DOYLE: Faron...we couldn't bring much back with us...we flew...and you know how tough the airlines are about extra baggage.

FARON: Shucks...I was hopin' you'd bring me a kangaroo. But I'm glad you're back in town anyway. Which gives me an idea.

DOYLE: What kind of an idea?

FARON: You boys got a great new Decca record out that is real great. How about singin' it for us? Here they are, Neighbors... Teddy and Doyle with... "Somebody's Back In Town".

GRANT: Say Faron...when you're not out on the road or making records or working the Grand Ole Opry...what do you do with your time?

FARON: Well, in Grant...I prefer like to stick around the house quite a bit. even on take in a ballgame once in a while...fish a little and just generally do nothin'.

(GRANT OVER)

GRANT: ^{and} You sound like a man who likes his comfort.

FARON: You can say that again.. ^{ya know} That's why you always find me with my pipe loaded up with that good Prince Albert Smokin' Tobacco. ^{ya knows} Prince Albert gibes a man the most COMFORTABLE smoke he can get.

GRANT: And why not, Faron? P.A. is always fresh. It's crimp cut, it's mighty tasty because that special Prince Albert process locks IN all the rich flavor of the fine tobacco.

FARON: ^{yes} ⁱⁿ ^{see} Makin' men like P.A. In an OCB paper, it rolls easy...smokes cool...mild...an' ^{steady} tasty.

GRANT: ^{well you can} You bet your boots, Faron.. So all you pipe smokers or makin' men who haven't been gettin' the satisfyin', COMFORTABLE smoke you deserve, take a tip from us. Switch to Prince Albert. It's America's LARGEST selling smoking tobacco.
