adventure. They are dramatized by a capable cast of radio artists. In the course of the informal stories the listener makes the acquaintance of various members of Aunt Jenny's family and some of her friends who drop in to chat with her. There are Calvin Wheeler, her husband, Sylvia, her daughter, little Tommy, her grandson, Betty Newcomb, the little bride who lives down the road, and Fred Cooper, the town postman. Women the country over respond to the friendliness and sincerity of Aunt Jenny. Typical of the thousands of letters which pour in to her is the one which read: "I listen to your stories every day, and I've laughed and cried with you so much that it seems we have known each other for life." Not over-melodramatic nor gushy with sentiment, not extremely gripping from the standpoint of action, yet the "stories" of Aunt Jenny continue to please, because they might be the stories of our lives. This program is heard Monday through Friday over CBS at 11:45 a.m. EST, 10:45 a.m. CST; for the West, 12:15 p.m. MST, 11:15 a.m. PST.

NEXT WEEK —
"SCATTERGOOD BAINES"

Meet Calvin Wheeler. You bet he's smiling! Why not? Doesn't he sit down to his wife Jenny's wonderful home cooking three times each day?

"Boy, this is the life!" grandson Tommy is thinking, "I'd rather visit at Grandmother's and eat cookies and drink milk than be president of the United States." Tommy always has a swell time when he and his mother go to visit Aunt Jenny, and Aunt Jenny has a swell time, too, with Tommy Helpful hints to a young bride is one of Aunt Jenny's specialties. Little Mrs. Newcomb lives down the road and drops in often to have a cup of tea and chat with her neighbor and friend. Sometimes she has a domestic problem which calls for the wider experience of Aunt Jenny to solve

Genial Fred Cooper, the postman, is right at home at Aunt Jenny's and in the homes of the listeners. He often manages to arrive with the mail just when the story-telling housekeeper is ready to tell one, and it doesn't take much coaxing to get him to stay, especially when there are cookies

A Letter to Santa

DEAR SANTA CLAUS:
I know that you are an extremely busy man at this time of year, and I hate to load any extra burden on you and your hard-working reindeer, but I fear you may have overlooked some appropriate gifts for certain musical folks and organizations, and so I am offering you a few helpful suggestions like these:

- FOR—
- Toscanini—A better Crossley rating.
 - Deems Taylor—Another opera at the Metropolitan.
 - Lily Pons—An early regular radio engagement.
 - Lawrence Tibbett—Ditto.
 - The Magic Key—Fewer and shorter commercial plugs.
 - Music Hall of the Air—An American Sibelius.
 - Kreisler and Rachmaninoff—A mandate to broadcast.
 - WQXR (New York)—A national hook-up.
 - Philharmonic and Barbirolli—A generous sponsor.
 - Metropolitan Opera—Evening broadcasts, too.
 - MBS—Orchids for Wallenstein.
 - Stadium and Dell—A rainless summer for 1939.
 - Inland local stations—More good music hook-ups.
 - Ford Sunday Hour—Greater originality.
 - Firestone—Ditto.
 - CBS—A vote of thanks from American composers.
 - Torchers, Hillbillies and Swing—An ax.
 - South America—An underplowing of tangoes.
 - General Motors—Thanks for the memory.
 - Curtis and Juilliard—Success for their gifted students.
 - Damrosch—Hosannas for unique usefulness.
 - NBC—A Nobel prize for the Toscanini Orchestra.
 - The Bartered Bride overture—A nice long rest.
 - Brahms Hungarian Dances—Ditto.
 - Stokowski—Some publicity.
 - Hoping, dear Santa, that you will accept this letter in the spirit that prompts it, I am, with best wishes for your kindly endeavors,

Christmasly yours,

L. L.

Speaking Up

By V. V.

On the day after Christmas, the Metropolitan Opera House will be filled with stiffly starched little girls and freshly scrubbed little boys, sitting carefully on the edge of their seats, listening to their first opera, "Haensel and Gretel," the old Grimms' fairy-tale, with music by Humperdinck, of the sister and brother who get lost in the woods and are captured by the witch, serves many parents as their children's introduction to music. It is one of the few operas in which the characters don't all expire in a welter of blood at the end, and the music is light, melodious and easy to follow. Children love the second act, scene when angels descend a golden staircase from Heaven; and the thrilling moment when Gretel rescues Haensel and pushes the witch into the roaring-hot oven.

Dorothee Manski's hair-raising performance of the big, bad witch draws shrieks of excitement from the young audience. Queena Mario, who recently announced her forthcoming retirement, plays Gretel, and Irene Jessner, Haensel.

Here it is Christmas, and we worrying about presents and the after-effects of too much turkey, and now, to add to our trials, comes the news that Samuel Barber, composer of the Adagio for Strings (premiered by Toscanini) is a baritone. What's more, he's prepared to prove it when he does a group of folk-songs and carols on the Curtis Institute program on Monday. Singing may be merely Mr. Barber's hobby, but it's our private suspicion that he yearns to star in an opera of his own composition. What with Toscanini turning composer and Barber involved with carols and Benny Goodman's adventures with the Budapest String Quartet, music certainly keeps us on the jump these days.

The next two excursions of the NBC Symphony Orchestra and Toscanini will be to Baltimore on December 27 and Boston on January 10.

Why is the Boston Symphony Orchestra the stepchild of radio? One of the best and oldest orchestras in the country it is the least known on the air. Koussevitzky, its conductor, is rated by many as the equal of Toscanini.

BERLIOZ' two examples from his dramatic legend have won immense popularity as concert numbers. The "Rakoczy March," Hungary's national tune, almost resulted in tragedy for the composer when he programmed his orchestral version for his premiere in Budapest as a conductor. Critics and the public feared that Berlioz' arrangement would distort their beloved march. However, the glowing orchestration won the day.

IN HARMONY with the festive Christmas period, Barbirolli uses here appropriate choral numbers, fittingly preceded with the instrumental Overture to "Messiah," an excerpt rarely heard in concert.

BEETHOVEN, already successful as a symphonic composer, had long busied himself with the idea of writing an opera but rejected many proposed librettos until Joseph Sonnleithner supplied him with the story of "Fidelio," a tale of political persecution offset against womanly faith and devotion. Himself a passionate believer in personal freedom, justice, and the nobility of conjugal love, Beethoven found ideal matter in the Sonnleithner story based on a French romance by Bouilly.

After much painstaking labor so characteristic of the self-critical Beethoven, he completed "Fidelio" in 1805, and that year saw its premiere in Vienna, but the occasion spelled failure because of the composer's preference for orchestral domination and his exacting demands upon the voice. Even a revision performed in 1806 met the same fate, and it was not until 1814, after further changes, that Beethoven saw his opera win success.

He wrote four overtures for "Fidelio" (two are now discarded), one used before the first act and the other, known as "Leonore No. 3" (Beethoven at first desired his opera to be called "Leonore"), precedes the final Rocco's daughter, Marcellina, falls in love with the supposed man, who encourages her so as to make contact with Florestan.

Don Fernando, minister of the interior, is expected to visit the prison, and Pizarro orders Rocco to murder Florestan immediately. The jailer refuses and Pizarro decides to commit the crime himself. Leonore overhears the plot and, after the men leave, sings the great dramatic aria, "Abscheulich-er! Wo eilst du hin?" (Accursed one, whither hasten thou?)

Leonore obtains permission for the miserable prisoners to walk in the courtyard for a few minutes, and the act ends with a touching chorus sung by them, "O Welche Lust" (Oh, Sweet Joy), expressive of their happiness at seeing the sunlight again. The only lighter note of the act is the comic unhappiness of the naive Jacquino, enamored of Marcellina. He figures in the earlier enchanting quartet, "Mir ist so wunderbar" (So wonderful to me it seems), with the two women and Rocco.

engaged at her gruesome task when he is brought in by the jailer. Haggard, wasted, broken, Florestan is at first not recognized by his wife, but when Pizarro enters and tries to stab his victim, Fidelio throws herself between the pair, and now, aware of Florestan's identity, levels a pistol at the governor's head.

At this crucial moment, trumpets announce the arrival of the minister. Pizarro makes his escape, Don Fernando reunites Florestan and Leonore, and the opera ends with their duet of love.

ALEXANDER SCRIBAN (1872-1915) visited New York a number of years ago and appeared there as a pianist. I remember him as a small man, slight, elegantly groomed, his chin adorned with a bit of aristocratic goatee. He played some of his own keyboard works, suggesting the influence of Chopin and Liszt. Later he developed his own individuality, fully matured when he devoted himself to orchestral creation. His third symphony ("Divine Poem") is divided into three parts, "Struggles," "Sensual Pleasures," and "Divine Joy." The music is intensely personal, descriptive.

