HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

This month marks the 6th anniversary of the Radio Historical Association of Colorado. All of the members who have helped so much in the past are to be commended for getting us to where we are now. We have more to offer to members now than we have ever had before. We are extremely fortunate that some of our new members seem eager to help, which makes the future look very bright.

WANTED

John Adams is looking for a Gunsmoke show called "White Buffalo" He says it does not appear in any Gunsmoke list but he remembers hearing it. I am looking for any shows broadcast on 9/3/42 or 9/17/41

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

MISSING TAPES

Recently Mr. John G. Warden of PO Box 3521, Spokane, Washington, 99220 joined the RHAC as a result of the KOA Radio broadcast featuring some of our members. We welcome new members and hope they enjoy the use of our tape lending library. One of our rules is that the library tapes be kept out for only 1 week so that they can be circulated to all members. Mr. Warden ordered 10 tapes from the library and the librarian filled the request. When John Migrala did not receive the tapes back, he wrote to Mr. Warden and asked that the tapes be returned. After a month passed without response, he asked me to write, which I did. Still no response. I have since redubbed the missing tapes, so they are back in circulation. I asked John Lloyd to put this in Return With Us Now and highlight it in the copies he sends to other radio clubs with a request that if they are in contact with Mr. Warden to let us know if he intends to return the tapes. We also want to alert the other clubs to the fact that Mr. Warden has not responded to our inquiries or returned our tapes.

I hope Mr. Warden returns the tapes eventually; it's a shame to keep tapes instead of returning them because the word will get out and traders and clubs will not be willing to trade with any individuals who act in this manner.

DONATED DISCS

For those of you not in attendance at the June meeting, we were given eleven 16 inch discs and fifty 12 inch discs of local radio shows. Some of the shows will be dubbed onto tapes and if the interest is there, then the members can decide whether to dub all the shows. We also received 20 discs of classical music which will be kept, but probably not dubbed. Several discs are broken and others have no labels. Among the shows are: "Dr. Tim, Detective"; "A Dream of Freedom"; "Science Reporter"; "Death Calling" and "Paul Bunyon". Thanks to Reid Hansen for arranging to pick up the discs.

LIBRARY REQUESTS

I haven't had many requests for new shows in the past several months, and therefore haven't been seeking new shows. I have had some difficult requests to fill and have succeeded in finding only one or two shows. I intend to dub a miscellaneous reel or two to get these shows into circulation.

LIBRARY CATALOG

With this issue of Return With Us Now, we will enclose the library selections on the last page. This page will be numbered sequentially each month and will start with page 45. You can place this page in your catalog to keep it updated.

Barrett Benson
President

ESCAPE

A TIME TO DIE

Voice #1: We offer you ESCAPE! (Music up)

Voice #2: ESCAPE!---Designed to free you from the four walls of today for a half-hour of high adventure (Music swell)

Voice #1: You are flying at 30,000 feet deep within enemy territory. Your flight is one of the most highly guarded state secrets. You are a reluctant volunteer on a mission from which there can be no escape!

Voice #2: So listen now as ESCAPE brings you an original story by Jack Richards, "A Time To Die". (Music)

(Pause, sounds up- plane buzzing and wind rushing past)

Riding Hood: (Loud voice on radio) Wake up! Wake up!

Bo Peep: What- what was that?

Riding Hood: Wake up! Wake up!

Bo Peep: Yes, yes, I'm awake. I'm--I'm--Who am I and what am I doing?

Riding Hood: Riding Hood to Bo Peep. Report in please. Come in Bo Peep.

Bo Peep: Bo Peep to Riding Hood. All systems normal. Bearing 273 degrees. Altitude 30,000 feet. ETOA is 1735 hours. Over.

Riding Hood: Roger, out.

Bo Peep: Well, guess that answers some questions. My name is Bo Peep. What a ridiculous name. Must be military...Of course, it's military. Now we're getting somewhere. OK then, where am I? Listen! (Air rushing past). That noise! I...I must be flying somewhere. Think man, think! (Pause- continues in monotone). "Lift off will be at 1500 hours from Ames Airbase. You will proceed at 600 knots at 30,000 feet to your target" (Exited now). Hot dog! I'm really getting somewhere. (Ping..ping.. ping) What's that? Yes, yes, it's the signal from Riding Hood. Talk to me good buddy.

Riding Hood: Say again. Say again.

Bo Peep: Come on. Speak to me.

Riding Hood: Say again. Say again.

Bo Peep: OK. You win. (Very formally) Bo Peep to Riding Hood. Bo Peep to Riding Hood. Come in Riding Hood.

Riding Hood: Report position, Bo Peep.

Bo Peep: Latitude 37 degrees, 43 minutes north. Longitude 93 degrees, 22 minutes east. Bearing 275 degrees. Speed 620 knots.

Riding Hood: Correct course 3 degrees west.

Bo Peep: Affirmative. Over and out. Boy! What stuffy people the military are. Should have known you can't get friendly with people like that. Oh, well. Back to my thinking....It's all coming back slowly. I'm due on target at 1735 hours. That gives me just 3 hours and 16 minutes to figure it all out. Maybe I can see something outside. (Noise of window sliding open).

What a beautiful night! Let's see now. There's Polaris. Then Sirius should be over there. Wait, something is wrong! Sirius isn't there! Got to check in. Bo Peep to Riding Hood. Come in.

Riding Hood: Come in, Bo Peep.

Bo Peep: I have found a defective circuit in navigational guidance. Am 300 miles off course. Am correcting.

