COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM

CAMEL PROGRAM NO. 61

(REVISED)

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1935

10:00-10:30 P.M.

OFF: (COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM)

MUSIC: SMOKE RINGS

VON ZELL: (OVER MUSIC) Gangway neighbor, here comes the Camel Caravan again brought to you by the makers of Camel Cigarettes and Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco...This is Harry Von Zell substituting for Walter O'Keefe and greeting you on behalf of Annette Hanshaw, Glen Gray and the Casa Loma Orchestra and Ted Husing. The reason I'm doing all the talking here is that we can't find Walter O'Keefe...seems if they just had a baby at his house and the proud father is probably running up and down the street stopping people to tell them the glad news. I will go out and look for him again and meanwhile the show will begin with Glen Gray and the boys playing "Ballin' the Jack."

MUSIC: BALLIN' THE JACK (ORCHESTRA)

VON ZELL:

Hey, Pee Wee...where's Walter...any word?...

HARRY:

No, Harry...I can't understand...He's never done this to me before...and I'm hurt...so terribly hurt...

AL:

DOOR OPENS AND SLAMS

O'KEEFE:

Harry...Hey Harry...Did you hear the news?...I'm a moth--
...I mean I'm a father...D'ye hear me?...I'm a father...
a father!...

VON ZELL:

Well, who isn't?...I am...I've had a couple of children...
two...or...three...Why get so excited?...

O'KEEFE:

Who's excited?...Me?...Why, I'm not excited...not a bit...

VON ZELL:

Listen Walter...cool off...Why I read today that there were twenty-five hundred children born in New York this morning...

O'KEEFE:

I know...but my case is different...Oh well...Hey Pee Wee... did you hear the news?...I'm a father!...A father!...

HARRY:

So what?...

O'KEEFE:

But look...Pee Wee..you don't seem to understand...

HARRY:

Listen Walter...I've got three children...

HUSING:

Hello Walter...

O'KEEFE:

Ted...my friend...did you hear the news?...

HUSING:

What do you mean...did I hear the news?...I was there!...

O'KEEFE:

You were where?...

HUSING:

At the Polo Grounds...what a ball game...what a ball game...
When Terry hit that first ball pitched...

O'KEEFE:

Wait a minute, Husing...I've got some news...Personal news...
It's the biggest thrill I've ever had..Ted...I am a father
...I am a father...

HUSING: Yeah?...Well look...when the Giants had two on base in the third...Terry was at the plate...

OWEN: Ted...he weighed eight pounds when he was born...and is HE cute?...Husky too...

HUSING: You bet he's husky...you should see him run the bases...

OWEN: Do you mean to say my baby's playing first base for the Giants?...

HUSING: Boy you should see him sliding into third on the old squeeze play...

OWEN: Say, one of us is nuts...Let's start all over again...Who are you talking about?...

HUSING: Bill Terry, of course...Who are you talking about?...

OWEN: Listen, Ted...I'm a father...just this morning...A new baby...

HUSING: Oh...you've got a baby...why didn't you tell me...What's his name?...

OWEN: Bill Terry...I mean we haven't named him yet...

HUSING: Where is he?...

OWEN: He's playing first base for the Gia...I mean he's in the hospital...

HUSING: Oh..he's sick, eh?...

OWEN: No...no...no...he was just born this morning...Aren't you going to congratulate me?...

HUSING: Why?...That's nothing remarkable...Why Walter, just today I read in the papers that there are twenty-five thousand babies born in the United States every single morning...

MIKE: (CONT'D) EVERY morning, mind you...So what have you got to shout about?...

MIKE: I'm sorry Ted...Let's drop it...Forget it...

BIZ: KNOCK ON THE DOOR

O'KEEFE: Come in...

BIZ: DOOR OPENS AND SHUTS

MIKE: Hallo, hullo, hullo...Mr. O'Kiffy...what's new to you?...

O'KEEFE: What's new to me?...Why haven't you heard McGillicuddy?...

MIKE: I'm a father...the stork brought a baby to our house today...

MIKE: What?...Just one?...I'm laughing...

O'KEEFE: But wait a minute, Mac...it's something to crow about...

MIKE: Listen...that guy up in Canada...he had quintuplets...he should cackle...Why Mr. O'Kiffy...I was reading in the paper this morning...among various statistics...there are two hundred and fifty thousand kiddies born every day...Of course that's counting the whole world...