EVENTS THAT SHOOK THE WORLD

The nation shuddered when on June 19 of this year the Olympian, crack flyer of the Milwaukee Railroad, crossing a flood-weakened bridge over

Custer Creek in Montana, crashed through into the swollen river, killing more than forty persons, the worst railroad tragedy of recent years

GONE is your radio, your daily newspaper, your newsreel. Gone are motor cars, airplanes, and the other fixtures of 1938. For you are living in 1815, Mrs. Smith, in a quaint side street in old New Orleans. The air is hushed and hot, pregnant with that soft fullness that bespeaks dire events.

Even now, just beyond the city, the heavy red line of the British army is charging across the plain toward General Andrew Jackson's trenches. Yankee musketeers and creole cannoneers stand shoulder to shoulder, and as you listen you hear the first booming cannon shots of the Battle of New Orleans. Your heart quickens and your hands turn cold, for your Jim is out there with his musket, Mrs. Smith, standing under his general's orders to defend his country and his home. As the patter of rifles and cannon-fire echo distantly, the hours pass unmeasured except by your prayer, "Dear God, keep my Jim safe."

Then the battle is over and the men have come home. New Orleans is saved, for the British have withdrawn, leaving hundreds dead on the field.

Leaving your Jim dead on the field, too.

You found the body and you felt like dying with him, so great was the bruise on your heart, but you knew that other women had lost as much or more, so you choked back your tears and helped him into a respectable grave.

But the other thing was what spilled tears down your cheeks while you shrieked in crazed hysterics. The other thing hit you all of a sudden that afternoon the messenger arrived from the North and told New Orleans that England and the United States had signed a treaty of peace five weeks ago. Five weeks ago! Good heavens! Jim was alive then. He had marched that picture down at the Bijou, dear?) as it reaches your interested ears.

So it is not surprising that the waning year of 1938 finds our networks preparing a summary of the history-in-the-making events we have just experienced. Two spectacular programs are planned, testimonials to the importance of news.

The first of these, appropriately enough, reaches back ninety years to dramatize a momentous occasion. That occasion was the founding of an organization which has done more to accelerate the flow of news to all of us than any one force in our life. That founding saw a group of far-seeing Americans cooperating for the advancement of news reporting out of the infant stage. Since then the Associated Press has grown with the growing of the news. The enterprising, determined spirit that fathered and fostered its organization has not changed—only the outward methods have changed with the progress of time.

out to fight for his country only a week back; he had stood before British volleys until his blood run into his shoes. Great God! He had died while English and American diplomats feasted together in London, celebrating the peace.

If only the news had come in time. Since the Battle of New Orleans was fought so gloriously but so unnecessarily, communications have speeded up. News travels faster, too. Today, with the speed of light, it comes into your parlor or is delivered on your front porch each evening. Today you live with it and by it, planning your shopping (advertisements are news of bargains), your picnics (weather reports are news), and your entertainment (What do they say about

NEW YORK.—Kate Smith's mentor, Ted Collins, has prepared a radio show featuring the Fred Stones with daughters Dorothy and Carol. The story, written by Rex Beach, is of a typical American family and is being heard by several sponsors . . . Another show Collins has under his wing is called "My Son and I," featuring Betty Garde, who was Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch until it folded last week. I'm told this new show is so sad that when it was auditioned at CBS a couple of weeks ago it got the best of Harry Hicks, who was the engineer in the control-room, and Harry actually shed tears—the big Hicks . . . After two years on the "Saturday Night Swing Club," Leith Stevens has departed from that show and turned over the baton to Walter Gross. Announcer Mel Allen has also been replaced by Dan Seymour, who also does the splicing on Benny Goodman's swing sessions. Incidentally, the show shifts to an earlier time on January 14.

The Three Ambassadors, who started out with Phil Harris in California years ago and have been on the Kate Smith show for the past three years, leave that program and return to their native California, where they will join the singing group on the Eddie Cantor show when the comic returns to the Coast. They've been on the Cantor show every week since he came east . . . A series of Fu Manchu recordings will probably be heard over your local station before long. I heard the first few episodes at a private audition last week and they pack plenty of thrills and are full of suspense. Hi-Yo, Fu Manchul . . . Welcome Lewis, who has been away from the networks too long, has an interesting show called "Singing Bee," which is being aired over WHN in New York. It's a combination of musical quiz and community sing, which should be a good bet for some sponsor.

AIRIALTO LOWDOWN

BY MARTIN LEWIS

Purely Personal

When Walter Woolf King found out that Cantor would stay in New York longer than originally anticipated, he had his wife and seven-year-old boy come to New York from California. They arrived in the midst of the recent snowstorm and it was the first time the youngster had seen any real snow. Papa King had to buy a sled, and for two afternoons pulled him around Central Park, winding up with a sore back and sore muscles . . . By the way, King may not be heard on the Cantor program when it returns to the Coast, in which case he will stay in New York and probably do a show on Broadway . . . This is actually a fact. On Tuesday night Peter Van Steeden and his orchestra play on the "For Men Only" show, which is sponsored by a hair- tonic concern. Peter comes to the program with his hair slicked back. However, the following morning he has to wash his hair and refrain from using the tonic, so his hair remains loose and hangs over his eyes in order for Fred Allen to get in his usual weekly gag about Van Steeden's hair . . . Incidentally, if you are in New York on Wednesday nights and would like to get a close-up view of Allen, he has his dinner between the early and repeat broadcasts in the Radio City cocktail lounge.

Jack Benny's real reason for his trip to New York was to visit the Federal building and answer questions in regard to the jewelry-smuggling case . . . The early editions of the morning papers which appear on the newsstands the night before carried the headlines, "George Burns Guilty In Smuggling." The later editions changed it to read, "Gracie Allen's Husband Guilty." Maybe they should have called him Mr. Gracie Allen . . . Les Tremayne, star of "First Nighter" and "Betty and Bob," came to New York for a few days. One reason for the trip was to see the show "Abe Lincoln in Illinois." Elizabeth Reller, who is in the show, is Tremayne's gal friend . . . Announcer Allen Kent is announcing his intentions to wed on or about April Fool's Day . . . Mary Margaret McBride doesn't like crowds, so she had her secretary do most of her Christmas shopping . . . Robert Benchley has been hard to reach on the phone in the morning. He's been spending his ayems at a dentist's office for the past couple of weeks . . . Haila Stoddard, who plays the part of Sue Evans, the little sister on "Big Sister," gave birth to a baby in the script a couple of weeks ago. She expects a real visit from the stork in a few months . . . Announcer Jack Fraser's wife expects her heir to arrive sometime in May . . . Phil Cook deserves a tip of the hat and a low bow for collecting books to be distributed to shut-ins and hospitals. The response from listeners has been splendid.

Mr. Crumit—It Isn't Cricket

Mr. Frank Crumit, you generally ask the questions on your Tuesday night broadcasts, but I'd like to take the liberty of asking you a question. A couple of programs ago, Mr. C., you presented a show featuring male and female dramatic stars of the air. Included in the press release that reached my desk was the name of Bud Collyer, who appears on "Pretty Kitty Kelly" and numerous other shows. However, Mr. Collyer was conspicuous by his absence on that program and I went out to find the reason for it. I learned from an authentic source that the actor reported at the studio at the appointed time, having traveled quite a few miles from his home to be there, only to be told by you at the last moment that you were sorry but that someone else would be on the show in his place and would he mind stepping aside. The question I would like answered is, Why you didn't think of asking actors Ted DiCorsia or Al Swenson, who were asked to appear on the show after Collyer, to step aside? Mr. Crumit, I'm afraid you are guilty of a very bad piece of mismanagement, for which I point my thumbs downward at you.