Riding Hood: Roger. We copy. Continue with the mission.

Bo Peep: Ha. He said mission. Another fact! I must be on a military Mission. Relax now, don't push. It will come. Just look at the stars for awhile. (Hums to himself). Ah, so peaceful. (Pause) Oops, air's getting a little choppy. Too cloudy to see the stars now. Bo Peep to Riding Hood.

Riding Hood: Riding Hood to Bo Peep. Come in.

Bo Peep: Extreme weather conditions. Visibility 50 feet. Can't retain bearing on stars.

Riding Hood: Switch to infra red telescope. You must reach the enemy at all costs tonight.

Bo Peep: Infra red telescope deployed. Visibility poor but sufficient to maintain course.

Riding Hood: Roger and out.

Bo Peep: He said I must reach the enemy. Yes. Yes. Now I remember! I'm carrying a 200 ton proton bomb. My God! That will destroy every living thing within 150 miles of ground zero. I'm death. God help me. Must turn back...No, I can't. Can't turn. I'm doomed. Help me! Help me! I don't want to die. I don't want to die. (Fade out)

Commander: (Fades in) How goes it tonight, Sergeant?

Sergeant: Fine, Commander, just fine. We did have some problems for awhile though. Had to deploy the infra red telescope to cut through the weather.

Commander: Anything else?

Sergeant: Just that same, strange transmission we always get when we get close to the target.

Commander: Have the research boys been able to make any sense from those signals yet?

Sergeant: No sir. My opinion is that they never will.

Commander: Why, Sergeant?

Sergeant: Well, sir, that on board computer is just too complicated for anyone to fully understand. They seem to be able to think for themselves after they've been activated.

Commander: Don't put those computers down. This war would be impossible without them. Can you just imagine a manned flight over enemy territory today?

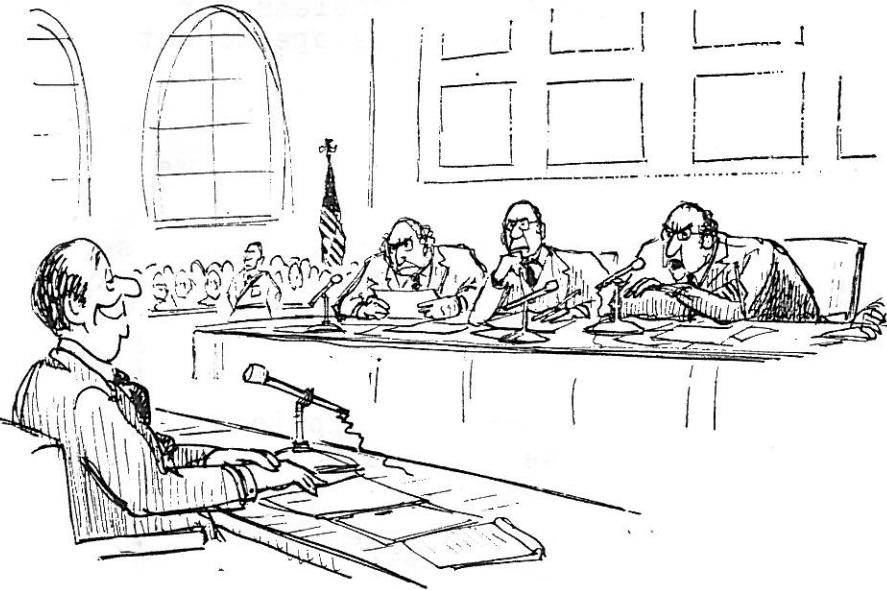

Sergeant: No sir, don't think I can. (Pause) But, still, I wonder about those signals we get just before the bomb explodes. I wonder.
(Fade out)

Voice #1: At 1735 hours, Bo Peep and 100,000 cubic yards of earth ceased to exist. Urgent signals were received up to the moment of impact. (Music up)

THE END

We warned you that we wanted the RHAC to start a cassette library so we could listen to them on our 'cycles!

Mr. Wearybottom, we understand that you have some rare Sgt. Preston discs that you won't release to other collectors.

No, we do not have any discs of the Doctor Kildare show!

TRIVIA BOWL

The final round of the Trivia Bowl was not held at the June meeting as originally planned. Prior commitments came up for more than half of the participants so it has been rescheduled for the July meeting. Personally, I think they wanted another month to study.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY!

Larry McDermott has been hard at work trying to organize the Christmas dinner. Larry presented several attractive options at the June meeting and it was decided that we would be having the dinner at the Heritage Square Opera House. The date is Saturday, December 5th, 1981. The time will be announced later. The price for dinner and show is $16.50 per person. Please circle the date on your calendar and try to support this RHAC function. Contact Larry McDermott to reserve a place with us.

NON PROFIT ORGANIZATION

A motion was made and passed at the June meeting that the RHAC file as a non-profit organization. In the long run this will be very beneficial for the club. We will be able to save on tax charges, we will be able to accept donations which will be tax deductible to the donor, we will be able to save on postage and several other benefits. President Barrett Benson will initiate the required forms immediately.

TAPES FOR A FRIEND

I will be sending about 30 reels of tape to RHAC member Jim Vaughan in a short time. On behalf of Jim, I would like to thank those who contributed some reels. Speaking for myself, I want to thank all those who participated. Several members gave as many as 5 reels and I want to especially mention Dave Tysoer, a new member, who never met Jim Vaughan, but who donated 5 reels. Some of you long time members might do well to follow this kind of example instead of doing nothing at all. I hope none of you ever experience a burglary of this magnitude.
