<sup>FRED</sup>
Say, ~~Bill~~, do you know t hat next Friday's Halloween?

~~MONROE:~~

FRED

It isure is, Porter, and I sure did have a time when I was a kid. Square dancin' in the old hayloft...duckin for apples in a tub of water...playin' ghost an' scarin' folks and all. But times have changed. Things are a lot different now-a-days .

PORTER:

All except Prince Albert Smokin' Tobacco, <sup>FRED</sup>~~Bill~~. It hasn't changed a bit. Prince Albert is still America's largest sellin' smokin' tobacco.

FRED

~~MONROE:~~

That's a fact, Porter. And a tin of Prince Albert is always fresh...an' mild and mellow...just like it always has been.

PORTER:

P.A.'s crimp cut, <sup>FRED</sup>~~Bill~~, and it tastes just like a good smoke ought to. That special Prince Albert process locks IN all the flavor of the fine natural tobacco. Makin' men like P.A. , too. It rolls easy...smokes good ! Never dribbles out the ends. So all you smokers ....if you want a tasty...cool....satisfyin'.... COMFORTABLE smoke....light up with Prince Albert.... America's Joy Smoke.....!!

PORTER: Which tune was that, Grant?

GRANT: You remember the one....we were sittin' in the big studio...talkin'.

PORTER: Ohhhhsure. I think I know the one you mean....and thanks for remindin' me.

MUSIC CUE SNEAK IN UNDERSCORE....SOFTLY....AS PORTER SAYS:

PORTER: When I sing it, I always think of an elderly old lady who lived up home. She always used to say that folks should live their lives so that if Jesus happened to walk into the house any time....you wouldn't be ashamed. So here's the song, "If Jesus Came To Your House."