Behind the "Seen"

A party wearing white tie and tails, who apparently had imbibed in too much giggle-water, almost broke up the first "Cavalcade of America" broadcast, which dramatized the life of Knute Rockne. At the opening of the show, just as the program went on the air, one of the group yelled, "Where is he?" and it could be heard faintly in the loudspeakers. The page-boys had a tough time trying to keep them quiet all during the program . . . The production-men in the control-room at last Wednesday night's Fred Allen show were frantic when Fred was almost two minutes behind schedules with only fifteen minutes to go. The information was signaled to Allen, who put on speed and ended the show only five seconds overtime, much to the relief of the control-room counsellors . . . Incidentally, the lady barber who appeared on the Allen show a few weeks ago came back the next week to see the program and told your reporter that her business has almost doubled since her radio appearance . . . Jimmy Lynch, CBS sound-effects man, had to be up at six ayem one morning last week to work on the Phil Cook show, which hits the air at seven. He had just one thing to do during the whole program and that was slam a door. Sleep was still in his eyes when he arrived at the studio, and as you may have suspected, when it came time for the door-slam he missed his cue. I understand he made up for it after the program went off the air . . . Elizabeth Newberger, who sings in the chorus on HOLLYWOOD.—Radio here is developing a "conscience." Bette Davis started the trend with her rendition in October of a dual personality, created by Arch Oboler, on the Texaco Star Theater. Her bad self battled with her good self. Next, on Vallee's hour of December 8, a Dead End Kid was heard scolding himself. Came the Silver Theater episode of December 11, and Miss Davis again did a spot of strange-interluding. Rosemary De Camp, "Dr. Christian's" secretary Judy, is a natural voice double for Miriam Hopkins, so Lux Theater experimented in rehearsals with Rosemary as Miriam's conscience, but didn't carry out the plan. But Postum's "Lum and Abner" commercials went right ahead and gave an "unnerved coffee-drinker" his voice of conscience by means of employing a filtered microphone . . . Oh well, anything for a new radio idea—even if it means a deluge of dramas based on the sad lot of blind persons, which theme unfortunately is about flooded to the ears.

Nurseless Dr. Christian

Speaking of Miss De Camp, that most capable young lady is so busy on "Sally of the Star" and other Hollywood broadcasts that she will be unable to accompany "Dr. Christian" to New York for the next four or five airings. Instead, her role will be written out and the doctor, played by Jean Hersholt, will carry on with the help of a substitute dramatic cast. Hersholt, by the way, ends his contract with 20th Century-Fox the first of the year, and, although he will make one Quin film for Fox, playing his traditional role of Dr. Dafoe, he will dedicate 1939 to an independent effort at producing three films based on his "Dr. Christian" radio character.

From An Open Mike

Nice to be fought over. Carole Lombard was just that last week when Good Gulf requested her from Screen Actors Guild as their premiere star on January 8. Already committed by contract to open the Kellogg Hour the next Sunday, January 15, the producers of the latter objected to Carole going on the new Gulf-SAG series first—and won their point. Miss Lombard will have Cary Grant as co-star in the Kellogg lineup, which is rapidly whipping into shape . . . Hollywood Johnnies watching Earl Carroll's beauties rehearse include Rudy Vallee, Tony Martin, Errol Flynn, Henry Fonda, Jimmie Stewart and Fred MacMurray. Bet they'll have box seats Christmas night when the theater restaurant opens . . . What big-cheese announcer on what big Hollywood one-hour show is paid but $50 weekly for his work . . . Truman Bradley, ex-Ford mikeman who turned into an unhappy movie star, threatens to throw up the sponge and return to Chicago . . . Several years ago an unknown Deanna Durbin was runner-up in a Pomona, California, amateur contest. The winner was Pamela Caveness, the young actress whom you heard the past two Sundays supporting Bette Davis, her patroness, in the Silver Theater play . . . While Amos bites his nails waiting for technicians to install his new amateur phone station, call-letters W6QUT, Andy bites his for another reason—the stork . . . Tyrone Power will definitely return to the Woodbury Playhouse, come January, to work out the remainder of his contract . . . Frank Parker has taken Tony Martin's place on the Chesterfield show, and isn't that too bad about Georgie Burns getting mixed up with a smuggler? . . . Texaco Star Theater has signed all of its current talent save four for thirteen more weeks. Those dropped are Max Reinhardt (now busy in New York), Adolphe Menjou, Una Merkel and Jane Froman, who gives way to Frances Langford January 4 . . . Chase & Sanborn Hour has renewed its airtime for the fifty-two weeks of 1939, but a few talent changes are in the cards . . . Nan Grey, the star of "Those We Love," also received a nice thirteen-week renewal gift for Christmas . . . Shhh! NBC's Hollywood Radio City boasts a secret corridor just to keep the nasty autograph seekers away from its more delicate artists . . . Which reminds me: One radio-screen star has a way of being close to every news or newsreel camera at every possible event or party—except his own. At his door, he sticks out a forbidding hand and says, "Sorry, boys, you know I never permit pictures at my parties!" Afraid someone else might get in the picture, huh?

New High in Low I. Q.

That New York radio editor who laid four goose eggs on four questions handed him by Frank Crumit during the December 12 "Battle of the Sexes" didn't even know that the highest and lowest spots in these United States are in our sunkist California, so prunes to him. I hope his gift strap-watch affords him ample time to improve his general knowledge.

Penners from Heaven

Joe Penner never misses. He hasn't forgotten his young newsboy days when an empty packing-case looked like a suite at the Waldorf. So this Christmas again he bares that big heart of his by taking a thousand newspaper gamins and underprivileged youngsters to see a Federal Theatre play, to which he will add, as icing, a routine by his radio program troupe. Incidentally, Cliff Hall, once "the Baron's" Charlie, has joined the regular Penner cast.

Ram-Antics and Results

Mickey Rooney and young star Ann Rutherford will make the drive-ins together . . . Canary Andrea Marsh and C. Kenneth Lobben, still cameraman, eloped to Las Vegas December 10 . . . Allan (son of Jean) Hersholt and Osa Masesen, Danish actress, were wed December 15 and started their honeymoon in a brand-new car, a gift of the groom's dad . . . Born, December 12, a seven-pound daughter to Mrs. Pinky Tomlin, at Good Samaritan hospital.

December 15 and started their honeymoon in a brand-new car, a gift of the groom's dad . . . Born, December 12, a seven-pound daughter to Mrs. Pinky Tomlin, at Good Samaritan hospital.

On Naming a Horse . . .

Chester Lauck, Abner's Lum, has finally ironed out those wrinkles in his brow while he worried over what to name his two-year-old colt, which will see its first racing during the 1939 season at Hollywood Park. It'll be "Honeyboy," in honor of Don Ameche's wife Honore, whose pet name is Honey. The colt, owned in partnership with Ameche, is but one of a string at the Lauck-Ameche stables, whose colors will be worn at Santa Anita this season by "Alice Faye," "Playback" and "In Range." The pair's "Glossip" and "Nineaton" will be entered at Agua Caliente.

Tribulations of S. Claus Hope

Bob (Gate) Hope promised NBC's publicity department that he would pose for pictures in a Santa Claus outfit on the roof of the new Hollywood Radio City. Last week came the appointed day, and with it a record-breaking heat wave which thrust the temperature up to ninety-two degrees. Bob, unflinching, donned the heavy costume and kept his promise, but through the perspiration was heard to mumble: "Bet St. Nick would wear a one-piece bathing-suit on a day like this!" . . . On the Christmas lists of the celebrities are the following notations: For Tizzie Lish, a man, any man; for Jack Benny, a free basket of food and a turkey so he can invite his cast to eat at his house; for Charlie McCarthy, a more generous voice; and for Gracie Allen, anything BUT JEWELRY!

HOLLYWOOD SHOWDOWN

BY EVANS PLUMMER

Happy Hook-Ups

CHICAGO.—Did you ever stop to think that unlike other branches of show business, radio has comparatively few divorces among its leading celebrities? In Chicago, the radio dramatic center of the nation, innumerable couples who have made a go of it on the air have, in practically all cases, made a go of matrimony as well. Just to give a few samples, here are some radio husbands and wives: Ray Johnson (Ellis Smith in "Guiding Light") and Betty Caine (star of "Madame Courageous"); Bob Griffin (Joe Marlin in "Mary Marlin") and Peggy Fuller (Frederica Lang in "Guiding Light"); Arthur Peterson (Dr. Rutledge in "Guiding Light") and Norma Ransom Peterson (Sally Ackerton in "A Tale of Today"); Pat Barrett (Uncle Ezra) and Nora Cuneen, who is on the show with her husband; Ken Griffin (James Brent in "Road of Life") and Genelle Gibbs (Sonya Kirkoff in "Arnold Grimm's Daughter"); Fred Sullivan (Michael Splendor in "Don Winslow") and Kathryn Card (Mrs. Grey in "Woman in White").

Tattler's Tidbits

"Scattergood Baines" will celebrate its first anniversary in February. Show has now gone Coast-to-Coast . . . Incidentally, when in Hollywood last summer I noticed they called a Coast-to-Coast show a "t.c." (transcontinental). The term is unknown in Chicago . . . Mr. Carl Brickert (he's David Post in "Mary Marlin" and Robert Houston in "A Tale of Today") off to England after first of year. A relative died there and her presence on the scene is required . . . For the fourth successive year, several hundred under-privileged boys and girls attended the Christmas broadcast of the "Contented Hour." A Christmas party followed . . . MacDonald Carey left the Windy City for New York. Plans on returning to the stage as well as playing radio roles there . . . Going to Hollywood with the Fibber McGee show are the Four Notes, vocal quartet. Strangely enough, they're under contract to Columbia, and so CBS is receiving commission from a competing network for the Four Notes radio appearances. Feminine member of the group is Marjorie Whitney, ex-queen of the King's Jesters . . . After Bill, the colored shoe-shine boy in the Merchandise Mart, who polishes the shoes of NBC stars, made a guest appearance on the Breakfast Club, m.c. Don McNeill kidded, "Well, I guess we'll have to call you Mr. Bill now." "No, suh," replied the beaming guest, "not till Ah goes commercial!"