O'KEEFE: Oh, but McGillicuddy...you ought to see this youngster... He's going to have the best education in the world...

MIKE: I would like to contributing to his education...I would like to take the little rascal in hand and teaching him how to speak the English language...

O'KEEFE: Oh no, you don't McGillicuddy...

MIKE: (OFF MIKE) Oh Mr. O'Keefe...Mr. O'Keefe...

O'KEEFE: Yes..oh hello, Mrs. Von Zell...

MIKE: I just heard about the baby...Congratulations...

Oh, it's nothing ...why in New York this morning twenty five hundred children were born .. as a matter of fact, in the whole world the total of children born is something like two hundred and fifty thousand ...that guy Dionne up in Canada...the lights look good and you should see Terry slide into there base...Pardon me...I think I'll go outside...
I don't feel very good...

Announcer:

Terry...will you announce the next number..I don't think Walter feels so good...

Announcer:

Ladies and gentlemen, we're happy to present Annette Hanshaw singing "If I Never Loved Before"

Announcer:

IF I NEVER LOVED BEFORE (ANNETTE HANSHAW)

Announcer:

When you light a Camel, you're smoking a better cigarette. It's milder -- more pleasing and fragrant.
The flavor is rich and smooth, and never tires your taste. And if you feel worn out, smoking a Camel is a fine way to cheer up and turn on more energy. Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos .. both Turkish and Domestic...than you find in any other popular brand. That statement is authorized and signed by the makers of Camels, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. These manufacturers spend millions of dollars more for the superior tobaccos that go into Camel cigarettes. They invite you to make Camels your cigarette, to smoke them and enjoy

Several times recently, ladies and gentlemen, I have regretted the fact that there was no such thing as radio in the days when history was being made. So far we have broadcast Paul Revere's Ride, the Burning of Rope and other events as they might have been brought to you by the facilities of radio ...Tonight, therefore, we bring you that famous incident in American History...
the story of George Washington and the Cherry Tree.
If you are wondering where Washington was at the time...
you've guessed it...Washington was in fourth place in American League. Take it away boys.

TRUMPET DANCE

Ye Olde Colonial Hardware Shoppe is on the air.

CHORD IN G

TONE CRIER BELL

Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye. Tonight, ladies and gentlemen we take you direct to George Washington's back yard for the chopping down of the cherry tree.
While little George is sharpening up his hatchet the orchestra will play "Trees."

ORCHESTRA PLAYS "TREES" DIM DOWN

Trees...Ladies and gentlemen..Trees. Let me ask you a question. Have you ever felt that surge of power.. have you ever felt ye muscles ripple and dance..have ye ever felt ye overwhelming urge to pick up an ax and start some thing. You too can feel that thrill with an Olde Colonial Hatchet; may I introduce a satisfied customer...Major J. Stonewall Cornwallis. All right, Major.

SOUND:

(COOPER UNION) Thank you! Fellow countrymen .. pipple keep asking me this question. Quotes "How come my good chopple you make with this best chicken chopped liver in town" unquote. The answer is as easy as the question. I chop my chicken chopped liver with a Hax from Ye Olde Colonial Choppy Shoppe. I will now recite for you. "Under the spreading chestnut tree..the village smithy stands...Chopping to pieces the chestnut tree....aid a Colonial Hax in his hands.

MUSIC:

GONG RINGS

ANNOUNCER:

Thank you, Major. Remember folks that Ye Olde Colonial Hardware Shoppe, at any hour of the day or night will be glad to deliver nails, saws, drills, rakes, rivets, bolts and nuts to you. The next sound will be that of little George Washington at the age of six chopping down the cherry tree.

MUSIC:

TREE FALLS

Here, here, here, George ...who chopped down this cherry tree...

Father I cannot tell a lie. I did it with my little hatchet which I bought at Ye Olde Colonial Hardware
Shoppe for a dollar ninety eight...open day and night!

TROMPET BLAST

Ladies and gentlemen...you have just heard George Washington chopping down the cherry tree through the courtesy of Ye Olde Colonial Hardware Shoppe and now we return
you to our main studios where Kenny Sargent will sing
"Midnight Rendezvous"

The Camel Caravan is presented for you by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, makers of Camel Cigarettes and Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco.
Prince Albert, the National Joy Smoke, is properly packed -- in tin. This grand, mellow pipe tobacco has given more pleasure to more men than any other brand.