Popularity Plus

Of course, living in Chicago, I know the popularity of radio stars in a metropolitan area. The popularity of the ether performers is akin to that of Hollywood's movie celebrities or Broadway's stage stars. So I was pleasantly surprised to find that in an average small-size midwestern town, the drawing-power of radio stars is even greater than it is in the "big city." Your Tattler acted as m.c. for the Chicago Radio Theater Guild at Manistee, Mich., where they presented three performances of "Good-bye Again." A lively town of some 10,000, one-fifth of Manistee's population turned out to see their favorite radio actors perform on the stage. Those participating in the show were Arthur and Norma Peterson, Herb Nelson (Dick Conover in "Girl Alone" and Carl Granger in "Betty and Bob"), Karl Weber (Dr. Harding in "Woman in White") and his wife, Phyllis Weber, Chicago radio-writer; Bryce Morgan, recently from Hollywood, who is on Mutual's "Curtain Time"; fourteen-year-old Frankie Pacelli (Timothy Kent in "Mary Marlin") and Lorraine Andresen, a native of Manistee, who managed the performance and was accorded a royal welcome in her home town. Deserving top credit for the success of the show is pert, vivacious, sorrel-topped Lenore Kingston, who directed the show in addition to taking one of the leading roles. On the air, Miss Kingston is heard regularly as Sophie Bell in "Dan Harding's Wife" and as Mercedes in "Don Winslow of the Navy."

Did You Know—?

Actress Marie Nelson's daughter, Tanyah Corday, is developing into a big-time Chicago writer? Had two dramatic shows on the air one Sunday night . . . John Hale, who was recently heard on the "Metropolitan Auditions of the Air," is a tenor who made a considerable reputation at NBC-Chicago under his own name, Cyril Pitts? . . . Paul Rhymer, author of "Vic and Sade," amuses his cast with piano interpretations a la Chico Marx during rehearsals? . . . Incidentally, Ethel Barrymore, appearing in the legitimate play, "White Oaks," wanted to see "Vic and Sade." Miss Barrymore was escorted to the broadcast by Anne Seymour, who knew Miss Barrymore when she herself was in the theater . . . Sinclair will sponsor a "March of Time" type show, "History in the Making," over CBS, after first of year? . . . Cincinnati's becoming quite a radio center? Latest Coast-to-Coast originating there is the Friday night "Plantation Party," emceed by Whitey Ford . . . Male members of the cast of "Those Happy Gilmans" have been leaving announcer Don Gordon alone at the gum sessions ever since they discovered that Don packs dynamite in each glove?

Scriptural Notes

Here's some new additions to casts of Chicago script-shows: Jeanne Juvellier is Mrs. Levy in "Kitty Keene"; in same show, Finney Briggs is Attorney Thatcher now, and Fern Head has joined as Anemone. Herb Butterfield is a Russian antique dealer in "Story of Mary Marlin." Bloyce Wright is Pendleton in "Ma Perkins"; and in the same show, Earle George is Pettingill, while Clare Baum is heard as Farmer Martin. Arthur Kohl now playing Bamberg in "Story of the Month." "Guiding Light" has added Allen Baruch as Joe Swenson and Cornelius Peebles as Joe Downey.

Double Holiday

Christmas was a double holiday for two Chicago stars. Betty Olson, songstress with the "Escorts and Betty," celebrated her twentieth birthday that day. Betty, by the way, is probably the Windy City's tiniest star. She's four feet eleven inches tall and weighs only 89 pounds! Kenneth (Hoosier Hot Shot) Trietsch and his wife were doubly merry on Christmas, as it was their daughter's tenth birthday.

Sign-Off

Orrin Tucker, whose band is wowing them at the Palmer House's swank Empire Room, says the autograph hounds have thought up a new one. Now they want their signatures dated! It seems that autographs obtained during a particularly busy time in a celebrity's life take on an added exchange value.

Hotels Airing Again

Few columns ago we mentioned that bands in Chicago hotels were not broadcasting. First hotel to start airing orchestra is Edgewater Beach Hotel, which has Jay Mills' notemakers now playing for radio listeners nightly. Other hostelries may start broadcasting after January 15, when one-year agreement not to broadcast made by Chicago hotels expires. One band that may be heard is Wayne King's, which returns to Chicago and the Drake Hotel's Gold Coast Room on December 31.

SHE SELLS HUMAN BEINGS

When listeners-in hear some particular radio artist over CBS who fits his role to a "T," ten to one Gertrude Lanza and her unique way of cataloging talent had a lot to do with the star's success

THE world is full of talent, but to get just the right artist in the right spot on a radio program was a difficult task before Gertrude Lanza of the CBS Artists Bureau in New York City came along with her unique plan of selling human beings' talent through artists' presentation books. Prior to that, sponsors and program-makers had a tough time. They spent long hours looking for a player to fill some special role. Voice, personality, appearance, experience—all had to be considered with no one source of checking it. Miss Lanza's method of putting the history of each artist's work into individual books solved the problem. Now CBS salesmen, sponsors interested in buying talent can turn to these books and find what radio artists have done and are doing. They contain all press clippings, published and unpublished photos, background and every potentiality.

Photographs by Gene Lester and Charles Seawood

Miss Lanza's artists presentation books, each one listing a radio player's history, are a ready reference for talent-seekers

Making one of these books usually takes about four days, and Gertrude always has several under way. Sam Goldwyn was so intrigued by the possibilities in her work that he offered her a movie job, but it was refused

Finished books are 12x19. Manager of CBS Artists Bureau, Herbert Rosenthal, and Miss Lanza take inventory of her work kept in special cabinets. A corresponding card index keeps names of borrowers and date it was taken

For amusement, Gertrude looks over her work from cover to cover. Materials used are expensive, and cost of a single book is over $100. In two years she has made 100 books, does all the pasting of pictures herself

LISTENING TO LEARN

... A Ceaseless Search, an Unquenched Thirst for Knowledge ...

On Dec. 1 Herman B Wells became youngest state university prexy

New Prexy for Indiana U., New Ally for Radio

When Indiana University inaugurated president No. 11 on December 1, the occasion had several significant angles. For the university, Herman B Wells was the first new president in nine college generations; for Wells it meant the distinctive recognition due the youngest president of any state university in the country*; for radio-education it meant the support of another ally.

One of Herman B Wells' first acts upon taking over the administration was to establish a radio workshop in the division of speech. This work has proved so popular that radio classes are swamped with applications. Three faculty members are now working part time in teaching broadcasting, script-writing, program-planning, directing, and radio-research.

Wells was dean of the College of Business Administration at Indiana University before the presidency came his way. He is an internationally famous authority on banking and banking laws, and it is this fame that brought him back to his alma mater six years ago.

*Wells is thirty-six years old.

Youthbuilders' Idea Worth Copying

To show how the press, radio and motion pictures may be used to advantage in giving the child a graphic appreciation of the world in which he must live and achieve success is the theme of "Your Child Series," presented over station WNEW, New York City. The programs are prepared as an adult-education feature for parents by Youthbuilders, Inc., which, to quote their own pamphlet, is "an organization founded to help parents, teachers and leaders in youth-work fulfill their responsibility for bringing up a generation of fair-minded and courageous citizens."

Judging from the outline of the programs in this series, the job they are doing is one that would fill a great need in any community. For further information regarding this organization and their radio work, write to Sabra Holbrook, executive director, Youthbuilders, Inc., 220 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

ANSWER TO ROUND-TABLE PROBLEM

WHAT has always been a serious threat to the effectiveness of round-table broadcasting arises from the fact that no suitable arrangements have ever been discovered for receiving and answering, during the broadcast, questions raised in the minds of listeners by the speakers' comments. Bring an audience into the studio; their questions should accurately represent those of the unseen audience. This first suggests itself as the answer to the problem. It is not, however, because every time you admit an audience to a round-table broadcast you alter one of the most vital factors of that type of program...

Dr. Morgan advises use another room

...the atmosphere of the studio. Round-table speakers invariably tend to direct their comments at the "seen" rather than at the "unseen" audience, in many cases don't feel free to say the same things they would if the audience were not within view reacting to every single statement that is made.

Dr. Clarence M. Morgan, director of radio activities for Indiana State Teachers' College, has a solution to this problem that is working admirably at station WBOW and therefore should help overcome this obstacle elsewhere. Instead of bringing an audience into the same studio with the round-tables, he assembles them in an adjacent audition-room, where the broadcast comes to them under much the same conditions that exist in the average home. When comments of the round-tables raise questions in the minds of this audience, they jot them down on a slip of paper and have an attendant deliver them to the round-tables. This is Dr. Morgan's solution to the confusing round-table problem, and it is working satisfactorily with I. S. T. C. round-table broadcasts without affecting the atmosphere of the studio.

WPA ON THE AIR

AN OUTSTANDING civic service project is that being supervised by the U. S. Works Progress Administration in New York City. Organized in 1937, the project started as an experiment to bring unemployed white-collar workers into direct contact with opportunity via radio. Today the unit occupies an entire floor of office space and prepares, directs and presents its own radio programs.* At the start the job was to organize writers, actors, directors and technical experts out of fifty thousand available workers, practically none of whom had any previous radio training. Today there is an acting company, continuity and directorial departments and a full-force office staff that is a self-contained producing unit for the service of New York's metropolitan stations.

In less than two years the project has produced the following results: (1) Many workers have found employment in private industry from their experience with this unit; (2) New York City homes have available more and a better brand of interesting educational programs than ever before. Individuals have profited by this project and the citizens of the city as well.

*"Men Behind the Stars," produced by this unit, goes Coast-to-Coast over CBS every Friday from 5:30-5:45 p.m. EST; 4:30-4:45 CST; 3:30-3:45 MST; 2:30-2:45 PST.

"Of Men and Books" listeners enjoyed a rare treat recently when Prof. Fredrick, left, interviewed Bertrand Russell about his latest book, "Power"

Mutual's Shayon brings to life Rip Van Winkle, Pinocchio, etc.

Young Writer-Director Gives New Life to Old Friends

Prolific best describes Shayon, writer-director of the Federal Theater Radio Division's new Mutual network series of famous fairy-tales from many lands. Robert Lewis Shayon is only twenty-five years old, but a list of his associations reads like a directory of the entertainment field. Song-writing and adapting, he's done that; stage show producing, he's done that; writing and directing for radio and the movies, he's done that. In fact, there is hardly any phase of writing, producing or directing in the entertainment field—be it radio, screen or stage—that he hasn't had experience with at some time or other.

This logically leads up to the reason why "Once Upon a Time," though only a few weeks old, has scored such a decided hit with adults as well as children. Further than this, the success of this series is another excellent example of what can be done with an idea that is basically educational when a talented man supervises the job.

Of itself, the series has many interesting angles. Here for the first time a class of writing that has maintained popularity generation after generation is given serious radio treatment. Of all types of writing, fairy-tales are unique in that they hold their charm year to year, while most other types of writing have either lagged in appeal or died altogether. Presented over the air with all the modern resources of radio, our old friends, the giants, fairies, gnomes, and witches take on new life, coming to us as more lively beings than ever before. The series is scheduled for a thirteen-week run, and in the list we find the favorite stories from many countries a really interesting panorama of the fantastic traditions of the world.

"Pinocchio" will be dramatized on Saturday, December 31. Following in order will be "The Blue Bird," "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Emeylan, the Fool," "The Pied Piper," "The Fisherman and His Soul," "The Devil's Mother-in-Law," "How the River God's Wedding Was Broken Off" and "Rip Van Winkle."

Broadcast Saturdays over Mutual from 2:30-3 p.m. EST; 1:30-2 CST; 12:30-1 MST; 11:30 a.m.-12 noon PST.

RECORDS OF THE WEEK

A department reviewing the recordings of your radio favorites

Air Raid:

TAKEN right off the air from the Columbia Workshop presentation of Archibald MacLeish's remarkable script, "Air Raid" is a great step forward in the world of commercial recordings. The quality of the cutting is not always excellent, the sales probably won't be big, but the artistic level of the album is without question.

The first thing one hastens to explain about the work is that it is NOT the Orson Welles jiggers-here-come-themen-from-Mars broadcast, which was a Sunday evening Mercury Theater job. This one was presented of a Thursday last month on the CBS Workshop series, a series which has championed and developed some of the most forward of techniques in radio. MacLeish's theory that in the announcer-narrator radio has a great implement is exemplified well, and Frank Gallop does magnificently as narrator in this poetic description of the impending arrival of the bombing planes. The dramatic build to the final air raid is accomplished with effective montage, stressing the simple lives of the women and children, and how the modern war brings blood and death to their kitchens and back yards. As drama as well as propaganda, "Air Raid" is priceless. The publication of this album brings to mind how impermanent and fleeting our radio programs can be. Granted that 95 percent of them are entertaining once and not twice (if that), there are still many moments on the air which are unfortunately gone forever and there's no retrieving them.

And radio producers seem to shy almost exclusively from a repeat performance of any nature, Lionel Barrymore's annual Christmas Carol excepted. Of course, home recording-machines capture those fleeting moments, but they cost dough.

So we hope more off-the-air records are issued, such as the "Air Raid" album. (Columbia 50382-5. $4.)

Other Christmas-aimed albums of note include the Gershwin Rhapsody in Blue, done in a special two-piano transcription, with verve and color by Jose Iturbi and his sister Amparo. (Victor album 517. $4.50) . . . a set of Mexican melodies.

A symphonic synthesis by Stokowski and the Philadelphia of Wagner's Tristan und Isolde—tremendous stuff by Wagner's greatest synthesizer, lengthier rapture in next week's column. (Victor 508. $9.)

Christmas Carols of Many Lands, sung in the ethereal manner of the world-famous Vienna Choir Boys—and the word ethereal is no overstatement. There are the obvious carols, Silent Night, Adeste Fidelis, and some lesser-known Tyrolean, American Indian, Silesian Christmas songs. Delightful. (Victor album C-3. $6.50.)

Many children's albums by Frank Luther on Decca, the Jerome Kern potpourri (Victor), a fine Debussy set of nocturnes on Columbia, a set of Hebraic church songs by five cantors (Victor S-100), the Swing Session with Benny Goodman (Victor) . . . and once again, "Air Raid."

—Joe Thompson.

the Kate Smith and Eddie Cantor shows and in private life is Mrs. Al Rinker, wife of the CBS Swing Club producer, straining her eyes reading a newspaper in the subway. At rehearsals she knits between numbers. I'm afraid you're going to need glasses pretty soon, Mrs. R.

"Your Hit Parade" has been having so many changes lately that I went up to CBS' Playhouse 3 last Saturday to see how the new program was shaping up. I arrived there about three in the afternoon and found the whole cast assembled, except for the Raymond Scott Quintet, who come in only for dress rehearsals. They start rehearsals about eleven in the morning each Saturday and go straight through the day. Most of the principals were lounging around in sports clothes when I arrived, while the orchestra under Al Goodman's direction was going through a number. It looked almost like a Hollywood rehearsal, for only in Hollywood do radio stars usually appear in such informal costumes. Andre Baruch, announcer of the program, wore a corduroy shirt and bright wool socks; director Al Goodman had on a dark sports shirt. Lanny Ross brought in the conservative touch, in a sober gray suit of the type he usually wears. As usual, the orchestra men were ribbing Andre about his outfit; and this time they had a new cause for gags. Andre has recently won a prize as a champion amateur male cook—and you can imagine the wisecracks that leaves him open to. Lanny Ross, tall and lean, seemed to be having a hard time fitting himself into one of the orchestra seats during rehearsal. His long legs were almost up to his nose. When it came time for dress rehearsal, Raymond Scott and his six-man quintet appeared and went through their numbers. The admiration for the quintet among the fifty-five musicians of the band was obvious.

You may have wondered why Rochester didn't appear on the first Jack Benny broadcast from New York. Well, the report is that he got "lost" up in Harlem and didn't show up for rehearsal, causing Mr. Benny to be quite peeved at his comical stooge and cutting the ducky's part out of the script. At the second Benny broadcast, the Jack of the jokes apparently again became peeved when he noticed eight empty seats in the third row a few minutes before the program was to go on the air and yelled at the page-boys from the stage, "What are you holding these seats for?" With tickets practically impossible to get, the pages had to go in the hall to recruit people to fill the seats. At the first week's broadcast, there were about fifty empty seats in the studio, which didn't please the comic. When Don Wilson announced before the broadcast that Kenny Baker would not be on the program, as he had to return to California, there were a lot of "ohs!" and "darnits" from the gals in the studio. During the broadcast Jack reprimanded Phil for using Peter Van Steeden's orchestra while he was in New York because they were loyal Allen listeners and wouldn't laugh at any of his gags. However, Jack didn't tell the listeners that he was using two of Fred's "Mighty Allen Art Players" for his sketch.

Having arranged for such programs (considered on the corny side by most musicians) as "Hammerstein Music Hall," "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round," "Lazy Dan," and many others, I find the public to favor this type of orchestrating far above the so-called ultra-modern.

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

Would it not be a wonderful idea for some high-grade station to get away from "commercializing" for just one day and broadcast nothing but Christmas programs from, say 4 or 5 o'clock Christmas Eve until 10 o'clock, or later, Christmas night? So many fine programs are aired before Christmas, which the worker does not hear, that it would certainly be refreshing to get away from the advertising of nostrums and cures, as well as jazz and swing bands, for 24 hours on at least one day during the year.

Perhaps RADIO GUIDE could help out the above suggestion. Or am I alone?

Herbert C. Labahn,
Port Washington, Wis.

Editor, RADIO GUIDE:

In RADIO GUIDE for November 26, page 5, the following statement appears: "The story is tied to the present by the announcement a few weeks ago that nicotine is another cure for pellagra."

This statement is most unfortunate. Nicotine, the alkaloid of tobacco, is a deadly poison. When nicotine is subjected to certain chemical treatment it breaks up, one part of the molecule being named nicotinic acid. It is nicotinic acid, a relatively harmless substance, and not nicotine, that has been used in the treatment of pellagra.

RADIO GUIDE erred in stating that nicotine is another cure for pellagra. Let all who so understood it know that nicotinic acid was meant.—Ed.

some of those early events that it covered to see how that real journalistic, real American spirit was expressing itself in prophecy of a long career of praiseworthy service.

A cub reporter on his first big assignment crawls through the smoke with sabers still rattling and shells still exploding over the battlefield of Gettysburg. Through the human shamble he picks his way. He bumps into a still body in a gray—and red-splashed—cavalry uniform. A riderless horse is snorting near by. The young reporter springs into the saddle and rides for the town of Gettysburg, not to spread a warning, for the battle is almost over. He rides to spread the news of Pickett's ill-fated charge and a Union victory. It's the turning-point of the war! It's a headliner! It may be a scoop! The young reporter is concerned with the business at hand. He does not think that his act is a preview of other scenes fifty years later, when reporters like Floyd Gibbons on a scarred battlefield somewhere in France will brave the deadly machine-gun fire to bring back the news, the complete news—and bring it first!

Again: A man wearing hip-boots, water-soaked clothing and a harried expression stands at a drug-store telephone making what he fears may be his last call from Johnstown to Pittsburgh. The telephone lines cannot stand much longer, nor can he. The water swirling through the streets into the buildings is already creeping up to his knees. Soon he must desert his post to find other means of communication—a boat, perhaps. But, somehow, the news must go through, news that means life and death. This reporter of 1889 covering the Johnstown flood is thankful for the telephone, which is still young enough to be a marvel to his times. Perhaps he will live to see his deed re-enacted, when reporters and ham short-wave operators will fight with hunger, exposure and the raging waters of the Ohio to bring an anxious world word of disaster and need, in little Shawneetown, Illinois, or great Cincinnati, Ohio, not only for the sake of the news itself but also for the sake of property—and lives.

The pace of events quickens. An AP foreign correspondent is casually witnessing the visit of Archduke Ferdinand to Sarajevo. A shot rings out; the correspondent dashes for a cable office; the New York editor reads a cablegram and shouts, "Archduke Ferdinand shot! It means war!" It is not impossible that the same correspondent, or his son, twenty-five years later will frantically wire New York that a young Jewish refugee has killed a Nazi official; that it will mean inhuman race-persecution. Or maybe one of those correspondents will in the near future wire that new Radio City AP office that somebody else has been shot in Europe and that it means another war. Who knows?

So here let us pause, reflect a moment on the difference between 1815 and 1938, and then consider the second of the two big programs, this one to be presented by CBS on Saturday. It is called "Twelve Crowded Months"—and twelve crowded months they have, indeed, been.

We have never seen, and, perhaps, we shall never see again such a year crammed with action and import. We have seen an Austrian house-painter pick up a bigger brush with sharper bristles and paint new flags and new maps and paint himself black in the eyes of humanity. We have seen statesmen playing with dynamite and with lives and, whether by their own contrivance or simply by the grace of God, escaping the great explosion.

We have seen how barbarism and race-hatred still survive, at least in the narrow minds of egoistic imperialists. We have experienced or read about floods and hurricanes, elections and purges.

We have seen how a Howard Hughes can circle the world in the air, even if men can not yet encircle it with brotherhood. We have seen how an unassuming Douglas Corrigan can pull the biggest hoax of the time and win the overwhelming regard of the multitudes.

We have seen how radio itself, great reporting-agent that it is, sometimes makes news itself in a big way, for the Orson Welles "War of the Worlds" fiasco of last October 30 turned out to be America's biggest Hallowe'en scare, second only to the Czech crisis as a source of jitters.

Perhaps you have not seen all these events come to life in newspaper type or radio words. If you have, it will certainly be a thrill to hear them come to life again with lifelike vividness. If you have not, then there is certainly a treat in store for you to have these momentous events redone for your benefit. The programs await your dial-twirling pleasure.

Do you think, ever, that news is not important to you, Mrs. Smith? Do you think what it would mean if you had to get along without it? Remember 1815, Mrs. Smith, and your Jim dying with his boots on, even though peace had been signed, because the news was too slow. For the fourth year, CBS presents a dramatization of the twelve outstanding news stories of 1938 as a New Year's Eve feature. A poll of the country's editors for nominations to the group of favored stories is now being conducted. Although the complete list is to be held open until the last minute, it is almost certain to include the Czech crisis, the Hughes and Corrigan flights and the growth of anti-Semitism.

 End of Saturday Programs

Every Sat. Nite Tune in The Alka-Seltzer NATIONAL BARN DANCE

If YOU want to enjoy radio at its best—a program that is different, and with never a dull moment—tune in the Alka-Seltzer National Barn Dance and enjoy a full hour of old-time singing, dancing and wholesome fun every Saturday night. This is one of the oldest radio programs on the air. Uncle Ezra, Joe Kelly, Henry Burr, The Hoosier Hot Shots, Maple City Four, and 40 outstanding radio artists crowd this happy, carefree hour full of exciting fun and matchless entertainment. NBC Coast to Coast Network.

Short-wave programs of American stations are shown along with the regular listings beginning on page 20. These are indicated, for example, by (sw-11.87) in parentheses following a program listing. This means that on 11.87 megacycles the same program may also be heard over an American short-wave station. Please note that foreign stations do not always adhere precisely to their announced program schedules.

On Short Waves

Times given are EST. For CST subtract 1 hour; MST, 2 hours; PST, 3 hours

ON CHRISTMAS DAY, December 25, at 4:10 p.m. EST, listeners to Daventry, England stations GSB, GSC and GSD, will hear a radio version of the first full-length animated film, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," thus having the opportunity of enjoying this famous fairy-tale a whole day ahead of its airing over the Lux Radio Theater, Monday, December 26. On Friday, December 30, at 7:15 p.m. EST, Daventry stations GSC, GSD and GSI will broadcast an eye-witness account of the Chelsea Arts Ball, one of the gayest and most elaborate of London's holiday festive attractions. The theme of last year's decorative pageant was "Flaming Youth"; this year it will be "Physical Perfection." Short-wave listeners may hear the New Year in, not once but many times as they follow the advent of 1939 around the world by radio. Starting at 9 a.m. EST, on Saturday, December 31, listeners may hear the New Year welcomed in at Melbourne, Australia, over VLR (9.58) of Melbourne. Celebrations from numerous other countries follow throughout the day (refer to program listings), ending at 5:30 a.m. EST, on Sunday morning, January 1, 1939, when the New Year makes its last official debut in Honolulu, Hawaii.

John DeMyer of Lansing, Mich., writes that he is hearing the 62-meter-band India stations with great volume between 7 and 8 a.m. EST. Try your own luck at dialing for VUC2 (4.88), Calcutta; VUB2 (4.905), Bombay; VUM2 (4.95), Madras; VUD2 (4.995), Delhi.

Quoting from a letter from RADIO GUIDE reader Wallace Adams of Avilla, Ind., he states in part: "Let me say that the average listener with an all-wave receiver is missing some of the finest music on the air if he doesn't become familiar with the short-wave part of his radio. . . I have in mind particularly Station TGWA (9.685) of Guatemala, Guatemala, which broadcasts some really fine programs every evening from 9 to 11:30 p.m. EST. These broadcasts consist of band, orchestral and marimba music, and the best thing of all is that there are no long-winded commercials, the announcements in Spanish and English being short and to the point" . . . It seems fitting to remind our many readers who will be sporting new receivers at this time that the few minutes spent in becoming familiar with the operation of dialing the short-wave bands will repay vast dividends in making available for their enjoyment a variety of fine symphonic, operatic and light musical offerings, dramatic and variety shows, international sporting events, current accounts of on-the-spot happenings, and world-wide periods in English from practically any corner of the world that their fancy might dictate.

The new station on 11.85 megs, reported by Captain R. B. Oxrieder of Corozal, Canal Zone, has been identified as OAX2A, "Radio Rancho Grande," owned by Rafael Larco H. Hoyle, of Hacienda Chacim, Trujillo, Peru. The power of the station is announced as 250 watts.

SHORT-WAVE SHORTS: COCQ, Havana, Cuba, one of radio's worst jumping-beans, is now being reported on a frequency of 8.84 megs . . . FG8AA (7.05), Boite Postale 125, Pointe a Pitre, Guadeloupe, will soon receive a substantial boost in power, a new frequency and will assume the slogan "Radio Guadeloupe." At present the station is operating nightly from 6 to 7 p.m. EST . . . M. W. Soplop of Alleghany, N. Y., reports he is hearing RV15, Khabarovsk, U. S. S. R., until 7:30 a.m. EST, on its old frequency of 4.273 megs. Numerous listeners have been hearing RV15 on a new frequency of 6.045 megs. It now seems as though this may be an additional transmitter instead of the old one moved to the new frequency . . . Amateur ZA1CC (14.1), supposedly in Albania, is being heard near 12 mid. EST. Many listeners believe this is an unlicensed Italian station using the ZA call to escape detection, since no one has received a QSL card from him, or knows his location . . . According to A. Tuff of London, England, 2RO5 (15.3), Rome, Italy, is operating daily from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., and from 3 to 5:30 p.m. EST . . . An announcement heard over HVJ, "Radio Vaticano," Vatican City, Italy, on Sunday, December 11, at 1 p.m. EST, stated the station was operating on dual frequencies of 15.12 and 11.74 megs, and requested reports on the comparative signal strengths of the two channels. The announcer further stated that considerable interference was being reported on their transmissions. Almost immediately following this announcement, that familiar heterodyning - type of interference known in radio as "birdies" became evident on the 15.12 megs frequency. Apparently this was a malicious attempt by an unknown power to blot out the Sunday broadcast from the Papal State.

The government short-wave station at Lahti, Finland, has been assigned the following additional frequencies and calls: OII (21.55), OIH (17.8) and OIE (15.19).

Roger Legge of Binghamton, N. Y., the first United States listener to report RR6 (11.98) of Vitoria, Spain, reports he received a prompt reply in the form of a small red-and-white QSL card, which stated that this 450-watt transmitter is on the air daily from 4 to 4:30, 8 to 10 a.m., 1 to 1:50 and 4 to 7 p.m. EST, and on Tuesdays and Fridays from 8:30 to 10 p.m. EST, with a special transmission in Spanish and English for America. Reports are cordially invited and should be sent to RR6, "Radio Requete," Postas 19, Vitoria, Spain.

DJG (17.815), another frequency for the new 50,000-watt transmitter at Vienna, Germany, is being heard between 11:15 a.m. and 1 p.m. EST.

HOA (2.34) of Panama City, in the new tropical short-wave band, is now on the air and relaying HP5G (11.78) nightly . . . Ray Shaffar of Waterloo, Iowa, reports a short-wave station, CFBT of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, heard testing on a frequency of 6.03 megs, at 2 a.m. EST. This may be a new call for old VE9CA . . . Gail Beyer of Chicago, Ill., writes that VUD2 (9.59) of Delhi, India, is being heard these days with loud signals at about 8 a.m. EST . . . All-India Radio notifies me that attractive QSL cards will soon be in readiness for confirming reception reports.

Warren Stark of Wauwatosa, Wis., reports that SUZ (13.82) of Egypt may often be heard working GBB2 (13.595) of Rugby, England, after 3 a.m. EST.

A new United States short-wave voice, owned by the General Electric Company, is being installed on Treasure Island, site of San Francisco's World's Fair, and will be in readiness for operation with the opening of the fair in the middle of February. This station, W6XBE, will operate on two frequencies, 9.53 and 15.33 megs, which it will share with W2XAF and W2XAD of Schenectady. Because of the difference in time it will be possible for this new Pacific Coast station to operate without interference nightly from midnight to 6 a.m. EST, which will be the ideal time to provide evening programs for the Orient. The power of the transmitter will be 20,000 watts.

No personal replies to questions unless accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Miss Catherine Weir, Long Beach, Calif.—Orchestra-leader Joe Sanders is about forty-one years old and is married. Famous as a composer and pianist, Sanders first won recognition at the Blackhawk in Chicago, when he was leader of the Coon-Sanders aggregation, which helped introduce modern dance music to radio. After several years of success over the air, Joe retired for a while to devote his time exclusively to writing music for the movies, but eventually he succumbed to the lure of the orchestra world and organized another dance band. At present Joe and his boys are not heard on the air, because they are "on tour."

Miss Merie Kelly, Alliance, Ohio.—The "Landt Trio" are still on the air. They may be heard Monday through Friday at 5:30 p.m. EST over NBC's Blue network.

Mrs. Evelyn F. Creamer, Forest Hills, N. Y.—The character Kay Crane, formerly heard on the "Today's Children" sketch, was portrayed by Irna Phillips. Irna also wrote the script for this program and she is now writing the script for "Woman in White," which replaced it.

Mr. Bernard Perrin, Washington, D. C.—Lauritz Melchior, great operatic tenor, was born in Copenhagen, Denmark. Almost obscured by the shadow of her husband is tiny Mme. Melchior, whose 106 pounds have loomed large in aiding her husband to reach his present eminence. She was formerly Maria Haacker, idol of German and Danish film fans, and it was while making a parachute jump for picture purposes that she landed in Melchior's back yard, and fell, quite literally, into his arms. Since then she has willingly given up her career, cut out flying, and settled down to a life devoted to her husband. Lauritz has two children, a boy and girl, by his first wife, who is now dead. Both of the children are living in Europe.

Miss Mildred McCoy, Jefferson City, Mo.—Poley McClintock—he's the frog-voiced drummer who's the funnyman of "Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians." In real life, his voice is really pleasant and he's quite serious about everything. Poley and Fred grew up together, being next-door neighbors in Tyrone, Pa. Once both were in love with the same girl and they became bitter rivals. Then they went away to college. Several years later she married another chap in the band. They shook hands and have been friends ever since. It is not generally known that Poley, noted for his rasping renditions of novelty choruses with Fred Waring's band, possesses a fine tenor voice and sings tenor in the serious glee-club numbers during the weekly Waring broadcasts on Saturday night.

Mr. J. O. Phillips, Omaha, Neb.—Patrick Barrett, better known to radio fans as "Uncle Ezra," was born in Holden, Mo., on September 27, 1887. His wife is the former Nora Cuneen and she also appears on his program. Pat Barrett's first stage characterization was the exact antithesis of the one he's famous for today. Instead of playing an old man, he played a little boy. This happened in 1907, when a building let-down forced him to forego architecture in favor of footlights. Several days after answering a dozen stock-company ads, Pat found himself in Wellington, Kan., wearing a thick wig of blond curls and playing Lord Fauntleroy in a lace-collared velvet suit. He's still wearing a wig, but it's a bald one with a white fringe instead of a blond one with curls. Since his Fauntleroy debut, Pat has continued to play character parts, and his old man make-up for his "Uncle Ezra" role is considered to be the best in the business.

Mrs. Elsie Traster, Fairmount, Ind.—The announcer on the "Avalon Time" program is Peter Grant, not Paul Sullivan as we so wrongly stated in a recent issue of RADIO GUIDE.

Mr. Richard Dobyns, Mexico, Mo.—One of radio's newest stars is a little girl who is heard but not seen. She has traveled extensively but never needed a ticket. She is beloved by all radio fans but never had a picture taken or signed an autograph. She came into being six years ago, doesn't really exist at all, yet her guardian was once threatened with arrest for violation of the child-labor laws. Her name is "Betty Lou" and she is the imaginary character who exists only in one of the voices of Tommy Riggs, her creator. Tommy Riggs, who was born at Pittsburgh, Pa., on October 21, 1908, first went on the radio when he was attending Ohio State University in 1929. The voice of "Betty Lou" is one he has been able to produce since childhood, but until six years ago he used it only in playing pranks on his friends. Quite accidentally an executive in a midwestern radio station heard the voice, recognized its appeal and persuaded Tommy that "Betty Lou" should be added to his act. Up to that time Tommy's act was a "single," in which he sang, played the piano and did light comedy, a sort of one-man show. It was in Pittsburgh that Tommy got in trouble with the child-labor authorities by presenting "Betty Lou" at eleven o'clock in the evening. One official finally paid a visit to the studio and saw for himself that "Betty" was only a voice. Tommy is married, five feet ten inches tall, weighs 165 pounds and has brown hair and eyes.

Mr. Pat Ferreri, Brooklyn, N. Y.—Arlene Francis, who is heard on the "What's My Name" program, also takes the part of Lola Mitchell in the radio serial, "Big Sisters." Arlene's real name is Kazanjian. She is 28 year old, weighs 119 pounds, is five feet five and one-half inches tall and has brown hair and eyes.

Mr. Roy Kent, Pittsburgh, Pa.—The actors taking part in the "Her Honor, Nancy James" sketch are: Barbara Weeks as Nancy James; Joseph Curtin as Mayor Wharton; Ned Wever as Tony Hale; Kay Strozzi as Mrs. Evelyn Wharton; Alice Reinheart as Carrie Dean; Janice Gilbert as Madge Keller; Chester Stratton as Stan Adamic; Maurice Franklin as George Novak and Joan Banks as Ellen Clark. Frank Gallup does the announcing for this show. Vera Van, lovely singing star, was born in Marion, Ohio, on February 20, 1915. She is five feet four inches tall, weighs 118 pounds and has blond hair and blue eyes. Her real name is Vera Webster.

belief that television will become an actuality. One man's solution to the problem is as good as the next, but particularly interesting is the prediction of Commander McDonald, president of Zenith.

"Television must have a box-office," he said. "Someone must be found to pay the terrifically high expenses of operation. Since practically all of the alternatives presented by the current set-up seem to offer no box-office, I shall not be surprised if something like the following happens. Television service may come to the ordinary listener exactly as he now subscribes for telephone service. It will come to him possibly over telephone wires and not through the air at all.

"I see the motion-picture companies of the future as the creators of television entertainment, producing films which will be especially designed for showing in the home; newsreels, travelogs, shorts, special features, super-colossals. I see the telephone companies as distributors of this form of entertainment. I see radio-set manufacturers of the future as the manufacturers of television receiving-sets.

"Under such a set-up, the listener would telephone his television central and ask for a showing of 'Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs,' shall we say. It would be sent to his receiver through the telephone wire at an agreed-upon time."

Interesting, but you recall that no wire except a coaxial cable has been invented which can carry television impulses and it is prohibitively expensive. Therein lies the weakness in Commander McDonald's prophecy. Perhaps the reason no cheap, usable wire has been perfected is because most experiments have been directed toward wireless or broadcast transmission. Let all the laboratories now engaged in this work turn to experiments which seek to find a practical wire. Well, it is possible that within a year or two something might be found which would serve, and which would enable the television industry to untie its knottiest problem; namely, how to find the money with which to pay its way.

A Money-Making Opportunity for Men of Character

EXCLUSIVE FRANCHISE FOR AN INVENTION EXPECTED TO REPLACE
A MULTI-MILLION-DOLLAR INDUSTRY

Costly Work Formerly
"Sent Out" by Business Men
Now Done by Themselves at a Fraction of the Expense

This is a call for men everywhere to handle exclusive agency for one of the most unique business inventions of the day.

Forty years ago the horse and buggy business was supreme—today almost extinct. Twenty years ago the phonograph industry ran into many millions—today practically a relic. Only a comparatively few foresighted men saw the fortunes ahead in the automobile and the radio. Yet irresistible waves of public buying swept these men to fortune, and sent the buggy and the phonograph into the discard. So are great successes made by men able to detect the shift in public favor from one industry to another.

Now another change is taking place. An old established industry—an integral and important part of the nation's structure—in which millions of dollars change hands every year—is in thousands of cases being replaced by a truly astonishing, simple invention which does the work better—more reliably—AND AT A COST OFTEN AS LOW AS 2% OF WHAT IS ORDINARILY PAID! It has not required very long for men who have taken over the rights to this valuable invention to do a remarkable business, and show earnings which in these times are almost unheard of for the average man.

Not a "Gadget"—

but a valuable, proved device which has been sold successfully by business novices as well as seasoned veterans.

Make no mistake—this is no novelty—no flimsy creation which the inventor hopes to put on the market. You probably have seen nothing like it yet—perhaps never dreamed of the existence of such a device—yet it has already been used by corporations of outstanding prominence—by dealers of great corporations—by their branches—by doctors, newspapers, publishers—schools—hospitals, etc., etc., and by thousands of small business men. You don't have to convince a man that he should use an electric bulb to light his office instead of a gas lamp. Nor do you have to sell the same business man the idea that some day he may need something like this invention. The need is already there—the money is usually being spent right at that very moment—and the desirability of saving the greatest part of this expense is obvious immediately.

Some of the Savings
You Can Show

You walk into an office and put down before your prospect a letter from a sales organization showing that they did work in their own office for $11 which formerly could have cost them over $200. A building supply corporation pays our man $70, whereas the bill could have been for $1,600! An automobile dealer pays our representative $15, whereas the expense could have been over $1,000. A department store has expense of $88.60, possible cost if done outside the business being well over $2,000. And so on. We could not possibly list all cases here. These are just a few of the many actual cases which we place in your hands to work with. Practically every line of business and every section of the country is represented by these field reports which hammer across dazzling, convincing money-saving opportunities which hardly any business man can fail to understand.

Profits Typical of the Young, Growing Industry

Going into this business is not like selling something offered in every grocery, drug or department store. For instance, when you take a $7.50 order, $5.83 can be your share. On $1,500 worth of business, your share can be $1,167.00. The very least you get as your part of every dollar's worth of business you do is 67 cents—on ten dollars' worth $6.70, on a hundred dollars worth $67.00—in other words two thirds of every order you get is yours. Not only on the first order—but on repeat orders—and you have the opportunity of earning an even larger percentage.

This Business Has Nothing to Do With
House to House Canvassing

Nor do you have to know anything about high-pressure selling. "Selling" is unnecessary in the ordinary sense of the word. Instead of hammering away at the customer and trying to "force" a sale, you make a dignified, business-like call, leave the installation—whatever size the customer says he will accept—at our risk, let the customer sell himself after the device is in and working. This does away with the need for pressure on the customer—it eliminates the handicap of trying to get the money before the customer has really convinced himself 100%. You simply tell what you offer, showing proof of success in that customer's particular line of business. Then leave the invention without a dollar down. It starts working at once. In a few short days, the installation should actually produce enough cash money to pay for the deal, with profits above the investment coming in at the same time. You then call back, collect your money. Nothing is so convincing as our offer to let results speak for themselves without risk to the customer! While others fail to get even a hearing, our men are making sales running into the hundreds. They have received the attention of the largest firms in the country, and sold to the smallest businesses by the thousands.

EARNINGS

One man in California earned over $1,600 per month for three months—close to $5,000 in 90 days' time. Another writes from Delaware—"Since I have been operating (just a little less than a month of actual selling) and not the full day at that, because I have been getting organized and had to spend at least half the day in the office; counting what I have sold outright and on trial, I have made just a little in excess of one thousand dollars profit for one month." A man working small city in N. Y. State made $10,805 in 9 months. Texas man nets over $300 in less than a week's time. Space does not permit mentioning here more than these few random cases. However, they are sufficient to indicate that the worthwhile future in this business is coupled with immediate earnings for the right kind of man. One man with us has already made over a thousand sales on which his earnings ran from $5 to $60 per sale and more. A great deal of this business was repeat business. Yet he had never done anything like this before coming with us. That is the kind of opportunity this business offers. The fact that this business has attracted to it such business men as former bankers, executives of businesses—men who demand only the highest type of opportunity and income—gives a fairly good picture of the kind of business this is. Our door is open, however, to the young man looking for the right field in which to make his start and develop his future.

No Money Need Be Risked

in trying this business out. You can measure the possibilities and not be out a dollar. If you are looking for a business that is not overcrowded—a business that is just coming into its own—on the upgrade, instead of the downgrade—a business that offers the buyer relief from a burdensome, but unavoidable expense—a business that has a prospect practically in every office, store, or factory into which you can set foot—regardless of size—that is a necessity but does not have any price cutting to contend with as other necessities do—that because you control the sales in exclusive territory is your own business—that pays more on some individual sales than many men make in a week and sometimes in a month's time—if such a business looks as if it is worth investigating, get in touch with us at once for the rights in your territory—don't delay—because the chances are that if you do wait, someone else will have written to us in the meantime—and if it turns out that you were the better man—we'd both be sorry. So for convenience, use the coupon below—but send it right away—or wire if you wish. But do it now. Address
